The U. P. Company are now piling up some more large cribs of coal in the yards. This is done for two reasons—they want the cars, and also wish to be provided in case of snow blockade.

Our reporter called on W. W. Herick for an ad, but found him too very busy to write one. However, he said those fine holiday goods were going very fast. If you want to see them, call at once.

About half a dozen of the high Masons of this city went to Columbus Tuesday as delegates to the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons which has been in session there this week—Schuyler Sun.

There will be an adjourned meeting of Baker Post No. 9 next Saturday evening at their hall. Every member is earnestly requested to be present as matters of vital interest to the Post are to be considered.

The "Alvin Jolin" Comedy Co. will make their appearance on the popular play that has made its own family and rich. Uncle Alvin will appear at the opera house in this city, Wednesday, Dec. 23.

"Life is a poem, love, religion and music its sweetest stanzas. In our hands are the strings which hold the harmonies. Shall we fill the air with wailing, or make an under song so sweet that all will listen?"

The last copy of the Schuyler Sun says, "G. S. Turrell, editor and manager." With "Marks and Remarks" on one side and "Spokes" on the other, we would weekly inquire, "What have we done to this persecuted?"

For Exchange. For rent, a room and part of a nearby new seven-room house, very good well and cellar, located in Columbus, Neb. Call at Journal office.

Our reporter stopped into Fitzpatrick's store Saturday for some cigars but was only able to catch a glimpse of "Fitz" in the rear of the store, but by a system of signals, known only to the "professor," he informed us he was to "all-fired busy to write a local."

Henry Runtmann has purchased the lot, southwest corner of Tenth and Kummer, opposite Paul Hoppes's residence, and will begin immediately the erection of a dwelling that will probably cost thirty to thirty-five hundred dollars before it is finished.

We are informed that at J. C. Swartzley's sale Wednesday, cows brought from a $10 to $22; horses were a drug on the market—very low; machinery brought a fair price and hogs about the market value. Hay did not sell high but a fair price was realized.

Another chance is afforded the public to see "Alvin Jolin" and his many mischievous and ludicrous situations. The success of this play has been remarkable. There is no better proof that the public like "Alvin Jolin" than that it has made a fortune for its owner. At the opera house, Wednesday, Dec. 23.

For Sale. One pair solid breakers 4 years old, well matched, single and double, for sale on a bargain on terms to suit purchaser. J. S. Cameron.

The Norfolk creamery association is having a large-sized lard suit on its hands with parties who sold cream and did not get paid. Bring or send your cream to the Columbus creamery, gentlemen, and you will not only get paid in full for your cream, but will also find courteous gentlemen to do business with.

A sack of flour or half ton of coal, Christmas, to some poor deserving widow with a small family of children to support, would not only make two hearts glad, but you would go to bed with the conscience of having performed a good christian act, and your peaceful sleep would be that of the just. Try it.

The Schuyler Quill says: Johnny Byrnes, of Platte county, was in the city on Saturday. Johnny is the same old enthusiastic independent and we could recommend that every one of our people who feels at all weak based in the movement to go and have a talk with him and if that don't bring him out all right nothing will.

THE JOURNAL acknowledges an invitation to attend the Art Loan Exhibition at Schuyler, Jan. 5, 6 and 7, 1892. It is the same as has been on exhibition at Omaha and Lincoln, to which will be added many valuable works of art owned by Schuyler citizens, besides rare curios from India, Egypt, Greece, etc. Single admission tickets, 25c.

"Always good" is the verdict after reading a copy of The Youth's Companion, but when we get such a superb Companion as the Christmas double number just received (24 pages, finely illustrated, with a beautiful cover in colors) we wonder why the paper is not taken by one million families instead of five hundred thousand.

Mrs. David McDuffy is very low at her residence in this city with dropsy. The lady is 62 years of age, and her friends fear she may not recover. She has been gradually failing for several months. Mrs. McDuffy never fully recovered from the nervous shock she sustained when their residence was struck by lightning, early last spring.

The law firm of Sullivan & Roeder has been dissolved by the election of Mr. Sullivan to the office of District Judge. I. L. Albert and J. G. Roeder have formed a co-partnership and will continue business at the old stand. These gentlemen are to well known to require any comment from us. THE JOURNAL wishes the new firm success.

The handsome lady in Columbus remarked to a friend the other day that she knew Kemp's Balsam for the throat and lungs was a superior remedy, as she stopped her cough instantly when other cough remedies had no effect whatever. So to prove this and convince you of its merits, any druggist will give you a sample bottle free. Large size 50c and $1.

Why is not the sidewalk on West Thirteenth street completed? The city has laid all the crossings, the railroad company have fixed out the Meridian avenue crossing in fine shape, but there still remains a few gaps in the walk, which should be built, and that at once. Now, that the corporations have done their part well, what excuse have the resident property owners for not doing their part?

Perry Loughbaugh, in a business note to us, under date of the 14th at Shanksville, Somerset county, Penn., says that he arrived there O. K. and found everything lovely, no snow, and about the same kind of weather there was at Columbus when he left. His wife and daughter Eva are well and hearty, but himself had had a sick spell since his arrival there, but was all right again. He sends regards to all inquirers.

Christmas day, December 25th, the marriage of Mr. James L. McKinney and Miss Janet Bell of Colfax county, will be solemnized. The worthy young couple have sent out a great many invitations to their hosts of friends to attend the wedding reception which takes place at their home five miles northwest of Richland, the evening of the wedding day. May happiness and prosperity attend them in the wish of THE JOURNAL.

David City has projected a free public library for the use of the entire county of Butler. The plan to start on is to receive the loan of suitable books, to be returned on demand. Action has been taken in accordance with the state law, a board of directors elected and a tax of one mill levied on David City property. They set their stakes at ten thousand volumes. What a blessing a good public library would be to every county in Nebraska!

