

SPECIAL NOTICE!

On April 1st, we shall open our magnificent Dress Making parlors in front part of our second floor, and will be under the entire control and management of MRS. SALMON & WOODS.

We have made special efforts to place this Department before the public, and shall guarantee all workmanship. A trial will suffice to prove its merits of Fashion and Low Prices.

J. A. Barber & Co.

JUST ARRIVED DEPARTMENT! DRESS GOODS FINEST GOODS

WE have just opened a superb assortment of plaids and stripes and also plain and fancy weaves material. Nothing more fashionable for children's spring outer garments than beautiful plaid and stripes.

33 Pieces of strictly all wool Plaid and stripes especially adapted for outer garments only 37 1/2 cents a yard. We defy competition on these goods.

12 Pieces of all wool plaid flannel spring weight at 30c a yard, compare them with any of our Omaha prices fully worth 45c.

13 Pieces of silken brilliancies 38in wide 45c a yard. This comes in all the new spring shades, and black, Omaha price 50c a yard.

P. S. Remember that we are always in the ring and will meet all sharp competition. J. A. BARBER & CO. Originators of Low Prices!

SECOND FLOOR!

We are prepared to show new designs and new patterns in CARPETS this Spring. INGRAIN CARPETS, 37c yd. INGRAIN UNION CHAIN CARPETS, 45c and 50c.

LACE CURTAINS.

20 pairs of 3 yards long LACE CURTAINS only 99c pair. 18 pairs NOTTINGHAM LACE CURTAINS only $1.50 pair, 34 yards long. 16 pairs NOTTINGHAM LACE CURTAINS $2.00 pair, 31 yards long.

J. A. Barber & Co., Columbus, Neb.

Columbus Journal.

Entered at the Post-office, Columbus, Neb., as second-class mail matter. M. K. TURNER & CO., Columbus, Neb.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 25, 1908.

The total indebtedness of the city of Alma is $3.85.

Heavy damage to the tobacco plant by frost is reported from western North Carolina.

ROBERT HAINS was hanged last week at Hartsell, Ala., for the murder of his brother.

The Keno county court house at Geneva, Ill., was burned one night last week together with the contents.

The regular quarterly dividend of 1 1/2 per cent has been declared by the Oregon Railway and Navigation company.

The farmers' alliance held a meeting at Chillicothe, Mo., last week and decided to build a flouring mill, with a capacity of 100 barrels a day.

BILLIE MYLER at Bloomington, Ill., issued a challenge to the McLaughlin-Carpell fight at San Francisco Friday night to fight to a finish for $2,500.

Owing to a break in a natural gas main at Fort Wayne, Ind., one morning last week, many families had to go without breakfast.

GEORGE FRANCIS TRAIN started on the 18th from Tacoma, Wash., on his trip around the world, taking the steamer Olympia to Victoria.

Owing to despondency caused by ill health Miss Katie Ott, a teacher in the public schools at Cincinnati, killed herself with a revolver.

Mrs. SOUTHERLAND ORR, who is writing a book on Browning, is a sister to Sir Frederick Leighton and was one of Browning's most intimate friends.

The Peoples' church at Omaha, over which Rev. C. W. Savidge presides, has in their choir a grand chorus of not less than 100 voices, with the orchestra.

EDWIN REESE, Jr., of New Haven, Conn., and Jarvis Kennan of Arkansas, both Yale students, were recently drowned in attempting to make Millford in a row boat.

For the third time within a year the dry goods house of Pardee, Mills & Co., in Peoria, Ill., was visited by a big fire. The loss is estimated at $75,000, with $110,000 insurance.

A REPORT from Paris of a recent date states that the French gambler Emerald, bombardier Almonay, capital of Dahomey and Kalary. The people were panic-stricken by the attack.

DISAPPOINTED boomers are returning in large numbers from the Cherokee Strip to Kansas towns. It is expected that a few will remain until driven out, but the militia think they can clear the strip in less than two weeks.

GES. ROBERT C. SCHENCK died at Washington on the evening of March 24th, at 6 o'clock of diphtheria. He was born in Franklin, Ohio, October 4, 1840, and was in his 67th year. He held many places of trust, and performed effective services during the war.

