WEDNESDAY, MARCH 9, 1922.

Elusive deaths from typhus infection in New York city.

Gov. Boyd has concluded not to call an extra session of the legislature.

Thomas J. Mayors is among those prominently mentioned for governor on the republican ticket.

Loran Clark of Albion has announced himself as a candidate for delegate to the national republican convention.

The Telegram is not very well versed, either in Ohio politics or newspapers, and at times careless of the truth on general principles.

It is said that the indications point to the retirement of Gould and the success of Vanderbilt in the control of the Union Pacific company.

Representative Springer of Illinois, who has been suffering a long time with erysipelas, is now given up as hopeless, the disease having attacked his brain.

Ernest O'Connell, a famous violinist of Oakland, Calif., was recently adjudged insane and sent to an asylum. He was a victim of the cigarette habit to which his mental condition is due.

PATRICK O. HAYES is a picturesque figure in Nebraska politics, but it is about time to stop payment on his supposed agency for the state in collecting claims of the general government.

A horrible fate befel Edward Norestrom, an employe of the National rolling mills at McKeesport, Pa. He was caught and drawn through the rollers and crushed into an unrecognizable mass.

EX-SENATOR JOHN J. INALLS of Kansas has announced himself as desirous of engaging actively in campaigning for the republican party, and also that he is not a candidate for any office in the coming election.

JOSEPH GARRETT of Omaha has been appointed by Gov. Boyd as commissioner general on the World's fair. A. M. Weiss of Hebron takes the place of Col. Brax. Dr. John W. Bowman takes the place of Dr. Charles Manning as sup'nt of the insane asylum at Lincoln.

THROUGH the negligence of a brakeman at Milwaukee, seven men were hurled into eternity. They were all married and left families. They were machinists and worked at the shops. The brakeman who forgot to close the switch ran away and has been since.

THE Blaine divorce case has been the foundation of a good deal of newspaper talk the last few weeks, which will be valuable if it helps to attract attention to the fact that we should have a national marriage and divorce law, which would give uniformity of practice throughout the United States.

A CONFERENCE of postmasters is to take place in Washington today to devise practical methods for a general improvement of the postal service with as much increase of revenue and decrease of expenditures as is consistent with good service. A large number of topics have been suggested for discussion.

JOHN BARD has given to the state a letter to the judges of the supreme court, protesting against their appointment of Henry Gibbons as receiver of the Commercial and Savings Bank of Kearney, (of which Bard was president) when $41,000 out of $38,000 represented by a petition of creditors asked the appointment of Judge Thomas H. Cornett.

THERE is mysterious talk of a "dark horse" candidate for president before the republican convention, but unless signs shall prove deceptive, President Harrison will again receive the nomination with but little if any opposition. As to our friends, the enemy, it now looks as though Governor Boies had a fair showing, seeing that Cleveland and Hill are at swords' points.

IT is possible that the Telegram's editor is already tired of his job as deputy, and longs to have a first-class place? If not, why attract the attention of the state democracy, as thus in the Telegram of Friday?

"If there are any more fat offices left Governor Boyd should at once set out to find an Omaha man to fill them. Omaha elected Boyd, and the balance of the state is of no consequence, anyway."

EVIDENTLY referring to the late fire, as well as perhaps the former one, the Telegram has the audacity to say: "Little Center seems destined to have bad luck, as long as she allows Warwick Swenson to live there." The truth is that Little Center has had, at the hands of the Telegram, more fire advertising than any other town in the county, because of the aforesaid Saunders—if that tends to good luck.

CHAS. PRATT, superintendent of the Catholic (Pa.) Indian school, has been charging that the Catholics maintain a strong lobby at Washington to secure appropriations for schools under their charge, and for their plain talk, the house has voted his extra allowance of $1,000 off his salary. The captain is said to be a very independent sort of man and apt to hold his opinions, through any amount of opposition.

World's Fair Notes.

