Let our government make deposits in suitable places and take money on deposit and loan it at rate high enough to cover expenses of all kinds including loss, always requiring ample security. Then no man can get money and "blow" it as he follows the citizens for interest. (Monroe Looking Glass.)

Scott Gardner tells us that his father, Joseph Gardner, who for the last two years has been at the western Louisiana, recently had his right leg broken in two places—ankle and thigh, and that the injury was so severe that his life was despaired of. Mr. G. is 78 years old, and was a former resident of this section of Nebraska.

The Junior Christian Endeavor Society of the Congregational church will hold a "Harvest Home" social at the church on Friday evening, October 28, 1922. The entertainment will be served as early as half past five and will consist of Boston brown bread, baked beans, doughnuts, pickles and cakes. Expenses about 50c. Children 10c, adults 15c.

There is a fax-seed man traveling over the country selling a new kind of seed for $2 per bushel which he buys at the elevator for about 80c. Look out for him. He is the Ocala Record, and he will probably be heading this way when he gets through "working" the south side. Of course he will have no show with our readers, but out of kindness tell your neighbors.

Mrs. G. W. Stevens returned Sunday week from California, where she had been sojourning since last December. She likes the country, especially the climate, very much, although at times it is dry and dusty. She thinks that water shall have been generally provided for irrigation, the country will be rapidly settled, and be very productive. She expects to remain in the city five or six weeks.

We are informed by a gentleman of truth and veracity that Lorenzo Joseph and Mrs. Willis of Joliet, the former the father of five children, the latter the mother of two, and both married, disappeared from their homes in Joliet township about four weeks ago, and it is generally believed that they are together somewhere as man and wife. If anybody knows to the contrary they ought to set that community right.

The nomination of Niels Olson for senator is being well received, wherever his sterling integrity, and indelible adherence to duty are known. Mr. Olson is one of that class of men who is appreciated best where he is best known—an exceedingly good quality in a man is to be known to his fellow-officer-seeker, and never has been. A plain American citizen, he does his job whenever called upon, with honesty and fearlessness. He will make a good senator.

The neighborhood of Clarkson in Colfax county is having a very serious time with diphtheria, and it seems to be different from the ordinary. One of Frank Wolf's children has been attacked in the same form as Mr. Conger's children. One of the latter died Saturday week, and while they were burying the corpse the next day, his last child, a girl eleven years of age, died, this being the seventh that died within two weeks. The Schuyler school will be held at the home of the children who have been lying.

It will be safe to say that the performance given by the Alba Heywood Co. which drew a splendid audience to the Academy last night was a most remarkable success. The performance was unique, pleasing and full of merit from beginning to end. As a character actor, probably Mr. Heywood's superior has never been seen at the Academy stage. His work throughout was that of an artist. Each character he assumed was studied and was a true picture of his subject. His humor was refined and taking, the nearest to Sol Smith Russell's style of any man we have seen for years. It is supported by an exceedingly strong company of high-grade artists. He has stamped himself a strong favorite here. (Paradeburg, W. V. Journal. At opera house, Thursday, Nov. 22. Reserved seats at Kearyville's drug-store.

PERSONAL.

George Thomazin was in the city Saturday. Charles Stomestor went to Omaha on business, Tuesday.

Prof. P. W. Hess of Silver Creek was in the city Saturday. Miss Chattie Rice was in Omaha Saturday and Sunday.

Henry Plumb of Lindsay was visiting his old home a portion of last week. A. M. Jennings and brother Dan of St. Edward, were in the city over Sunday.

Mrs. J. G. Higgins of Grand Island was in the city Monday, returning home the same day. Henry and Miss Bertha Zinnecker were in Lincoln a few days, returning home Monday.

G. G. Bowman, esp., of Omaha was in the city several days last week, attending district court. Mrs. D. H. Wheeler of Omaha arrived in the city Tuesday on a visit to H. P. Coolidge's family.

Frank Kenyon went yesterday to North Platte, having an engagement with the Union Pacific Co. Mrs. Jones of Evanston, Ill., passed through the city yesterday, to Cedar Rapids to visit her son's family.

That democratic meeting at the opera house Saturday night must have been the only one of the kind in the city. We are informed that Mr. Keiper made a very fair kind of talk, but that Mr. Gering made some very wild shots. We were not present, but have been furnished with some samples, as follows:

"The democratic party bought Louisiana for home states." "As soon as the republicans came into power they negotiated the nefarious practice of giving the homesteads, bought by the democratic party, to corporations."

"When the government was formed its twin sister, the democratic party, was born." Jefferson, in the constitutional convention, opposed the method of electing U. S. senators by the state legislatures. (This was from Keiper, the would-be congressman.)

"Corrill, the senator from Vermont, in 1862 drew up the protective tariff law." "Thomas Jefferson founded the democratic party when the constitution was adopted, and to him we owe, all the liberty we have."

"The democratic party had nothing to do with secession. It was our old enemy, England, that persuaded the south to secede. The democratic party was always loyal to the government."

