Among the many letters seized is one elicited appeals from every quarter for an authoritative platform. The Conservative agents will be sent on a tour of all the districts to occupy themselves with a destructive criticism of Liberal projects. Semiofficially it is announced that the platform of the Conservatives will declare a cessation of special Irish legislation with the adoption of a local government bill, and the concentration of the attention of Parliament on British affairs; the extension of popular local government, the allotment of small holdings for laborers, legislation for the arbitration of strikes, the lowest possible taxation on tea, coffee and cocoa, a reduction of the duty on tobacco, vesting the power of licensing in county councils with a provision for the compensation of publicans deprived of licenses and the introduction of a bill providing for insurance against old age. There will, of course, be the principles of opposition to church disestabshment the maintenance of denominational schools, the preservation of the peers' privileges and the rejection of local The platform does not give the electors a that of the Liberals, but it is freer from fads and more immediately practical.

LIKE AN EARTHQUAKE.

As a result of a boiler explosion in the heart of Louisville, one man was killed, several persons painfully injured and nearly $500,000 worth of property destroyed. The boiler was in the electric light plant of the Louisville Gas Company. The shock was like an earthquake. Firewas fatally injured. A mass of iron and hot coals was thrown across the alley into the rear of Kaufman & Strauss' large dry goods store. Half a dozen clerks who were in the rear of the store were painfully injured, and in a moment the whole building was in flames. The fire department was quickly at work, and by most strenuous efforts succeeded in saving the adjoining

Through a Sea of Flame Willard Bone, who has just arrived from the western part of Kansas, reports terrific prairie fires in Gray and Ford Counties. For miles the Sante Fe train, on which he was a passenger, traveled through a sea of flames, with every window and ventilator battened down. From the train, he asserts, could be seen burning farm buildings and stacks of hay and grain, and the people and stock fleeing before the flames. One hundred and fifty convicts have been released at Briceville, Tenn., and the immense stockade has been burned. A battle has taken place between the guards and the miners. Three thousand miners surrounded the stockade and the guards gave up the convicts, who were furnished citizens' clothes, and the stockade was burned. Will Not Let Out the Secret. Dr. Keeley flatly refuses to make public his cure for drunkenness. The New York City detectives have just uncarthed the headquarters of a "green goods" business, together with a cipher code, books of reference, lists of names and some 6,000 letters received from people in every state in the union. They have also arrested Frank Brooks and Terrence Murphy, head operators in the business. MASSACRED IN ALASKA.

Ship's Crew Murdered by nant Natives. Louis Duffy, a fireman on board the steam whaler Grampus, arrived at fan Francisco from Oonalaska on the Mohican, and brings a confirmation of the news that the Grampus' crew was massacred by the natives. Duffy says he deserted the Grampus at Port Clearance last July, on account of illtreatment. Duffy spent nine months among the natives at Cape Prince of Wales, and says that three natives from Point Barrow related how the crew of the Gramcomprehensive prospect of reform equal to pus abused the native women while the ship was fast in the ice at the mouth of the Mackenzie River. > Direct's Three Great Heats. heats were three in number and each result was a victory for Direct. Geers urged Pointer to his utmost, and once to such an extent that he went under the wire off his feet. The heats were almost identical. The two would get off together, Direct almost immediately taking the lead, and they would travel together at a terrific pace to the stretch. There Geers braced himself for a finish on the stretch, and would crowd the leader, even coming to Direct's throat atch. Then Starr would let the whip fall and with a mighty burst the Californian would go under the wire a winner. The time, 2:09, 2:08 and 2:0834, was phenomenal for a new track, although it is kite-

He has been in communication withe the leaders of the Covservatives and of the Reich party in regard to concerted action against both the internal and external policy of the governnent. Bismarck's attitude toward the commercial treaties and upon labor questions has long been known. His announced opposition to the government's policy in hese matters occasions no surprise. The ndication of his intention to challenge the government's foreign policy and even to go to the length of revealing the secrets between himself and the emperor has alarmed both his friends and the government circle.

The report of the general business of the country to the commercial agencies is an ncouraging one for last week. Mississippi River Boat Burned with Number of Its Passengers.

A STEAMBOAT BURNED.

By the burning of the Mississippi River steamer, Oliver Birne, at Milliken's Bend landing, thirteen lives are known to have been lost, and it is feared more. It had quite a number of cabin passengers and over 200 'deckles," white men en route to various levee works. There was a lot of cotton to be loaded at the landing and the mate had trouble with the roustabouts and a number of them quit work, after which the mate hired white men. This enraged the negroes, who made open threats against the mate and the boat. At an early hour in the morning the cotton in the deck room was found on fire, and in a short time the entire boat was a mass of flames. The passengers were aroused and everything ssible done to avert loss of life, but thirteen persons are known to have perished, and it is feared several of the unknown deck passengers lost their lives. Most of those rescued had to jump into the river, where they were picked up by a yawl. The fire spread with such rapidity that they could get off the boat no other way. The passengers lost everything.

