The Advantage of Presence of Mind in a During the late strike on the New York Central Railread, the militia were ordered to be in readiness in case of a riot, but they were not called out.

In an interview Gov. Hill said the troops were not to be called upon except in case of an emergency. The emergency had not atises, therefore they would not be ordered out. He remarked that this was the first great strike with which he had had experience, and he did not propose to lose his head; the only point at which there had

Men with level heads have the staying qualities which do not faiter in the face of danger. Otis A. Cole, of Kinsman, O., June 10, 1890, writes: "In the fall of 1888 I was feeling very ill. I consulted a doctor and he said I had Bright's disease of the kidneys and that he would not stand in my es for the State of Ohio." But he did hot lose courage or give up; he says: "I saw the testimonial of Mr. John Coleman; 100 Gregory St., New Haven, Conn., and I wrote to him. In due time I received an answer, stating that the testimonial he gave was genuine and not overdrawn in any particular. I took a good many bottles of Warner's Safe Cure; have not taker any for one year." Gov. Hill is accounted a very successful man; he is cool and calculating and belongs to the class that do not lose their heads when emergencies arise.

A THOROUGH reform of the Prussian ystem of taxation has been planned by Finance Minister Miquel and will be submitted soon to the Prussian deputies The principal ideas of this reform are the closer estimate of the incomes of taxpayers, the heavier taxation of funded income in comparison with salaries or wages and the extension of the inheritence tax to children, parents, and the widow or widower. Herr Miquel also purposes to introduce several quite new provisions concerning the number of children and other dependents in each
