McKinley bill makes a good thing to work by. In the reichstag at Berlin the other day, Herr Kardoff objected to the new commercial treaties being extended over so long a period as twelve years, saying that he feared the results such a long period would bring about. The chancellor replied that the prospects were of a bright nature, adding that Herr Kardoff failed to see the political significance of the McKinley bill and of the Pan-American policy. The commercial treaties, after some further debate, were then adopted by a vote of 243 to 248.

SENAIOR FRANKLIN B. PLUMER of Kansas was stricken with apoplexy Sunday morning last at 7. Five hours later he was dead. His physician, Dr. Wales, says that the attack was brought on by fatty degeneration of the brain from overwork and fatigue. He leaves a wife, two daughters and three sons. He was born in Delaware county, Ohio, Oct. 12, 1837. After his education in the common schools, he became a printer; in 1861 a lawyer, then a soldier; in Kansas he was elected speaker of the house of representatives and in 1876 U.S. senator, in which capacity he has served over five terms. His term of office would have expired March 3, 1921. His record was an enviable one, and while Kansas mourns the loss of one of her ablest politicians, the nation loses a distinguished statesman.

BRUCE W. REEDER, editor of the Magazine, writes this, for his January number is head and shoulders in advance of previous years, and far ahead of any magazine of its price. Besides the popular and contributory it has added Julian Hawthorne, Octave Thanet, Elsie W. Merriman and various other shining lights among the younger generation of American authors. "A Prince in Disguise" by Edgar Fawcett promises to be one of his finest novels, and this number opens with a good portrait and sketch of him. "A Barred City" by Sidney Ross, gives much fresh information about the excavations of Pompeii, and the illustrations are beautiful. "Sir Frisky" by Miss E. S. Thomas, with its clear pictures of the children's world, is a gem of the month's poems. No woman can afford to do without this valuable household assistant and its literary and artistic merits make it one of the best family magazines published. Terms: two dollars a year, with large reductions to clubs and fine premiums to club members. Send for full particulars. Address: Fawcett's Magazine, 306 Chestnut St., Philadelphia.

It is a harmless substitute for Paregoric, Drops, Soothing Syrup, and Castor Oil. It is Pleasant. Its guarantee is thirty years' use by Millions of Mothers. Castoria destroys Worms and allays feverishness. Castoria prevents vomiting Sour Curd, cures Diarrhoea and Wind Colic. Castoria relieves teething troubles, cures constipation and flatulency. Castoria assimilates the food, regulates the stomach and bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. Castoria is the Children's Panacea—the Mother's Friend.

Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children. Dr. G. C. Osceola, Lowell, Mass.

Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other harmful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves. Dr. J. F. Kitchener, Conway, Ark.

Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me. H. A. Adams, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won for us to look with favor upon it. CHERRY HOSPITAL AND DISPENSARY, Boston, Mass.