The California building at the fair will be an imposing structure of the "old mission" type, 110x500 feet, with a dome and costing about $75,000. It will be surrounded by a hedge of Monterey cypresses.

Denmark will spend about $5,000 in showing as a leading feature of its World's fair exhibit, a Danish dairy, complete and in operation. The dairy interest is one of the most important in Denmark, and the most improved methods and mechanical appliances are utilized in the dairies of that country.

W. L. Libby & Sons of Toledo, intend to erect on Midway place, a factory in which the manufacture of cut glass can be seen, from the furnace, on through the cutting, finishing and decorating department, until the finished product is turned out. The factory plans call for a structure 125x200 feet, of stone, iron and glass, and with imposing dome. The firm intends to spend $40,000 on the building alone.

Vermont will have a building at the exposition without drawing on the state appropriation for the cost of its erection. One hundred substantial citizens have guaranteed $10,000 for that purpose, each one pledging himself to pay $100.

The governments of Norway and Sweden have respectively asked for World's fair appropriations of $61,288 and $53,600. In Norway a number of private citizens are raising a fund of $10,720 with which to build and send to Chicago, a counterpart of the Viking ship which was exhumed near Sandeford a few years ago.

Michigan's building will measure 100 x140 feet and be three stories high. It will be constructed of Michigan material, which with the furnishings will be donated. Though but $20,000 of the appropriation will be devoted to its erection it will in reality be a $50,000 building.

WITH A ROAR. A Quarter of a Mile of Saw Slides Down a Mountain Side.

Thursday afternoon a tremendous snow slide occurred in the hills ten miles north of Boise, Idaho. A mass of snow a quarter of a mile in width and from four to six feet in depth went down into a little valley with a roar that could be heard for miles.

The cabin of a miner named Madden was wrecked, and Madden was considerably hurt. He and his mule were swept down the face of the hill together with a lot of snow, brush and other debris. Madden was kicked in the head by his flying mule, the blow rendering him insensible. When he recovered consciousness he discovered that a wagon tongue had been forced clear through the mule. It was the dying kick of the animal that knocked Madden senseless. He says that the hill from which the snow rushed is a solid mass of gold-bearing ore, and he and others who occupied the slide will stake out claims.

DOUBLE MURDER OVER POLITICS. Two Men Accused of Being Republicans Shot Dead in Tennessee.

A double murder was committed at Fayette Corner, in Hardeman county, Tenn., March 1st, father and son falling victims to the bullets of the assassin. A democratic primary was in progress when Tom Rogers, a young man of the vicinity, went up to the poll and offered to vote. He tendered his ballot to one of the officers of the election, but instead of depositing it in the box that person said Rogers was a republican and had no right to vote there. With that he tore the ticket up, threw the pieces on the ground and stamped on them. That was the signal for the row. Sam Hunter, a bystander, drew a pistol and shot young Rogers in the head, killing him instantly and then shot old man Rogers, who was standing near by. The father was removed to his home, where he was dying at last accounts. It was not known at Memphis, whence a telegram was sent, whether or not the murderer has been arrested.

We are indebted to W. H. Michael, clerk of printing records, for a copy of the off-in congressional directory, corrected to Jan. 29, '22. It is the best directory we have ever seen and Mr. Michael deserves credit for the thoroughness of his work. The congressman from this district appears in the directory in this wise: "Omer Madison Kern of Broken Bow was born in Wayne county, Ind., Nov. 13, 1855; was brought up on a farm and received a common school education; removed to Custer county, Neb., in March, 1882, where he entered land under the homestead law; resided on his homestead until January, 1890, when he moved to Broken Bow to fill an appointment as deputy treasurer of Custer county; was elected to the Fifty-second congress as an independent receiving 31,321 votes, against 25,440 for George W. E. Dorsey, republican, 22,353 for W. H. Thompson, democrat, 961 votes for W. L. Pierce, prohibitionist, and 57 votes scattering.

