

The Columbus Journal

VOLUME XX—NUMBER 37.

COLUMBUS, NEBRASKA, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 1, 1890.

WHOLE NUMBER 1025.

DIRECTORS:
A. ANDERSON, Pres.
J. H. GALEY, Vice Pres.
O. T. BOHN, Cashier.
G. ANDERSON, F. ANDERSON,
JACOB GREEN, HENRY RAGATZ,
JOHN J. SULLIVAN, JOHN J. SULLIVAN.

First National Bank

COLUMBUS, NEB.

Statement of Condition at the Close of Business September 30, 1889.

Loans and Discounts	$150,411.75
Undivided profits	7,017.00
Real Estate	11,255.27
Real Estate, Furniture and Fixtures	11,255.27
Deposits	11,255.27
Cash on Hand	17,077.42
	$207,429.01

Capital and Surplus	$60,000.00
Undivided profits	7,017.00
National Bank notes outstanding	15,259.99
Real Estate	11,255.27
Deposits	114,889.72
	$207,429.01

Business Cards.

J. N. KELIAN,
DEUTCHER ADVOKAT,
Office over Columbus State Bank, Columbus, Nebraska.

SULLIVAN & REEDER,
ATTORNEYS AT LAW,
Office over First National Bank, Columbus, Nebraska.

JOHN EUBEN,
COUNTY SURVEYOR,
Particulars concerning surveying done can be had at Columbus, Neb., or call at my office in Court House.

L. J. CRAMER,
CO. SUPT. PUBLIC SCHOOLS,
I will be in my office in the Court House, the third Saturday of each month for the examination of applications for teachers' certificates, and for the transmission of other school business.

J. E. COOK,
DRAY and EXPRESSMAN,
Light and heavy hauling. Goods handled with care. Office at Columbus, Neb., or call at my office in Court House.

BRICK MAKERS!
Collectors and builders will find our brick first-class and offered at reasonable rates. We are also prepared to do all kinds of brick work.

M. E. TURNER & CO.,
Proprietors and Publishers of the COLUMBIAN JOURNAL and the FARMER JOURNAL, Both, post-paid to any address, for $1.00 a year, in advance. FAMILY JOURNAL, $1.00 a year.

W. A. McALLISTER, W. M. CORNELIUS
McALLISTER & CORNELIUS
ATTORNEYS AT LAW,
Columbus, Neb.
Office on stairs over Ernst & Schwab's store on Eleventh street.

JOHN G. HIGGINS, C. J. GARLOW,
HIGGINS & GARLOW,
ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW,
Specially made of Collections by C. J. Garlow.

R. C. BOYD,
MANUFACTURER OF
Tin and Sheet-Iron Ware!
Job-Work, Roofing and Gutting a Specialty.

KNAPP BROS.,
Contractors and Builders,
Resignation furnished on brick and stone work and plastering, free. Special attention given to setting boilers, masonry, etc. Staining and sand painting old or new brick work to reproduce original brick, a specialty. Correspondence solicited. Reference given.

A STRAY LEAF!
DIARY.
THE JOURNAL OFFICE
FOR GARDS, ENVELOPES, NOTE HEADS, BILL HEADS, CIRCULARS, DODGERS, ETC.

SUBSCRIBE NOW
THE COLUMBIAN JOURNAL.
THE AMERICAN MAGAZINE,
We Offer Both for a Year, at $1.00.

The Journal is acknowledged to be the best news and family paper in Platte county, and the American Magazine is the only high-class monthly magazine devoted entirely to American Literature, American Thought and Progress, and is the only one of its kind in the world.

It is so good as any of the other magazines, and it is so beautiful illustrated, and it is so rich in its contents, and it is so interesting, and it is so valuable, and it is so worth a year's subscription to it.

It is so good as any of the other magazines, and it is so beautiful illustrated, and it is so rich in its contents, and it is so interesting, and it is so valuable, and it is so worth a year's subscription to it.

It is so good as any of the other magazines, and it is so beautiful illustrated, and it is so rich in its contents, and it is so interesting, and it is so valuable, and it is so worth a year's subscription to it.

