Rev. W. M. Worley went to the commencement of the Wesleyan University at Lincoln Monday, expecting to be absent till Friday. Frank Cooney of Fullerton was in the city Wednesday. He came down to attend the Shafer-Dinew wedding and was also accompanied by his mother.

A. Anderson and daughter have returned from a visit to Seward, and were accompanied home by Miss Mand Polley, daughter of Ed. Polley of that place. M. E. Fleming of Ohio, Ill., who came out to attend the wedding of his sister, was a very pleasant caller at these headquarters Wednesday. He has formed a good opinion of Nebraska as an agricultural state.

A state of Veterans camp was organized here Monday evening with the following officers: Captain, John Tannhill; First Lieutenant, H. B. Bort; Second Lieutenant, Bertos Morton; Council, E. Clark, D. C. Kavanagh, Abe Teuchy; Quartermaster Sergeant, J. G. Comstock; Orderly Sergeant, C. E. Early; Sergeant of the Guard, Richard Ives; Corporal of the Guard, Frank Wurdeman; Principal Musician, Charles T. Mino; Color Sergeant, D. Winslow; Fife Guard, George Sorenson; Chaplain, John Clark. J. G. Comstock was elected delegate to the state encampment now in session at Geneva, R. L. Ives, alternate. Commander Sperry was the mustering officer, and was generously aided by three Sons who happened in the city on their way to the encampment at Geneva—A. E. Searl of Fullerton, W. H. Hamilton, jr., of Albion, and Chester Garner of Petersburg. The camp starts out with bright prospects.

And still W. N. Henaley, county judge, and J. C. Caldwell, sheriff, do not come forward, in answer to the anxious solicitude expressed by the Telegram, and tell to which political party they belong. Perhaps they would like to join the independents if it were not sure they would be re-nominated and the independents would be strong enough to elect them; perhaps they are afraid to venture on such a course, because they know that democracy is somewhat like a jealous wife would be, if she saw her lord making eyes at another woman. It is an anxious voter of old Platte not to be informed on such a momentous question before one or other of the conventions meet?

The town hall of Columbus township seems to be an attraction for some lawless individuals. During the past year one panel of the door has been broken in and the porcelain lamp shade and chimney have been smashed by missiles thrown through the opening. Later the windows and plastering have been shot through in several places. The township authorities have determined to take the matter in hand, and have offered a reward in another column. It is a fact that a house cannot go unoccupied in the city a week without the lights being knocked out. It is done by young hoodlums who ought to be punished.

George A. Scott's new livery barn fronting on Nebraska avenue, is 44 feet wide and 106 feet deep, standing 18 feet. The sides and roofing are to be of patent steel. There are to be an office and bedroom, and a large carriage room. The establishment is to be complete in every respect. It will have three box stalls and twenty-four single stalls. James Peasall has the contract, the cost of the building will be about $2,500, and it is expected to be completed about July 1st.

Pol Degman says he has cut and sold one hundred and twenty-five cords of wood from his farm and has so much more on the place. This shows how much those missed it who came here years ago and failed to plant trees. Those who did now have plenty of wood of their own to burn and to make posts from for fences.—[Schuyler Sun.]

Don't forget the great furniture sale tomorrow (Thursday) at the Henry hall.

CITY COUNCIL. Friday evening council met. Report of liquor sold July 30 to January 1, '91 by C. E. Pollock & Co. presented and referred to committee on police.

Herder's bond of Wm. Novell signed by S. J. Ryan, approved. Committee appointed as to rebate in placing connections with water mains, ask that the legal right be submitted to the city attorney.

The board of health, consisting of G. W. Phillips, Henry Hagatz and S. C. Gray, made a lengthy report concerning the slaughter houses, setting forth that "foul odors arise from said houses sufficient in our opinion to materially affect the health of the city; that these in summer time are carried by the prevailing southerly winds over the city, which 'compared with the further fact that we are at present threatened with a contagious epidemic which may assume alarming proportions, unless the most strict sanitary methods are adopted and enforced, we therefore believe that the health of the city particularly and the comfort of its citizens generally demand their removal."

The committee then recommended that the houses be declared nuisances and ordered to remove the same on or before January 1, '92. In the mean time they must keep them clean, at the risk of being subject to an immediate order of removal. The report of the committee was adopted.

City attorney was requested to prepare an ordinance granting to the Columbus Sewer Co. the right of east side of N street from Fourteenth to First for a main sewer, and also granting south side of alley between Ninth and Fourth streets, and west on each side of said North street, within the limit as above specified.

The estimate for expenses for the coming year is $16,200; $2,200 of which is for interest on Platte and Loup river bridge bonds and $2,350 interest on water bonds; $1,800 for running expenses of waterworks; $1,200 for salaries; $1,450 lighting streets; $1,000 sprinkling streets; $1,200 grading streets, etc.; $300 surveying and establishing a grade on the business streets; police $1,800; printing $200, etc.

Speice offered a resolution, which was adopted, that the police judge be required to make report to the council as provided in section 3 of an ordinance entitled "salaries," and also make report of all fines, penalties and forfeitures collected by him since the date of his last report.

Bills for street labor, police, sprinkling and lighting streets, and salaries of water com'r and engineer were allowed. Weather Report. Review of the weather near Genoa for the month of May, 1891.
