FOR ALBION AND CEDAR RAPIDS

Table with columns for destination, time, and fare. Includes routes to Albion and Cedar Rapids.

SOCIETY NOTICES

Ed Sheehan fell from a tree Friday and hurt his neck. A specialty at this office is job work of the highest quality.

Fire Department

Men disagree on politics and religion; some are for the amendment and others very much opposed to it, but all smoke 'Tony' Heitkemper's cigars.

F. W. Herrick's card appears in today's issue. He has a fine line of goods, and will give you satisfaction in prices.

Some of the towns of the state are trying the school banking system. The deposits the first day at Schuyler footed up $77,811, total number of deposits, 102.

Messrs. Manger of Fremont, Cunningham of Lincoln, Moody of Genoa, Martin of Clark and Hampton of David City are among the visiting attorneys attending court.

We learn that quite a number of those who moved from the vicinity of Humphrey, this county, to Washington and Oregon, have concluded to return, not liking that country.

Rev. J. Q. A. Phearty, formerly of this city, has been assigned to Arlington, J. L. St. Clair to Madison; J. H. Edelbute goes to Schuyler; J. H. Johnson goes to Platte Center.

The supreme court has remanded for trial the case of Kriski v. the C. & B. & Q. railway company. It was a suit brought for alleged malicious prosecution, on a charge of stealing tires.

G. W. Brown, ex., of Cedar Rapids, who was a delegate to the congressional convention, stayed over a day to meet old friends. His broken leg and dislocated ankle have given him considerable pain.

Those having left with me pictures to frame or furniture to repair, should call for it, immediately. I cannot be responsible for it more than two months from the date of this—September 24th. Sam'l Glass.

James A. Grimison has been nominated for county attorney by the republicans and the alliance of Colfax county. This will make his election pretty sure as against Miles Zentmyer, the candidate of the democracy.

John Giesse has purchased Sam'l Glass's stock of furniture, taking possession Tuesday. He has a nice stock of goods and is a very clever man to do business with. Look out for his advertisement next week.

Wednesday last, the wind whirled the old Congregational church building a little, causing it upon the blocks a little and setting the building down in the middle. Mr. Duffy will not make much money out of this job of moving.

McTaggart's team took a spin around Wednesday evening last, doing no serious damage. A few wagons are handy in more ways than one. For a man who has so much to do with horses, we don't know of one who has fewer accidents.

Judge Sheesley solemnized the marriage of Geo. H. Couch of Columbus and Belle Foote of Osceola at the bride's residence Monday morning. The happy couple, the same day took the 11:23 train for Columbus their future home.—(Osceola Record.)

We haven't the least doubt but the U. S. Marshall could find work in this county, not only at Duncan, but also at Cornelia. At the latter place, we are informed that there is a man, without license, sells intoxicating liquors, and has been known to sell to minors.

Elsewhere in today's paper will be found the advertisement of the Columbus Lumber Company. Their yard is on Thirteenth street; they keep everything in the line of building materials, and will give you complete satisfaction in their manner of transacting business.

E. O. Wells is feeding twenty head of steers for the market—Thursday last lightning struck one of his hay stacks and was burned—about ten tons of hay. The same day a U. P. train killed twelve of his shoats worth about $30. And thus life consists of one streak of fat and two of lean.

The Union Pacific Company has offered a reward of $100 for the arrest and conviction of the miscreants who placed a lot of ties on the tracks half a mile west of Schuyler, Tuesday of last week. In any way, a timely discovery and removal of the obstruction before any danger was done.

It seemed to be the unanimous feeling of the delegates present at the congressional convention last week that the republicans and citizens generally of Columbus had done the handsome thing by their guests; the vote of thanks tendered by the convention was a deserved recognition of the fact.

PERSONAL

George W. Halset and family returned to the city Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Fillman returned Sunday from Chicago.

C. J. Garlow was in Platte Center Friday on legal business. Ghordis Stull was in town Saturday, and gave us a pleasant call.