It is so good as any of the other magazines, and it is so beautiful illustrated, and it is so rich in its contents, and it is so interesting, and it is so valuable, and it is so worth a year's subscription to it.

It is so good as any of the other magazines, and it is so beautiful illustrated, and it is so rich in its contents, and it is so interesting, and it is so valuable, and it is so worth a year's subscription to it.

It is so good as any of the other magazines, and it is so beautiful illustrated, and it is so rich in its contents, and it is so interesting, and it is so valuable, and it is so worth a year's subscription to it.

It is so good as any of the other magazines, and it is so beautiful illustrated, and it is so rich in its contents, and it is so interesting, and it is so valuable, and it is so worth a year's subscription to it.

It is so good as any of the other magazines, and it is so beautiful illustrated, and it is so rich in its contents, and it is so interesting, and it is so valuable, and it is so worth a year's subscription to it.

It is so good as any of the other magazines, and it is so beautiful illustrated, and it is so rich in its contents, and it is so interesting, and it is so valuable, and it is so worth a year's subscription to it.

It is so good as any of the other magazines, and it is so beautiful illustrated, and it is so rich in its contents, and it is so interesting, and it is so valuable, and it is so worth a year's subscription to it.

It is so good as any of the other magazines, and it is so beautiful illustrated, and it is so rich in its contents, and it is so interesting, and it is so valuable, and it is so worth a year's subscription to it.

DOWN LIKE M'GINTY.

A UNION PACIFIC STEAMER RUNS DOWN A SHIP.

Two Men Killed in the Crash—The Clan McKenzie a Total Wreck—Particulars—Other News.

The Union Pacific steamer Oregon ran into and sank the British ship Clan McKenzie on the Columbia river, ten miles below Kalama, Ore. Charles Austin and Matthew Reid, colored sailors on the ship, were asleep in the fore-cabin of the Clan McKenzie and were cut in two by the sharp bow of the Oregon when it penetrated the side of the ship. Another sailor was badly injured. None of the passengers and but one of the crew of the Oregon was hurt. The captain of the Clan McKenzie says his ship was at anchor with all the lights properly displayed. The Clan McKenzie is valued at $80,000 and the damage to the Oregon will amount to $10,000.

THE BOY TRAMP.

Adventures of the Famous Joe Friend, the Youthful Wanderer.

Joseph Friend, the great Chicago boy tramp, is in New York once more and will spend a few days in the rooms of Mr. Gertrude's society on Twenty-third street and Fourth avenue. Joseph is just 13 years old and one of the most remarkable boys on record. Since the age of 7 years he has been running away from his home in Chicago about twice a year, and he has wandered over the United States from Montana to New York, and incidentally he has made a couple of excursions into Canada. His father is a Hebrew and his mother a Protestant. They live in comfortable circumstances at No. 294 South Robey street in Chicago, but since they have despite his ramblings had a good common-school education. His use of the English language is wonderful, and he is by long odds the brightest youngster that has ever been in the charge of the Twenty-third street society.

In October, 1887, Joseph arrived in New York after running away from his home and traveling across the continent by stealing rides on railroad trains. He was returned home by Supt. Jenkins, of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, but since then he has run away twice. He left Chicago on his present trip six weeks ago when his father threatened to whip him because he was discharged from a place he held as cashboy on account of fighting. He worked his way by slow degrees eastward and reached New York about a week ago, since which time he has been earning his living by doing odd jobs at a restaurant, until he was picked up by Agent Finn Monday evening. He was captured twice while on his way east, but managed to escape. The second time he was at St. Thomas, Canada, where he had cut the arm of a settee to which he had been handcuffed. The boy says he does not want to go back home. He hopes to find employment somewhere in this city, and, with his wonderful grit and brightness to recommend him, he will hardly have any difficulty. But in any event he will have a merry Christmas.

$25,000 DAMAGES FOR HANGING.