"This man, Gering, is set forth by the democratic press generally as a man of fair orator and a very learned man. He certainly will not 'catch' very many votes among those who have been close to the history of their country. Gering is evidently out of 'gear.'"

The Columbus-Day Concert, given by the ladies of the Episcopal church Friday evening, was as thoroughly a success as were the exercises during the day. Although everybody was busy all day, they never thought of rest until the most exciting moment of the concert. The house was crowded with an appreciative audience to listen to a well arranged program. The vocal soloists were Mrs. C. G. O'Connell, Mrs. Kilroy of Lincoln, and Mrs. Chambers and Mrs. Garlow of this city. Mrs. Hamilton of Omaha and Mrs. Barber of this city rendered piano selections. The piano accompaniment was by Mrs. Meiklejohn and Miss Gladys Moore at the other, was of the pleasing features of the program. Messrs. Evans and Chambers sang a beautiful duet, and the same duet, with W. M. Corbin and G. A. Schroeder, rendered a quartette. The closing number was a chorus of girls and young ladies arranged in a pyramid, and sang "Carrying the flag, the middle row with white flags and the top row with blue. The song was 'Columbia,' appropriate to the occasion. The piano solo, beautifully sung, under the direction of Mrs. Park. Mrs. Kilroy received rounds of applause after each of her solos, as did also Mrs. Cotton. Mrs. Hamilton shared the honors with the ladies from abroad. Mrs. Hamilton, we know well to Columbus audiences of a few years ago as Miss Lottie Metz, always and always will be welcomed. After the concert a ball was given in which a greater part of the audience participated. The net proceeds were something over a hundred dollars.

We have mentioned in THE JOURNAL a case of intimidation in Colfax county—a man suspending a man by the neck and thus trying to compel him to acknowledge guilt of stealing. The Sun says: "The preliminary hearing before Judge Allen resulted in his honor binding the defendant over to the next term of district court in the sum of $1000. They are, Peter Julch, Peter Botach, George Botach, John Froelich, James W. Marshall and Grant Collins. The defendant, Bernard Zitting, told a straightforward story and there is little doubt on the minds of those who listened to his testimony but that he told the truth in regard to being visited in the night and maltreated. It looks as though the ones engaged in the plot—if there is one to run the old man out of the country had gotten themselves into a hard place. There is only one safe course for all good citizens, and that is to obey the law themselves, under all circumstances, and help, by their moral support, and also their physical strength, when necessary, to enforce the law upon all wrong-doers, whether they be entire communities or single individuals. If law was always enforced there would be much less temptation to commit crime."

Messrs. Cornelius, McAllister, Gramer and Bagatz were in attendance at the republican meeting at Schuyler last Saturday evening. It was a huge affair, the handsome club marching zigzag, shooting sky rockets, and cannon, and school girls with Chinese lanterns added to the brightness of the street parade. "Governor" Cronquist was the speaker of the occasion. Eugene Moore making a few remarks. Our folks were very much pleased with Mr. Cronquist, some of them never having known him before. He is a plain, out-spoken man, evidently fully believing what he says. A man of good common sense, and well-versed in all public matters.

The fire department was called out Saturday afternoon about 5, to the residence of Mrs. Bonnie Sanner on Olive st., where it was found that a hay stack was burning. What with the fire, smoke and water, the hay was a total loss, although not burned up. The father of the boys who were on duty, promptly proffered payment. The stack was close to the barn and about sixty feet only from the house. In going to the fire, so rapid was the running of some of the horses that a hook and ladder truck was overturned and a tongue broke. One man seriously hurt.

Salemen wanted to travel in surrounding districts, by team or otherwise, soliciting orders on commission from retail dealers for rubber boots and shoes. To be shipped direct from factory. Those already traveling with another line of goods could make this a valuable addition to their business. Address, stating particulars and references, Chester Rubber Co., Colchester, Conn.

COLUMBUS DAY.

THE PROCESSION A GRAND SUCCESS. Four Thousand People in Line—Platte County a Good Representative of the Country Large.

The good people of Columbus were very busy Friday morning with the finishing strokes of preparation for the greatest day which the city has yet seen in her history. So busy were they that they forgot to attend the exercises held at the three, ward schools in the morning.

This was really the only mistake of the day that we have so far heard of—that these exercises were not listened to by the few who were so privileged, but then it is a common fault not to visit the common schools, in the common way—more the proper incentives to duty, and it operates with children and teachers, but what seemed lacking in the morning was certain more than made up for by the demonstration of the afternoon.

During all the forenoon many hands were busy arranging for the parade, preparing costumes, looking for costumes, and the entertainment of the guests at dinner, and also for the thousand and one other essentials of a "fine time." They were placed in line at the Union Pacific building at 10 o'clock, and the parade began to disperse to their homes, and by the greatest day of the city has seen a memory. Every body was brightly lit, all seemed to vie with each other to make the occasion a success. The executive committee deserves unbounded praise for the suggestions, the planning and the entertainment of the guests at dinner, and also for the thousand and one other essentials of a "fine time."
