No healthy person need fear any dangerous consequences from an attack of the grip if properly treated. It is much the same as a severe cold and recoveries precisely the same treatment. Roman quietly at home and take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as directed for a severe cold and a prompt and complete recovery is sure to follow. This remedy also contracts any tendency of the grip to result in pneumonia. Among the many thousands who have used it during the epidemics of the past two years have yet to learn of a single case that has not recovered or that has resulted in pneumonia. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by C. Washington and the Northwest Pacific Coast. The constant demand of the traveling public to the far West for a comfortable and at the same time an economical mode of traveling, has led to the establishment of what is known as Pullman Colonist Sleepers.

These cars are built on the same general plan as the regular first-class Pullman Sleeper, the only difference being in that they are not upholstered.

They are furnished complete with good comfortable hair mattresses, warm blankets, pure white linen, curtains, plenty of towels, combs, brushes, etc., which assure to the occupant of a berth as much privacy as is to be had in first-class sleepers.

There are also separate toilet rooms for ladies and gentlemen, and smoking is absolutely prohibited. For full information send for Pullman Colonist Sleeper Leaflet. E. L. Loom, General Passenger and Ticket Agent, Omaha, Neb.

Happy Hoosiers. Wm. Timmons, postmaster of Idaville, Ind., writes: "Electric Bitters has done more for me than all other medicines combined for the bad feeling arising from kidney and liver trouble."

John Leslie, farmer and stockman, of same place, says: "Find Electric Bitters to be the best kidney and liver medicine, made me feel like a new man."

J. W. Gardner, hardware merchant, same town, says: "Electric Bitters is just the thing for a man who is all run down and don't care whether he lives or dies." He found it when he was suffering from the hoarse cold and a few days later he was well and just like he had a new lease on life.

Only 50 cents a bottle at C. B. Stillman's drug store. —We want every mother to know that the grip can be prevented. True or crop never appears without a warning. The first symptom is hoarseness; then the child appears to have taken a cold or cold may have accompanied the hoarseness from the start.

After that a peculiar roughness is developed, which is followed by the cough. The time to act is when the child first becomes hoarse; a few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will prevent the attack. Even after a rough cough has appeared the disease may be prevented by using this remedy as directed. It has never been known to fail. 25 cent, 50 cent and $1 bottles for sale by C. E. Pollock & Co. and Dr. Heinz, druggists.

A FATHER can give his young son a better present than a year's reading of the Scientific American. Its contents will lead the young mind in the path of thought, and if he treats there a while, he'll forget frivolities and be of some account, and if he has an inventive or mechanical turn of mind, this paper will afford him more entertainment, as well as useful information, than he can obtain elsewhere. Copies of this paper may be seen at this office and subscriptions received. Price, $3 a year, weekly.

Indiana War News. One of the most potent factors in causing the close of the Sioux war was the promise of the government to make suitable provision for the maintenance of the Indians, and in the agreement finally signed Young-Man-Afraid-of-His Horses especially stipulated that a full supply of Haller's Barb Wire Liniment be provided, as it was the most wonderful remedy they had ever used on their horses.
