THE republicans at Des Moines scored a totally unexpected victory.

AT St. Joseph, Mo., the republicans elected their entire general ticket by 200 to 300 majority.

LET us have a double standard—gold and silver—then one may be some advantage to the other. All dollars should be equal in value, as nearly as possible.

SENATOR HALE says that he knows Mr. Blaine stands now exactly as he did when he wrote his letter of withdrawal. He has not reconsidered his decision and he has given no intimation of any intention to reconsider it.

LAWYER BEGGS, who was senior warden guardian of Camp 20, Clan-na-Gael, at the time of the murder of Dr. Cronin, and one of the five defendants in that case, died Tuesday of last week. Of the five indicted for murder he was the only one acquitted.

RHODE ISLAND elected a republican governor, lieutenant governor, and secretary of state, and a good working majority on joint ballot. This assures the return of Aldrich to the U. S. senate. The campaign was exciting, and the result is gratifying to the republicans.

IN the April Review of Reviews, the department of "Leading Articles of the Month," which has a great range of topics of interest, opens with a summary of Ten Years of Practical Electricity, illustrated by a number of portraits of distinguished electricians.

THROUGHOUT Illinois the returns indicate that the anti-license candidates were successful in about three-fourths of the cities and towns in which the contest was upon that question. In the municipal elections party lines were not drawn as a rule, the issue in the majority of places being the license question.

New York Democracy.

Good and true democrats of Buffalo, N. Y., to the number of two thousand met one evening last week and denounced Senator Hill and his methods. Ex-Mayor Grace said:

"We, too, are democrats, but we think that democracy stands for something more than success in a game where personal advantage is exalted above principle and where organization is extolled as the end of party effort and not the means through which the political consciousness of the masses may speak for itself. More than 10,000 names of democrats, voters residing in the metropolis, will without doubt sign a petition that it is their desire to be represented at Chicago by a delegation which will truthfully represent the sentiments of a majority of the democratic voters of New York."

Hon. Frank Thornton, in referring to Hill, among other things, charged him with reckless ramping for the nomination to the presidency, ready to juggle with the tariff reform and to tamper with the stability and honesty of the people's money, to the inevitable destruction of the democratic party and the irrevocable ruin of the business of the country. In language, not classical, but piquantly picturesque he thus describes the N. Y. senator who aspires to be the next democratic candidate for president:

"Within the last three months he has been for tariff reform and against tariff reform. He has been for free coinage and against it, and has mysteriously straddled due "south by north" upon it. And so this burlesque politician kicks and twists, and turns and bows, and smirks and throws kisses at the political baldheads and tries to palm himself off as an innocent young 'thing and a beauty and joy forever,' and a Delsartean dream of grace, when all the while he is only making an indecent exposure of himself as a political street walker, offering himself body and soul at the low price of a vote or a delegate. The people are not prepared for a shifty, shuffling, equivocal, prevaricating candidate for the highest honor in their gift."

He further denounced Hill as a "shifty, paltering, mischief-making demagogue."

Evidently the democratic brethren of the great Empire state are not dwelling together in the loveliest unity imaginable. What odds? What interest have they, anyhow, except to look on and see their candidate, whoever he may be, defeated by the next republican nominee?

THE NEW LANDS.

Seventy Five Thousand People Looking Over The Border.

A dispatch from Guthrie, O. T., gives the following: The crowds on the border of the Cheyenne and Arapahoe reservations grow greater each day, and already 10,000 people are assembled along the line. Within forty-eight hours after the proclamation is issued this number will be trebled and by the day of the opening fully seventy-five thousand people will be ready to participate in the grand rush. The crowd now numbers people of every color, nationality and profession. Gamblers are plentiful and are growing rich off the unsophisticated boomer, upon whose hands time hangs heavy. In one camp a negro, a Mexican and a Chinaman and a Dutchman are messing together. A gang of counterfeiters have been working the crowds and have succeeded in putting considerable spurious silver money in circulation. Several of them were captured and jailed, though the officers had a desperate time with them. At the King Fisher land office 167 men are in line, many of whom have been there over a week already and many have to remain there two weeks longer. They sleep in line and have their meals brought to them. At Enor the crowd is growing too large to be accommodated, and people are charged $2 a night for sleeping on a cot in a shed or vacant store room, and 75 cents to sleep on the hard floor. Half the wells in the town have given out and a water famine is threatened.

AFTER teaching school fifty-one years, Johan Jacob Haberle of Germany died some years ago, and his diary has just been published, in which the punishments he administered are all noted down. He gave 911,517 strokes with a stick, 240,100 "smites" with a birch rod, 10,986 hits with a ruler, 136,715 hand smacks, 10,235 slaps on the face, 7,905 boxes on the ears, 115,800 blows on the head, 12,763 tasks from the bible, catechism, poets and the grammar; every two years he had to buy a bible, to replace the one so roughly handled by the scholars, 777 times he made his pupils kneel on peas, and 5,001 had to do penance with a ruler held over their heads. As to his abusive words, not a third of them were to be found in any dictionary. So runs a paragraph going the rounds of the papers. It is a very natural query how many hours of the fifty-one years were devoted to straight instruction.

