ALMOST ROAST COWBOY.

A Wyoming Branding Camp Deprived of a Roast Cowboy came very near being on the bill of fare at a round-up camp a few days ago on the Powder river. A party who came from there August 20 gave an account of the affair as follows: "A cow outfit were branding calves and one of the boys of the C Y (Cary) company put his iron on five or six animals belonging to Jack Flagg, a Powder river ranch man. As luck would have it, Flagg rode up just as the set was being performed, and that it was his calf and probably considering that the six shooter route was too easy for the fellow, fell upon the interloper and after giving him a terrible thumping, deliberately carried him to the branding fire where the branding irons were heating and would have cut him into it had not the bystanders directed his purpose and rescued the offending cowboy in the nick of time. Flagg, who is himself now under indictment charged with a too frequent exercise of the branding iron, is a determined character, and the opinion is that his intended victim would have been seriously burned but for the timely interference."

AN IMPORTANT ORDER.

The Rate Regulating Proof of Origin of Disability. August 20th Pension Commissioner Tanner today issued the following important order. To Chiefs of Divisions—The rule which has hitherto maintained in this office regarding proof of the origin of disability, under which the evidence of one commissioned officer or one ordinary sergeant was accepted, while in the absence of that evidence the testimony of two private soldiers has been required, is hereby so far modified that in the evidence of a commissioned officer or ordinary sergeant, the origin shall be held to be proved on the evidence of the claimant and one private soldier, provided always that said claimant and said private be men of character.

FLOOD SUFFERERS.

Many People Left Homeless and Homeless in West Virginia. The victims of the recent disastrous flood in Tucker, Tygart, State, Little Sandy and other creek valleys are, many of them, in need of help. They are homeless and homeless, and but for the charity of the neighbors—hill farmers—the suffering would be terrible. There are miles of desolate territory, with scarcely a house left standing and not a vestige of crops. Homeless women and children are scattered among the hill farmers, while the men are searching for work over the desolate country.

Germany's Arctic Explorers.

Another German Arctic expedition has gone out, this time from Bremen, in charge of Dr. Walter and Kubethenthal. The explorers were last heard of from the southwest coasts of Spitzbergen, where they had encountered many gales. On the west coast, in Magdalen bay, latitude 79.35 north, they met an English sportsman, Mr. Pike, who had wintered in Spitzbergen. He reported that the winter had been mild, but sport was not very good. Encouraged by Dr. Nansen's expedition, the Danes will send an expedition next year to the east coast of Greenland. Seven picked men, under an officer of the Danish navy, equipped for two and a half years if needed, will go out in a whaler and explore the coast between latitude 66 and 73 north.—[London Graphic.]

As a Residence Town.

Naturally attractive to home seekers Omaha from now on must become doubly so, not only on account of fine public schools, churches and places of amusement, but on account of parks and boulevards. In selecting a home the seeker is very much influenced by attractive parks and boulevards and all cities which have adopted extensive park systems have at once sprung into popularity among the thousands of families looking for a city to settle in. As a general thing these families possess considerable money. One or two of the younger members probably seek active business, but the place is selected in part because it is attractive and pleasant in the eyes of other members of the family. Omaha is now becoming attractive.—[World-Herald.]

A Lead Steel.

The agents looking up the fraudulent land and water right entries are making important discoveries. The upper Blackfoot river has fine natural meadows covered by desert entries. On this tract 11,000 acres are claimed by prominent Utah Mormons, who have been mowing the meadows for some time. The meadows are dry as the season is. Notwithstanding the land is river irrigated the locality is so far away from travel and settlement that it makes a good midway place for stock to be run out to evade the vigilant church receiver. Large herds of such stock are reported in that vicinity. The prosecutions promised to place these lands back in the public domain, while examples will be made of some of the offenders charged with perjury.

A ROBBERY CRIME WAS PERPETRATED AT ARLAND, WIS., TUESDAY NIGHT.

An unknown man laid the body of a companion who was incognito across the tracks of the Omaha railroad. The night express from St. Paul came along at the rate of forty miles an hour. Before the engineer, who saw the whole proceedings, could stop the train, it ran over the body, cutting it in three pieces and mangled it so that it had to be put in a barrel to be removed. As soon as the train passed over the body the murderer took to his heels and disappeared in the woods. The body is so badly mangled that it cannot be identified. A posse was organized to hunt the murderer.

MONDAY MORNING THE VESTIBULE TRAIN OF THE SANTA FE ROLLS BETWEEN KANSAS CITY AND CHICAGO MET WITH A SERIOUS ACCIDENT AT KINSMAN, ILL.

