

WEDNESDAY, JULY 24, 1920.

A. & H. TIME TABLE.
	Pass.	Freight.
Leaves Columbus	8:45 a. m.	2:30 p. m.
Leaves Lincoln	9:00 a. m.	2:45 p. m.
Leaves Omaha	9:15 a. m.	3:00 p. m.
Leaves St. Paul	9:30 a. m.	3:15 p. m.
Leaves Chicago	9:45 a. m.	3:30 p. m.
Leaves New York	10:00 a. m.	3:45 p. m.
Arrives at Lincoln	11:30 p. m.	11:30 p. m.

The passenger leaves Lincoln at 4:30 p. m., and arrives at Columbus 7:30 p. m., and arrives at Columbus at 7:30 p. m.

Freight trains carry passengers, going east at 2:30 p. m., and 9:15 p. m.

UNION PACIFIC TIME TABLE.

GOING EAST.
Atlantic City	8:45 a. m.	11:25 a. m.
St. Louis	9:00 a. m.	11:40 a. m.
Chicago	9:15 a. m.	11:55 a. m.
St. Paul	9:30 a. m.	12:10 p. m.
Leaves at Lincoln	11:30 p. m.	11:30 p. m.

FOR ALBION AND CEDAR RAPIDS.

Passenger leaves	2:30 p. m.
Mixed leaves	11:30 p. m.
Mixed arrives	6:30 p. m.

Society Notices.

All notices under this heading will be charged at the rate of $2 a year.

LEBANON LODGE No. 54, A. O. U. M. W. M. will meet on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. J. H. Smith.

M. H. White, Secy.

ORGANIZED CHURCH OF LATTER-DAY SAINTS hold regular services every Sunday at 2 p. m., prayer meeting on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, corner of North and Pacific avenues. All are cordially invited.

Elmer E. J. Henson, President.

Circus day.

Celery always on hand at Rasmussen's.

Every Saturday fresh celery at Pohl's.

Hay for sale. Inquire of M. K. Turner.

A full line of boots and shoes at Borowiak Bros.

Ten peddlers in town at once. Columbus has a boom.

Fine navy beans and peas can be found at Borowiak Bros.

Speak quick if you want any cabinet; 99 cents per dozen.

Call and see the silk umbrellas at the Rackert, at half price.

Rickly Bros. had cattle at the South Omaha market Thursday.

Cabinet photos almost given away at the Railroad Photo Car.

Old newspapers by the hundred, 25 cents at the Journal office.

The Sheldon & McMill blocks are completed to the first floor.

Wm. Becker keeps anything in the line of groceries you can ask for.

When you can't find what you want anywhere else, call at Rasmussen's.

Ninety-nine cents per dozen for cabinet photos at the Railroad Photo Car.

Wanted, to invest $300 in city warrants. Inquire at THE JOURNAL office.

Rain Monday night and it looks this (Tuesday) morning like a cold, wet harvest.

James Pearsall has completed a very neat addition to Carl Schubert's residence.

A carload of seals passed through the city Monday morning, eastward bound.

Charles Schroeder is engaged putting in the plumbing at the Fleming House.

Subscription can begin at any time for the JOURNAL and Nebraska Family Journal.

One hundred fine young pigs for sale. Call early and secure choice. C. C. Miller.

Remember that Schaffroth & Plath make specialties of well boring and tubular wells.

F. H. Lamb has packed up his stock of boots, etc., and will take a few weeks rest at Cedar Rapids.

Circulars for the county institute August 12, were sent out to the teachers and others last week.

Baby carriages at cost at Fitzpatrick's to make room for fall stock. Call early and save money.

The celebrated Quick-Meat and Monarch gasoline stoves, the best in the market. For sale by A. Boettcher. 417

The reason for tornadoes is now at hand and property owners should secure a policy at once, with G. G. Becker & Co.

THE JOURNAL is on sale, each week, at the book and news stores of E. D. Fitzpatrick and J. Heitkemper, at 5 cents a copy.

Teachers should all remember the time of the county institute and arrange to be present. It promises to be very interesting.

A base ball game was played in Humphrey Stadium, republicans against democracy, resulting in 47 to 14 in favor of the republicans.

Twenty-two by ninety feet, and a two-story brick is to be the new Abta hotel on Thirteenth street. Work began on the same last week.

