The Humphrey Fair Association has secured two political speakers for Sept. 15th. C. H. Van Wyck and W. A. Poyner, independent candidates for governor and congress.

-F. M. Coochingham of Humphrey was in the city Monday and attended the meeting of the republican club, giving them good report of the republican campaign.

-Do not fail to send for a catalogue of North Nebraska Normal College, before you decide where to attend college. Address E. A. Whitman, P.O. D. D., Mac's n., Nebraska.

-The course of lectures given by the president of North Nebraska Normal College of Madison, Nebraska, during the coming year will alone be worth the price of the tuition.

-An acre of good land in section 6, town 17, range 1 east, for sale for cash. Those wishing to purchase all or any 80 of said tract, please address M. K. Turner, Columbus, Neb.

-C. E. Harrington & Co. have decided to open a coal yard here and have erected their office and part of their coal sheds, expecting, as soon as there are all ready, to open business.

-A car of baled hay at Schuyler was scorching Wednesday night by fire, supposed to be of incendiary origin. A man who would set fire to property is not fit to live among human beings.

-Mrs. George McKelvey gave a party Saturday afternoon, at the residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Matthews, to a number of her old-time friends who gratefully enjoyed themselves.

-George Barnum pulled up at Bellwood last Saturday for a few hours. He afterwards left for Columbus and we learn that he will run his father's farm next season for all there is in it. (Bellwood Gazette.)

-E. J. Ernst of Colfax county was in the city on Sunday. He is one of the enterprising young Nebraskans who believe in diversified farming, and was enthusiastic over his description of the model farm near Schuyler.

-A commercial traveler said one day that he could find good occupants for twenty residences in Columbus, if there were any vacant. No doubt of it. There are inquiries every day for such houses as the three at McAllister Place.

-The Genoa Leader says that Mr. Griffin, living on the Skoedee, recently threshed 11 acres of winter wheat which yielded 432 bushels, or 39 bushels and a little over one peck to the acre, and weighed 62 pounds to the measured bushel.

-Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Pollock returned Monday from their western trip. They extended their travels from Denver down into New Mexico, visiting with relatives at Raton.

-Judge and Mrs. Sullivan returned home last week from their western trip. Halfway up Pike's peak they enjoyed the mountain scenery for five or six days, but after all there is no real enjoyment like good, solid work, and so the Judge is back to business, with renewed strength and interest.

-Mrs. Page will, about the first of September, start a class in vocal music and sight reading—terms, $1.00 a month, two lessons a week. The meetings of the class will be in the evening, and those who are anxious to join the class should apply at once to Mrs. Page 2.

-Plummer Plath last week began pulling up the well tubes at the city waterworks, and will continue pulling up and putting down, replacing the old points with new ones, until the whole have been renewed. From the look of the old points so far, it was a wonder that the city got water at all.

-The wife of Col. Roberts of Rising, Butler county, died suddenly last Friday at Idaho Springs, Colorado. She leaves a husband and six children. Col. Roberts is one of the early settlers in this region, and well known to many JOURNAL readers, who will sympathize with him in his bereavement.

-Rheumatism Cured in a Day. "Mytic Cure" for Rheumatism and Neuralgia radically cures in 1 to 3 days. Its action upon the system is remarkable and mysterious. It removes at once the cause and the disease immediately disappears. The first dose greatly benefits, 75 cents. Sold by A. Heintz, druggist, Columbus, Neb. 14-7

-The JOURNAL acknowledges the receipt of a complimentary to the Fair at Schuyler, Sept. 13-16. Every day it is to be a big day, they say. $2500 in premiums and purses with nearly $3000 added in special premiums by citizens. These are fine prizes. Exhibits will surely eclipse all past efforts in grandeur. Write the secretary, Bert Folds, for a premium list.

-J. M. Gendring, esq., of this city is being mentioned as the probable democratic candidate for state senator of the Platte-Cedar district. Mr. Gendring is not recognized as a "machine politician," and if he should happen to squeeze through the gates, would make a tenacious advocate for his views, and would be sure to be heard in every corner of the senate chamber.