Mrs. BRIDGEMAN had a runaway with a span of bronches one day last week at Verrango. At the start she was thrown forward over the dash board and to the tongue of the wagon and next to the front wheels, and carried in this position six miles with the team on the run. Her body was in a horribly mangled condition.

BERNARD F. MARLEY, deputy commissioner of public works in New York, has been arrested on a charge of receiving bribes when he was order of arrest clerk under Sheriff Grant. Deputy Sheriff Patrick Fitzgerald and Philip Walsh were also arrested, the former being charged with petit larceny and extortion and the latter with bribery.

FRESH EVIDENCE.

Chief Seavey Finds Important Facts in the Jones Tragedy.

Our readers will be interested in the following, which we find in the Omaha World-Herald:

Reuter now remembers that he saw Neil and Sherman together in South Omaha driving a horse and pony hitched to an old wagon. One or two other parties also remember seeing the rig in South Omaha.

The chief thinks that this rig is now somewhere near Papillion and will prove a clue to some important evidence.

It has been ascertained that Neil committed the burglary at Lincoln on the 24th, stole the cow the 3d and after selling the cow and getting his money at the bank started for the depot at Lincoln on a run and took the 1 p. m. flyer to Omaha.

It was also developed that Shellenbeger worked on the ice on the 1st and 2d and until 10 a. m. on the 3d. He was seen at the Burlington & Missouri depot on the afternoon of the 3d and returned to Nebraska City at noon on the 7th, by the Missouri Pacific.

THE GERMAN EMPIRE.

The Emperor's Letter to Bismarck.

The Kaiser's letter accepting Bismarck's resignation is as follows:

"My Dear Prince: It is with deep emotion that I learn from your request of March 18 that you are determined to retire from the office filled by you for so many years with such incomparable results.

I had hoped, that during the lifetime of either of us not to have to see the eventuality of our separation. If I am now, while thoroughly conscious of the far-reaching importance of your retirement, compelled to face this eventuality, I do so with a heavy heart.

With the conviction that your granting your request will contribute to the preservation and conservation of your life and the ministry which both of us prize so highly to the fatherland. The reasons you give me for your decision prove to me that further attempts to induce you to withdraw your request are useless, I therefore grant in all kindness your wishes, and accordingly relieve you of your office as chancellor, president of the ministry and minister of foreign affairs with the firm conviction that your advice and great abilities and your fidelity and self-sacrifice will in the future, as in the past, be available for me and for the fatherland."

THE EMPEROR HAS ACCEPTED PRINCE BISMARCK'S RESIGNATION OF THE CHANCELLORSHIP.

The present difference between the emperor and Prince Bismarck arises from the emperor's refusal to accede to the request made by Dr. Winterstader of the clerical party in Germany to restore to the Duke of Cumberland, claimant of the throne of Hanover, the larger part of the guelph fund.

The report is repeated that the emperor proposes to appoint General Von Caprivi, who is now commander of the Tenth army corps, to the chancellorship.

SCARLETT was the funeral of the unfortunate Edward Ewing over, who accidentally shot himself at Kearney last week, when the news was spread that another boy had shot himself. The victim proved to be another fifteen years old boy, Johnny Donald, who was out rabbit hunting near the cannery factory, using a revolver to shoot his game.

The ball entered the prominence of the left cheek, shattered the bone and lodged in the cavity of the upper jaw bone. He will recover, but his face will be disfigured for life.

FIRE at Kearney Monday morning, starting at half past seven, burned down the Midway hotel, valued, with contents, at $150,000. Harry Heming, property boy of the Worden dramatic company, jumped from a third-story window and was killed. A high wind was blowing at the time but no other building was burned, owing to the good work of the fire department, aided by companies from Grand Island and Gibbon.

A BOARD of trade was organized at West Point on the 14th with a capital stock of $25,000, divided into 100 shares of $25 each, no one being permitted to take more than one share. Thirty-four subscribed at the meeting and the list has since increased to ninety, and the balance of the stock was taken on the 18th. Much interest is manifested, and West Point expects to have a boom this year.