Judge Reed of Mansfield, Ohio, is visiting his brother's family here. Mrs. D. C. Kavanaugh returned Friday from a few weeks sojourn in Milwaukee.

Mrs. Shoaf of Osceola was on a visit to Mrs. John Eberhart of Shell creek last week. W. H. Carnahan, now of Hastings, a former business man here, was in the city Monday.

Fremont Hoy was in town Friday. His wife and children started that day for a visit east. Rev. J. V. Griswold went to Craig, Burt county, last week to attend the Omaha Presbytery.

Mrs. J. C. Post of Kingfisher station, Oklahoma, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Speice. Maurice A. Mayer, who has been sick about a portion of the past week, was reported better Monday.

Arnold Oehlrich, who had a pretty serious time of it the past week, was reported mending on Monday. Miss Anna Kelley of the vicinity of Osceola made a very short visit with her friends Misses Anna and Martha Turner last week.

Frank Salmon went last week to Omaha, where he will attend school. He is a bright, active lad, and we hope to see him succeed. John Wiggins is improving in health at the Hot Springs near Rapid City, Dakota. His many friends would be rejoiced to know of his complete recovery.

Michael Savage and his sister, Miss Bride Savage, left Tuesday night last week for a sojourn of several days in Salt Lake and Ogden. They are again at home. Chas. Mathews, the young man who stole a horse belonging to Mr. Webster, of Platte county, from Losky's livery barn in Madison, was brought before Judge Powers in chambers this morning and pled guilty to the charge of horse stealing made in the information. A petition signed by about one hundred citizens of Plainview, relating that the young man had always been a good reputation prior to the escape, and that he was led to commit the crime through the use of liquor, and recommending him to the clemency of the court, was presented. Two uncles of Mathews were present and spoke in high terms of his conduct prior to falling into bad company and habits of drinking about a year ago. In view of these facts Powers gave the young man a light sentence, eighteen months in the penitentiary. Mathews is not quite 23 years of age and has been in Nebraska about four years. His parents reside in Iowa. Sheriff Loey took the prisoner to Madison and will convey him to the penitentiary week after next.—(Norfolk News.)

Bishop Bowman, at the M. E. conference Monday morning, at Wayne, read the following appointments for this district. The friends of Rev. Worley will be exceedingly glad that he comes back: Presiding Elder, J. E. Moore; Albion, J. B. Leedom; Alton circuit, to be supplied; Belgrade, to be supplied; Cairo and Cameron, to be supplied; Cedar Rapids, E. C. Harper; Central City, D. K. Tyndall; Chapman and Fairview, C. F. Heywood; Charis, to be supplied; Columbus, W. M. Worley; Fulton, N. A. Martin; Genoa circuit, to be supplied; Grand Island, left church, W. H. Pillsbury; Grand Island, Trinity, H. L. Powers; Greeley circuit, to be supplied; Palmer and Cushing, to be supplied; Prairie Island, to be supplied; St. Edward, D. T. Olcott; St. Paul, H. A. Barton; Scotia, Lewis Campbell; Silver Creek, A. L. Mickel; Wood River, D. C. Wertz.

We have a pressing invitation to make the office of the Sioux City Newspaper Union our headquarters during our stay in the city while the corn part festival lasts—Sept. 25-Oct. 11. We are not sure that we can come, but you can proceed with the festival, just the same. A difference of one or two persons don't count for much in such cases. This will be your "fourth annual festival of the eighth wonder of the world," and as you have been making it better each year, keep your "gait. One word of caution: you ought to do something to dampen the ardor of your guests, because last year, the home-stayers really suffered from the weight of enthusiasm that was brought home and piled upon their shoulders—it was a weighty load, grievous to be borne, and we do not think our visiting friends to go entirely deaf this year. 1 mitigate your friendliness.