Margaret and Alice Edwards sue Their Executors.
At a meeting at East Liverpool, O., the United States "C. C." and Rockingham and Yellow Ware company was formed. It has for its purpose the maintaining of a uniform discount to the trade, with the view of protecting the jobbers and preventing discriminating quotations; at the same time securing preference for American goods in this line. The organization comprises twenty-four parties, including East Liverpool, O., Wellsville, O., Cincinnati, O., Scioto, Ill., Philadelphia, Trenton, N. J., Elizabeth, N. J., New Milford, Conn., East Boston, Mass., East Riverdale, N. Y., and Baltimore.

IN FAR INDIA.

Native Proposals for a Popular Branch of Government.
The native congress has agreed upon a plan of political organization for India, which is to be presented to parliament. The essential features are that there shall be a popular electoral or representative body formed upon a basis of twelve members for every million of population, this great body to be controlled by an inner council of selected persons from its own number, and an imperial council constituted upon a basis of one member to every 5,000,000 of population. Provincial councils are also proposed. Bradlaugh will frame the bill and introduce it into parliament.

MARTIAL WIVES OF THE HERMANS.

A New York Ex-Judge and His Wife at Law over a Library.
Ex-Judge Lucia A. Herman and his wife, Mrs. Carrie Lucinda Herman, have had a number of business dealings together, and the result is not satisfactory to either of them. Mrs. Herman was a widow when she was married to Mr. Herman at Chicago in 1874. Their personal relations are not of the pleasantest, and the courts have been asked to pull sundry bonds that now bind them in wedlock.

THE ALLIANCE vs. THE BEEF COMBINE.

A Journal's Lawrence, Kan., special says: The Farmers' alliance of this county today adopted resolutions boycotting all dressed beef men. Each member pledges himself to buy nothing from butchers or any meat market that handles the product of establishments controlled by the combine. It is believed her death resulted from heart disease.

LEATH FOUND GUILTY.

Otto Leuth, 17 years old, has been convicted in the criminal court of Cleveland, O., of murder in the first degree. Last May Margaret Thompson, 7 years old, disappeared and a month later her body was found under the house of Leuth's father. Young Leuth was arrested and confessed that he enticed the child into the house when his parents were away, assaulted her and then killed her with a hammer.

CAN THIS BE TRUE.

Serious Charges Preferred Against Farnell Capt. O'Shea, ex-member of the English house of commons, has filed a petition for divorce from his wife on the ground of adultery, naming Charles Stewart Farnell as co-defendant. The specific acts are alleged to have taken place during a period extending from 1885 to the date of the petition, at Elham, No. 24, York Terrace; the residence of Mrs. O'Shea, Rogers Park, Brighton, Kent, and Sussex. In an interview to-day Capt. O'Shea said the charges made in his petition were true, but added he did not claim divorce.

A Knock-Out in Five Minutes.

Engene Hornbacher was done up in quick order by John Dixon, of Boston, near New London, Conn. Dixon forced Hornbacher, and not only driving him over the ring, but gaining four clean knock-downs before the close of the round. The specific acts are alleged to have taken place during a period extending from 1885 to the date of the petition, at Elham, No. 24, York Terrace; the residence of Mrs. O'Shea, Rogers Park, Brighton, Kent, and Sussex. In an interview to-day Capt. O'Shea said the charges made in his petition were true, but added he did not claim divorce.

ANXIETY FOR OCEAN STEAMERS.

Sixteen large ocean steamships, each one of them worth with its cargo, over $2,000,000, are now overdue at New York, some twelve days, while the majority are overdue from three to four days. Among them are the Spain, from Liverpool, with passengers and cargo, five days overdue; the Saale, from Bremen, with passengers and cargo, seven days; the State Dubava, from Glasgow, with cargo, twelve days overdue. Much anxiety is felt for the safety of the latter.

Ward's Faithful at Stansley.

Herbert Ward, one of Stansley's ex-householders, declines to discuss the reports from London that Stansley, in his letter to Sir Francis Winton, expressed indignation at Ward's conduct in Africa. "I have a very high opinion of Mr. Stansley," said he, "and I have no fear of condemnation from him when he is in possession of all the facts."

