Rev. J. E. Ensign of Omaha assisted Rev. W. M. Worley last week conducting revival meetings, and is expected again this week. Rev. Hunt of the Congregational church is also to preach once during the week.

A little five-line item some weeks ago in the JOURNAL in regard to candidates for office on the independent ticket this fall has been the cause of very considerable talk and newspaper comment, even provoking outbursts of poetry on the part of our steady brother of the Monroe Looking Glass. What next?

See the statement of the Columbus State Bank at the close of business, Feb. 21. It is certainly a splendid showing for "The Old Reliable," which makes a specialty of helping its customers when they need help. It is plain to be seen, by the amount of deposits, the regard had for the institution by the general public.

Senator Paddock made a plea in the U. S. Senate last week for aid to western settlers to enable them to irrigate their lands, and thus make more valuable the remainder (two-thirds of the whole) that are owned by the United States. Irrigation, whether done by private enterprise or by the United States, must come soon or later, to make agriculture a success, in very many portions of the growing west.

The Larch World, published near the terrible trip, says, that the "Larch World" is a leading citizen and his friends and acquaintances regarded him as a man of high moral character. No one would ever have considered him capable of committing the atrocious crime. It is alleged that from time to time his wife had on Thursday evening at her husband and grossly disregarded her marriage vows.

Honorary members of fire companies who wish to be exempted from service on juries must look to compliance with the law which provides that a certificate of membership must be filed with the clerk of the district court, and makes it the duty of the secretary or foreman of the company to do the same. Judge Marshall, at Schuyler, recently refused to excuse a juror from the reason that the law had not thus been complied with.

The Ladies' Musical met Monday evening with Mrs. F. H. Rische, all the twenty-nine members being present. A very interesting program is reported. Special meetings are to be added to the regular ones to prepare for the concert that is to be given the last of the month to be tomorrow, (Thursday), with Mrs. E. H. Chambers, the next regular meeting to be Monday next with Mrs. J. A. Barber, in the parlor of the Thurston.

A prominent independent remarked Saturday that Stevens & Schelp, representatives, had killed themselves politically by their support of the county seat removal bill. He had nothing further to say of Stevens, but declared that Schelp, before his nomination by the independent party and again before the endorsement of his nomination by the republicans of Platte county, in convention assembled, declared not only to himself but to others that he named to us, that he was opposed to the county seat removal scheme.

The Iowa state lecturer for the Alliance advised each county Alliance to secure a copy of the Congressional Record, so as to see exactly how each member talks. This is an excellent notion. The government allows to each representative twenty copies, free of charge, and they can give them to such persons as they may wish. The Record costs $8 for the long term, and the secretary of the county alliance could be authorized to bring before the county alliance the most important facts found by a study of the Record. This part of the lecturer's recommendation would be all right, if he was paid well, for his special work; otherwise it would be to him a thankless, tiresome and profitless occupation.

Mrs. J. H. Reed and her niece Bertha left yesterday morning for Riverside, Calif. Her future home. Mr. Reed and his son Fred have been there some time and established a home. Fred has been packing crates for a long time, and last week they planted vegetable seeds for the spring crop. This community will greatly miss Mr. and Mrs. Reed, both of whom are very well informed, and have exerted a strong influence for good among their associates. The JOURNAL expresses sincere regret, but the move being made for the benefit of Mr. Reed's health, hopes that it may be well with them in their new home, whether the hearty good wishes of all their many friends will follow them.

The utter disregard with which the Columbus business men have treated the fair is the foundation for this statement, viz: "That no doubt the business men of Columbus have a well grounded prejudice against the successive failures of the Columbus Driving Park Association." So says the last Argus. The truth is that the business men of Columbus have no prejudice against the society, against its failures or successes, and they have not treated the fair with "utter disregard." Your successive crops of failures by trying to work the field of prejudice against Columbus, will more than offset your doubtful successes in that line, and the rope you have yourself twisted is the one that you have tightened around your own neck.

Representative Stevens of Platte county introduced a bill known as House Bill No. 131, to amend the present law on removal of county seats, which came up for discussion Tuesday last week. It was defeated by a vote of 28 to 23. In the evening a motion to indefinitely postpone was carried. Representatives Schelp and Stevens of this county favored the measure, and Senator Van Housen opposed it. We are informed that Platte Center had a number of men at Lincoln to lobby the bill through the legislature. It looks like though Platte Center had had her way altogether in this matter, so far at least as the nomination of representative candidates favorable to the scheme is concerned, and the urging of it upon the legislature. This was not the first attempt, and may not be the last. If more prejudice against Columbus can be fostered in the coming two years, the next legislature may be importuned.

