Regret to Have Him Go. Mr. A. J. Wilcox, of Lesterville, left Yankton today for his new home in Columbus, Nebraska, where he has entered an office with Mr. Bayard Fuller, and where the prospects are very promising for a young and energetic attorney. Mr. Wilcox has resided in Yankton county six years and is held in high esteem by all who know him. He studied law in the office of French & Smith in this city and those gentlemen commend him in warm terms as an honorable gentleman with the natural ability to make a name for himself in his chosen profession. Mr. Wilcox is a staunch republican and one of the workers of the party.
