SOCIETY NOTES.

—The rush at the photo car is un-
—When in need of job work give us a call. All kinds of commercial work done.
—Subscription can begin at any time for the JOURNAL and Nebraska Family Journal.
—The JOURNAL is on sale, each week at the book and news stores of E. D. Fitzpatrick and J. Heitkamp, at 5 cents a copy.
—The Nebraska Farmer has come to be a good solid paper, worthy the patronage of every wide-awake farmer in the state.
—Edward is to play Columbus next Sunday, the battery here being Wab and Campbell. The other game between the same nines resulted in 3 to 2 in favor of Seward.
—Thirteen traveling men came up on the Sioux City train from David City, Monday night, intending to take the U. P. west but they were five minutes too late, and the air was blue for a time.
—As there will be no preaching at the M. E. church next Sunday, morning or evening, those who wish to hear Rev. Morton of the Congregational church, would do well to go early and get a seat.
—The St. Francis Academy has fifty-five scholars enrolled, mostly boarders at the school. An addition to their already long building will be needed if the school increases as it generally does, toward winter.
—For Buford plows and cultivators, for harrows, seeders, wagons, Plano binders and anything else needed on the farm in the way of machinery, call on Joseph A. Gutzmer on Olive street opposite Henry's corner.
—Read the large advertisement of the Boston Clothing House. Mr. Sands purpose keeping his prices below the people, and is determined to sell goods, if quality and price are any consideration. Read what he has to say.
—Dr. Martyn's daughter Lucie had quite an accident happen her last Friday. She ran against a dipper of hot water her mother was carrying, throwing it over her chest and scalding her badly. She is getting along very nicely.
—Ladies, never talk about buying dry goods in Omaha after the opening of Barber and Daykin. They will have a complete assortment of fashionable merchandise as can be had in this state. Prices we venture to say will be as reasonable as in any city.
—The park in the northwestern part of the city will add greatly to the value of property in that quarter of the city. With the fishing, the bathing, the boating, and the skating at the lakes, the park will add to the attraction especially in the summer time.
—There will be a meeting of the C. L. S. C. at the residence of Henry Hockenberger Thursday evening, September 23. All old members are requested to be present, and a cordial invitation is extended to all interested in the Chautauque work to meet with them.
—Mrs. Siperlock of Nebraska City is in the city looking after the interests of the National Home for orphans. She held a meeting at the M. E. church Sunday afternoon. Ladies of the committee will be here by the 30th and Platte county will do well to secure the Home.
—A Poland woman had a wagon of melons on the street, yesterday, selling them, and some young men got her to talking and drew her attention from the wagon, while two others took two of the largest melons she had out of the wagon. Unless these boys change they will never become many men.
—Don't allow any man to dictate to you how you shall vote or how you shall act, politically. Do your own thinking. Let the bosses, whether they work individually or whether they employ "whippers-in" understand that in this year of grace you purpose to exercise the full prerogatives of an American citizen.
—The city council are getting ready to comply with the new law requiring the registration of voters in cities. The provisions of the law seem to be all right, and certainly the system is a great improvement on the former and will do away with a considerable portion of the bickering and disputes at the polls on election day.
—We are indebted to Mr. George W. Shary of Garden Grove, Ia. for a large basket of pears; it being a surprise, we relished them all the more. Mr. Shary has an extensive fruit orchard and sends fruit all over the country; he writes that he will be here before long with several car loads of apples. He thinks Nebraska could raise fine pears.
—Somebody set fire to the house of widow Sauer last Monday afternoon, between 3 and 4 o'clock. Mrs. Sauer discovered the blaze in time to save her home, but it had got under headway, and burned quite a hole. Two tramps were seen not far from the house about that time, and it is supposed they were the ones who did the deed.
—A gentleman interested in the welfare of Thomas Reagan tells us that in the matter of the fight last week, he was really more sinned against than sinning; he was easily overcome by drink, and then easily persuaded to fight, not knowing what the legal consequences might be. The JOURNAL thinks that, by the young or old, the value of life depends much upon associates.
—The JOURNAL is just in receipt of the fair pamphlet of the Columbus Driving Park and Fair Association. The fair this year is to be held Sept. 25th, 26th and 27th. A good list of premiums are offered, men and ladies thoroughly versed in the several departments are selected for superintendents and judges, and everything promises an excellent exhibition and satisfactory awards. All who have articles worthy to be seen should make arrangements to have them at the fair.
—On last Thursday 250 pounds of fish were taken out of the lake and sold; this week there is an order for the city alone for 500. They sell readily at fifteen cents a pound retail, thus bringing in quite an income for the company. Some of these fish, German carp, weigh as high as six pounds, and are only two years ago that A. J. Arnold started his enterprise. It is understood that the company want a good, practical man to purchase a fourth interest out of the present company and change of the name, including an addition to the building and having a good opening for the right man.
