WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 16, 1891.

THE grip is raging at Hamburg. JOHN MILLER of Mt. Olive, Ill., aged 68 years shot and killed his aged wife, in a drunken fury, and then killed himself. A 2-YEAR-OLD child of Mrs. John Wier near Davenport, Ia., was burned to death while the mother was out of the house about twenty minutes.

A VERY destructive wind storm swept over Lower California Saturday, doing far to offer no explanation of the farcical much damage to property. Only a methods pursued under the pretense alight loss of life reported.

SLOAN, the murderer, escaped from the Washington county jail at Blair, Friday night. The sheriff is in hot pursuit and will likely overtake him.

A collision between a freight and a construction train near Murphysboro, Ill., Friday, resulted in the death of three persons, and a dozen were badly injured.

Every dollar as good as any other dollar, and every one good for the payment of all debts, public and private, without any exception, would be a step in the right direction.

THE Lincoln Journal says of the beet sugar industry: "If intelligently developed it alone will bring a half a million of people to Nebraska before the close The work of inspection is not performed of the present decade."

SENATOR CARLISLE of Kentucky says that Crisp's election to the speakership would cost the democratic party 500,000 votes, and the senator usually knows what he is talking about.

In the death of Colonel Edmond Dick Paylor, which occured Friday, and was announced in The Inter Ocean Saturday, Chicago lost one of the mos icturesque and interesting of its citi zens. His very age was enough to give him distinction, for he was in his 89th year. He was a cousin of President Taylor, and was the friend of both Abraham Lincoln and Stephen A. Douglas. It was his own firm conviction that neither would have studied law and risen to eminence but for his advice and encouragement. Both were warmly attached to him. His home in those days was Springfield, but he came to Chicago
