A Farmers' Trust. TOPEKA, Kan., Dec. 2.-Judge Peffer of this city contributes to The Forum a strong array of figures and facts to show that the farmers are rapidly getting together for their own protection. Judge Peffer looks upon this movement as one of the most promising events for the farmers' welfare. There are, he says, 4,500,000 farmers in the United States. Of this number at least 1,000,000 are now organized in various associations, having essentially the same end in view-the improvement of the condi-tion of the agricultural class. A movement is now on foot to consolidate all these associations and extend them so as to include eventually in one body, hav-