Three coaches, two Pullman sleepers and the dining car were thrown from the track and down a steep embankment a distance of forty feet. In all there were fifty persons hurt, and though none were killed outright, many were in a dangerous condition and the majority, it is feared, will die. The accident was caused by a chair car jumping the track. The train was running very fast.

The police have discovered some important evidence in the Cronin case. It is said to be the effect that on the night of the murder of Dr. Cronin a pair of horses belonging to O'Sullivan, the ice man, now in jail as one of Cronin's murderers, were attached to one of his ice wagons, and were driven rapidly to the vicinity in which the murder was committed by the excited men; that the horses were driven up in front of a saloon in Lakewood at about 9 o'clock; that they were covered with foam, and that the men in the wagon went in and had drink. It has been supposed ever since the murder that these horses remained in the barn all that night. The police admit the substantial correctness of these statements, but decline to speak further about the matter, except to say that neither of the men in the wagon is in jail.

Col. Corr of Washington has bought the number of the scaffold on which John Brown was hanged at Charlestown, W. Va., December 2, 1859, and intends to exhibit the scaffold for the purpose of raising money to erect a monument to John Brown, on the Shenandoah river between Charlestown and Harper's Ferry. How the world changes! The old Virginia would have gone wild at the mere mention of such a project, although Virginians of the old school had great admiration for the pluck, courage and grit of old John Brown, and never failed to express it. We remember one, living near the cave where Brown and his men used to come together, and who said that he had seen Brown often and witnessed the hanging, declared: "he was the gamest man I ever saw."

It is a fact worth thinking about in all its bearings that $2,000,000 worth of the soil of these United States is owned by citizens of European countries. The vast acreage owned by the aliens is equal to nine states the size of Massachusetts. The alien English landlords in Ireland, who are charged responsible for nineteenth century of the miseries and oppressions endured by the Irish people, do not own half as many acres there as alien Europeans own in this country. It is time congress did something decisive in the way of legislating the large alien land syndicates of American soil.—[Boston Globe.]

SWIFT & CO.'S smoke house and rendering department at Kansas City burned down Sunday morning, loss $150,000. The other buildings of the $1,000,000 plant were saved with difficulty. While L. F. Tate, who had been directing the work of the Swift fire department on the fourth story of the burning building, was attempting to let himself down by means of a rope, the rope broke and he fell to the ground. His head struck an iron shutter, fracturing his skull.

A TELEGRAM from Dublin dated Monday says: "William O'Brien and James Gilhooly today were sentenced to two months' and six weeks' imprisonment, respectively, for holding meetings which had been proclaimed. On the expiration of their terms they must give bonds to keep the peace for six months, and in the event of their refusal will get two months additional imprisonment."

YANKTON is soon to be added to the list of busy, thriving enterprises cities which Columbus is connected by rail. A vote there Monday, 436 for and 46 against, secures the building of the line to Norfolk, with which place Columbus is already in communication. A large manufacturing center here secured by cheap water power, and a complete system of railroads, will make Columbus a first-class point for wholesale houses.

TRAMPS are sold under the provisions of law down in Missouri. Four of these wayward travelers were put up at auction Monday at Moberly, two of them going at $2 a head, another at seventy-five cents; a fourth finding no purchaser, was returned to jail. The consideration for the money paid is four months work by the tramps.

In Mexico a very large business is being done in the way of importing American cattle and hogs, and the trade is rapidly increasing. Refrigerator works are now being erected in the City of Mexico, where will be stored a supply furnished from Kansas City, to be sent to refrigerated cars, and a complete system of railroads, will make Columbus a first-class point for wholesale houses.

PRESIDENT HARRISON in company with Attorney General Miller, Private Secretary Halford, Secretary Blak, Hon. John B. Egan, Col. John B. Black, Gen. Thos. G. Moran, and others, visited his old home in the Hoosier capital last week. He was fettered a grand reception by friends at Cincinnati and also at Indianapolis.

COL. R. H. CROCKETT of Stuttgart, Ark., is a grandson of old Davy Crockett, whose 100th anniversary was celebrated at Stuttgart, Texas, on the 17th. The colonel is described as a "chip off the old block," and is brim full of fun and eloquence. It is said that his speech at the celebration has never been excelled for eloquence in east Tennessee.

Mrs. JOSE A. LOGAN believes that it is a mistake to look forward to an influx of European capitalists, and a necessary benefit to this country or any section of it. Her impression is that instead of coming here to spend their money, they will try to get over here loaded down with goods and carry our money back with them.

SUIT has been ordered brought by the commissioners of Polk county, against ex-county clerk J. P. Heald and J. F. Kelley to recover money paid to them and allowed by former county commissioners for making out the tax list. Suit has been entered against Kelley for $600.00.