REPRESENTATIVE WATSON, farmers' alliance, of Georgia, rose to a question of privilege Thursday morning and went to the desk a recent copy of the Atlanta Constitution, containing an article written by Barrett, its Washington correspondent and clerk to Speaker Crisp, charging him (Watson) with having voted with the republicans in the Craig-Snowyer election case for financial considerations and the promise of money from the republicans to aid him in his next campaign. Mr. Watson denounced the article as false in every particular, and the insinuations as cowardly. He had voted honestly according to his view of the testimony.

A FATHER can give his young son no better present than a year's reading to the Scientific American. Its contents will lead the young mind in the path of thought, and if he reads there a while, he'll forget frivolities and be of some account, and if he has an inventive or mechanical turn of mind, this paper will afford him more entertainment, as well as useful information, than he can obtain elsewhere. Copies of this paper may be seen at this office and subscriptions received. Price, $3 a year, weekly.

BROOK ISLAND'S democratic convention was professedly for Cleveland, but opposition candidates were selected.

Farm Hints.

Utilize all wastes as manure. Make your corn crib rat proof. A liberal grain ration adds to thrift. Too rich a soil grows too much wood. Sell stock only when in good condition.

Fit the collar to the horse and see that it fits. Pure-bred animals are uniform in color. Regular feeding makes animals more content.

Use such fertilizers as the crops demand. Grain does not hurt cows on a dry pasture.

Pinching the feed is pinching the product. Keep your watering troughs scrupulously clean.

Fertilizers for wheat should be kept near the surface. Mellow soil is more penetrable to air, rain and sun heat.

There is not enough attention paid to the selection of seed. A cow was not made to trot. The cow gait is a walking one.

One of the greatest wastes on the farm is that of fertilizing material. The manure of a well kept animal goes far toward paying for winter keep.

Do not look for a better year for the farming community than that of 1921. Cotton seed may be safely fed more heartily in winter than in milder weather.

Bone meal decomposes slowly, and therefore its application is felt for some time. Some crops clear the soil of weeds. This should be considered in a system of rotation.

All waste matter should be applied to the surface as manure or worked into the soil as compost.

NEBRASKA NOTES. Eight more cars of corn for the famished Russians left Omaha Wednesday. The cars were elaborately and appropriately decorated.

A temporary ferry boat is being used at Fremont, the bridge over the Platte having been demolished by the ice.

A 19-year-old boy named Ole Olson was killed Wednesday in Omaha. He was with a companion, had boarded a Missouri Pacific work train and hid between the cars, intending to steal a ride to South Omaha. When near Farnam street the train broke in two and young Olson was thrown under the train by the sudden jar. His companion, Paul Dodd, escaped unhurt, but Olson's remains were found strewn along the track for over a block and a half. The coroner's jury recommended that the police department take some steps to prevent boys jumping on and off moving trains.

The Eden Muses at Omaha, burned down Sunday night; it was a three story brick owned by John A. O'Leigh; loss $12,000, insurance $5,000. The water pressure was weak.

Washington Letter. (From our regular correspondent.) Ex-Speaker Reed and other long-headed representatives have advised their republican colleagues in the house not to extend a helping hand to either the democratic majority or minority in that body, but to let them fight out among themselves whether a free coinage bill shall be passed by the house. If this advice be taken and it is believed that with a few exceptions it will be, the passage of the Bland free coinage bill which is to be called up under a resolution from the committee on rules just as soon as the house puts itself on record in favor of free trade by passing one of the tariff bills reported from the committee on ways and means, is a certainty, although it will not be accomplished without a very bitter parliamentary fight. The latest scheme of Representative Harter, of Ohio, who has made himself the leader of the anti-silver democrats, to kill the effect of free coinage, is to offer an amendment thereto a proviso that all pensions shall be paid in gold; that depositors in savings banks shall have the right to demand payment in gold; that all holders of life insurance policies shall be entitled to gold payments, and that every man, woman or child working for wages, or who receives a yearly salary of less than $1500 shall have the right to payment in gold.