-J. H. Byrnes, the wide-awake young man who represents Columbus township on the county board of supervisors, is much talked of as a candidate for the legislature, by the independent party of Platte county. He may not be able to win against the republican candidate to be named, but he stands well with his party friends, and it will not do to under estimate his strength.

-Gen. J. E. Weaver, the independent candidate for president, passed through the city Sunday afternoon at four o'clock on the Union Pacific, esq. bound. He spoke to several who happened to be at the depot, and Agent Meagher told him of the reception he would have received had he come through the day before. He expressed his regret, but said that he had stopped off at Kearney.

-From every direction come good news concerning winter wheat in Nebraska. Plow the ground and pulverize it well, in August or early September, sow the seed in September with a drill that rolls the soil tight against the grains of wheat, give according to all accounts, the best yield, in acres of cases runs from 20 to 62 bushels to the acre. We believe that nothing will pay farmers better.

-A game of ball played in Grand Island Sunday last between the Globe's of this city and the High School team of the Island, resulted in a victory for the latter by the score of 6 to 8.

-F. M. Jones and two women who were traveling with him were arrested the other day at Seward as swindlers. They have been selling cloth. Jones seemed to have plenty of money, and parted with a hundred dollars in getting out of his scrape—and yet the cloth peddler, the grocery fakir and the lightning rod fencer will continue to ply their confidence games, notwithstanding the oncoming warnings of the press. Boy of your local doctor every time. He is a part of your community, helps you in your business, and will deal honestly by you. It is his interest to do so, and to do nothing else. The swindling confidence man don't intend to come again.

-Just as we close our forms, we hear of the death, Monday night, of J. B. Heinrich, of the vicinity of Platte Center, of heart disease. The deceased was a brother of P. W. Heinrich and son of Rev. A. Heinrich; a former resident of this county, he removed years ago to Denver, where he engaged in business, and where, we believe, through to strict attention to business, he lost his health, returning here the past year, hoping by a life of out-door on the farm, to regain a measure of health. The many friends of the family extend their sympathy to the sorrowing father, brothers and sisters.—It is expected that the funeral will take place from the residence on Burrows trwp, five miles west of Platte Center, this city.

-Our old friend, John H. Eley of West Hill, has taken THE JOURNAL for several years, and, writing to renew his subscription, says among other things, that some years ago he took exception to THE JOURNAL'S conservatism, but he has since found that THE JOURNAL was right and he was wrong. We believe in proving all things, and holding fast to that which is good, and while we know that all things human partake of the nature of men, general principles which are founded on truth should be the guides of our conduct, and for the principles of political economy and an all-around effective party for the good of the country and all classes in it, we believe there is none to compare with the republican party, and all we have to say is to any other, prove your worthiness by deeds of benefit such as have characterized the republican party. Let all political parties emulate each other in working for the good of our common country.

-The Maennerchor, with a number of their friends and families, were at Grand Island Sunday and we are told greatly enjoyed themselves. The crowd of three hundred and more started from here at 7:30 a. m., on the B. & M., taking in city at Grand Island, 30 at Tullysee, 100 at Seward, a number at York, a few at Auburn, in all about 500 people when they reached Grand Island, 113 miles away, at 12:30. They immediately repaired to Lange's Park, where they held their concert and ate their lunch, going from there at 6 p. m., to Liederkreis hall, where the young folks held a short dance. At 8 p. m., they started for the return trip, reaching Columbus at 1 o'clock Monday morning. The Cornet Band, which accompanied, added greatly to the enjoyment of the occasion. There was no lack of music, as besides our band and the Maennerchor, were similar organizations of Grand Island, who rendered a number of choice selections.

-The region of country around Grand Island is parched, the grass looking red, and in many places the ground bare.