ROBERT ELLER IN OREGON.

A special from Wichita, Kan., says U. S. Marshal DeWitt Walker has been called to Oregon to assist in quelling the rowdyism now in prevalent there and which threatens to develop into a reign of terror.

FATAL FIRE IN FRISCO.

Several Lives Lost in the Burning of a Business and Tenement Block.

Fire in the Old Stignatus building, occupied by the New York Furniture company, and a number of private offices, and the third floor by roomers, caused the death of three persons and the injuring of several others. An old lady named Miss Copeland, who overcame by the smoke and fell into the flames, perishing. Mrs. Elizabeth Evans, who went to her assistance, was also overcome, but was rescued. Mrs. Crowell, a roomer in the attic, and a washerwoman known as Ida A. Fellow, rooming with Mrs. Crowell, were both burned beyond recognition. Fireman Logan and Policeman Williams went to the rescue of Mrs. Crowell and her son. Logan was overcome by the smoke and fell unconscious to the floor. Officer Williams took young Crowell out and then returned for Logan, whom he carried into a place of safety. He then returned for Mrs. Crowell, but was almost suffocated and was obliged to retreat to save himself. Logan soon recovered. Estimates place the loss at $40,000, which is covered by insurance.

A PROHIBITORY PROCLAMATION.

The Extraordinary Document Which New Hampshire's Governor Has Forwarded.

Gov. Goodell has issued the following extraordinary proclamation:

"In view of the various heinous crimes which have been committed in our state within the past few weeks, directly traceable to the use of intoxicating liquors, in the sale of which the criminal laws have been flagrantly violated, now, therefore, I, as all persons engaged in this illegal and deadly traffic to desist therefrom immediately, and I call upon the attorney general of the state, and the solicitors and sheriffs of counties, the mayors of cities and selectmen, and all other officers throughout the state, and upon all good citizens of every party to unite in the supreme effort to close up and suppress every liquor saloon of every description within our borders. Let no guilty man escape. Numerous decisions of our supreme court attest the constitutionality of our prohibitory liquor laws. Let them be so vigorously enforced that our people may enjoy the general peace and quietude of the state, and I cannot refrain from urging all churches, temperance organizations and all persons who desire the best good of our commonwealth, to double their efforts to promote personal sobriety and temperance amongst our people.

A POT COMBINE.

The Makers of Glasgow Agree to Agree.

At a meeting at East Liverpool, O., the United States "C. C." and Rockingham and Yellow Ware company was formed. It has for its purpose the maintaining of a uniform discount to the trade, with the view of protecting the jobbers and preventing discriminating quotations; at the same time securing preference for American goods in this line. The organization comprises twenty-four parties, including East Liverpool, O., Wellsville, O., Cincinnati, O., Scioto, Ill., Philadelphia, Trenton, N. J., Elizabeth, N. J., New Milford, Conn., East Boston, Mass., East Riverdale, N. Y., and Baltimore.

THE FESTIVITIES TURNED TO GRIEF.

Francis Lucetta Thomas, widow of General George H. Thomas, died at her home in Washington on Thursday. Mrs. Thomas made Washington her home nearly six years ago and has been more or less an invalid during all that time. While she was in the city she was very popular, and her death was a great loss to her friends. She was a devoted wife and mother, and her death was a great grief to her family.

THE FESTIVITIES TURNED TO GRIEF.

Francis Lucetta Thomas, widow of General George H. Thomas, died at her home in Washington on Thursday. Mrs. Thomas made Washington her home nearly six years ago and has been more or less an invalid during all that time. While she was in the city she was very popular, and her death was a great loss to her friends. She was a devoted wife and mother, and her death was a great grief to her family.

THE FESTIVITIES TURNED TO GRIEF.

Francis Lucetta Thomas, widow of General George H. Thomas, died at her home in Washington on Thursday. Mrs. Thomas made Washington her home nearly six years ago and has been more or less an invalid during all that time. While she was in the city she was very popular, and her death was a great loss to her friends. She was a devoted wife and mother, and her death was a great grief to her family.

