CHICAGO is to have a $1,200,000 public library building.

Two millions of dollars was the value of property destroyed at New Orleans by fire last Thursday.

The ministers of Chicago to the number of 200 have formed what they call a ministers alliance, their object being to fight sin.

MILES ZENTMEYER, a well known attorney of Schnyler, has been appointed commander of the soldiers' home at Grand Island.

The Minnesota Editors and Publishers association held a reunion in St. Paul last week. An outsider remarked "There are the real rulers of the country."

EX-GOVERNOR SANDERSON has been lying very low at his home in Omaha, is now said to be on the high road to recovery as the worst is believed to have been past.

THREE were killed and three seriously injured by a locomotive jumping the track near Houston, Tex. There were about a dozen on the engine, all friends of the engineer, who was among the killed.

Word just received at San Francisco announces the loss of the bark Tamarric which was dashed to pieces on the rocks three days out from that port. Eighteen of the crew were lost. The vessel was loaded with oil.

At a general rabbit round up in Southern California, recently, over four thousand of the innocent little animals were killed. These little pests are a source of great annoyance to the fruit growers of that country.

The friends of Walter B. Earl of New York will sue Dr. Keeley and his associates for $100,000 damages. They claim Earl's death was due to treatment received at the institute. He first went insane and shortly after died. He was discharged as cured.

ANOTHER daring attempt at train robbery on the Hudson River railroad in New York, Saturday evening. After a long chase with engines and horses, the robber was finally caught. He secured nothing; the plucky messenger, though three times shot, gallantly defended his treasure. This train frequently carries $1,000,000 in currency.

Two little six-year-old boys were drowned in Indian creek at Council Bluffs. They broke through the ice. The bodies were recovered in ten minutes but all efforts of a half dozen doctors to resuscitate them were fruitless. It is feared the mother of one of the boys will become insane from grief over the terrible affair.

The National Sabbath Union has now joined in the movement to close the World's fair on Sundays. Ministers all over the country have been notified by circulars to address their respective congregations and get five lay members of their church to do the same, urging him to oppose any appropriation except on condition that the gates be closed on Sunday. They urge nothing more than to make the day a civil Sunday.

Just as predicted by this paper several weeks ago, Dr. Graves, who was sentenced by a Denver judge to be hung, is now out on bail. He is virtually a free man. If he was guilty, and the jury says he was, he should be punished, if innocent he should go free. It is a hard matter to hang a man who has money or influential friends; that chapter of law has not yet come into general use in our courts.—[South Omaha Tribune.]

GOVERNOR BOEDER emphasized the character which was celebrated in song by Sir Walter Scott. Like the true knight of old he maintained that "the hand of Douglas was his own." [Telegram.]

Shades of Sir Walter! What base and ignominious purpose, are the finest creations of thy majestic mind composed of? If Scotia's proud "Douglas," the soul of honor, bravery and loyalty, could hear the comparison made between Boyd and himself, the editor of the Telegram would writhe beneath the scorn of Douglas' ire.

The negro freed, Ed. Coy, met an awful fate at Texarkana, Ark., Friday. He was taken from the officers by a determined mob and bound with chains to a stake and slowly roasted to death in the presence of 6000 excited people. Mrs. Jewell, the woman who he so handsomely assaulted, applied the match. She was weak but determined, and was supported by two men, relatives. Coy was covered with kerosene, and his agony was heartrending. He slowly suffered for fifteen minutes.

DURING the month of October last 16,182 immigrants came into the United States. These people had evidently never read Senator Carlisle's predictions as to the woes and miseries that were to follow in the train of the McKinley laws. They hadn't heard that America was going to be ruined by the new tariff. How many of them, do you think, would vote the democratic ticket if they really understood that it was a ballot in favor of establishing here the very identical industrial system from which they had run away!

The governor of North Dakota, was in St. Paul, Minn., one day last week and said that his state could use from 1000 to 1500 men this season. There was much work ready to be done but little help ready to do it with. He said the immense crop of wheat raised in that state last year was more than could be handled and that machines would likely be running until May, before all would be threshed. North Dakota as well as other western states, is evidently enjoying a tide of prosperity. What's wrong with the present administration?

Tariff Pictures. The tin plate duty of 22 cents a pound reduced our imports of tin plate from 64,181,840 pounds in December, 1890, to 21,181,848 pounds in December, 1891. How do we know that that increased the American tin plate industry? Because our imports of tin, the duty free raw material among the various ingredients of tin plate, increased from 2,180,926 pounds in December, 1890, to 2,990,274 pounds in December, 1891.