Miss Frances E. Willard was arrested Friday evening at the opera house by a large and appreciative audience, who were delighted with the address. Many, opposed to the prohibitory amendment, remarked that the address as a plea for temperate living, was the best they had ever heard. The thanks of those who heard the talented lady are due to the W. C. T. U. of this city for the favor. The introduction by the president, Mrs. Hickok, the reading of the scripture lesson by Mrs. Butler, the music, in fact, everything contributed to a delightful evening. A night blooming cereus on the stage, the presence of Mrs. E. O. Wells, took occasion to "unfurl its spool-rose" during the address.

Ex-Gov. Larrabee of Iowa will address the people of Columbus and vicinity on the amendment question in the opera house next Thursday evening, Sept. 25th. Mr. Larrabee is a calm, cool and logical speaker. Coming right from the great prohibition debate at Grand Island he is entitled to a respectful hearing by the business men of Columbus. Turn out everybody. Admission free, and ladies especially invited.—(Communitarian.)

Rev. Griswold was elected moderator for the next six months, of the Presbytery of Omaha, which met at Craig last Tuesday and Wednesday. Rev. R. M. L. Braden was appointed Presbyterial Evangelist. Among matters of interest was an address by Big Elk of the Omaha tribe, an elder in the church, on the progress of the church in the tribe. A hundred marriages were recently solemnized in one day, in the tribe.

Woodville

Fine fall weather. Haying is all done throughout this section; as much, if not more, has been put up than last year.

The heaviest rain of the season occurred last Thursday morning, commencing at 3 o'clock and lasting seven and a half hours; from four to six inches fell. This has put the ground in splendid condition for plowing.

The Beaver school commenced on Monday of last week with twenty pupils enrolled. Wm. Donoran of Loganport, Ind., spent a part of last week with old friends here—J. W. Appar and family.

Henry Peterson was out of town perambulating our streets Saturday. Mrs. J. W. Currier is rusticing with friends and relatives in Green Lake, Wis., her former home, and Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Barkley with friends and relatives in Montgomery county, Ill.

Thomas Dress was a delegate from this place to the congressional convention held in your city Wednesday. Miss Dorothy Potter of Osceola is the guest of her sister Mrs. Nellie Dress, at this writing.

After a six months' run the Beaver Sabbath school closes next Sunday; the school has not been the success this season as in the past, for want of attendance. Several from these parts went down to Genoa Thursday to take in the great (?) independent, mungump, blow-out. In the words of our grave old generals, "we admire their pluck, but condemn their judgment."

D. L. Clark was an attendant at the Big Third convention in the interest of his favorite, Mr. Meiklejohn, and after vigorous debate, the nomination returned home a full-fledged, unattached, independent mungump. It seems that Mr. Clark has yet to learn that he can't have anything he wants in this world, as Mr. Dorney was chosen by the convention by an almost unanimous vote, and is a congressman of more than average intelligence, as those who know him can testify to; we think that the adherents of the G. O. P. should abide by the choice and work with might and main for his re-election. We have been for Dorney from first to last, and Deo Volente will help elect him November 4 for another two years. R. S. USSA.

Columbus Township. A caucus of the republicans of Columbus township is hereby called to meet at the Township Hall, north of the city Saturday, Oct. 4th, at 2 p. m., for the purpose of nominating a township supervisor, justice of the peace, clerk, treasurer, three road overseers and for the transaction of any other business that may properly come before the meeting. 23-21 JOHN TASHKILL, Com.

Notice of Dissolution. NOTICE is hereby given that the partnership of W. S. Slater and C. H. Corbrey, dissolved, with effect from the date of this notice, and the business of the partnership will be conducted by C. H. Corbrey, and the said C. H. Corbrey, and the said W. S. Slater, severally, and not jointly, and the said C. H. Corbrey, and the said W. S. Slater, severally, and not jointly, shall be bound by the acts and doings of the said C. H. Corbrey, and the said W. S. Slater, severally, and not jointly, in the management and conduct of the business of the partnership, and the said C. H. Corbrey, and the said W. S.
