SILVER CREEK, MAY 20, 1890. EDITOR JOURNAL: - In your last issue your Silver Creek correspondent makes this statement. "Nate Towslee carried a revolver to school the other day and after holding the teacher and some of the scholars at bay was finally coaxed lister. The line of march was again to let up." I am at a loss to guess from what your correspondent obtained his information. for it certainly is entirely untrue. No such incident occurred. Nate certainly never even showed a revolver to any teacher, and, after careful investigation. I fail to find any evidence that he ever brought a revolver to school. I make this statement simply in justice to the boy, his parents and the school
