PARNELL'S SUCCESSOR.

BLECTION IN CORK FOR HIS OLD SEAT.

The Priests Make a House to House Canvass and Threaten Dire Things to Those Who Vote for the Parnellite Candidate-The McCarthyite Won. The election held at Cork for the successor of the late Charles Stewart Parnell, who represented Cork city in the House of Commons, was full of excitement. The Parsellite candidate was John E. Redmond, and Martin Flavin, a butter merchant, was he McCarthyite candidate. The influence $38,879.35 of the priests was with the McCarthyltes, and they made a house to house canvass of the voters, following immediately after the Parnellite canvassers and threatening the they voted for Redmond or failed to vote or Flavin. In order to avert possible disorder the polls in the morning were strongly guarded by the police. Many priests were stationed about the booths, mingling with the voters and giving them flual instruc-Mons and admonitions or making final appeals before they entered the polling booths. As the day wore on matters became more lively. There were several exciting scenes in Northwest Cork, where a continual squabbling going on between the priests and the Parnellites was a main feature. A strong detachment of infantry marched to the troubled district and drove back the disorderly element. At the close of the polling Mr. Flavin was credited with the victory.

WORLD'S FAIR IN INDIANA.

Plan of the Hoosiers to Claim the Big It is expected there will be a wild howl rom Chicago when she learns that Indiana may ask for and receive a slice of land twelve miles wide off the eastern portion of ent site of the World's Fair. The immediclaim filed against Indiana for a twelvenile strip of land on the eastern boundary. As Indiana's western boundary was originally fixed by measurement from the eastern boundary and as recent surveys seem to indicate that Ohio's claim is correct, Indiana's boundary would take in that part

The War on the Lottery. The Anti-Lottery Democratic Committee of Louisiana have issued an address appealing to the country for aid in defeating the lottery. It is said that an investigation of its inside workings shows it to be an enormous swindle. The committee asserts that by purchase of stock by its stockholders and friends it has obained control of a large portion of the organized capital of the state. Its strong hand on the financial springs of a commercial community is so masterful as to silence the opposition of the cautious and attract the support of the timid. By the force and glitter of its money power it has warped the judgment and blunted the them first apologists for and then desirous Sensational Indictments The grand jury at Houston, Tex., returned 106 indictments. Some of these are new to jurisprudence in Texas. Officers who have been derelict in their duty have been declared guilty; men who rent bawdy houses are indicted instead of the occupants; the tax collector is given notice that he is responsible for the payment by saloon men of their licenses. In fact, the report goes at the roots of the evils. Some high flyers, socially and politically, have been

SMOKED AND SIZZLED.

At Panama a naked telephone wire was detached by some street arabs so that it hung from its support to the ground, trailing over the circuit wire from an electric light plant. A police officer commenced to haul it in. The act of drawing caused it to cut through the rubber insulation of the electric light wire. The officer received a shock which rendered him unconscious. press train reached the crossing of the Elkhorn's South Omaha line about two miles west of Cmaha last Wednesday night, it was held up by five masked robbers. The train stopped as usual for the crossing, and then a man with a pistol boarded the engine and compelled the engineer and fireman to obey him and sit still. Others took possession the train. The express car was entered. the safe broken open and its contents taken. The train was then allowed to proceed. No one on the train was

These returns are based on dispatches Dakota is not the only place where indictments can be secured. There is ample evidence to secure their attendance in all of the United States courts from ninety-eight County Auditors of the State, and are as nearly reliable as anything unofficial can be. Two years ago Gov. Boies had 6,564 plurality, and the entire Republican state ticket was elected except Governor. It is barely possible that one or two Republicans may have pulled through by a scratch, but the probability is that S. L. Bestow is elected Lieutenant-Governor, L. G. Kinne Supreme Judge, Peter A. Dey Railroad Commissioner, and J. B. Knoepfler Superintendent. The Senate from latest reports stands twenty-four Republicans, one People's party man, one Independent and twenty-four Democrats. The House consists of fiftythree Republicans, forty-six Democrats and one People's party man, Daniel

Campbell. The Alliance candidate, Westfall, for Governor, received about 15,000 votes. The Alliance carried one county for Governor, Monroe, one for Representative, Montgemery, and the Montgomery Mills Senatorial district. The Prohibition vote has not been reported, except in a few instances, but it is probably very light.

The following are the latest and best returns obtainable of the result in the various counties in Iowa. Some of them are majorities only:

JUMPED OUT OF A CAR.

Remarkable Experience of a Somnambu

JAMES S. CLAGUE, a stock raiser of Greeley, Col., had a remarkable experience while traveling through Iowa near by a violent fall. He found himself lying in a ditch at the side of the railroad, badiy bruised. He could see the lights of a city in the distance and walked towards them, arriving in Burlington. It is Mr. Clague's opinion that, being a somnambulist, he jumped out of the window in his sleep, while the train was running at full speed. An investigation of the matter by the police and the railway officials established the truth of the man's story, for the con-

As one of the mediums, because it is read by the best people, those who know what they want and pay for what they get. We challenge comparison with any country paper in the world in this respect—twenty years publishing by the same management, and never one dun to subscribers published in TER JOURNAL. This, better than anything else, shows the class of people who read TRE JOURNAL every week.