Individually seven out of ten senators and representatives will agree as to the immediate and pressing necessity for a new building for the government printing office, and that Senator Gallinger, in his recent speech, did not exaggerate the danger to the health and lives of the nearly three thousand men and women who work in the rickety old building at present occupied by that office; they will acknowledge that they share the shame felt by Senator Gallinger when he went through the magnificent buildings erected in our large cities for the use of the big daily newspapers and contrasted them, in his mind, with the government printing office building, and yet collectively, congress does nothing towards erecting a new building. We ask you to give this remedy a trial and we guarantee that you will be satisfied with the result, or the purchase price will be refunded. It has no equal in a grippe, or any throat, chest or lung trouble. Trial bottles free at C. B. Stillman's drug store. Large bottles, 50c. and $1.00.

This is recommended by the press. This is what our English people say about whatever they have to sell in America, however, it's "the verdict of the people" that Haller's Barb Wire Liniment is the most successful remedy for cuts, bruises and sores ever introduced. For sale by Wm. Kearville. 8

Charles Stewart Parrott. The death of this noted and brilliant Irishman was caused by the neglect of a simple cold. Had he used Haller's Barb Wire Liniment his life might have been spared many years. For sale by Wm. Kearville. 8

MASTERS' SALE. In the District Court of the United States, for the District of Nebraska. The undersigned, G. A. E. Baker, of Washington, in September next, the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad offers an unexcelled service of through limited vestibule express trains, with Pullman Sleeping cars from Chicago, St. Louis, Cincinnati, Columbus, Wheeling, Pittsburgh, and all principal intermediate stations to Washington since the grand review of 1888.

No railroad in America is better equipped than the B. & O. to transport large volumes of passenger traffic with dispatch, safety and comfort. Its long experience in transporting crowds to inauguration ceremonies, Knickerbocker convalesces, and similar gatherings on an extensive scale, will prove most valuable in carrying the thousands to the encampment.

The B. & O. is the shortest route to Washington from nearly all points east and west. Passengers from Chicago will have the option of traveling via Pittsburgh or via Granton, both routes crossing the rest of the Alleghenies amid the most picturesque scenery in America. All B. & O. east-bound trains pass Harper's Ferry and traverse the historic valley of the Potomac, whose battle grounds are familiar to every veteran.

Visitors to Washington will be pleased to learn that the B. & O. will sell excursion tickets at the reduced rates from Washington to Maryland and Virginia battlefields during the encampment.

Happy Honeymoons. Wm. Timmons, postmaster of Idaville, Ind., writes: "Electric Bitters has done more for me than all other medicines combined for the bad feeling arising from kidney and liver trouble." John Leelin, farmer and stockman, of same place, says: "Find Electric Bitters to be the best kidney and liver medicine, made me feel like a new man." J. W. Gardner, hardware merchant, same town, says: "Electric Bitters is just the thing for a man who is all run down and don't care whether he lives or dies." He found new strength, good appetite and felt just like he had a new lease on life. Only 50 cents a bottle at C. B. Stillman's drug store.

Constant demand of the traveling public to the far West for a comfortable and at the same time an economical mode of traveling, has led to the establishment of what is known as Pullman Colonist Sleepers.

These cars are built on the same general plan as the regular first-class Pullman Sleeper, the only difference being in that they are not upholstered. They are furnished complete with good comfortable hair mattresses, warm blankets, snow white linen, curtains, plenty of towels, combs, brushes, etc., which secure to the occupant of a berth as much privacy as is to be had in first-class sleepers. There are also separate toilet rooms for ladies and gentlemen, and smoking is absolutely prohibited. For full information send for Pullman Colonist Sleeper Leaflet. E. L. Lomas, Omaha, Neb. 28mar1

J. R. MORGAN, Agent Union Pacific System.

Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Ry. is the only line running solid vestibule electric lighted and steam heated trains between the Missouri river and Chicago, consisting of new palace sleeping cars, luxurious coaches and the finest dining cars in the world.
