For Harrison wagon and Comland spring wagons and buggies, call on J. A. Gutzmer, opposite Dwyer's drug store.

James Dumaree died Friday of pneumonia and was buried Sunday, near Richmond. He was 66 years old, and suffered a great deal during the last weeks of his life.

Wednesday and Thursday were hot days, just the kind needed for corn, and followed by the showers of Friday, made a splendid combination for growing crops of all kinds.

We have just received our spring stock of parasols and umbrellas, the best line in the city, at Galley Bros.

Home and lot, with good barn and other out houses, for sale cheap for cash. Smith's addition. Inquire at Arnold & Kohler's real estate office or at The Journal office.

It is suggested that, either the fence around the court house yard be removed, and a good, new one be erected, or that the grounds be overhauled and left without a trace at all.

Through the efforts of H.T. Spoor, commander of Baker Post G. A. R., the band boys of Union Camp, Sons of Veterans, will have uniform and instruments, the donation of citizens.

J. T. Cox's home near the B. & M. depot, was entered Sunday evening between seven and eight o'clock by a tramp probably, and everything turned inside out, but nothing noticeable taken.

Bring your job printing to The Journal office. We have excellent material, nice type to do work with, and the best of new job presses. Work done as promised, and satisfaction guaranteed.

The Beaver Valley News comes to us from St. Edward, published by Simon Bur. Success. We see by it that Nels Hanselbach has just completed a fine new addition to his beautiful residence.

We don't know how many errors were contained in the Telegram paragraph in regard to the forged checks purporting to have been signed by Mr. Hoffman. We got our information from Mr. Hoffman.

Clothing! Clothing! Call and see our new spring styles, the largest stock in the city, and the prices the lowest, at Galley Bros.

Quite a number of young ladies gathered at Mr. Vogel's last Wednesday, on the occasion being a surprise party for Katie Hollie, of Kansas City, who has been visiting at Mr. Vogel's. They had a very enjoyable time.

As Charles Mentzer was coming from town on Saturday the wagon dropped into a hole caused by the high water, throwing his wife out into the water and bruising her considerably.

Richard items in Schuyler Quill.

Hon. John J. Sullivan of this city was the eloquent orator of the day at Lindsay, and we hear that one of the novel features was the public marriage ceremony, for a present of $20, of Elbert M. Vaught and Miss Emma C. Hedman.

John von Bergen of the vicinity of Humphrey was in the city Wednesday and looked in on The Journal folks a few minutes. He has been a reader of The Journal for a good many years, a fact that is of course highly appreciated at these headquarters.

Platte Center was pretty badly flooded Saturday. Elm creek overflowed and washed out sidewalks and even flooded the first stories of many of the business buildings, causing people to move out of their homes. It was about three feet deep in the street.

The leader, at Clark's is a new candidate for public favor, Vol. I. No. 1 having been received at this office; Walrath & Son, proprietors, D. M. Hartson, editor. It is a seven column paper, using the York patent-ink, has a good advertising list, is bright and newy and bids fair to succeed.

Col. A. H. Neidig of Los Angeles, Calif., was in the city Friday a few minutes from Norfolk, where he was injured while at work in the trenches for the waterworks. He was tunneling under ground, and drew his shovel back a little greater distance than usual, and as a result he was struck in the head by the pick struck Ballou's left hand going clear through several of the bones and muscles in the palm of the hand. Dr. Arnold is tending him, and the patient is doing as well as could be expected.

Ed. Ballou has returned to his home here from Norfolk, where he was injured while at work in the trenches for the waterworks. He was tunneling under ground, and drew his shovel back a little greater distance than usual, and as a result he was struck in the head by the pick struck Ballou's left hand going clear through several of the bones and muscles in the palm of the hand. Dr. Arnold is tending him, and the patient is doing as well as could be expected.

Volley Weaver was at the Fremont Chautauque last week, and says the growing crops along the route are looking in splendid shape.

Alfred Clarke of Chicago, came down from Madison yesterday. He said that on Monday night they had the biggest rain in Norfolk they ever had.

H. M. Winslow returned Saturday from the east. He was with his mother when she celebrated her eighty-third birthday, a hale, hearty, sprightly woman.

Dr. B. B. Kelley, wife and niece, Miss Anna, were in the city Saturday on their way from New Castle Wyo., to Ocoee, where Mr. Kelley's brothers, John and Henry live, also his mother, "Grandma" Kelley.

John Lamb, son of William, formerly of this city now of Omaha, came up Thursday to visit his uncle, Rev. J. M. Ryan. Johnnie says the folks are all well. His oldest brother, James, has a position with Mr. Lomax at Union Pacific headquarters.

Leopold Jaggi, of the firm of Bocher, Jaggi & Co., accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. John Horst of Madison, started Saturday for a trip to Switzerland. Friday evening the Messneracher tendered him a farewell and they were invited in and very hospitably entertained.

A little girl cast swallowed a "jack-stone" in her play. She was taken to country doctor who, who promptly stood her on her head; a stick of conching followed, out flew the jack-stone and the child's life was saved. We know a case of a boy walking backwards a few steps while eating peanuts, when one of them got into the windpipe, working its way down and causing the death of the boy after a heroic fight for life. Rev. Dr. Bothwell of Brooklyn drew a cork into his windpipe while laughing. All the efforts of the most distinguished physicians in New York were unable to remove it and he died of pneumonia, as the result. Dr. Martyn of this city was several years ago called to treat a lady who, in attempting to blow a sand-bar from her shoulder, got it into her throat. He made a hole into something like a blow-pipe, and inserting the small end below the sand-bar, blew it out, giving immediate relief of course.

The new steamboat "Arkansas Traveler," which has been in the course of construction in the shop of Wm. Craig for some time past, was launched on the placid waters of Union Creek Tuesday. It works very well considering the smallness of the engine, which is only one-half horse power. It is intended that the boat will be used for pleasure excursions during the season. This fall a party of hunters, consisting of Fremont Wheeler, Wm. Craig, and one or two others will take the boat by rail to Columbus, put it on the Platte river and start on a long journey to Arkansas, where they will spend the fall and a portion of the winter hunting and trapping. It is rather a small boat, but it makes such a long journey, but the owners feel confident of the success of their undertaking. (Madison Reporter.)
