WHEN THE CHILDREN ARE ALL GONE AWAY. The house is deserted and silent. The clock ticking softly to say— How cheerless it is and how lonely!

AN EVENTFUL NIGHT. The night of the 11th of September, 1841, was settling down dark and stormy, over the city of Guatemala.

On the previous night while the storm was at its height, the earthquake had broken down one of the sides of the crater of the mountain, letting loose a vast torrent of water, which, carrying before it a mingled mass of earth, rocks, and trees, swept down on the city burying 600 of the inhabitants beneath the ruins...

Neither Don Juan de Carmona nor any of his followers who had accompanied him to Guatemala were ever heard of again. They, too, had been buried beneath the ruins of the ill-fated city.

THE old native led the way and followed, expecting momentarily an indication that our services were required in front, when suddenly that aged warrior sprang at least four feet into the air.

THE costliest cigar smoked in New York is said to be a Havana. Henry Clay, who is usually sold wrapped in gold or silver foil, is the most expensive.

A foreign traveler tells of seeing a musical tree in the West India islands and in the West Indies. It is a tree filled with notes, and when the wind blows across the island a constant moaning, deep-toned whistle is heard from which the still hours of the night has a very weird and unpleasant effect.

A BILL has been introduced to enable English peers to abandon their places in the house of lords if they wish and be elected to the house of commons if they can.
