Da. Hammonr was called to Butler county on a couple of cases last week. At a gathering of some kind where beer flowed rather too freely two brothers by the name of Shultz became engaged in an alteration when one used a beer bot the over the other's head, inflicting a bad wound. The wounded man drew a knife and making a elash at his brother out him on the wrist clear to the bone and over half way around. They were stop- ped at this juncture and the doctor sent for, who aswed up their rents. The other case was that of a man named flevelick about two miles from Linwood who want cruzy and shot himself in the hall merely plowed through the flesh, making an ugly, though not dangerous	courts to be aving charge ain cases. It is a disappoint	tion of the sergeant-at-arms office, and their report, which is expected early this week, is anxiously looked for. Mr. Sil- cott was brought here from Ohio by Mr. Leedom six years ago, and since that time it is estimated that at least $30,- 000,000 have passed through his hands. He owes his downfall to fast women and fast horses, a combination that rarely fails to ruin any man who follows them for any length of time. A vigorous attempt is to be made to get congress to take up and decide the question of the Columbus World's Ex- position before Christmas. If it is to be held in 1892, time is getting precious.