Wanted, two Columbus city lots as a site for a residence. Address, next ten days, A. B. care of JOURNAL office, and state lowest cash price.

COLUMBUS JOURNAL, Nebraska Family Journal and Nebraska Farmer, all for $2.75 a year, when paid in advance. Send for specimen copies.

A letter from G. W. Turner, Paris, tells of a call on the Wild West by J. W. Love of Fremont. The Wild West is doing an immense business.

In one of the offices of this city is a notice hung in a conspicuous place, "This is my busy day," it is needless to say it was not a lawyer's office.

Mr. Frank Rorer, one of Columbus's recent acquisitions to the list of old business men, has rented Mr. Joseph Critch's house on Nebraska Avenue.

Whether it rains or not, we have to eat, and the next thing is, how can we eat the cheapest? Wm. Becker will supply you with anything you want.

THE JOURNAL was indebted yesterday to a very pleasant call from the talented and wide-awake correspondent of the Omaha Bee, Chas. Brindley, Esq.

All kinds of groceries at Borowiak Bros.

Ninety-nine cents for a whole dozen at the Railroad Photo Car.

Remember when the Car leaves you will pay $4.00 per dozen for photos.

When in need of job work give us a call. All kinds of commercial work done.

The best and cheapest cultivators made—the Golden Eagle, for sale at A. Boettcher's.

Schaffroth & Plath have the best of harvesting machinery and can furnish any kind of farm implements, at reasonable rates.

We learn that Charles Pearsall has purchased a half interest in the Macfarlane forty-acre tract of land adjoining the city on the north.

John Hempleman has been around over the state a considerable in the last few weeks and he says he sees no town that shows up for business equal to Columbus.

We understand that the Messrs. Dean have disposed of their interest in the Gilg Edge Windmill Co. to the other stockholders, who will carry on the business.

Range of prices at South Omaha Tuesday: Hogs, $4.15 @ 4.30; cattle, prime steers, $3.90 @ 4.00; good to choice, corn-fed, cows $2.40 @ 2.75; common to medium cows, $1.75 @ 2.25.

All varieties of job work, such as cards, envelopes, circulars, printed notes, letters, letter heads, etc., printed at this office. No need to go to Fremont, Lincoln, Hastings or Omaha for this sort of work.

While a good many people were prostrated by the heat last Wednesday Will Ernst, assisted by two men, cut down and shocked twenty acres of oats, five changes of horses being used for the binder.

For Buford plows and cultivators, for harrows, seeders, wagons, Plano binders and anything else needed on the farm in the way of machinery, call on Joseph A. Gutzmer on Olive street opposite Henry's corner.

Notes found, one dated Feb. 28th, '85, payable to Otto Bolt, for $200; another dated April 14th, '81, payable to John H. Reeler, for $6.00. The owners can have the same by proving property and paying for this notice.

In the game of base ball last Thursday between Columbus and Arlington, the former were successful in a score of 9 to 0. Several innings ended the game, as the visiting nine were anxious to catch the early evening train. Come again.

The Newman Grove News is authoritative for saying that Meadow Grove, Madison county, was all torn up last week over a scandal; "tar and feathers and eggs of the vintage of '49" were deposited on the porch of one of the offenders as a gentle hint."

Barber & Daykin of Chicago will open out in the Sheldon block on Thirteenth street, Sept. 14th, and will occupy the entire building with one of the largest and finest stocks of dry goods in Nebraska, so we are informed in a business letter to this office.

We understand that the colored base ball team of Omaha have been engaged to play on the fair ground here Sunday afternoon next, to cross bats with the Columbus boys, and a good game may be expected as the "colored troops" have quite a reputation as ball tossers.

Under date of July 18th, Rev. H. L. Powers writes from Cumberland, Md., to a friend in the city: "Under the earth, above the clouds and beyond the mountains—such has been part of my experience." He expected to be in Johnston the next day; was well and enjoying himself well.

It wasn't Guyet but twenty-nine years that Guy C. Barnum has been located on his farm, and never failed of a crop but once and that during the grasshopper raid. Mr. Finney was over at his place the other day, and happening to be in the corn field, noted that it stood a little higher than he could reach up to with his umbrella. Guy has an excellent farm.