The strike at London is assuming large proportions. The iron workers who number 7,000, have joined the dock laborers. The shipping business is completely paralyzed and mail steamers are leaving without cargo. A posse was organized to hunt the murderer.

FRANCIS E. WARREN, governor of Wyoming, has sent a letter to the Women's Journal for publication, in which he declares that woman suffrage there is a success. Women having voted with great wisdom and discretion for twenty years.

The mud-drum of a boiler at Ganewick's bakery, in Allegheny, exploded with terrific force Tuesday afternoon, completely wrecking a large three-story building. Henry Snyder, the ice man, was killed outright, and two others seriously, but not fatally, injured. The damage will reach $100,000.

A GERMAN named Kleoman of Philadelphia, has discovered a process for making sugar out of "black strap," the refuse from molasses. The "black strap" is thinned with water and mixed with lignite, after which it is purified. The result is said to be a fair quality of sugar.

NEBRASKA NOTES. In the vicinity of Wahoo one night last week seven horses were killed by lightning. Grand Island talks of voting $150,000 in bonds to pave four of the principal streets.

A Bart county farmer was selling apples of his own raising at Pierce, Pierce county one day last week. Wood River is said to have one of the handsomest cemeteries in the state. The ladies of the city have charge of it.

The citizens of Schuyler last week at a special election carried school bonds for the erection of a $20,000 school house immediately. G. W. E. Dorsey is reported as having received last week a deed for 12,640 acres of Holt county land. A large deal for one man in real estate.

Colfax county agricultural society offers a premium of $250 for base ball. Four clubs will be allowed to enter, each being charged an entrance fee of $25. It is understood in Omaha that the case of Col. Fletcher has been forwarded to Washington, and the opinion is expressed that he will be dismissed from the army.

Henry Zink, who lives near Hickman, takes the premium for the largest yield of oats. From eleven acres he threshed 946 bushels, making an average of eighty-six bushels to the acre. Congressman Connell is having a tussle with the gas company at Omaha. If any one can bring them to a realizing sense of their meanness it is W. J. Being a lawyer, besides, he can work his own case in the courts.

A short time ago was born to Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hoover their third child, a son, named after his father, and a ten pound daughter with three developed teeth at the time of her birth, all of which are located in the lower jaw. Ole Oleson, a well-to-do bachelor of Omaha, committed suicide last Sunday. He was a very genial man and had a great many friends. He left a written request to a friend to shoot his dog and horse. The dog was found in his yard under his bed and the horse in his stable.

Nicholi Clansen a boy thirteen years old, working on a farm near Fremont, fell from a mower one day last week and his right arm was completely severed near the shoulder. Dr. McDonald and Brown dressed the wound and otherwise cared for the boy.

At Beatrice last Tuesday Albert Reedy, the young son of O. K. Reedy, was accidentally shot in the shoulder by his brother Charley while playing with a 22-caliber pistol. The wound while severe is not necessarily dangerous. The bullet took a downward course and has not yet been extracted.

George W. Turner's dead body was found one day last week in the cornfield of Andrew Gardner, about nine miles southeast of Scotia. Upon his person was found about $400 and a number of papers, one of which was something like a will, but it was in such a condition as to be almost impossible to read. Near his body was found a revolver with one empty chamber, the contents of which are supposed to have done the fatal work.

Frank Tucker, a painter, fell from the inside scaffolding at the new Christian church building at Lincoln last Tuesday morning and sustained injuries that may result fatally. He was engaged in putting on the finishing touches on some fresco work, and fell a distance of twenty-four feet, lighting on his head and shoulders. He was unconscious when picked up, and examination revealed the fact that he suffered from concussion of the brain.

The funeral of the late Hon. James Laird took place at Hastings on the afternoon of the 19th of August. His remains were conveyed in a handsome hearse, drawn by four jet black horses. Company F (Junia) second regiment, Nebraska National guards, acted as a body guard, followed by the G. A. R. posts from western Nebraska. The governor and staff state officers, Nebraska congressional delegation, prominent politicians from all over the state and citizens followed his remains to the grave, in a procession two miles long.

The banking board has held a session; it is revealed that some savings banks have been violating the law in the matter of securities on loan. The reserve fund came up. It seems that the law requires that banks in cities or towns under a population of 25,000 shall keep a reserve fund of fifteen per cent of the capital deposited, and twenty per cent in cities of 25,000 or over. It is said that some bankers seek to interpret the law as meaning that a reserve fund of fifteen per cent shall be kept on hand, or in cities of 25,000 or over, but the emphatic edict went forth that the law means just what it says.

