Republican Platform. The republicans of Nebraska reiterate and cordially indorse the fundamental principles of the republican party as eunciated by successive national republican conventions from 1856 to 1888 and believe the republican party capable of dealing with every vital issue that concerns the American people, wherever the rank and file of the republican party are attorney.

litical rights.

We heartily indorse the wise and conservative administration of President Harrison. We also fully approve the wise action of the republican members of both houses of congress in fulfilling the pledges of the party in legislation upon the coinage of silver and other measures of national importance and congratulate the country upon the continued reduction of the national debt. We most heartily indorse the action of disability pension bill and a republican president who approved the same and regard it as an act of justice too long delayed because of the opposition to all congress; yet we do not regard it as the full recognition of the great debt of obligation which the government and the son of whose sacrifice and devotion the union was saved and the government restored. We do further repeat our declaration in favor of just and fair servof service for every soldier and sailor who fought in behalf of the union, and by reason of whose services and devotion the government now exists.

We hold an honest, popular ballot and equal representation of all the people to be the foundation of our republican government and demand effective legislation to secure the integrity and purity of elections, which are the foundation of all public authority.

We favor such revision of the election laws of the state as will guarantee to every voter the greatest possible secrecy in the casting of his ballot and secure the punishment of any who attempt the corruption or intimidation of voters, and we favor the Australian ballot system cable both to primary and regular elections so far as it can conform to our ful and peaceful means to secure to itself the greatest reward for thrift and industry. We are in favor of laws compelling railroads and manufacturers to use all appliances which science supplies for the protection of laborers against accident. We demand the enactment of a law defining the liability of employers for injuries sustained by employes in cases where proper safeguards have not been used in occupations dangerous to life, limb or health; railway and other public corporations should be subject to control through the legislative power that created them. Their undue influence in legislation and imposition of unnecessary burdens upon the people and illegitimate increase of stock or capital should be prohibited by stringent laws.

We demand of the state that the property of corporations shall be taxed he same as that of individuals; that the provisions of our constitution, requiring the assessment of franchises shall be enforced by suitable legislation. We demand the reduction of freight and passenger rates on railroads to correspond with rates now prevailing in adjacent states in the Mississippi valley, and we further demand that the next legislature shall abolish all passes or free transportation on railroads, excepting for employes of the railroad com-

We demand the establishment of the system of postal telegraphy, and request our members in congress to vote and work for government ownership or control of the telegraph.

We indorse the action of the interstate commission in ordering a reduction of the grain rates between the Missouri fair crop, the Middle states show a river and lake ports. We favor the modification of the stat-

I. L. Albert.

The republican and people's independ ent candidate for county attorney was born in Clearfield county, Pennsylvania Dec. 28, 1856.

His father being engaged in the lumber business, this was also the occupation of young Albert until he was nine teen years old, at which time he came west, attending the Western college at Toledo, Ia., of which his uncle, E. B Kephart, was president, and of which he is a graduate.

Under the direction of Hon. F. C. Hormel, a prominent attorney of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, he studied law, and was admitted to practice in Plymouth couny. He practiced in Iowa courts till 1886, when he came to Albion, Neb., where he had an extensive practice until last fall, when health failed him, and he spent the winter months on the Pacific coast. Early last spring he returned to Nebraska, and with J. D. Stires, esq., opened a law office in this city.

By his acquaintances here Mr. Albert regarded as a young man of exceptionally good ability, a bright lawyer and one who will be a credit to himself and an honor to the political parties which have selected him as their candi date for the important office of county look with unusual interest to the Dodge county convention at Fremont on the 16th, as that may possibly settle the question as to whether the present incumbent will be a candidate. After the state convention (where Richards, a Dodge county man was selected as the candidate for governer), it seemed the almost universal opinion that Dorsey would not be a candidate for congress, that is to say, the political elements were tending to some other than a Dodge county man for that office. Since the other party nominations for the district have been made, however, Dorsey ward position in which that would leave some of the republicans of Dodge county. ore in immense quantities in Mount Pleasant precinct in the southern part of Cass county was the cause of considerable excitement, but when the two farmers, J. C. Smith and George Edson upon whose land the discovery was made returned from Omaha bearing the news that the specimens they had taken to that city for analyzation had proved to contain 70 per cent of pure iron the citizens of that neighborhood have been almost wild over the intelligence. The croppings of the ore are not confined to the farms mentioned but exist all over the precinct and are certain to pan out wouderfully. The development of the find is of vast importance to Cass county and to Nebraska at large. Under the Madison county fair, Madison, Seppresent system the cost per car for shipment to Omaha from western ore mines is $75, while from the new Eldorado it is but $8. This is an immense saving in freight, while the large per cent of iron found in the ore is certain to create a great boom in iron milling in this sec tion. A stock company is being formed to hasten the development of the new mines and a fortune is certain to land owners in that section.

OUR distillery people are having more rouble. A revenue collector came up from Omaha last week and found the store house had been broken open and five barrels of whisky gone. The deputy narshal came up and took V. B. Lewis, Allen Lewis and Herbert Warner, acused of breaking into the store house and stealing whisky, and six others as witnesses to Omaha. They took all the whisky from the store house and the tills from the distillery. Whatever are we to do, with the whisky gone and old Jim in Virginia? Some consolation: We have our drug store left, if we can only keep track of the pass-word. [Meadow Grove, Madison county, correspondence of Norfolk News.