THE FESTIVITIES TURNED TO GRIEF.

Francis Lucetta Thomas, widow of General George H. Thomas, died at her home in Washington on Thursday. Mrs. Thomas made Washington her home nearly six years ago and has been more or less an invalid during all that time. While she was in the city she was very popular, and her death was a great loss to her friends. She was a devoted wife and mother, and her death was a great grief to her family.

THE FESTIVITIES TURNED TO GRIEF.

Francis Lucetta Thomas, widow of General George H. Thomas, died at her home in Washington on Thursday. Mrs. Thomas made Washington her home nearly six years ago and has been more or less an invalid during all that time. While she was in the city she was very popular, and her death was a great loss to her friends. She was a devoted wife and mother, and her death was a great grief to her family.

THE FESTIVITIES TURNED TO GRIEF.

Francis Lucetta Thomas, widow of General George H. Thomas, died at her home in Washington on Thursday. Mrs. Thomas made Washington her home nearly six years ago and has been more or less an invalid during all that time. While she was in the city she was very popular, and her death was a great loss to her friends. She was a devoted wife and mother, and her death was a great grief to her family.

THE FESTIVITIES TURNED TO GRIEF.

Francis Lucetta Thomas, widow of General George H. Thomas, died at her home in Washington on Thursday. Mrs. Thomas made Washington her home nearly six years ago and has been more or less an invalid during all that time. While she was in the city she was very popular, and her death was a great loss to her friends. She was a devoted wife and mother, and her death was a great grief to her family.

THE FESTIVITIES TURNED TO GRIEF.

Francis Lucetta Thomas, widow of General George H. Thomas, died at her home in Washington on Thursday. Mrs. Thomas made Washington her home nearly six years ago and has been more or less an invalid during all that time. While she was in the city she was very popular, and her death was a great loss to her friends. She was a devoted wife and mother, and her death was a great grief to her family.

THE FESTIVITIES TURNED TO GRIEF.

Francis Lucetta Thomas, widow of General George H. Thomas, died at her home in Washington on Thursday. Mrs. Thomas made Washington her home nearly six years ago and has been more or less an invalid during all that time. While she was in the city she was very popular, and her death was a great loss to her friends. She was a devoted wife and mother, and her death was a great grief to her family.

THE FESTIVITIES TURNED TO GRIEF.

Francis Lucetta Thomas, widow of General George H. Thomas, died at her home in Washington on Thursday. Mrs. Thomas made Washington her home nearly six years ago and has been more or less an invalid during all that time. While she was in the city she was very popular, and her death was a great loss to her friends. She was a devoted wife and mother, and her death was a great grief to her family.

THE FESTIVITIES TURNED TO GRIEF.

Francis Lucetta Thomas, widow of General George H. Thomas, died at her home in Washington on Thursday. Mrs. Thomas made Washington her home nearly six years ago and has been more or less an invalid during all that time. While she was in the city she was very popular, and her death was a great loss to her friends. She was a devoted wife and mother, and her death was a great grief to her family.

THE FESTIVITIES TURNED TO GRIEF.

Francis Lucetta Thomas, widow of General George H. Thomas, died at her home in Washington on Thursday. Mrs. Thomas made Washington her home nearly six years ago and has been more or less an invalid during all that time. While she was in the city she was very popular, and her death was a great loss to her friends. She was a devoted wife and mother, and her death was a great grief to her family.

THE FESTIVITIES TURNED TO GRIEF.

Francis Lucetta Thomas, widow of General George H. Thomas, died at her home in Washington on Thursday. Mrs. Thomas made Washington her home nearly six years ago and has been more or less an invalid during all that time. While she was in the city she was very popular, and her death was a great loss to her friends. She was a devoted wife and mother, and her death was a great grief to her family.

THE FESTIVITIES TURNED TO GRIEF.

Francis Lucetta Thomas, widow of General George H. Thomas, died at her home in Washington on Thursday. Mrs. Thomas made Washington her home nearly six years ago and has been more or less an invalid during all that time. While she was in the city she was very popular, and her death was a great loss to her friends. She was a devoted wife and mother, and her death was a great grief to her family.

