SOCIETY NOTES

LEBANON LODGE No. 58, A. F. & M. S. ...

Don't neglect to register.

New goods at the Backet.

County board of supervisors are in session.

A little rain here Saturday afternoon laid the dust.

See that pumpkin in Fitzpatrick's show window.

You cannot miss it if you insure with Henrich.

Overall, the cheapest and best in town at Borowick Bros.

A large crowd was out to hear Rev. Morton Sunday evening.

Old newspapers by the hundred, 25 cents at the JOURNAL office.

Miss Maggie Dinesen is now deputy postmaster at Platt Center.

Henrich makes seven year farm loans at 7% per cent interest.

Cornets, handkerchiefs, vests, gloves, mittens, etc., at Mrs. J. C. Fillman's.

—No. 1 shire mackerel at Raasmussen's ...

—Columbus $1.95 in 500 lb. lots, for cash, at Jaeggi & Schupbach's mill.

—If you insure your home with Henrich you can pay the premium annually.

—When in need of job work give us a call. All kinds of commercial work done.

—The Journal is on sale, each week, at the book and news stores of E. D. Fitzpatrick and J. Heitkamp, at 5 cents a copy.

—A special train Monday carried delegates to Denver to attend the annual convention of the brotherhood of engineers.

—The Nebraska Farmer has come to be a good solid paper, worthy the patronage of every wide-awake farmer in the state.

—D. R. Duffy, who has been here several weeks engaged in home-moving, returned to his home at Schuyler, Thursday.

—Last Monday a yearling colt of F. R. Wilkins, living north of town, tried to jump over a gate and so badly ruptured itself that it died soon after.

—A. O. King of Central City was in town last week with a patent arrangement for dehorning cattle. Mr. King was a resident of Columbus twenty years ago.

—Frederic Hudson from here and John S. Freeman from Platt Center are delegates to the grand lodge I. O. O. F. at Grand Island, today, tomorrow and Friday.

—Saunders & Eames of the Platt Center Argus have dissolved partnership. Mr. Saunders continues the publication of the paper, assuming all liabilities.

—For Harrison wagons and Courtland spring wagons and buggies, call on J. A. Gutzmer, opposite Dorv's drug store. He is sure to satisfy you in price and quality.

—Bankers say there is considerable bad money going the rounds. We can testify that there is a lot of good money that is not going around, to any very great extent.

—The donation party at Grandma Griffin's Friday evening was a complete surprise to her, but doubtless the good things bestowed were appreciated at their full value.

—Rev. J. L. St. Clair and family have again become fixtures of Madison, and their many friends here have, during the past week, heartily welcomed them.

—John Wise says that in his neighborhood Friday last there was a hard rain lasting a full hour. Roads were muddy, and the water ran in the ditches at the side of the road.

—Snp't. W. B. Backus of the Genoa Indian school went west Wednesday night, taking with him six Indian children to their homes in Wyoming, on account of their illness.

—Rev. W. M. Worley, a brother of Joshua Worley, of Ulysses, is now the Methodist minister at Columbus, and is said to be a very able exponent of the gospel.

—The voters of Columbus township will meet in caucus at the town hall, Saturday, Oct. 17th, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of putting in nomination candidates for township officers to be elected at the general election in November.

A. W. CHALK, Supervisor.

—On the evening of the day that the Telegram made its blundering but outrageous attack upon Prof. Cramer, a democratic member of the city council, coming down from the meeting, remarked to his fellow democrat by his side: "If a string is not put on the mouth of that blankety blank, our whole darned ticket will be downed." Who pulled the string?

—Shelb Creek township has nominated the following people's ticket: Supervisor, John Cramer; treasurer, Richard Rogan; clerk, J. J. Barnes; assessor, D. D. Roberts; justices of the peace, Otto Bolt, E. S. Arthur; constable, J. J. Heck; road overseer—district 9, John Gibbs, 23; Max Gottlieb, 56; Dennis Rogan, 57; John Hill; judges of election, C. W. Kingston, Wm. Lange, John Brammer; clerks of election, M. J. Hogan, R. S. Dickinson.

—Look out for unjust, unscrupulous and malicious attacks upon the republican candidates towards the last days before election. You know these men, all of them, and you know that their character is such that they are recognized as good citizens. You have seen a sample specimen from the democratic party's mud-battery, the Telegram, (against Mr. Cramer), and you must look out for mud-balls and stink-balls, for the old thing may go off at any moment.

—The Lindsay Times, democratic, has this to say of one of the tickets that has gained such great favor with the people: "Dr. Wm. Hart, the republican nominee for coroner, of Humphrey, is a man whom we hold in the highest esteem, and any of our democratic friends who can give him a vote on the 5th of next month, will do us a great favor. At the same time Dr. Hart is more centrally located than is the democratic nominee, and should be elected, can be reached from any part of the county on very short notice."