When Mr. J. H. Reed delivered his lecture on Ireland we requested a copy of it that we might take extracts for the benefit of our readers. We give this as the earnest part of it, and it is deemed a very valuable one, as it is so well published under the close. We know that hundreds of our readers will be greatly interested in the presentation of the subject by our talented fellow-citizen.

The attention of the city council is respectfully called to the fact that unless we have better drainage provided in certain portions of the city there is very apt to be still more sickness than there now is. A mud-hole on such a hot day as Wednesday last is no trifling eyecore and nose-ore. This suggestion comes from a citizen who was sick all last week, and just from the cause mentioned.

The contest Monday afternoon between the Kearney and Columbus nines resulted in favor of Kearney—6 to 1. Kearney is regarded as the best in the state, and the game was an interesting one. The pitcher for the Columbus boys was disabled in the beginning of the game by being struck on the arm by the ball. The Kearney team beat Grand Island Sunday 5 to 0. This is the first game the Columbus boys have lost this season.

Here now is a suggestion that might amount to a good deal if worked out—the editor of the Humphrey Democrat, in speaking of a brother editor who had berated him for something he seemingly had not done, says: "He must be a great man, for he is a great liar." We had not before thought of that measure of greatness, but when you come to both down wanted greatness in history, how much there is that is not scientific truth! Brother Dickinson, you have struck a good lead.

The newspaper that resorts to lying about its contemporaries to attract attention to itself is playing a sort of confidence game on the public. The best way to show that your contemporaries do not amount to anything, comparatively speaking, is to give them all they deserve in the way of praise, for surely they have done something, and then do very much better yourself than everybody must see that you are the great newspaper of whatever locality you may happen to be in for the time being.

The Nebraska Farmer is the only strictly agricultural paper published in Nebraska, and it is a good one. Our arrangements with the proprietors are such that we can furnish the two journals which we publish, the Farmer, all, one year, for $2.75, when paid in advance.

Sunday night or Monday morning some one entered Greiss & Co.'s establishment on Eleventh street, by prying open the back door. It is not known exactly what was taken, but it took an hour and a half to replace the goods shown out of order, and it is known that the thief carried away a crushed hat, a stylish coat-a-way coat, a pair of pants and a pair of shoes. There was no money in the drawer, which was broken to pieces. The thief was considerable enough to close the door after him. A blue flannel suit and a pretty good pair of shoes were left in the store by the thief.

A gentleman who has given the property of Columbus considerable thought suggests a method that is worthy consideration. His suggestion is based on the latest survey for a canal with two water powers, and it is that a stock company be formed at once, and it be ascertained what is needed in work and cash; that subscriptions be taken accordingly. He says there is not a workman in the place but would subscribe five to ten days labor, some would furnish man and team a number of days, and he thinks that it would be comparatively easy matter to raise the additional money needed.

J. C. Morrissey's elevator at Germantown was burned last Friday night about 10 o'clock. It contained about 2,800 bushels of corn which was also burned. The loss on the elevator was about $3,000 to $3,500. It is not known how the fire originated. The boarding car of a bridge gang was standing along side the elevator, and it is thought some one in the car might have accidentally started the fire by throwing a cigar stub into some trash that was lying by the building, as a carload of corn had been cleaned and shipped out during the day. We could not learn whether there was any insurance on the building.—[Seward Blade.]

About 500 people witnessed the game of ball at the fair ground Sunday afternoon, which was very interesting, and resulted in a defeat for the visitors by the score of 6 to 9. The Ulysses team played very good ball and are a clever lot of men, but the Columbus team is too much for them as the visitors were outplayed at every point. Quite a number from David City came up on the excursion train and, strange to say, most of them went home with more money than when they arrived. They seemed to know a good thing and backed the Columbus boys. Tommy Wake of Seward inspired the game and gave good satisfaction.

Thursday week, Belthaser Jonni, a young man living in Sherman township, this county, disappeared from home and no trace of him has since been found. Before leaving, he borrowed a shot gun from a neighbor and wrote a note telling that he intended to kill himself.

Nothing further has been heard from Belthaser Jonni, except that his bank deposits were not touched, thus leaving the theory of suicide still most probable.

Later: From one of the brothers who was in the city yesterday morning, we learn that the body of the unfortunate man was found Monday evening about a half-mile from home, in tall grass on Mr. Ache's farm; the body was reduced to skin and bone; a rifle was clutched in his right hand and with this he had committed suicide.