THE FESTIVITIES TURNED TO GRIEF.

Francis Lucetta Thomas, widow of General George H. Thomas, died at her home in Washington on Thursday. Mrs. Thomas made Washington her home nearly six years ago and has been more or less an invalid during all that time. While she was in the city she was very popular, and her death was a great loss to her friends. She was a devoted wife and mother, and her death was a great grief to her family.

THE FESTIVITIES TURNED TO GRIEF.

Francis Lucetta Thomas, widow of General George H. Thomas, died at her home in Washington on Thursday. Mrs. Thomas made Washington her home nearly six years ago and has been more or less an invalid during all that time. While she was in the city she was very popular, and her death was a great loss to her friends. She was a devoted wife and mother, and her death was a great grief to her family.

HOLIDAY HAPPENINGS.

EVENTS THAT ARE CLOSING THE OLD YEAR'S RECORD.

The Four Points of the Compass Contests in Their Usual Order of Good Reports and Ill-Items from Everywhere.

Congressman Randall's Condition.

A Washington dispatch says: The relatives of Mr. Randall say that he is really getting better, but that his recovery is naturally slow. They think he is better to-day than he was yesterday, and better this week than he was last week. He may not be able to be in the house when it re-assembles, because his system is yet too weak to bear the strain and excitement of a long session. The incident to which all legislative struggle such as may occur over the adoption of the rules. Mr. Randall does not see all his colleagues who call, and many of them do not ask it. They simply want to pay their respects and to make known their hopes for his recovery. Mr. Randall reads the daily papers regularly. His relatives insist that his trouble is not an organic one, and that his complete restoration to health is only a matter of time and abstaining from too much work.

A Severe Frost Storm in the East.

From the West, southeast swept over Onondaga lake, New York, prostrating many structures. The roof of the People's street railway barn was torn off and a portion of the wall blown down. Gill Wood and Joseph Forchheimer were badly hurt, but not fatally, and several other employees received slight injuries. A strong wind storm also visited New York and vicinity. In the upper part of the city the storm was accompanied by thunder and lightning. In Brooklyn the three-story frame of a brick building in course of erection was blown down and three carpenters buried in the ruins. They were rescued alive, but badly injured. Two little girls who were passing at the time were struck by the falling timbers. One of them suffered a fracture of the leg and the eyes of the other were badly injured. In Jersey City Samuel Bautecher, aged 52, was killed by being struck by the limb of a tree which was blown down by a heavy wind. From other eastern points come similar tales of havoc by wind.

Prominent Persons Implicated.

The outrages of "white caps" near Colorado, Kan., continue, notwithstanding the fact that the state efforts are being made to break up the organization. A party of seven men are now on trial for an outrage committed only a week ago, and later James Mansure, who has been employed by a physician of this city, was paid off, and on his way home was held up and robbed. Last night a party of men, their faces covered with white masks, visited the house of John McKee, dragged him outdoors and administered to his bare back a severe beating with caps. He recognized them as "white caps," and they were arrested. The names of the persons implicated are not made public but one is known to be a prominent physician.

WIDOW OF GENERAL THOMAS.

She Dies at Her Washington Home—An Invalid For Years.

Francis Lucetta Thomas, widow of General George H. Thomas, died at her home in Washington on Thursday. Mrs. Thomas made Washington her home nearly six years ago and has been more or less an invalid during all that time. While she was in the city she was very popular, and her death was a great loss to her friends. She was a devoted wife and mother, and her death was a great grief to her family.

THE FESTIVITIES TURNED TO GRIEF.

Francis Lucetta Thomas, widow of General George H. Thomas, died at her home in Washington on Thursday. Mrs. Thomas made Washington her home nearly six years ago and has been more or less an invalid during all that time. While she was in the city she was very popular, and her death was a great loss to her friends. She was a devoted wife and mother, and her death was a great grief to her family.

THE FESTIVITIES TURNED TO GRIEF.