—Dickner & Darling's splendid thirty acres to corn on last year's soil was plowed deep this spring, and the seed put in the last days of April, with a planter. We know of several fields of fine corn cut last year's seed, and we would like to hear from them after husking. It used to be thought that such land was not good for raising corn. We think the use of the disc harrow has a good deal to do with the proper preparation of the ground; the first crop also helps to prepare the way.

—It is a "caution" to hear the boys at their play, imitating the song and antics of the Italian with his bear—a boy-bear taking the part of Bruin and very cleverly personating that individual. As you see the improvised bear rolling over in the deep dust of the street you are very apt to imagine if that boy's mother had him under hand just at that moment, his enjoyment would be of short duration, at least until after the dust was whipped out of his pants. It is fun, all the same, and the mother would have to smile between blows, at the clever enactment of the realistic actors.

—As THE JOURNAL was being printed Tuesday evening of last week, the firemen were called out to put out a fire that was consuming John Eudens's and J. H. Wurdemann's barns in the first ward. As soon as the fire ladies reached the place and attached their hose to the hydrant, the fire began to go down, and it was a great pleasure to see how well the waterworks answered their purpose. Doubtless three or four thousand dollars worth of property was saved. Eudens's loss was $300, insurance $150, which was paid Saturday. Mr. Wurdemann's loss was about $50, fully insured.

—THE JOURNAL's custom is to leave off merely personal matters (concerning ourselves), until the very latest moment, and thus it happens that we have only a line or two by way of paying our respects to Mr. Henney. If we have owed him some $3, $4 or $5 for two, three or four weeks, it would be but part pay for the much larger sum that he owed us for a much longer time—honors of that kind are pretty easy. As for the Telegram, suppose that the amount you speak of were forty times as large and the length of time a hundred months, would that demonstrate Mr. Henney's ability to fill the office of county judge? The truth is that we all know Henney, and as he is not liable to be elected judge, there's no use to waste words about him.

—Blind Boone. Next Friday evening, Oct. 18th, at the Congregational church, Blind Boone will give one of his marvelous entertainments, assisted by Miss Stella, vocalist. He can remember an entire tune by hearing it played once, and can reproduce it at once on the piano; he has been blind since early infancy, and therefore his powers seem all the more wonderful. It is said that his only way of learning a composition is by hearing some good pianist play it over three or four times; then he will sit at desk and perform the task without a mistake. His list of pieces is very complete, embracing some of the very best classics. His imitations of various instruments are unique and laughable; altogether, the entertainment is one to be remembered a life time.

PERSONAL

F. M. Conklinham, Esq., was in town Friday.

F. G. Green expects to start to work Saturday.

—That Henry of Humphrey, was in the city Sunday.

—Joe Rosovick spent Sunday with his parents in Duncan.

—Miss Lou Stewart went to Silver Creek yesterday to visit friends.

—J. G. Reader was in Allison a week, returning Wednesday evening.

—Judge J. O. Higgins of Grand Island came down Saturday on legal business.

—Miss Jennie Thomas left for Omaha last Tuesday, expecting to make her home there.

—Fritz Jaeggi, nephew of our townsmen Adolph and Leopold, started Monday for his old home.

—Mrs. J. W. Judkins, of Columbus, was the guest of Fullerton friends over Sunday. —[Fullerton Post.]

—Cam Webb left Wednesday for Pierre, Dak., where he has a six weeks' engagement as civil engineer.

—Charlie Rickly was in town Wednesday and Thursday on his way home to Nashville from a trip east.

—M. H. Barber, Esq., editor of the Fullerton Journal, was in the city Thursday last, on his way to Hastings.

—Mrs. M. and Miss Gertrude returned last Tuesday from an extended visit to Topeka, Kas.

—W. E. Manger, Esq., of Fremont was in the city several days last week on business before the district court.

—Mrs. M. and Leonard Hohl left for Kansas City Thursday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Jud Hohl, deceased.

—Rev. W. W. Wilson and wife of Humphrey, spent a short time in this city Monday, on their return from Hastings.

—Mrs. L. D. Clark and daughter, Miss Eva, left here Thursday for their home in Nevada City, Cal., after a visit of several weeks.

—Mr. and Mrs. Bradford of Illinois stopped over Sunday with Mrs. Stewart, on their way home from a visit to their son in Wayne, Neb.

—Miss Eva Amberger and Miss Alice Mathews went to Fremont Friday in the interest of the Foreign Missionary society of the M. E. church.

—Mrs. D. F. Davis and children left for Topeka Thursday, to visit her parents. D. F. looks lonesome and smokes about twice the usual number of cigars.

—Mrs. D. Schupbach, who has been in Switzerland the last six months, is expected to land in New York Thursday.

—Mrs. L. Jaeggi's mother will accompany her.

—George W. Shaw and daughter of Garden Grove, Ia., are stopping at the Judkins House. Mr. Shaw came with eight hundred bushels of apples and is selling them here.

—Mrs. Benedict, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. John Huber for several months, left Monday for her home in Missouri. While here she made many warm friends who wish her well, and that she may return.