H. M. Winslow and R. P. Schofield are getting their cheese factory into shape and probably by the time this paragraph gets to the eye of the reader, will be running at full capacity. We judge that these gentlemen will make a thorough success of their business venture together, as Mr. Winslow understands the foundation part of it, the providing, feeding and care of good milk cows, and Mr. Schofield is a practical cheese and butter maker of the very first quality, with no nonsense in his make-up. They will make cheese and butter, as good as is made anywhere, milking a hundred cows of their own, for the market. This community may well congratulate itself on the opening of this establishment, an industry which would, with advantage to everybody concerned, be ten times repeated in a radius of five miles.

George Lehman and Charlie Miller have struck a deal that looks like a good thing all around. It goes without saying that the Grand V. life has been and is one of the very best in Nebraska, and under George's management, and the new arrangement, promises to continue and increase the well-earned reputation of the house, as both proprietors are good business men. Lehman acquires a half interest in Miller's valuable real estate near the city, and Miller acquires a half interest in Lehman's valuable real estate near the city. They can conduct the two to great advantage because they can raise their own meats, vegetables, fruits, etc., and the herd of Jerseys which they intend to put on the farm will supply their tables with the very best of pure, fresh milk, cream and butter. Mr. Lehman will pass his time here and at Des Moines, while his family goes on an extended visit. Success to the new firm.