MAJOR GENERAL GEORGE CROOK, of the United States army, in command of the department of the Missouri, died at Grand Pacific hotel, Chicago, at 7:45 March 21, of heart failure, without the slightest warning that he was not well. He was 61 years old in September last. A great soldier and a good man, he has departed from scenes of earthly conflict.

W. J. ARKELL, of Frank Leslie's and Judge, is back of a proposed exploring expedition to Alaska. The government will assist. The primary object of this search for information is to penetrate the country lying between the Copper and Yukon rivers in central Alaska, a stretch of many thousands of square miles never yet trod by white man.

On the petition of Attorney C. L. Clark, who has claims against the city of Columbus, O., Judge Pugh granted an injunction last week shutting off the electric lights of the city, enjoining the city solicitor from performing any duties and ordering the city clerk not to pay out any funds.

THIRTY thousand dockmen on a strike marched through the streets of Liverpool. It is reported in London that 10,000 miners in North Wales have joined the strike.

In a case brought to compel a school board to prohibit the teachers from reading the Bible to their pupils, the Wisconsin supreme court decided unanimously Tuesday of last week that as Christians differ on doctrinal points evolved from the scriptures, the reading of the Bible in the schools must be considered sectarian and repugnant to the constitution.

CHARLES LOCKE, a son of Charles Locke, a farmer living in Hamilton county, narrowly escaped a fatal accident Thursday evening. While hunting his gun was discharged and three fingers shot off and the fourth probably ruined.

On the morning of March 15, a part of the west side of Warren's hill at Troy, N. Y., a mass of clay and rock were down and carried away to the two story brick residence of Patrick Canfield.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

On the petition of Attorney C. L. Clark, who has claims against the city of Columbus, O., Judge Pugh granted an injunction last week shutting off the electric lights of the city, enjoining the city solicitor from performing any duties and ordering the city clerk not to pay out any funds.

THIRTY thousand dockmen on a strike marched through the streets of Liverpool. It is reported in London that 10,000 miners in North Wales have joined the strike.

In a case brought to compel a school board to prohibit the teachers from reading the Bible to their pupils, the Wisconsin supreme court decided unanimously Tuesday of last week that as Christians differ on doctrinal points evolved from the scriptures, the reading of the Bible in the schools must be considered sectarian and repugnant to the constitution.

CHARLES LOCKE, a son of Charles Locke, a farmer living in Hamilton county, narrowly escaped a fatal accident Thursday evening. While hunting his gun was discharged and three fingers shot off and the fourth probably ruined.

On the morning of March 15, a part of the west side of Warren's hill at Troy, N. Y., a mass of clay and rock were down and carried away to the two story brick residence of Patrick Canfield.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

On the petition of Attorney C. L. Clark, who has claims against the city of Columbus, O., Judge Pugh granted an injunction last week shutting off the electric lights of the city, enjoining the city solicitor from performing any duties and ordering the city clerk not to pay out any funds.

THIRTY thousand dockmen on a strike marched through the streets of Liverpool. It is reported in London that 10,000 miners in North Wales have joined the strike.

In a case brought to compel a school board to prohibit the teachers from reading the Bible to their pupils, the Wisconsin supreme court decided unanimously Tuesday of last week that as Christians differ on doctrinal points evolved from the scriptures, the reading of the Bible in the schools must be considered sectarian and repugnant to the constitution.

CHARLES LOCKE, a son of Charles Locke, a farmer living in Hamilton county, narrowly escaped a fatal accident Thursday evening. While hunting his gun was discharged and three fingers shot off and the fourth probably ruined.

On the morning of March 15, a part of the west side of Warren's hill at Troy, N. Y., a mass of clay and rock were down and carried away to the two story brick residence of Patrick Canfield.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.

From the Schuyler jail. Bath Donovan tells us that on Saturday morning as one of his sons, a boy about 11 years of age, was driving the cows out into the corn fields he saw what he took to be a large white owl sitting on a straw stack near by.