—Fred Maroff seems to have struck a bonanza some place—he is driving in a shining new buggy.

—A number of young people surprised Joe Wise and family Monday evening and all spent a very pleasant evening.

—Thrashing is about all done hereabouts and corn husking has begun. What yielded from 10 to 18 bushels, oats 25 to 40 bushels to the acre but of excellent quality, corn is not so good in quality as last year. Potatoes are a good crop and all dug except our friend H. J. who is waiting for cold weather, nevertheless, the recent cold snap with its frosts seems to have had a beneficial effect upon his health, being now able to take his noonday nap without slipping into a two bushel bag to keep the flies off.

—John Dorsch is erecting a large cattle barn, 30x70, we believe; H. H. Hunte-man is also hauling lumber for a large barn. We do not know the dimensions, but it will be one of the largest hereabout.

—We always thought the honest, horny-handed tiller of the soil, was not fully recognized by our city friends—but a better time seems to be dawning—at least it seems so, and it must be so, judging from the special interest our town friends, especially present and future county officers, exhibit as to the health of our pigs, prospects of cattle markets, a. s. f. Some very bad men say, that will all cease after the election, but we can't believe it—such fellows ought to be well-nominated for a county office for such meanness.

—A slight rain storm passed over here last Friday, not enough rain, though, to be of any benefit for plowing. It is altogether too dry for that, and we almost feel like following H. J.'s example, viz: use someone else's calf to do what we cannot.

—Hemlock Township. Corn husking is the order of the day. Thrashing is about finished in this vicinity.

—Our Nimrods are lying in wait for the unwary prairie chicken.

—Some of the neighbors attended the Methodist fair at Columbus on the 2d.

—We noticed the other day that John Powers had a Gilt Edge wind mill erected on his farm.

—Wm. Gerhold brought his cattle home from Butler last week where he had them to pasture with his father-in-law, Mr. Jahner.

—Messrs. Muehler and Fultz wound up their thrashing for this season by thrashing between fifteen and sixteen hundred bushels of oats for Peter Graison.

—James McKenzie, who was with Muehler and Fultz's thrashing machine this fall is now husking corn for George Hangler; he lately sold one of his teams to Mr. Neuenburg.

—We noticed Dr. Hobson in this vicinity last week and upon inquiring found that a daughter of Seibert Heibel was sick, also Wm. Gerhold's little boy.

—We learn that Fred Stenger has lately purchased fifty head of calves for $5 per head; also that C. H. Sheldon has sold 100 acres of land to Mr. Binning for $25 per acre.

—In regard to J. C. Swartley's family: Miss Belle is visiting her sister Mrs. O. O. Burns of Ocooca, Miss Alice is with her brother, W. H. Swartley and wife, and two of the children, Jennie and Ralph are recovering from an attack of the whooping cough.

—C. D. Wilson began a six months winter term of school in the Bismarck Academy on the 7th; the enrollment the first day was eleven and this has since increased to thirteen, with a prospect of established reputation. He is thoroughly competent for the office of county treasurer and there should be no trouble in electing him.

—Down every man who opposes an examination of the county records. Defeat every candidate whose election would form any combine to postpone or prevent it.

SIX MONTHS

Shelb Creek Gleanings

James A. Brown, one of the oldest settlers in the town, died last Saturday. He was buried on Sunday following.

Dan Place, an old resident here, but now living in California, is amongst us. Glad to see him again.

—S. N. Pethick has been fitting up rooms in his building; one is to be occupied by Mr. Orr the new barber, and the other to be used for a kind of confectionery store.

—E. F. Towles has got tired of keeping bachelor's hall and has gone to Illinois after his housekeeper.

—Mrs. Ed. Smith of Grand Island is visiting friends and relatives here.

—A camp of Modern Woodmen has been organized here with flattering prospects for future work.

—Dr. D. R. Young is back from Illinois to stay. He is reported as saying that times are good here to what they are there. Well, we always did think that Nebraska was a pretty good place in which to live, but then you know some people are hard to be convinced.

—Mrs. Coolidge is visiting relatives here.

—Mrs. L. M. Squires, suffering from a bad cold.

—Mrs. George Chase and children have gone to Omaha to join the husband and father, who has been absent for some months back.

—Things are beginning to look lively around the Barker sheep ranch. Feeding will begin there in about two weeks. Uncle Sam is looking quite well again and is the same old fellow—all wool, a yard wide (most) and warranted not to fade.

—R. F. Cratty got into a fracas with a Polish woman the other day and the old lady (about sixty years old) got away with Reuben's team. This is the way he got it back. He got a Polish man to go to the house and talk to the woman while he (Cratty) drove off with the horses and wagon.

—Ed. Harris has engaged to work for C. H. Lee; so the Alpaugh place will soon cease to re-echo his melodious voice.

—Hay and grain will be in good demand in this vicinity we trust, as there will be several thousand sheep fed on the L. K. Hill's farm besides those fed at Barker's and perhaps twenty thousand at Duncan.