A thief entered H. B. Fauble's residence Saturday afternoon between four and five o'clock, by prying the rear screen door open, ransacked the building completely for valuables and got about $150 worth. Among articles missing were a lady's gold watch and chain, a cameo ring with six diamond sets, a pair of bracelets, a gold pen, a pair of cuff buttons, a revolver and about ninety cents in money. The key for a little box containing valuables had been handed up by the villain, and been put back in its place again. He was evidently a professional. At the time of the robbery there were children playing in the yard and Mrs. Fauble was across the street at a neighbor's. The same afternoon a man was seen just as he got inside of a screen door at Mr. Taylor's. He pretended to be looking for a boarding house. From the description, he is supposed to be the same man seen near Fauble's. On the jewelry taken there was a diamond bracelet, a diamond ring, a gold watch, a gold pen, a pair of cuff buttons, a revolver and about ninety cents in money. The key for a little box containing valuables had been handed up by the villain, and been put back in its place again. He was evidently a professional. At the time of the robbery there were children playing in the yard and Mrs. Fauble was across the street at a neighbor's. The same afternoon a man was seen just as he got inside of a screen door at Mr. Taylor's. He pretended to be looking for a boarding house. From the description, he is supposed to be the same man seen near Fauble's. On the jewelry taken there was a diamond bracelet, a diamond ring, a gold watch, a gold pen, a pair of cuff buttons, a revolver and about ninety cents in money. The key for a little box containing valuables had been handed up by the villain, and been put back in its place again. He was evidently a professional. At the time of the robbery there were children playing in the yard and Mrs. Fauble was across the street at a neighbor's. The same afternoon a man was seen just as he got inside of a screen door at Mr. Taylor's. He pretended to be looking for a boarding house. From the description, he is supposed to be the same man seen near Fauble's. On the jewelry taken there was a diamond bracelet, a diamond ring, a gold watch, a gold pen, a pair of cuff buttons, a revolver and about ninety cents in money. The key for a little box containing valuables had been handed up by the villain, and been put back in its place again. He was evidently a professional. At the time of the robbery there were children playing in the yard and Mrs. Fauble was across the street at a neighbor's. The same afternoon a man was seen just as he got inside of a screen door at Mr. Taylor's. He pretended to be looking for a boarding house. From the description, he is supposed to be the same man seen near Fauble's. On the jewelry taken there was a diamond bracelet, a diamond ring, a gold watch, a gold pen, a pair of cuff buttons, a revolver and about ninety cents in money. The key for a little box containing valuables had been handed up by the villain, and been put back in its place again. He was evidently a professional. At the time of the robbery there were children playing in the yard and Mrs. Fauble was across the street at a neighbor's. The same afternoon a man was seen just as he got inside of a screen door at Mr. Taylor's. He pretended to be looking for a boarding house. From the description, he is supposed to be the same man seen near Fauble's. On the jewelry taken there was a diamond bracelet, a diamond ring, a gold watch, a gold pen, a pair of cuff buttons, a revolver and about ninety cents in money. The key for a little box containing valuables had been handed up by the villain, and been put back in its place again. He was evidently a professional. At the time of the robbery there were children playing in the yard and Mrs. Fauble was across the street at a neighbor's. The same afternoon a man was seen just as he got inside of a screen door at Mr. Taylor's. He pretended to be looking for a boarding house. From the description, he is supposed to be the same man seen near Fauble's. On the jewelry taken there was a diamond bracelet, a diamond ring, a gold watch, a gold pen, a pair of cuff buttons, a revolver and about ninety cents in money. The key for a little box containing valuables had been handed up by the villain, and been put back in its place again. He was evidently a professional. At the time of the robbery there were children playing in the yard and Mrs. Fauble was across the street at a neighbor's. The same afternoon a man was seen just as he got inside of a screen door at Mr. Taylor's. He pretended to be looking for a boarding house. From the description, he is supposed to be the same man seen near Fauble's. On the jewelry taken there was a diamond bracelet, a diamond ring, a gold watch, a gold pen, a pair of cuff buttons, a revolver and about ninety cents in money. The key for a little box containing valuables had been handed up by the villain, and been put back in its place again. He was evidently a professional. At the time of the robbery there were children playing in the yard and Mrs. Fauble was across the street at a neighbor's. The same afternoon a man was seen just as he got inside of a screen door at Mr. Taylor's. He pretended to be looking for a boarding house. From the description, he is supposed to be the same man seen near Fauble's. On the jewelry taken there was a diamond bracelet, a diamond ring, a gold watch, a gold pen, a pair of cuff buttons, a revolver and about ninety cents in money. The key for a little box containing valuables had been handed up by the villain, and been put back in its place again. He was evidently a professional. At the time of the robbery there were children playing in the yard and Mrs. Fauble was across the street at a neighbor's. The same afternoon a man was seen just as he got inside of a screen door at Mr. Taylor's. He pretended to be looking for a boarding house. From the description, he is supposed to be the same man seen near Fauble's. On the