A frightful accident occurred at Stanton last Tuesday, by which the little six years old daughter of Jim Stucker was sent to eternity without warning. Mr. Stucker got up early in the morning to shoot a cat that had been causing havoc with the chickens. He did not get a chance to shoot and went back to bed again, leaving the cartridge in the gun ready to fire at the next disturbance. No more trouble followed and Mr. Stucker later went to his work, forgetting all about his having a loaded gun in the house. About 9 o'clock his fourteen years old son Oscar began handling the gun, thinking that as usual it was not loaded but the fatal charge went off, instantly killing his little sister. It blew the whole top of the head off, leaving nothing but one side of the face and the ear. In the room 14x18 there is not a space of six inches that is not splattered with blood and brain. The mother, Mrs. Stucker, is nearly crazy and so is the boy Oscar.

Washington Letter. (From our regular correspondent.) Acting Postmaster General Clarkson has awarded the contract for furnishing postal cards for the next four years to Albert Dugett of New York. The new contract calls for a better quality of paper than is now used for cards of three sizes, one 2 1/2 by 4 1/2 inches, one 3 by 5 1/8 inches (the size of those now used) and one 3 1/2 by 6 1/8 inches. Notwithstanding the improved qualities and the different size the new contract will save the government about $150,000 as compared with the last one. The contract begins October 1st, next.

Quite a large delegation from the various posts in this city will attend the twenty-third national encampment of the G. A. R. at Milwaukee. They will go on a special train and will carry with them a large number of delegates. The G. A. R. W. W. Dudley and other prominent non-combatants.

Gen. Fairchild, chairman of the commission appointed to negotiate for the purchase of the Cherokee strip, reported to the interior department that the commission has done all that can be done until after the Cherokee Indians hold their council in November. The council will consider the government's offer to buy their land at $1.25 per acre, and its action is final as far as the Indians are concerned.

Secretary Noble has issued a circular to pension agents reducing their apportionment for clerk hire to a figure that will not exceed the apportionment made by congress for that purpose. The apportionment is insufficient, but the secretary does not think it legal to increase the number of clerks, thus deliberately making a deficiency. This may result in some delay at some of the agencies in paying the pensions for the quarter ending September 30.

Commissioner of Pensions Tanner wants it distinctly understood that there is no quarrel between Secretary Noble and himself, nor has there been at any time the slightest break in the pleasant personal relations between them. He says, "Mr. Noble is one of the most lovable men, a man of broad views, and while there may be some official differences between us, these differences are not of a personal character. Any statement tending to create any other impression is untrue."

Marshal Randall has made himself solid with the working republicans hereabouts by asking for the resignation of three of his democratic deputies and by announcing that it was his purpose to displace the rest of the democrats employed under him and replace them with good republicans as soon as possible.

Senator Spooner dropped into Washington last week from a Massachusetts summer resort. He came to fix up some Wisconsin post office and things, and from the broad smile he carried away he must have succeeded. A reckless newspaper man caught him and attempted to interview him on the republican tariff bill. "Great Scott, my friend," the senator replied, "I am going away in an hour. Wait till I come back for the winter and we'll have time to talk it over."

Virginia republicans here say that the democratic state nominations made last week are about the strongest that party could possibly have made, and that the republicans will have to work hard and pull together to defeat them.

And now there is talk of another congressional investigation of the government printing office this winter. It will cost a good deal of money, therefore I should oppose it had I a vote in Congress.

It is now thought that the extra session will be called to meet on the 21st of October. District 44 and Vicinity. All the prairie grass, even that which has grown in every nook and corner, is being cut and cured for hay.

T. C. Bauer, the city, milks two cows, from which he gets as much cream as would come from five ordinary cows; they are Jerseys. Mr. B. believes the best are the cheapest.

Fred Stenger, who has been sojourning in Switzerland, is expected home this week. It is now said that mangel-wortzel, if planted on ground tainted with alkali, will absorb that mineral from the soil in large quantities.

A few days ago three threshing machines were operating in this immediate neighborhood which almost caused a premium to be offered for help, all trying to bag the straw while it was wet.

At C. C. Miller's sale last Saturday good second-hand lumber brought as high as $7.50 while turkeys brought as high as $1.10, all of which made jolly John hot.

Fred Luckey, jr., is hauling the material for a new granary and corn crib. Fred is a good farmer and is making money.

Mat. McCabe, of New Brunswick, Ill., offers to pay five dollars to any person troubled with black flux, who will take Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy according to directions and does not get well in the shortest possible time. One half of 25 cent bottles of this remedy cured him of bloody flux, after he had tried other medicines and the prescriptions of physicians without benefit. Mr. McCabe is perfectly safe in making this offer, as more than a thousand bottles of this remedy are sold each day and it has never been known to fail in any case of colic, cholera morbus, dysentery, diarrhoea or bloody flux, when the plain printed directions are followed. For sale by druggists.