A BILL providing for the apportionment of the state of New York into new congressional districts passed the senate last week. The democratic leader, Cantor, said the new arrangement was a fair one, whereupon Saxton said that twenty-one districts would be democratic and thirteen republican. The basis of representation is 176,000. Of the twenty-one democratic districts seventeen, or 80 per cent, contained less than 176,000, while nine of the thirteen republican districts contained over 176,000. This, they said, did not look very much like fairness There is one thing about the importation of these southern methods in the northern states,—it will call especial attention of northern republicans, and make them, as a party, more appreciative of the troubles, the trials and the injustices to which southern republicans have been subjected for these many years.

SAYS an exchange: "A plain Yankee farmer in Providence last Saturday evening is reported to have asked the following question: 'If this ere little political skillet, Rhode Island, can get so red hot in April that they have to call in all the big cooks in the country, what will it be next fall, when the big 65,000,000 gallon kettle gets to boiling?" The question is certainly pertinent. All the signs promise that this is to be the warmest presidential campaign since the days preceding Lincoln's election, when the country was at fever heat over the slavery issue.

THE nature of the northern part of the new British empire that Mr. Cecil Rhodes is establishing in South Africa is well described in an article in the Review of Reviews for April, entitled "With Mr. Rhodes Through Mashonaland." It is an account of a long journey inland that Mr. Rhodes, the premier of Cape Colony, has just taken to inspect the wonderful new gold fields, over which there is so great an excitement. The article is illustrated with several portraits, including a full-page picture of "Mr. Rhodes at Home."

THE wisdom of him who journeyeth, is known by the line he selects; the judgment of the man who takes the Burlington Route to the cities of the east, the south and the west, is never impeached. The inference is plain. Magnificent Pullman sleepers, elegant reclining chair cars and world-famous dining cars, on all through trains. ACCORDING to the census of 1890, Chicago takes rank, by virtue of her population of 1,098,576 people, as the eighth largest city on the globe. Most of us desire, at one time or another to visit a city in which so many persons find homes and, when we do, we can find no better line than the Burlington Route. Three fast and comfortable trains daily. For further information address the agent of the company at this place, or write to J. Francis, general passenger and ticket agent, Omaha Neb. 52-12

NEBRASKA NOTES.

F. P. Compton of the Utica Sun has skipped out for greener fields.

A heavy snowstorm with high wind and snow drifted badly—at Fort Robinson, Wednesday.

Burglars entered the post-office at Fairbury Tuesday night of last week, blew open the safe and took about $12 in money.

The condemned murderer Dixon is to be executed next Saturday week, presumably on the same spot as that where Ed. Neal met his fate October last.

Work was begun Thursday on the new building to be occupied by the Nebraska Conservatory of Music at Lincoln. It will be completed in July.

The depot of the Elkhorn Valley road at Chadron was almost completely destroyed by fire originating in the oil room from spontaneous combustion.

W. A. Sproel, a young man, became violently insane at the Salvation Army headquarters, Omaha, Saturday night of last week. He was removed to the county jail.

A petition to Gov. Boyd asking the pardon of Captain Yocum, convicted of manslaughter, has been numerously signed at Hastings. This is done to save him his citizenship.

Joachim Oesterling, of Seward, dropped dead about 10 o'clock election day while preparing his ticket in the booth. Mr. Oesterling was a few days past 71 years of age.

The explosion of a shell which he was attempting to load cost Jessie Luke, son of a farmer near Oxford, a terrible mangled hand. Surgeons amputated all but two fingers and a thumb.

G. W. Webb, a resident of Newman Grove, employed as engineer at the Creston flouring mills, Wednesday, fell a distance of twelve feet while oiling a shaft. He is badly bruised and it is feared his spine is injured. He was taken home.

Dan Rice, the colored porter of the Barker block, Omaha, fell Friday from a third-story window of that building to the stone pavement beneath. He received a long gash on the head and was unconscious when picked up. He was still alive the next morning and resting easily.

The Gage county republicans who met in convention Thursday to name delegates to the republican state and congressional conventions, passed resolutions favoring the renomination of President Harrison; also a series of resolutions highly commendatory of Senator A. S. Paddock and strongly commending his re-election to the senate.

Eunice Baldwin of Michigan has entered suit to get about $25,000 from certain real estate in Omaha. Had she been eight days later in filing her petition, she would have been met by the statute of limitations. As it is, W. R. Burt and about a hundred others will have a costly suit on their hands. The land in question is in Griffin & Isaac's addition.

During the temporary absence of the clerk and agent of the Rock Island passenger depot at Beatrice, at noon Thursday, burglars succeeded in effecting an entrance to the ticket office and robbed the cash drawer of $110. Entrance was effected by prying open the ticket office window from the ladies' waiting room and wrenching off the brass guard grating. All the money was taken from the cash drawer excepting a few pennies. The robbery was discovered by the clerk on his return from dinner at noon and must have occurred between 11:40 and that hour.