THE Nebraska farmer who this year raises twenty or twenty-five bushels of corn to the acre will receive as much noney for it as he received last year for his sixty bushels. That is, of course, supposing that the house will make any extraordinary delay in acting upon the conference report of the senate amendments to the tariff bill, which will include one on reciprocity.

The investigation of charges against Commissioner of Pensions Raum, practically fell through before it got started. It seems to have been more of an at tempt to break down the credit of Gen. Raum as a private business man than to prove that he has been guilty of any official wrong doing. The committee has adjourned to September 1, and no one has the slightest doubt that its report will exonerate Gen. Raum.

The senate gave up Saturday to eulogies upon the late Senator Beck. Senators Blackburn, Ingalls, Allison and Vest were the principal speakers. According to the promise recently made to the representatives of the labor organizations by Speaker Reed and Representatives Cannon and McKinley, the republican members of the house committee on rules a resolution has been reported, and adopted by the house setting aside Thursday and Saturday of this week for the consideration of bills from the labor committee.

The resolution which has already passed the senate, anent the removal of the remains of Gen. Grant from New York to Arlington cemetery, will probably go through the house this week. Representative O'Neill of Pennsylvania, asked unanimous consent for its consideration Saturday, but Representative Duinn of New York, objected. No one loubts that the remains will be brought here eventually.

The anti-lottery feeling seems to be growing among the people in congress. Representative Hansbrough of North Dakota, has introduced a joint resolution providing that neither the United States nor any state shall pass any law authorizing the establishment or maintenance of any lottery or company for the distribution of prizes by chance.

Senator Rusk, who was largely instrumental in getting the bill passed, thinks the bill for the inspection of all meats intended for exportation which is now in the hands of the president, will, as soon as it becomes a law, make a large increase in the demand for American meat in foreign countries. He is also very much interested in the bill regulating the sale and manufacture of compound lard, and the taxing dealers in THE state conventions have all been options, both of which are to be disposed of this week.

county, to the county convention held in Fullerton Thursday last. Charley Casselberry of Polk county, formerly of this place, is here visiting among friends and relatives.

S. J. Peterson threshed 263 bushels of fiax seed off of twenty acres of ground one day last week, an average of a little over thirteen bushels per acre; not so bad for a drouthy season.

G. O. Barnes of Lacon, Ill., is here at present, looking over his numerous farms in this section and throughout Nance county.

Fred Signer and Frank Burhans of Wheeler county came down last week on the hunt of work, we hope the boys will succeed and think they will, for we know them to be good honest workers. Jos. Apgar leaves this Tuesday for Grand Island to take in the soldiers' reunion.

WITHOUT A PEER! Examine the Ranges carefully when our gentlemanly and responsible agents call on you, as they will in a few days. Our Ranges are made from the BEST materials and the most skilled workmen in the world.

These Ranges are Sold only From our Wagons. Below please find a few among the many recommendations from persons who are now using our Ranges: OKAY, Neb., August 26, 1890. We, the undersigned, do hereby certify we have been using a Home Comfort Cooking Range for the past few weeks, purchased from the traveling salesman for the W. I. R. Co of St. Louis, Mo. We will say to our friends and neighbors, the range is a perfect baker, consumes less fuel than any stove or range we have ever used, plenty of hot water all the time, and for convenience we think it cannot be excelled by any stove or range we have ever seen. Mrs. H. M. Thurston. Genoa, Neb., September 1, 1890. On the 19th day of August, 1890, I purchased of Mr. Frank Connelly, traveling salesman for Wrought Iron Range Co., one of the Home Comfort Ranges, and find it to be all it is claimed to be. It gives perfect satisfaction in every respect.

HENRY STEVENS. CLARKS, Neb. I bought of the Wrongly Iron Range Co. of St. Louis, a Home Comfort Range and I find it all it is recommended. It does the work as a cooker complete and saves one half the fuel. Will recommend it to my neighbors as a good baker and [Signed.] H. Robison.

Genoa, Neb., August 18, 1890.

To whom this may concern This is to certify that I bought of Mr. Frank Connelly, salesman for the Wrought Iron Range Co. of St. Louis, Mo., one of the Home Comfort Ranges, and can cheerfully say that it gives entire satisfaction. Yours respectfully,

JOHN H. LAWRENCE,

YORK, Neb., July 30, 1890. To whom it may concern: This is to certify that we have been using one of the Home Comfort Ranges for the past three years and can cheerfully recommend it to any one as being a first-class range in every respect. The same grates that were in our range when we bought it are in it yet and are good. We have been in the hotel business for 26 years and have used many different stoves and we consider the Home Comfort Yours respectfully, the best we ever tried.

MONTICELLO, Jefferson County, Fla., February 20, 1890. Wrought Iron Range Co., St. Louis, Mo. Gentlemen: In the year 1884 we purchased one of your Home Comfort ranges. Three months ago our house was set on fire by one of our children, and being built of rich pine it burned to the ground, completely covering our range. When the fire had died down, we got our range out of the debris. We took the warped pieces and laid them on a log and straightened them with an ax. We put them in their respective places, set the range up on two logs in the yard and cooked on it for three months in the rain, sunshine and all kinds of weather and there is not a crack about it. We are using the range yet. Any one doubting this statement can get my sworn statement by
