NEW NATIONAL PARTY

IT IS INCUBATED IN THE CITY OF ST. LOUIS.

Its Platform Has Pretty Nearly as Many Planks as the Convention Had Delegates—Various News of Political and General Nature.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 6. A new political party has finally been accouched here. The national reform party, for such it is named, is the outcome of the convention assembled during the last thirty-six hours. The platform embraces twenty-four planks. Abolition of the national banks, prohibition, government control of railroads, uniform marriage laws, and protesting against the alien ownership of lands, tariff reform, regulation of corporations, restriction of pauper immigration, were among the sentiments voiced and agreed to. A national executive committee was appointed, consisting of W. W. Jones, of Chicago; Mrs. F. E. Williams, of the W. C. T. U.; Mrs. A. E. V. Emery, Lansing, Mich.; Edward Evans, Tonawanda, N. Y.; Hiram Main, Marion, Ind.

J. V. Farwell & Co. Deny That They Are Embarrassed.

CHICAGO, Sept. 6.—J. V. Farwell, Jr., was emphatic in his denial of the story that the firm of J. V. Farwell & Co. is crippled or likely to be by the Potter-Lovell failure. Such rumors have been in circulation since the failure, and although not generally thought to be well founded, have been the cause of much speculation in the business world as to just how the firm in question stands. That it is all crippled Mr. Farwell denies.

"It is a baseless rumor," said Mr. Farwell. "We are not injured in the least and this talk is absolute nonsense. Nothing can hurt us. As to the rumors regarding Congressman Taylor's embarrassment I can say nothing as I know nothing whatever about Col. Taylor's affairs. But as to the rumors regarding the firm's condition they should be branded as absolutely false."

As the failure was but for $2,000,000 while Farwell & Co. have solid backing exclusive of the their business profit of $6,000,000, Mr. Farwell's statements seem to be amply supported by figures. Congressman Taylor also figured largely in the rumors, and is said to be involved in the failure, but as he is not in the city nothing definite can be learned.

Manufacturers Combine to Repel the Aggressions of Organized Labor.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 6.—A number of the richest corporations in the country have formed an alliance against strikes. Among the members are the Westinghouse system, the Yale Lock company, the Coit Axle company, and four or five other large factories, and, presumably, the Pullman interests. In the compact it is agreed that in case a strike occurs to enforce unreasonable demands, whether the strike is against one or all of the associated factories, all work is to cease. The strikers are to be allowed to remain idle until they see fit to return to work, and no factory is to employ any worker who may leave another factory on a strike. Neither is any associated factory to send workers out on strike from any of the following: The institutions named employ between 50,000 and 60,000 workers and directly support from 250,000 to 300,000 people, exclusive of the other interests depending upon each one of these people. It is claimed by the manufacturers that the action of the workers forced the alliance.

Texas Republicans Name a Ticket.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Sept. 6. The republican state convention has adjourned sine die, after nominating the following ticket: Governor, Webster Flanagan, of Hunt; lieutenant-governor, W. K. McKenzie, of Williamson; attorney general, J. T. Hagler, of El Paso; comptroller, William Woodhead, of DeWitt; land commissioner, J. K. P. Dowell, of Childress; treasurer, J. D. Schnitz, of Denton; superintendent of public instruction, Dr. W. Lidger, of Bexar.

The platform reaffirms adherence to the principles of the republican party; indorses the administration of President Harrison; favors reciprocity treaties with American states; favors encouragement by subsidies or otherwise, of lines of ocean transportation with said states; indorses the financial policy of the government, the silver bill, etc., and favors the Australian ballot and "all other proper measures that will render elections a free and honest expression of the will of the people."

How Illinois was Able to Beat Ohio in the Census.

CENTRALIA, Ill., Sept. 6.—The sixth annual reunion of the historic Gaston family has begun here. This is perhaps the largest family organization in the state, numbering 1,500 persons, all descendants of William Gaston, who came to Illinois in 1829. The family records show that he was the father of nine children, fifty-five grandchildren, 350 great grandchildren, 700 great-great-grandchildren and 150 great-great-great-grandchildren, over 900 of whom are now living. William Gaston was born in North Carolina in 1755 and joined the Continental army under George Washington. The genealogy of the family dates back to the sixth century, and they were blood relations to Charles XII., but were exiled from France on account of their religion and took refuge in Scotland and northern Ireland for a number of years and became Scotch-Irish. They came to America about the year 1650.

Still Discussing Kennedy's Roast.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—Representative Kennedy's speech attacking the senate and Senator Quay has not yet been printed in the Record, so that no action has been taken in respect to it. Even if it should appear and Mr. Kennedy to-day asserted that it would—just as it was delivered, it is not certain that anything will be done. Representative Boatner, of Louisiana, who is not known to have been present when the speech was delivered, is very much incensed over the affair and has prepared a resolution to expel Kennedy in case the speech should be printed in the Record, but it is not likely that anything will be done at all, certainly not so heroic as Boatner purposes.

Nevada Republicans.

VIRGINIA, Nev., Sept. 6.—The republican state convention made the following nominations: For governor, R. K. Colcord; supreme judge, R. E. Bigelow; district judge, R. Rising; congressman, H. F. Bartlett; lieutenant-governor, J. Penjader; attorney-general, J. D. Torrey; secretary of state, O. H. Gray; clerk of the supreme court, Joseph Josephs; comptroller, R. R. Roberts; treasurer, John F. Eagan; surveyor-general, John E. Jones; superintendent of public instruction, Orvis Kluge; state printer, Joseph E. Eckley; university regents, E. T. George and J. W. Haines.

An Important Circular From the Land Commissioner.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—Land Commissioner Groff has issued to the registers and receivers of the land offices a circular releasing from reservation the lands of the arid region. It calls attention to that portion of the act approved Aug. 30, 1890 which repeals so much of the act of Oct. 2, 1888, as withdrew lands in the arid regions in the United States from entry, occupation and settlement, with the exception that the reservoir sites heretofore located or selected shall remain segregated and reserved from entry or settlement until otherwise provided by law, and that persons who settled on or settle on public lands shall in like manner be protected from the date of location, entry or selection. The circulars of [illegible] Aug. 9, 1889, are revoked. The entries validated by this act will be noted upon the tract books and plats of the local offices and certificates issued therefor. Entries made subsequent to the date of this act and prior to the receipt of the circular of instructions validated by the first section of this act will be noted upon the tract books and plats of the local offices and certificates issued therefor. Parties who at any time prior to the passage of this act have failed to make proof and payment on account of the failure of the law which restricts the aggregation of title under the land laws to 320 acres in aggregate. The circular says:

"Should it appear from all papers which file in the local office at the time of the final law of the United States expires showing that since August 30, 1890, the having filed upon or entered more than the maximum quantity of land which could make the tracts applied for more than a fair day's work, you will require an affidavit to that effect."

Lawyer Bested.

NEW YORK, Sept. 6. Sporting men had a piece of news to discuss last night. It was to the effect that Jerry McAuliffe, the lawyer, had been seduced in love to the pugilistic fold by Mike Dwyer, had been induced in love to the pugilistic fold by Mike Dwyer, had been induced in love to the pugilistic fold by Mike Dwyer, had been indu