Eight years ago Robert Rose of Atchison, Kan., obtained a judgment of $25,000 against the city for injuries received by falling through a hole in the sidewalk. The case was fought through all the courts and the decision of the lower court sustained. The city was mandamus and forced to levy a tax to pay the judgment. Rose's attorney was paid $1,000, but upon being notified Rose went to Atchison and delivered himself to the sheriff and went to jail. He says he planned the accident, was not injured, and deliberately perjured himself to obtain the verdict. He now confesses in order to set himself right with God.

A YEAR ago General H. C. Hobart, of Milwaukee, projected and organized the Libby Prison Tunnel association, which is composed of all veterans who had any connection with the digging of the celebrated Yankee tunnel through which 109 Union officers made their way to liberty twenty-eight years ago. Last week the second reunion of this association was held at Libby Prison, Chicago. General Hobart's experiences were, perhaps, the most interesting. After the tunnel was completed he was given charge of it, and to him and his good management is due much of the success of the escape. The officers passed through the underground channel under his direction.

The more thoroughly we investigate the merits of the Australian voting method, the deeper becomes our conviction that it has come to stay. It imparts a new dignity to voting and fosters individualism and enables the citizen to vote as he pleases, and for the candidate that his own convictions lead him to believe will best serve the interests of the public without molestation of the party boss or fear of his threat. It takes a step far in advance of the old methods by preventing officials from intrenching themselves so firmly that they cannot be reached by the popular voice and vote. Leading weak men to the ballot box and ballot stuffing are impossibilities if the Australian system is honestly enforced. Surely the authorities are surrounded with ample safeguards to secure an honest vote and a fair count, and thus avoid the disgraceful contests in the future that have been made possible in the past.

World's Fair Notes. Iowa, in its exhibits at the Exposition, will show the various forms in which products are useful as food, and also the processes of their preparation. The Sultan of Turkey has consented to the erection of a mosque at the Exposition grounds for the religious services of Mohammedans who attend the Fair. It is reported that $3,000 will be expended in its erection. The Pennsylvania coal operators want to construct a building entirely of anthracite coal at the Exposition, and to have 50,000 tons of best anthracite on exhibition. A parade, participated in by 24,000 bicyclists, may be a sight at the Exposition. Efforts are being made to bring about that result. It is reported from Argentine Republic that strong pressure is being brought upon that government to increase its World's Fair appropriation from $100,000 to $300,000. Some Swiss painters, at Geneva, are painting a large panorama of the Bernese Alps, with the intention of bringing it to Chicago for the World's Fair. The panorama will measure 51 by 345 feet and cost $300,000. The sketches for the panorama were taken from the summit of the Mannlichen, 6,000 feet high.

NEBRASKA NOTES. A mad dog which was chasing cattle was killed near Madison by a farmer. "The Baptists of Gering are making an effort to raise money to build a church. The Kearney Savings bank and the Buffalo County National bank are to consolidate. A young man named King died near Unadilla on getting a rabbit bone fast in his throat. The W. C. T. U. of Kearney lost all its funds for charitable work by the recent savings bank failure. A lodge of Daughters of Rebekah has been instituted at Aurora with twenty-five charter members. By the death of her brother in Indianapolis, Mrs. Barney Keenan, of Saunders county, fell heir to $75,000. Mrs. George Mosier, residing near Rising City, died last week in Chicago from the effects of surgical operation. The "white prairie chicken" killed near Mason City turns out to be a ptarmigan, rather a rare bird for Nebraska. A farmer near Lincoln, Butler county, found a chunk of coal eight feet below the surface while digging a well. The girl's industrial school at Geneva is well along towards completion, and is said to be admirably arranged for its purpose. Wm. McLaughlin, who broke the first sod in Sary county, still resides upon his original claim, land taken in 1854, in La Platte precinct. A prominent physician and a professional gambler of South Sioux City, indulged in a shooting match but fortunately no blood was spilled.

The elevator at Phillips was totally destroyed by fire Monday, together with a large amount of grain. Loss $11,000 with only about $2,500 insurance. Mrs. Sawyer of Pleasant Hill, whose husband was drowned two years ago while he was intoxicated, was awarded $1,500 damages against the saloon keeper who sold the liquor. Samuel Randolph, a farmer living five miles southwest of Wallace, got his right arm caught in a corn sheller and torn off close to the shoulder. There is slight chance of his recovery. A young man named Nall was found dead by the side of the road near Superior with a charge of shot from his gun through the heart. It is generally thought to be a case of suicide. When the news of Boyd's ousting was read in the Peru Normal school last year it caused a demonstration, but when his reinstatement was announced the other day there was no excitement whatever. Master Eumons, a young son of G. C. Dimock of Newman Grove, drank a small quantity of ammonia one day last week, but very fortunately without any serious results; an emetic having been promptly given. Myron Vanfleet, a wealthy and influential real estate dealer of Hastings, was shot and almost instantly killed by Captain Yeomans of the same place. It was the result of an old difficulty, and the report says that it caused but little excitement as it had been generally expected. Vanfleet left a wife and three children. Two trains, carrying in all about 200,000 bushels of corn were shipped from Omaha, Thursday, donated by Nebraska's generous citizens to the famine-stricken sufferers in Russia. Mattowick like these printed on banners, were attached to the cars: "Just a little of our surplus for Russian sufferers." "Sympathy for Real Sufferers." "One touch of nature makes the whole world a kin."

