GASS-Friday, April 18th, at 4 p. m., Walter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gass, aged 7 years months and 23 days. Deceased had been sick ten days.

The funeral took place from the German Re form church Sunday afternoon at 2, a large number of neighbors and friends of the family being present. The services, under the direction of Rev. Fleischer, were very appropriate.

The lad was a great favorite with his playmate who were touched to solemnity and awe by the the sad event. By request of Walter, the following boys acted as pall bearers at his funeral: Vincent Galley John Stauffer, Eddie Hoppen and Carl Hoehen. The family have the heartfelt sympathy of all their friends in their sore affliction.

Sweet are the mem'ries Walter leaves, Sweet, though the wounded heart grieves, Missing the loved ones here. Short was his life, but his days were full Of gentle deeds, and loving words, Of all things, sweet and pure.

Bleat be the tenchings, his life leaves, Healing the wound that grieves, Jesus knew, for him, it was best. Safe from the cares and troubles of life, Safe from its sin, its sorrow, and strife, In his heavenly home to rest.
