En Journal:-The contest in this ounty for the office of county judge, is becoming interesting. Three candidates are in the field, W. N. Hensley the present incumbent on the democratic ticket, John Gibbon on the independent and J. N. Kilian on the republican The fight is between Kilian and Gibbon, Hensley is not in it. Gibbon is a school teacher and a farmer, our friend Kilian is a highly educated man and a lawyer and in every respect well qualified for the position: in addition to this, he speaks and writes the German language fluently and in a county like Platte, Mr. G. I was not able to do anything for 19 months was comment to bed me at of the three, couldn't eat nor sleep, was so nervous and dizzy that I could not walk from the house to the garden. I was ad run down by what the doctors called nervous prostration. No medicine as ensed to help me. Then I took Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic and now I can eat and sleep and have no more sinking spells, can do my housework again. I am very thankful for this and recommend the Tonic to all afferers.