jewelry taken there was a diamond bracelet, a diamond ring, a gold watch, a gold pen, a pair of cuff buttons, a revolver and about ninety cents in money. The key for a little box containing valuables had been handed up by the villain, and been put back in its place again. He was evidently a professional. At the time of the robbery there were children playing in the yard and Mrs. Fauble was across the street at a neighbor's. The same afternoon a man was seen just as he got inside of a screen door at Mr. Taylor's. He pretended to be looking for a boarding house. From the description, he is supposed to be the same man seen near Fauble's. On the jewelry taken there was a diamond bracelet, a diamond ring, a gold watch, a gold pen, a pair of cuff buttons, a revolver and about ninety cents in money. The key for a little box containing valuables had been handed up by the villain, and been put back in its place again. He was evidently a professional. At the time of the robbery there were children playing in the yard and Mrs. Fauble was across the street at a neighbor's. The same afternoon a man was seen just as he got inside of a screen door at Mr. Taylor's. He pretended to be looking for a boarding house. From the description, he is supposed to be the same man seen near Fauble's. On the jewelry taken there was a diamond bracelet, a diamond ring, a gold watch, a gold pen, a pair of cuff buttons, a revolver and about ninety cents in money. The key for a little box containing valuables had been handed up by the villain, and been put back in its place again. He was evidently a professional. At the time of the robbery there were children playing in the yard and Mrs. Fauble was across the street at a neighbor's. The same afternoon a man was seen just as he got inside of a screen door at Mr. Taylor's. He pretended to be looking for a boarding house. From the description, he is supposed to be the same man seen near Fauble's. On the jewelry taken there was a diamond bracelet, a diamond ring, a gold watch, a gold pen, a pair of cuff buttons, a revolver and about ninety cents in money. The key for a little box containing valuables had been handed up by the villain, and been put back in its place again. He was evidently a professional. At the time of the robbery there were children playing in the yard and Mrs. Fauble was across the street at a neighbor's. The same afternoon a man was seen just as he got inside of a screen door at Mr. Taylor's. He pretended to be looking for a boarding house. From the description, he is supposed to be the same man seen near Fauble's. On the jewelry taken there was a diamond bracelet, a diamond ring, a gold watch, a gold pen, a pair of cuff buttons, a revolver and about ninety cents in money. The key for a little box containing valuables had been handed up by the villain, and been put back in its place again. He was evidently a professional. At the time of the robbery there were children playing in the yard and Mrs. Fauble was across the street at a neighbor's. The same afternoon a man was seen just as he got inside of a screen door at Mr. Taylor's. He pretended to be looking for a boarding house. From the description, he is supposed to be the same man seen near Fauble's. On the jewelry taken there was a diamond bracelet, a diamond ring, a gold watch, a gold pen, a pair of cuff buttons, a revolver and about ninety cents in money. The key for a little box containing valuables had been handed up by the villain, and been put back in its place again. He was evidently a professional. At the time of the robbery there were children playing in the yard and Mrs. Fauble was across the street at a neighbor's. The same afternoon a man was seen just as he got inside of a screen door at Mr. Taylor's. He pretended to be looking for a boarding house. From the description, he is supposed to be the same man seen near Fauble's. On the jewelry taken there was a diamond bracelet, a diamond ring, a gold watch, a gold pen, a pair of cuff buttons, a revolver and about ninety cents in money. The key for a little box containing valuables had been handed up by the villain, and been put back in its place again. He was evidently a professional. At the time of the robbery there were children playing in the yard and Mrs. Fauble was across the street at a neighbor's. The same afternoon a man was seen just as he got inside of a screen door at Mr. Taylor's. He pretended to be looking for a boarding house. From the description, he is supposed to be the same man seen near Fauble's. On the jewelry taken there was a diamond bracelet, a diamond ring, a gold watch, a gold pen, a pair of cuff buttons, a revolver and about ninety cents in money. The key for a little box containing valuables had been handed up by the villain, and been put back in its place again. He was evidently a professional. At the time of the robbery there were children playing in the yard and Mrs. Fauble was across the street at a neighbor's. The same afternoon a man was seen just as he got inside of a screen door at Mr. Taylor's. He pretended to be looking for a boarding house. From the description, he is supposed to be the same man seen near Fauble's. On the jewelry taken there was a diamond bracelet, a diamond ring, a gold watch, a gold pen, a pair of cuff buttons, a revolver and about ninety cents in money. The key for a little box containing valuables had been handed up by the villain, and been put back in its place again. He was evidently a professional. At the time of the robbery there were children playing in the yard and Mrs. Fauble was across the street at a neighbor's. The same afternoon a man was seen just as he got inside of a screen door at Mr. Taylor's. He pretended to be looking for a boarding house. From the description, he is supposed to be the same man seen near Fauble's. On the jewelry taken there was a diamond bracelet, a diamond ring, a gold watch, a gold pen, a pair of cuff buttons, a revolver and about ninety cents in money. The key for a little box containing valuables had been handed up by the villain, and been put