Theodore A. Leger, who is now a missionary in Africa, formerly resided at Ashland. His friends there hadn't heard from him recently, and a while ago when they saw in the papers that a lot of American missionaries had been killed and eaten by the savages, they began to have fears that Leger might have been among the unfortunate. Later word came that Leger was all right and his friends are thankful.

NEBRASKA AT THE WORLD'S FAIR. Concerning World's Fair Exhibits. Under the rules adopted by the national board of control, as interpreted and declared by Director General Davis, exhibits of the following class will have to be made in their respective departments and will not be permitted in state buildings: Dairy products, apyri interests, manufactured goods and products of every kind, textile fabrics, the fish industry, machinery, women's handwork, poultry, and all kinds of live stock. These are facts important for intending exhibitors to know. Director General Davis states in a letter of January 20th, that "no exception to these general rules has been made for any state." The exhibits in state buildings will under the rules be confined strictly to products in their natural state, illustrating the natural resources of the state, agricultural and mineral, and historical and educational exhibit of non-competitive character. It is well to remember that all exhibits of every character intended to be competitive, and to be catalogued and recognized by juries of award must be made in their respective departments by the exhibitors and not in state buildings. By bearing these facts in mind disappointment in the future will be avoided. Circulars giving full instructions can be had by applying to any member of the Commission. SETH P. MOBLEY, Press Committee. Nebraska papers please copy.