PERSONAL. John Tannabill was at Schuyler Monday. Mrs. R. L. Rossier is on the sick list again. W. B. Dale visited his family at Omaha last week. A M. Covert was on the sick list last week again. D. B. Duffy of Schuyler was in the city Saturday. W. A. McAllister was at Omaha Thursday on business. Chas. Wake, jr., of Schuyler, was in the city Monday. Geo. Sheldel of Platte Center was in the city yesterday. G. A. Scott and Fred Gotschalk were at Omaha Thursday.

Dr. Voss was called to Platte Center Monday to see a patient. Sheriff Caldwell and family have returned from their visit to Iowa. Mack Jones of Phillips, Neb., made this office a pleasant call yesterday. Wm. Bloodorn of Platte Center was a county seat visitor last Wednesday. Mrs. E. J. North arrived home from a week's visit with friends in Omaha. Jay Merrill has visited his farm at Jos. Shaffer, and has moved into the city. Mrs. M. Groat of Colfax county went to Fullerton Thursday to visit friends. Louis Schwarz has been at Omaha, Council Bluffs and Lincoln the past week. Mrs. George Burke and children expect to return to their home in Omaha today.

W. S. Howell, traveling agent for the Chicago & Milwaukee Ry. Co., was in town Wednesday. Miss Lottie Kieckly returns tomorrow to her home at Creighton after several weeks visit here among relatives. A. M. Jennings came down from Newman Grove Sunday, expecting to return in a day or two if it didn't snow. Judge Marshall and reporter Mockett passed through the city Monday to Fullerton, where they hold court this week. E. A. Gerrard, editor of the Monroe Looking Glass, was in the city Monday, as was also W. Saunders of the Platte Center Argus.

Mrs. M. A. Niewolds of Berlin, Ill., mother of the Nicolls Brothers of the Grand Pacific hotel, arrived in the city Saturday evening. Mrs. M. K. Turner returned Monday evening from a visit with her daughter Anna at Genoa and her sister, Mrs. G. W. Brown at Cedar Rapids.

Superintendent Cramer was at Genoa Friday, but the roads were again so badly drifted with snow, that there was no getting into the country to visit school. Joseph Hauser was in the city Friday and gave us a very pleasant call on business. There is plenty of snow in his neighborhood south of the river, as well as here.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Haged, Geo. Haged, Mrs. Gus Schroeder and Mrs. Paul Hagel went to Schuyler yesterday to be present at the marriage of their cousin, John Yath to Miss Lena Lambert. J. P. Becker was out walking around Monday, the first time many of us had seen him since his foot was amputated. He looks somewhat pale from his long confinement, but seems all right, save the foot that it is off.

Mrs. M. J. Thomas, who has been a resident of this portion of the state for a good many years, leaves this week for a short visit with friends in Aurora, Neb., then to Salida, Colo., to make her permanent home with her youngest son.

Louis Schreiber, returned Friday from Texas after a week's sojourn. He has no love for Texas at all; he thinks there is a man has to make land for a bare living in that place to be. In short, the more he saw of Texas, the better he liked Nebraska.

Arrested for Forgery. Just as we were closing our columns yesterday, word came of the arrest of a man who registered at the Thurston Monday as C. H. Cook, and a resident of Omaha, identified first by J. S. Wells, and afterwards by Volney Weaver and Ed. Early, respectively of the Columbus State Bank and First National, as the man who offered Jan. 28, 1890, a check on the Columbus State bank with the forged name of W. T. Rickly and for the sum of $640 and some cents. While Sheriff Caldwell (who had him under arrest with him at the telephone exchange), was communicating with Omaha, Cook gave him the slip, and ran across the street dodging into Bechtel's store on Eleventh, but he was caught, and was to have had his hearing some time during the day. He is tall, black mustache, some gray hairs, well dressed and is said to be a "sport."

Last week we barely had space to mention the death of John Slaven, the hermit residing between this and Platte Center. His neighbors, not seeing any smoke issuing from his chimney for some days, thought it best to see what was the matter. The verdict of coroner Heintz's jury (Steve Waggoner, H. Poles, E. L. Ives and Chas. Waggoner). It was supposed he had been dead several days. His old horse was very thirsty and had at everything within reach. Slaven was about fifty years old, lived by himself, hoarded the grain and hay that he had raised on his eighty acres for the past seven years, and much of it was spoiled, not being sheltered. His conduct was out of the ordinary, and it was not to be hoped that his spirit had found in the Beyond, a harmony that it did not have here?