-At the meeting of the republican club Monday evening at the Engine House hall there were quite a number of the faithful present, notwithstanding the joking remark of a democrat that two chairs and a cracker box would be sufficient seating capacity for those who should be present. The club already has a membership of ninety, with scarcely an effort to swell its numbers. The main work of the evening was the selection of delegates to the state convention of the republican league at Grand Island, to be held next Wednesday. The following were chosen: C. J. Garlow, C. H. Sheldon, Gus G. Becker, Henry Ragatz and W. A. McAllister, with alternates, Carl Kramer, George Scott, Bert Arnold, Louis Zinnecker and J. G. Pollock. Several members of the club, being called on, made remarks in the interest of the club—the scoring good points for the policy of the republican party. On motion of J. G. Pollock, C. H. Sheldon was added to the executive committee already serving. The drum corps of the Sons of Veterans were out and favored the club with some stirring martial music. The club will doubtless organize a marching force with uniform, torches, music, etc. They meet again next Monday at the same place, and everybody is invited.

-THE JOURNAL takes pride in the advancement of Columbus people, at home and abroad, and rejoices when chronicling progress. A recent number of the Hamilton Herald, published in Skagit Co., Washington, announces the fact that Maynard P. Hurd, who a few years ago, started in the practice of law here, has been nominated by the republicans as their candidate for the legislature. In the speech which placed his name before the convention, Maynard was called "the young Demosthenes" and it was said of him that he is "an advocate of marked ability, a man of the people, and such an exponent of ideas as will make him a material factor in the representative body of our state." The editor remarks that Mr. Hurd was not a candidate for that or any other office, but that "his peculiar fitness singled him out for the legislature nomination. The same fitness will contribute to his support all down through the campaign, and will strengthen him for service in the legislative hall." We can say to our republican friends that they will find Mr. Hurd with the qualifications which will go to make the model legislator: he will be true to his constituents and to himself; he will know what is going on, and be alert, watchful, and eager to be at the front of the contest; he will have a pardonable pride in doing his full duty to the best of his ability, and what the measure of this may be in the legislature, those who come in contact with him, either in friendly consultation or opposing argument, will best be able to judge. All of Mr. Hurd's acquaintances here expect to hear word of him.

District 44 and Vicinity.

The stock sale at W. T. Ernst's came off on the 16th as per advertisement. The day was warm but pleasant, clear sky and a refreshing breeze from south. There was plenty of lunch on the ground, with numerous kags of beer, the latter receiving a good share of attention from the bidders. The average price of 13 horses (including 1 two year trotter) was $67.70; 6 graded bulls one year old averaged $20.50; 30 cows brought an average of $12.53; 6 calves sold an average $6; the average price of 125 yearling steers was $13; 35 head of two year old steers brought an average of $25.25. Gus G. Becker was the officiating clerk.

Hay and grain comes out with a brand new silver-mounted top buggy, to which he attaches his mules, for pleasure.

Hay and grain comes out with a light colored top from the showery of Friday night and Saturday.

Last Wednesday Mrs. V. B. Stevenson of Cedar Rapids is leaving on Monday for her place. Several of their lady friends were present and report a good old fashioned party, where even a game of ball on the lawn was indulged in.

Fred Blaser, who has finished threshing his grain, says 23 acres of oats averaged 45 bushels (spring) measuring 40 bushels to the acre. Mr. B. also added that he did not harrow the wheat ground after sowing, or he would have got more wheat.

Miss Nelly Young invited a few of her associates out to her beautiful home just north of the city Sunday p. m., where a repast of excellent viands was served, with none for dessert, after which a procession was formed when all went into the city to church.

Another light shower Sunday at 2 p. m., and a genuine shower of 2 1/2 inches Monday morning between daylight and 9 o'clock; the latter took place in 44 and on the bluff.

We must now drop our pencil and go to see Gus Schroeder who has been having a tussle with typhoid fever.

Dr. E. Y. Haughwout is the oldest as well as the most practical dentist in Platte county, having practiced three years' practice in Omaha as far as in Columbus. He makes a specialty of rendering all dental operations in a careful and easy manner. He inserts teeth without plate, and kinds of crowns and contour gold fillings, and will in every case restore the beauty, shape and durability of the natural teeth. Dr. Haughwout has nine years' experience in all branches of dentistry, and if you desire a quick and untroubled operation, or a beautiful set of artificial teeth that fit your mouth or any dental operation performed in a superior manner, call on him at his dental parlors on Olive st., next door to Brodfehrer's jewelry store.