FROM THE SUNNY SOUTH. A letter from Mr. J. W. Smith, a former resident of Columbus. VELAZCO, TEXAS, Feb. 14, 1892. DEAR FRIEND AND COMRADE, M. K. TURNER.—Temperature 64° in the shade. The fields green, horses, mules and cattle enjoying the new grass. The birds, of which there are many varieties, are singing all around us, which makes me feel as though it cannot be possible that you are still in the midst of that beautiful snow. Well, you can have it all and I will sit evenings on the front porch of our hotel by the moonlight and speculate on the coming metropolis of the great west. This week the contract was let for the building of a $40,000 hotel at Berfide. The motor line will be ready to run by the time I write you again. The improvements here are just about the same as usual. The emigrants still keep coming, and it is being overdone at present until the Santa Fe and Rock Island R.R.'s get in, and then there will be business for all. A company from Chicago is soon to commence some large elevators here. An immense sugar plant is spoken of, also the big cannery plant, and still there is room for many enterprises that such a place as this will support. Ex-Gov. Thayer and party are expected here this afternoon. I shall see the old man, sure, but he does not need his own hand here. I should like to see more Nebraskans here; a good show for everybody but carpenters—there are too many of them here now. There are fine chances for small and great investments in city and county property, yet the price seems high, but nothing compared to Omaha and Chicago. The healthfulness of the climate here seems to be very excellent, two deaths only recorded—one man fell in a building and died from injuries received; another, a Mexican, got more of Pete Tier than he could carry and fell on some water and mud and chilled to death, and that is the way we started the cemetery. Yours, J. W. SMITH.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL. The Encampment. The Fifteenth annual encampment of the G. A. R. department of Nebraska has come and gone. Last week Columbus was arrayed in his holiday attire and entertained no less than a thousand visitors in a manner very creditable to ourselves and very satisfactory to our guests. As early as Tuesday night there were several hundred of the old "vets" here, while all day Wednesday they continued to pour in. Thousands of friends, delegates and visitors of the W. R. C. found accommodations with private families and one and all were long in their praise of the hospitable treatment they received while in Columbus. At 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon the delegates marched from their headquarters to the opera house, to the strains of martial music from the S. of V. drum corps. They were called to order by Commander Teeter. Mayor Ragatz made the following ADDRESS OF WELCOME. Sir Department Commander and Delegates to the Grand Army of the Republic encampment: It is a great pleasure to me to be called upon to perform, to welcome the representatives of the Grand Army of the Republic to our place of meeting. We feel highly honored. No organization to our knowledge has ever before gathered in the most gigantic city of the world for the purpose of celebrating the memory of our country's greatest hero, the greatest patriot, the greatest soldier, the greatest statesman, the greatest man of our time. You did your work better than any other man of your time. I am glad to say, thanks to your efforts, the greatest nation on earth. With our best wishes for the success of your order, and hoping that your encampment may prove a great benefit, I will leave you to your deliberations. This was responded to in a happy manner by Commander Teeter. The encampment was then formally opened and the routine of business taken up. An evening session was held which was opened by an address by Judge Cobb. During the same time the W. R. C. was in session at Oelrich's hall, and an evening meeting was held at the Methodist church. Thursday morning the balloting for department commander was taken up and C. J. Dilworth of Hastings was chosen on the fourth ballot. Other officers were elected as follows: Senior vice commander, A. H. Church of North Platte; junior vice commander, R. LaFontaine of Kearney; medical director, Dr. S. K. Spaulding of Omaha; chaplain, W. H. H. Pillsbury of Grand Island. The board of administration selected as follows: J. H. Culver, Milford; H. C. McArthur, Lincoln; S. D. Davis, Wilber; J. T. Sunny, Beaver City. Following are the delegates elected to attend the national encampment at Washington: Johnson, Strode, Whitman, Sawhill, O'Haves, Congdon, Buchanan and Barbary. In the meantime the W. R. C. had elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Department president, Mrs. Amanda B. Tesdell; senior vice president, Miss Ashbrook of Geneva; junior vice president, Mrs. Clara J. McElroy of Columbus; secretary, Sarah M. Spain, Grand Island; treasurer, Gertrude Herr Congdon, Grand Island; chaplain, Mrs. Richardson, Gering. Council of administration—Mrs. Merrill, St. Paul; Mrs. Smith, Tecumseh; Mrs. Boldshaw, Lincoln; Mrs. Whitmarsh, Omaha; Mrs. Powell, Beatrice. The general expression of the delegates was to the effect that they had been well received and treated during their stay. By Friday night the crowd had largely dispersed, although very many took their leave Saturday. Just what Columbus will be benefited by the advertising that will follow, remains to be seen, but we predict that she will reap her reward. The next annual encampment will be held at Fremont. The boys all enjoyed themselves immensely and many met old comrades whom they had not seen for years. On the whole they were a good looking, intelligent set of boys—old boys; of course—and THE JOURNAL hopes that they may be spared for many more happy meetings like this one. At each successive reunion or other gathering of the old soldiers, it is painfully evident that the ranks are becoming thinner. It is a sad reflection that in a few years more there will scarcely be a quorum left as they are fast answering the final summons and rapidly "falling in" to the last great march to the land beyond this vale of tears. They are, one and all, true patriots, and may the flag which they so proudly defended never suffer humiliation nor disgrace. The First Step. Perhaps you are run down, can't eat, can't sleep, can't think, can't do anything to your satisfaction, and you wonder what ails you. You should heed the warning you are taking the first step into nervous prostration. You need a nerve tonic and in Electric Bitters you will find the exact remedy for restoring your nervous system to its normal, healthy condition. Surprising results follow the use of this great nerve tonic and alternative. Your appetite returns, good digestion is restored, and the liver and kidneys resume healthy action. Oregon, Washington and the Northwest Pacific Coast. The constant demand of the traveling public to the far West for a comfortable and at the same time an economical mode of traveling, has led to the establishment of what is known as Pullman Sleeper.

These cars are built on the same general plan as the regular first-class Pullman Sleeper, the only difference being that they are not upholstered. They are furnished complete with good comfortable hair mattresses, warm blankets, snow white linen, curtains, plenty of towels, combs, brushes, etc., which secure to the occupant of a berth as much privacy as is to be had in first-class sleepers. No healthy person need fear any dangerous consequences from an attack of influenza if properly treated. It is much the same as a severe cold and requires precisely the same treatment. Remain quietly at home and take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as directed for a severe cold and a prompt and complete recovery is sure to follow. This remedy also counteracts any tendency of the grippet to result in pneumonia. Among the many thousands who have used it during the epidemics of the past two years we have yet to learn of a single case that has not recovered or that has resulted in pneumonia. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by C. E. Pollock & Co. and Dr. Heinz, druggists. A Little Girl's Experience in a Lighthouse. Mr. and Mrs. Loren Treocott are keepers of the Gov. Lighthouse at Sand Beach, Mich., and are blessed with a daughter four years old. Last April she was taken down with measles, followed with a dreadful cough and turning into a fever. Doctors at home and at Detroit treated her, but in vain, she grew worse rapidly, until she was a mere "handful of bones." Then she tried Dr. King's New Discovery and after the use of two and a half bottles, was completely cured. They say Dr. King's New Discovery is worth its weight in gold, yet you may get a trial bottle free at C. B. Stillman's drug store.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their lives, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other harmful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."
