In speaking of the death of Spencer Adkins, who died at the hospital in Platte last week, the Leigh World says: "We are satisfied that the old gentleman was splendidly taken care of during his stay at the Columbus hospital."

The sisters of the hospital have made many friends in their Christian work, and no one who has been under their care fails to speak highly of them.

A call has been issued by the democratic central committee of Platte county, for a county convention to be held Monday, August 11th, at 1 p. m., at Kohl's hall, Hampton, for the purpose of selecting ten delegates to each of the following conventions: state, congressional, senatorial, local, and placing in nomination a candidate for representative of the Twenty-fourth district, and for county attorney. The convention is to consist of 99 delegates, and primaries are to be held Friday, August 8th, between 2 and 4 o'clock.

A. Henry died yesterday morning at 10 o'clock at his home in this city, aged about 74 years. He had been troubled with stomach disorder for some time for a year or more, his diet has been milk exclusively. His fatal illness was of three weeks duration. His remains will be taken to Fremont, and funeral to take place Thursday. Mr. Henry was a man widely known, and respected for many good qualities. Peace to his memory.

Johnny Wordell, looking healthy and happy but minus his good left leg, is home from Columbus to stay. James Pearsall, the popular contractor and "boss" mechanic of Columbus, was awarded the job of enlarging and repairing Genoa's public school building. He will commence work at once so as to have the building ready for the fall term of school. The fact that Mr. Pearsall has the work in charge is a sufficient guarantee of its satisfactory performance. (Genoa Leader.)

W. P. Parker, one of the whitest men who travels for one of the best establishments in the world, The Western Cottage Organ Co., at Ottawa, Ill., was in the city Friday last on business. The company employ a hundred and twenty-five men and do a wonderful business, and the dulcet tones of their musical instruments are heard in the hands of houses and churches. Mr. Parker is such an intellectual looking man, that with those who don't know his calling, he is invariably classified as a statesman or a minister.

Last Thursday we called on "Doc" Beebe in St. Paul, whom we found progressing most favorably toward recovery. He now sits up, and is wheeled about from room to room in an ingeniously contrived chair, the combined invention of Dr. Fletcher and Matt Beebe. Next week it is hoped he will be able to drive out. In the St. Paul Photograph, from which we clip the above, we find mention of Mrs. A. Simmons and Mrs. Alonzo Haight of this vicinity, sisters of "Doc" Beebe, who had been visiting with him. Mrs. S. was also going to Greeley county, to visit her daughter, Mrs. Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Galley gave a lawn party at their home in this city in honor of the twelfth birthday of their daughter, Miss Ethel. There were thirty-four invited, lady and ladies present, besides relatives. The supper was one never to be forgotten, fruit, confectionery and all imaginable dainties. The yard was beautifully decorated with Chinese lanterns, and when some of the parents went to take their children home, they were so entertained themselves, they almost forgot their mission. Miss Ethel is one of the finest little ladies in town and her friends wish her many more happy returns of birthday anniversaries.

MacFlinn & Hahn, New York agents in rental real estate, will exhibit at Columbus Saturday, August 28th, that the world would like to see. Wonderful and rare, thrilling nights and daring deeds collected in all parts of the world and standing above and beyond any and all amusement enterprises of a country, combining as it does, earth's best and greatest wonders. Featuring nothing not identified with progress and enterprise, every thing being a feature of features and in the aggregate, twelve times the greatest show on earth for 100 money. Admission to all, 25 cents. Doors open at 1 and 7 p. m., performance one hour later.

Joe Kuchel, familiarly known as Crazy Joe, got on the rampage Sunday morning because a loose cow, waiting for the herd boys to come around, got tired and nipped some of his corn. He chased the cow to the residence of Mrs. Julius Hoth, and pummed around at the windows and doors, making considerable racket. Mr. Hoth was away, and Mrs. Hoth, having seen the Poland and knowing what kind of a creature he is, had fastened the doors and windows. After Joe had gone from the house, a neighbor went in and found Mrs. Hoth insensible and also that she had given premature birth to a child. As we go to press we learn that there is good prospect of Mrs. Hoth's recovering. Joe was an adjudged insane.