back in its place again. He was evidently a professional. At the time of the robbery there were children playing in the yard and Mrs. Fauble was across the street at a neighbor's. The same afternoon a man was seen just as he got inside of a screen door at Mr. Taylor's. He pretended to be looking for a boarding house. From the description, he is supposed to be the same man seen near Fauble's. On the jewelry taken there was a diamond bracelet, a diamond ring, a gold watch, a gold pen, a pair of cuff buttons, a revolver and about ninety cents in money. The key for a little box containing valuables had been handed up by the villain, and been put back in its place again. He was evidently a professional. At the time of the robbery there were children playing in the yard and Mrs. Fauble was across the street at a neighbor's. The same afternoon a man was seen just as he got inside of a screen door at Mr. Taylor's. He pretended to be looking for a boarding house. From the description, he is supposed to be the same man seen near Fauble's. On the jewelry taken there was a diamond bracelet, a diamond ring, a gold watch, a gold pen, a pair of cuff buttons, a revolver and about ninety cents in money. The key for a little box containing valuables had been handed up by the villain, and been put back in its place again. He was evidently a professional. At the time of the robbery there were children playing in the yard and Mrs. Fauble was across the street at a neighbor's. The same afternoon a man was seen just as he got inside of a screen door at Mr. Taylor's. He pretended to be looking for a boarding house. From the description, he is supposed to be the same man seen near Fauble's. On the jewelry taken there was a diamond bracelet, a diamond ring, a gold watch, a gold pen, a pair of cuff buttons, a revolver and about ninety cents in money. The key for a little box containing valuables had been handed up by the villain, and been put back in its place again. He was evidently a professional. At the time of the robbery there were children playing in the yard and Mrs. Fauble was across the street at a neighbor's. The same afternoon a man was seen just as he got inside of a screen door at Mr. Taylor's. He pretended to be looking for a boarding house. From the description, he is supposed to be the same man seen near Fauble's. On the jewelry taken there was a diamond bracelet, a diamond ring, a gold watch, a gold pen, a pair of cuff buttons, a revolver and about ninety cents in money. The key for a little box containing valuables had been handed up by the villain, and been put back in its place again. He was evidently a professional. At the time of the robbery there were children playing in the yard and Mrs. Fauble was across the street at a neighbor's. The same afternoon a man was seen just as he got inside of a screen door at Mr. Taylor's. He pretended to be looking for a boarding house. From the description, he is supposed to be the same man seen near Fauble's. On the jewelry taken there was a diamond bracelet, a diamond ring, a gold watch, a gold pen, a pair of cuff buttons, a revolver and about ninety cents in money. The key for a little box containing valuables had been handed up by the villain, and been put back in its place again. He was evidently a professional. At the time of the robbery there were children playing in the yard and Mrs. Fauble was across the street at a neighbor's. The same afternoon a man was seen just as he got inside of a screen door at Mr. Taylor's. He pretended to be looking for a boarding house. From the description, he is supposed to be the same man seen near Fauble's. On the jewelry taken there was a diamond bracelet, a diamond ring, a gold watch, a gold pen, a pair of cuff buttons, a revolver and about ninety cents in money. The key for a little box containing valuables had been handed up by the villain, and been put back in its place again. He was evidently a professional. At the time of the robbery there were children playing in the yard and Mrs. Fauble was across the street at a neighbor's. The same afternoon a man was seen just as he got inside of a screen door at Mr. Taylor's. He pretended to be looking for a boarding house. From the description, he is supposed to be the same man seen near Fauble's. On the jewelry taken there was a diamond bracelet, a diamond ring, a gold watch, a gold pen, a pair of cuff buttons, a revolver and about ninety cents in money. The key for a little box containing valuables had been handed up by the villain, and been put back in its place again. He was evidently a professional. At the time of the robbery there were children playing in the yard and Mrs. Fauble was across the street at a neighbor's. The same afternoon a man was seen just as he got inside of a screen door at Mr. Taylor's. He pretended to be looking for a boarding house. From the description, he is supposed to be the same man seen near Fauble's. On the jewelry taken there was a diamond bracelet, a diamond ring, a gold watch, a gold pen, a pair of cuff buttons, a revolver and about ninety cents in money. The key for a little box containing valuables had been handed up by the villain, and been put back in its place again. He was evidently a professional. At the time of the robbery there were children playing in the yard and Mrs. Fauble was across the street at a neighbor's. The same afternoon a man was seen just as he got inside of a screen door at Mr. Taylor's. He pretended to be looking for a boarding house. From the description, he is supposed to be the same man seen near Fauble's. On the jewelry taken there was a diamond bracelet, a diamond ring, a gold watch, a gold pen, a pair of cuff buttons, a revolver and about ninety cents in money. The key for a little box containing valuables had been handed up by the villain, and been put back in its place again. He was evidently a professional. At the time of the robbery there were children playing in the yard and Mrs. Fauble was across the street at a neighbor's. The same afternoon a man was seen just as he got inside of a