One item of local interest that should have appeared in last week's JOURNAL, but got side-tracked on the editor's table, was a mention of the seventh (woolen) anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jenkinson, Thursday week. The lady was completely taken by surprise, thirty friends of the family taking temporary possession of her home, and making the evening a very enjoyable one. Mrs. Jenkinson was presented with a very fine woolen dress.

D. A. Dickinson is not pleased with the treatment he is receiving from the Grand Island beet sugar factory. They docked him three tons for dirt on one car, which seems very unreasonable. From another car which he sent over two weeks ago no return or response has so far been given. Mr. Dickinson is a fair and honorable man and any misapprehension of the company with him will be fatal to the confidence of the people of this community in the integrity of the institution. (Cedar Rapids Register.)

Ellis Brown of Cedar Rapids, who has been the telegraph operator of the Union Pacific Co., at Norfolk, now has a position here on the electric force.

Prof. J. M. Scott will enjoy his vacation visiting friends in Custer county, and will also attend the State Teachers' Institute at Lincoln before his return.

Mrs. D. N. Miner returned Friday from her visit to Loup county. She says that with the crops raised the past season people there are in much better circumstances than the year before.

F. N. Stevenson, who has been attending the Nebraska Dairymen's convention at Norfolk, returned Friday. He also improved the opportunity and went up into Holt county to view some real estate.

Charles E. Riecky, an old Columbus boy, arrived in the city Friday on his way to Rushville to settle his business interests there, after which he returns to his new location at Payson, Utah, where he is engaged in the lumber business.

Joseph Crites of Plattsmouth, who has been sojourning in Boone Co., and also in California, is very much pleased with the country around San Jose and Santa Rosa. He don't like southern California. Mr. Crites was in the city Thursday.

Willie Anderson, son of A. Anderson of the First National Bank, arrived in the city Friday last, and will remain in the city until the first of the new year, when he returns to Denver to resume his duties as a machinist in the Union Pacific shops there.

Santa Claus was very active Saturday, looking around among the stores to see what he could purchase for his numerous young friends. He found no trouble in pleasing himself, because the Columbus dealers, as is usual with them, had amply provided for his coming, and vied with each in loading him down. The advent and departure of important personages like Santa Claus, it is the special duty of the reporter to chronicle, but for the life of us we couldn't keep track of him this time, and before we could frame the words on our tongue to ask him about his reindeers, he was gone from sight. We judged, from the merry twinkle of his eyes, however, that times were good with him, and that consequently all his little friends would fare well at his hands.

Knight of Pythias. The social event of the season was the entertainment given by Occidental Lodge No. 21, K. of P., at their castle hall on Thursday evening. The attendance was very large and the exercises consisted of music, singing, speaking, dancing, etc. The Columbus cornet band took part and rendered several selections very appropriate to the occasion. Refreshments were served about 11:30 o'clock, after which all took to their homes with a pleasant memory of an evening well spent and one long to be remembered.

The city was filled with Royal Arch Masons for a few days last week, who were extended every courtesy of the city. The occasion was the grand chapter of Nobraska R. A. M. which met at the masonic hall in this city.

Among other business the degree of High Priest was conferred upon eight candidates.

The following officers were elected for 1895: J. B. Dinamore, Sutton, G. H. P.; R. E. French, Kearney, D. G. M.; A. W. Orlin, Chadron, G. K.; F. E. Bullard, North Platte, G. H.; H. G. Leave your orders early in order to make sure of having them filled.

J. P. Rasmussen.

We want every mother to know that cramp can be prevented. Trust cramp never appears without a warning. The first symptom is hoarseness; then the child appears to have taken a cold or a cold may have accompanied the hoarseness from the start. After that a peculiar rough cough is developed, which is followed by the cramp. The time to act is when the child first becomes hoarse; a few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will prevent the attack. Even after a rough cough has appeared the disease may be prevented by using this remedy as directed. It has never been known to fail. 25 cent, 50 cent and $1 bottles for sale by C. E. Pollock & Co. and Dr. Heintz, druggists.

Something New. Our apparatus for administering gas. New local anesthetic for extracting teeth painlessly. New crown gold alloy, superior to all other alloy fillings—both filled with above material will not discolor or decay under the filling. New method of filling sensitive teeth. All the latest improvements in dental operations in the most satisfactory manner. When in need of dental service, do not fail to visit our Dental Parlors, grand floor, corner Olive and Thirteenth streets.

MARRIED. SEIBERT-PATTERSON-At the residence of the groom's father near this city, Sunday, Dec. 20, by Rev. J. R. Leonard, Lawrence Seibert and Miss Charlotte Patterson, all of this county. About twenty invited guests were present, and after the nuptials an excellent dinner was served. Although unknown to us, THE JOURNAL wishes Mr. and Mrs. Seibert an unlimited share of joy and happiness.

KLUG-SCHREIBER-At the residence of the bride's mother, near this city, Friday, Dec. 18, by Rev. Mr. Mueller, Carl Klug and Miss Anna Schreiber. A large number of invited friends were present. THE JOURNAL extends congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Klug, and wishes them a long and happy life.

DIED. SCHROEDER-In this city, Thursday morning, of consumption of the brain, Arthur, adopted son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Schroeder, aged 5 years and 10 months. Although an adopted child, Mr. and Mrs. Schroeder, loved the loss as keenly as though he was their own son. Mr. Schroeder adopted the child about 4 years ago, shortly after the death of his mother. He was an unusually bright little boy, light to learn and was like a sunbeam to brighten the home of his foster parents, which will now seem desolate and dreary, since the childish prattle has ceased. The sympathy of all is extended to the family in their bereavement