Decker, acting President of the German Bank of Evansville $500 for refusing to give the names of individual depositors and their accounts. He instituted habeas corpus proceeding, and Judge Taylor, before whom the case was argued, rendered a voluminous opinion in which he holds that the section giving the tax board a right to fine and imprison for ontempt is unconstitutional and void.

Rousted the Negro.

A negro, Lee Green, who murdered the wife and children of a farmer near Queen City. Tex., met a horrible fate. He was taken from fall and carried to the scene of the tragedy, and then, after a large crowd of neighbors had gathered, was chained to a tree. Forty-six negro men piled fagots about him, an old negress set fire to the wood and he was roasted to death.

Flour shippers throughout the West were greatly worried when they learned that the steamer Conematigh had gone to the bottom of Detroit River, the result of a collision with the steamer New York, of the Union Line. J. C. Evans, agent of the Anchor Line, stated that the Conemaugh had on board about 1,000 tons of flour from Chicago, 900 tons from Milwaukee, and about 400 tons of general freight. Turning to the steamer's manifest, it seemed as if about every shipper was represented on the fourteen pages of finely written copy paper. Among the Chl-cago firms having four on the stuken boat, the Star and Crescent Mills were the most important. They had 1,550 sacks and twenty-five barrels. The balance of the cargo was shipped from the fellowing points: Alton, 300 barrels; La Crosse, 150 barrels; Hannibal, 250 sacks; St. Louis, 885 sacks, 150 barrels; Winona, 200 sacks; Peoria, 1,470 sacks; Burlington, 455 sacks; Minneapolis, 1,825 sacks; Quincy, 4,400 sacks. All the flour in sacks was for export, the sacks weighing 140 and 280 rounds. In addition to this there were 800 pigs of lead, 400 sacks of bran, 622 sacks of oilcake. Milwaukee's part of the cargo was even more varied than that shipped from Chicago. Mr. Evans estimated the value of the cargo at close to $100,000. It is believed to be fully covered by insurance, but it is possible that some among so many shippers might have overlooked the item of insuring their flour. The recolution is preceded by the statement under a decision by Justice Brewer, of the United States Supreme Court, that the present law to punish counterfeits of trade marks is inoperative and valueless.

Canada Unable to Stop the Stream Destitute Immigrants. It will be remembered that the Cana dian Minister of Agriculture took the first steps toward prohibiting the immi-Omaha it will cost for judges and clerks gration of pauper Russian-Jews by requesting the signature of the Governor General to a proclamation carrying into effect that clause of the immigration act which prohibits the landing of destitute mmigrants.

The Minister of Justice, however, saw possible danger shead, and requested that no action be taken until it was learned what decision the United States courts had rendered with regard to a case then before them as to the definition of the pauper immigrant. Sir John Thompson, Minister of Justice, it is understood, held that to establish the fact of an immigrant being a pauper it would first be necessary for him to beg, and to do that he would have to land.

The matter still remains in abeyance as regards the landing of pauper Jews in Canada, and it is doubtful whether, n view of the recent decision of the United States Courts, any further action will be taken under the present statute. In well-informed legal circles it is contended that further legis'ation of the Dominion Parliament will be necessary before any prohibitory steps will be attempted to prevent these Russian refugees landing in Canada. session at Cincinnati. approved the action of the Pittsbirg Typothete in resisting the recent demands made by the Typographical Union of that city and pledged them hearty support in every practical form. This action possibly involves a spread of the trouble now existing in Pittsburg and other cities. The Typothete of America selected Toronto as the place for the next meeting to be held in August, 1892. Officers were elected as follows: President, W. O. Shepherd, Toronto; Secretary, Everett Waddy, Richmond, Va.; Treasurer, harles Buss, Cincinnati: Executive Committee, Amo: Tettibone, Chicago: Theodore L. DeVinne, New York; C. S. N. S. Fish, Indianapolis. Stole Two Mail Pouches. At Little Rock, Ark., two mail pouches containing a number of registered packages and several hundred letters were stolen from a mail car of the Little Rock and Memphis Railroad. The theft was so cleverly perpetrated that it was not discovered until several hours later. Detectives started or a search, and one of them discovered leorge Woods, a well-known crook, in the suburbs, leisurely opening letters. He was placed under arrest. It is believed he had an Fought O'er a Mountain Maid. Tom Greene and Joe Gordon, wellknown and wealthy youths of Hancock County, Tenn., met at a speaking. They had been bitter enemies for months, on account of both paying suit to a fair mountain maid. A cold salutation merged into a hot discussion, which led up to a duel. This resulted in the imthe name selected for the new company mediate death of Gordon and the fatal wounding of Greene. Both men are highly connected, and all Hancock is agitated enough to take positive sides in the matter.