Francis Lucetta Thomas, widow of General George H. Thomas, died at her home in Washington on Thursday. Mrs. Thomas made Washington her home nearly six years ago and has been more or less an invalid during all that time. While she was in the city she was very popular, and her death was a great loss to her friends. She was a devoted wife and mother, and her death was a great grief to her family.

THE FESTIVITIES TURNED TO GRIEF.

Francis Lucetta Thomas, widow of General George H. Thomas, died at her home in Washington on Thursday. Mrs. Thomas made Washington her home nearly six years ago and has been more or less an invalid during all that time. While she was in the city she was very popular, and her death was a great loss to her friends. She was a devoted wife and mother, and her death was a great grief to her family.

THE FESTIVITIES TURNED TO GRIEF.

Francis Lucetta Thomas, widow of General George H. Thomas, died at her home in Washington on Thursday. Mrs. Thomas made Washington her home nearly six years ago and has been more or less an invalid during all that time. While she was in the city she was very popular, and her death was a great loss to her friends. She was a devoted wife and mother, and her death was a great grief to her family.

THE FESTIVITIES TURNED TO GRIEF.

Francis Lucetta Thomas, widow of General George H. Thomas, died at her home in Washington on Thursday. Mrs. Thomas made Washington her home nearly six years ago and has been more or less an invalid during all that time. While she was in the city she was very popular, and her death was a great loss to her friends. She was a devoted wife and mother, and her death was a great grief to her family.

THE FESTIVITIES TURNED TO GRIEF.

Francis Lucetta Thomas, widow of General George H. Thomas, died at her home in Washington on Thursday. Mrs. Thomas made Washington her home nearly six years ago and has been more or less an invalid during all that time. While she was in the city she was very popular, and her death was a great loss to her friends. She was a devoted wife and mother, and her death was a great grief to her family.

THE FESTIVITIES TURNED TO GRIEF.

Francis Lucetta Thomas, widow of General George H. Thomas, died at her home in Washington on Thursday. Mrs. Thomas made Washington her home nearly six years ago and has been more or less an invalid during all that time. While she was in the city she was very popular, and her death was a great loss to her friends. She was a devoted wife and mother, and her death was a great grief to her family.

THE FESTIVITIES TURNED TO GRIEF.

Francis Lucetta Thomas, widow of General George H. Thomas, died at her home in Washington on Thursday. Mrs. Thomas made Washington her home nearly six years ago and has been more or less an invalid during all that time. While she was in the city she was very popular, and her death was a great loss to her friends. She was a devoted wife and mother, and her death was a great grief to her family.

THE FESTIVITIES TURNED TO GRIEF.

Francis Lucetta Thomas, widow of General George H. Thomas, died at her home in Washington on Thursday. Mrs. Thomas made Washington her home nearly six years ago and has been more or less an invalid during all that time. While she was in the city she was very popular, and her death was a great loss to her friends. She was a devoted wife and mother, and her death was a great grief to her family.

THE FESTIVITIES TURNED TO GRIEF.

Francis Lucetta Thomas, widow of General George H. Thomas, died at her home in Washington on Thursday. Mrs. Thomas made Washington her home nearly six years ago and has been more or less an invalid during all that time. While she was in the city she was very popular, and her death was a great loss to her friends. She was a devoted wife and mother, and her death was a great grief to her family.

THE FESTIVITIES TURNED TO GRIEF.

Francis Lucetta Thomas, widow of General George H. Thomas, died at her home in Washington on Thursday. Mrs. Thomas made Washington her home nearly six years ago and has been more or less an invalid during all that time. While she was in the city she was very popular, and her death was a great loss to her friends. She was a devoted wife and mother, and her death was a great grief to her family.

THE FESTIVITIES TURNED TO GRIEF.

Francis Lucetta Thomas, widow of General George H. Thomas, died at her home in Washington on Thursday. Mrs. Thomas made Washington her home nearly six years ago and has been more or less an invalid during all that time. While she was in the city she was very popular, and her death was a great loss to her friends. She was a devoted wife and mother, and her death was a great grief to her family.