screen door at Mr. Taylor's. He pretended to be looking for a boarding house. From the description, he is supposed to be the same man seen near Fauble's. On the jewelry taken there was a diamond bracelet, a diamond ring, a gold watch, a gold pen, a pair of cuff buttons, a revolver and about ninety cents in money. The key for a little box containing valuables had been handed up by the villain, and been put back in its place again. He was evidently a professional. At the time of the robbery there were children playing in the yard and Mrs. Fauble was across the street at a neighbor's. The same afternoon a man was seen just as he got inside of a screen door at Mr. Taylor's. He pretended to be looking for a boarding house. From the description, he is supposed to be the same man seen near Fauble's. On the jewelry taken there was a diamond bracelet, a diamond ring, a gold watch, a gold pen, a pair of cuff buttons, a revolver and about ninety cents in money. The key for a little box containing valuables had been handed up by the villain, and been put back in its place again. He was evidently a professional. At the time of the robbery there were children playing in the yard and Mrs. Fauble was across the street at a neighbor's. The same afternoon a man was seen just as he got inside of a screen door at Mr. Taylor's. He pretended to be looking for a boarding house. From the description, he is supposed to be the same man seen near Fauble's. On the jewelry taken there was a diamond bracelet, a diamond ring, a gold watch, a gold pen, a pair of cuff buttons, a revolver and about ninety cents in money. The key for a little box containing valuables had been handed up by the villain, and been put back in its place again. He was evidently a professional. At the time of the robbery there were children playing in the yard and Mrs. Fauble was across the street at a neighbor's. The same afternoon a man was seen just as he got inside of a screen door at Mr. Taylor's. He pretended to be looking for a boarding house. From the description, he is supposed to be the same man seen near Fauble's. On the jewelry taken there was a diamond bracelet, a diamond ring, a gold watch, a gold pen, a pair of cuff buttons, a revolver and about ninety cents in money. The key for a little box containing valuables had been handed up by the villain, and been put back in its place again. He was evidently a professional. At the time of the robbery there were children playing in the yard and Mrs. Fauble was across the street at a neighbor's. The same afternoon a man was seen just as he got inside of a screen door at Mr. Taylor's. He pretended to be looking for a boarding house. From the description, he is supposed to be the same man seen near Fauble's. On the jewelry taken there was a diamond bracelet, a diamond ring, a gold watch, a gold pen, a pair of cuff buttons, a revolver and about ninety cents in money. The key for a little box containing valuables had been handed up by the villain, and been put back in its place again. He was evidently a professional. At the time of the robbery there were children playing in the yard and Mrs. Fauble was across the street at a neighbor's. The same afternoon a man was seen just as he got inside of a screen door at Mr. Taylor's. He pretended to be looking for a boarding house. From the description, he is supposed to be the same man seen near Fauble's. On the jewelry taken there was a diamond bracelet, a diamond ring, a gold watch, a gold pen, a pair of cuff buttons, a revolver and about ninety cents in money. The key for a little box containing valuables had been handed up by the villain, and been put back in its place again. He was evidently a professional. At the time of the robbery there were children playing in the yard and Mrs. Fauble was across the street at a neighbor's. The same afternoon a man was seen just as he got inside of a screen door at Mr. Taylor's. He pretended to be looking for a boarding house. From the description, he is supposed to be the same man seen near Fauble's. On the jewelry taken there was a diamond bracelet, a diamond ring, a gold watch, a gold pen, a pair of cuff buttons, a revolver and about ninety cents in money. The key for a little box containing valuables had been handed up by the villain, and been put back in its place again. He was evidently a professional. At the time of the robbery there were children playing in the yard and Mrs. Fauble was across the street at a neighbor's. The same afternoon a man was seen just as he got inside of a screen door at Mr. Taylor's. He pretended to be looking for a boarding house. From the description, he is supposed to be the same man seen near Fauble's. On the jewelry taken there was a diamond bracelet, a diamond ring, a gold watch, a gold pen, a pair of cuff buttons, a revolver and about ninety cents in money. The key for a little box containing valuables had been handed up by the villain, and been put back in its place again. He was evidently a professional. At the time of the robbery there were children playing in the yard and Mrs. Fauble was across the street at a neighbor's. The same afternoon a man was seen just as he got inside of a screen door at Mr. Taylor's. He pretended to be looking for a boarding house. From the description, he is supposed to be the same man seen near Fauble's. On the jewelry taken there was a diamond bracelet, a diamond ring, a gold watch, a gold pen, a pair of cuff buttons, a revolver and about ninety cents in money. The key for a little box containing valuables had been handed up by the villain, and been put back in its place again. He was evidently a professional. At the time of the robbery there were children playing in the yard and Mrs. Fauble was across the street at a neighbor's. The same afternoon a man was seen just as he got inside of a screen door at Mr. Taylor's. He pretended to be looking for a boarding house. From the description, he is supposed to be the same man seen near Fauble's. On the jewelry taken there was a diamond bracelet, a diamond ring, a gold watch, a gold pen, a