A dispatch from Chadron, April 7th, said: This section is experiencing one of the worst storms ever seen in this country. The storm started on the 1st but cleared up somewhat Saturday. Saturday night it started with renewed vigor. It has been accompanied with considerable wind but no damage of any extent has resulted from that source. Considerable loss of stock is reported but no lives have been lost in this vicinity as yet. Only one mail train has reached here in the past three days. The wires have not been in working order half the time.

Washington Letter.

[From our regular correspondent.]

There is no longer room for doubt that the, at the time, seemingly unexpected termination of the silver battle in the house was but the carrying out of a carefully pre-arranged plan on the part of certain democratic leaders who did not wish their party committed on this question at the opening of the presidential campaign. They wish to leave the way open for the democratic party to pose as favoring free coinage in states where it will be beneficial to do so, and as opposing it in other states, just as that party has always done in presidential elections, on most questions of national importance. The small fry were not let into the scheme, or Representative Bland would not have blackguarded Speaker Crisp in such a savage way, and then had to eat his words afterwards, when he was told why Speaker Crisp had seemingly betrayed the ultra free silver men; but they all now know the meaning of the whole business, and about 80 or 90 of them are trying to hatch up some scheme of revenge, and if they only had a nervy leader they might accomplish something, as with the present average attendance in the house, that many members, if properly handled, could easily tie up the house, and keep it tied up until their purpose was accomplished. As yet, they only threaten, and those who threaten seldom fight.

It is not regarded as probable that the silver campaign opened in the senate by the debate on Mr. Morgan's resolution will result in any definite action by that body on the actual question of free coinage, although the dodgers like Hill are in a state of trepidation on account of it, and may be forced to define their position.

The first free trade measure—the Springer free wool bill—will be put through the house this week, but there is not the remotest probability of its getting through the senate.

The alliance men in congress have adopted a new financial "fad," and to hear them discuss it one would suppose that they actually expected the bill authorizing it to pass. It is for the secretary of the treasury to issue on demand of the several states, legal tender treasury notes, similar to those now in general circulation, in any amount desired up to $30 per capita, taking the population as given in the last census. The states are to deposit as security 20 year bonds, bearing interest at the rate of 1 per cent per annum. The bill says nothing of how the states are to redeem these bonds at the expiration of 20 years, although it authorizes the legislatures to distribute the money at their discretion.

Not a single democratic member of the senate committee on the District of Columbia voted for Senator McMillan's bill to appropiate $75,000 towards entertaining the members of the G. A. R. who will attend the encampment in this city, which that committee, by the vote of republicans, has favorably reported to the senate. The original bill was for $100,000, but upon consultation with the local committee it was reduced, and a proviso inserted that $60,000 should be raised by private contributions and spent before any of the congressional appropriation can be used. If the democratic representatives are as hostile as these democratic senators have shown themselves to be the bill will never get through the house.

Representative Miller, of Wisconsin, was right when he denounced the present rules of the house, as worse than no rules at all, and said that the time of the house had been spent in doing nothing or worse than nothing on account of those rules.

The house still keeps up the farce of holding one evening session each week to consider private pension bills, but a quorum is never present and the point of "no quorum" is invariably made by some democrat, so that nothing is ever done at those sessions. At the last one Representative Hemphill, of South Carolina, unmercifully scored his party for what he termed its "child's play," in holding these sessions, and pretending to do what it had no idea of doing.

All the good things said about the democratic members of the house committee on elections, because of their votes to put Rockwell out of the seat to which his republican opponent, Col. Noyes, was really elected, will have been said in vain, if it shall turn out to be true, as now reported, that Senator Hill has secured pledges from a majority of the democratic members of the house to vote to retain Rockwell, notwithstanding the report of the committee.

I suffered from temporary sleeplessness from overwork for two years, for which I used Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic, and can recommend same as the best medicine for similar troubles. F. BORNHORST.

ST. FRANCIS, WIS., Oct. 24, 1888.
A member of my congregation used Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic with good results. The patient was so nervous that he could not find sleep for weeks. He suffered from the most intense anxiety which bordered on insanity. I gave the person some of Koenig's Nerve Tonic and he continued to use it. The appetite returned gradually, the anxiety disappeared, the headache left, and to-day the sufferer, who had almost despaired, is enjoying excellent health.

—We want every mother to know that croup can be prevented. True croup never appears without a warning. The first symptom is hoarseness; then the child appears to have taken a cold or a cold may have accompanied the hoarseness from the start. After that a peculiar rough cough is developed, which is followed by the croup. The time to act is when the child first becomes hoarse; a few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will prevent the attack. Even after a rough cough has appeared the disease may be prevented by using this remedy as directed. It has never been known to fail. 25 cent, 50 cent and $1 bottles for sale by C. E. Pollock & Co. and Dr. Heintz, druggists. tf

DR. G. C. OSGOOD, Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."
DR. J. F. KINCHELOE, Conway, Ark.

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."
H. A. ARCHER, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."