Mrs. Craig, widow of Johnson Craig, deceased, died at her home two miles east of Cadiz, in Green township, on Thursday, July 17th. Her husband died a year or two ago. They had lived on the same farm for more than fifty years, and were well known by almost everybody within a wide circuit. She was the mother of three sons and two daughters, Thompson and William, of Nebraska, and Alvin, who resides on the old homestead, and Mrs. M. K. Turner, and Mrs. G. W. Brown, of Nebraska. She was one of the best of women, and lived a long, wise, and happy life, and has gone to the reward of those who are faithful here. Her remains were interred beside those of her husband in the Cadiz cemetery. (Cadiz Republican.)

A letter from G. W. Turner states that Fred, Matthews, who had an attack of la grippe at Barcelona, Spain, has never fully recovered from it, being afflicted with a numbness in right arm and leg, afterwards, at Hanover, developing into something like paralysis, as expressed by the doctor. He has been using the battery, but his doctor told him the battery was weak. Fred is about sixty years old. He sailed July 9th for America, intending to go to Sarnia, Canada. He was placed on board ship in charge of some Nebraskans who were coming home, and all his expenses paid by Mr. Cody. George writes that from Brunswick the Wild West goes to Berlin, and whether or not they will come to America this fall he does not know.

The entertainment given by Miss Mae North at the opera house last Saturday evening was fairly well attended by a very appreciative audience. Miss Mae has been studying elocution in Chicago the past year, and being naturally gifted she entertained her audience very nicely. Miss Powers of Mississippi sang two solos and was enchaired both times, but only responded once. She is probably the finest soprano singer Columbus audiences have ever had the pleasure of listening to, having a very sweet voice, and perfect control of it. The quartettes by Messrs. Bowman and Cornelius and Meadames Evans and Cornelius, being enchaired twice. Miss Kittie Cowdery of Lincoln presided at the piano and rendered a selection in instrumental music that showed her talent and skill in that art.

week, at the school house in district 12. Nance county, on Saturday last week was not very numerously attended. Three demonstrators and six prohibitionists was the sum total. The republican party was denounced as usual by said prohibitionists. Keep right on, gentlemen, that is the way to the center.

James Hudson's little folks have fully recovered from their recent illness. (Yorkes Truth.)

Palatine. L. P. Nelson, the sick man, has recovered.

The Fourth of July Columbus balloon is supposed to have sailed up this way and lighted at Mt. Leff's pasture. A neighbor saw it and kindly took it in out of the cold, while it quietly hangs on a nail up stairs except when brought down to showers.

We sympathize with J. C. Caldwell, Esq., in the death of his aged father. We sympathize with him because when our parents are dead we are orphans and we feel their loss deeply, no matter what our own age may be. We rejoice with him because the poor suffering body is at rest and he is "where the inhabitants never say, I wish you were."

There will be an open meeting of the Palestine alliance at the school house August 8. Speakers from other alliances will be present. Commences at 8 o'clock p. m.

Our corn crop needs rain again very much. Harvesting is all finished, except one or two pieces in the neighborhood. Some are done stacking. J. F. Abrahamson & Co. have commenced threshing.

Last year's corn is not all shelled yet. We called on Nels Berlin one day this week and he told us that he had examined his new house as well as we could be peering into windows and looking at the outside. Mr. Berlin has a nice little house, though unlike any other we ever saw. His grounds are artistically planned, and when occupied his idea fully carried out, his fine farm will be envied by no other in this beautiful Lakingsburg valley. When Mrs. Berlin comes we will call on her, who ever the fortunate lady may be.

Mr. Oleason, our mail carrier, was sick last Saturday so that he was unable to take the mail down in the afternoon. This is the first time Mr. Oleason has been in bed in any mail, no matter what the weather or time of year, in over four years.
