

Columbus Journal

VOLUME XXIII.—NUMBER 38.

COLUMBUS, NEBRASKA, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 4, 1893.

WHOLE NUMBER 1,182.

THE OLD RELIABLE

Columbus - State - Bank

(Oldest Bank in the State)

Pays Interest on Time Deposits

AND

Makes Loans on Real Estate

MAKES SIGHT DRAFTS ON

Omaha, Chicago, New York and all Foreign Countries.

SELLS: STEAMSHIP: TICKETS.

BUYS GOOD NOTES

And Helps its Customers when they Need Help.

OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS:

LEANDER GERHARD, Pres.
R. H. HENRY, Vice Pres.
JOHN STAUFFER, Cashier,
M. BRUGGER, G. W. HULST.

COMMERCIAL BANK

COLUMBUS, NEB.,

HAS AN

Authorized Capital of $500,000

Paid in Capital 90,000

OFFICERS:

G. H. SHELDON, Pres.
R. P. H. OHLRICH, Vice Pres.
C. A. NEWMAN, Cashier,
DANIEL SCHRAM, Asst. Cash.

STOCKHOLDERS:

G. H. Sheldon, J. P. Becker,
Herman P. H. Ohlrich, Carl Klock,
John Welch, A. M. Miller,
J. Henry Wierman, H. M. Winslow,
George W. Galley, C. W. Galt,
Frank Horner, Arnold F. W. Ohlrich,
Henry Laska, Gerhard Laska.

A. DUSSELL,

DEALER IN

DUPLIX Wind Mills,

And all kinds of Pumps.

PUMPS REPAIRED ON SHORT NOTICE.

Eleventh Street, one door west of Hagel & Co's.

COLUMBUS

Planing Mill.

We have just opened a new mill on M street, opposite Schroeder's flooring mill and are prepared to do ALL KINDS OF WOOD WORK, such as Sash, Blinds, Store Fronts, Counters, Stairs, Balusters, Turning, Doors, Mouldings, Stair Railing, Scroll Sawing, Planing.

STEEL AND IRON ROOFING AND SIDING.

HUNTEMAN BROS.,

PATENTS

Copyright and Trade Marks obtained, and all Patent business conducted for MODERATE FEES. OUR OFFICE IS OPPOSITE G. & F. PATENT OFFICE. We have no sub-agents, all business done direct, hence we can transact patent business in less time and at LESS COST than those remote from Washington.

COME TO

The Journal for Job Work

NEBRASKA NEWS.

STATE REVIEWS.

The Journal Herald has a regular correspondent from Japan.

James G. McBride of Pawnee City broke his leg while coasting.

A Cass county farmer has slaughtered nineteen wolves this winter.

Firemen of Lincoln presented the mayor with a fine gold-headed cane.

Miss Lulu Wilson of Nebraska City was seriously injured while coasting.

One hundred and fifty men are cutting ice at Ashland for Swift & Co. of South Omaha.

A Lincoln councilman presented each member of the police force of that city with a fat turkey.

Traveling grocery fakes have victimized the farmers of Adams county out of a considerable sum.

The Gretna Reporter tells of a doctor of that place who took a tape worm from a man sentenced for long.

Bernard Monahan, who has lived thirty-five years in Sary county, made his first visit to Lincoln last week.

Dr. Taylor, the Stevie City gentleman who attempted to carve his neighbor, Elmer Campbell, was fined $50.

Harry Hubbard was arrested at Table Rock for Landlord Ferrell and fined $5 and costs for beating a board bill.

Printers on the Lincoln Journal and Call struck for an increase of wages.

At this writing the demand has not been granted.

H. C. Fieldman was caught in the shafting of the Carter white lead works in Omaha and killed. His body was horribly mangled.

The wife of a prominent Lincoln citizen was detected in the act of snuffing and escorted to the police station in a patrol wagon.

Auditor-elect Eugene Moore has just resigned his position as court stenographer, a position which he has held for eighteen years.

Ex-Sheriff A. H. Beemer of Cuming county is a candidate for appointment as warden of the penitentiary. His friends say his chances are good.

The Mercer is Omaha's newest and best hotel. Cor. Twelfth and Howard streets. Rates $2 to $4.50 per day. 150 rooms and 60 connected with bath.

An escaped lunatic tried to force an entrance into the dwelling of Neil Dreyer near Weston, but he was shot from Mrs. Dreyer's dwelling by her son and he was killed.

W. R. Fox, a farmer of Adams county, has 14,000 bushels of corn which he is willing to sell to the first man who will offer $1.00 for it. Mr. Fox stands up for Nebraska.

Tom Ayres of Lincoln had sixty chickens, on some of which he proposed feasting during the holidays, but a thief scoured the entire coop and the feast will not take place.

Barbara Dufek of Dodge county sued for a divorce on the ground that her husband has treated her with extreme cruelty and has endeavored to take her life as well as the lives of a large brood of helpless offspring.

Peter Blackbird, an Omaha Indian, who was sentenced at Omaha recently for assault and battery, tried to commit suicide by shooting himself in the abdomen. His aim was poor and he was not dangerously hurt.

Isaac Hill, son of a farmer living three miles west of Oakland, and who is subject to epileptic fits, after doing some trading lost his way and it is feared that in one of his paroxysms he may have frozen to death.

Two young men by the names of Enoch Jovis and John J. Jovis, who were taken to the insane hospital Thursday by Sheriff Gallin of Cuming county, the former was a butcher of Bancroft, the latter a boy of Wisner.

The meeting at the Church of Christ at Arapahoe, conducted by Evangelist S. A. Redges, still continues with unabated interest. The additions to the church have already amounted to twenty-one, all heads of families but three.

Arley Hinkley, son of a prominent farmer living four miles east of Ashland, was severely cut while chopping wood. The ax slipped and cut him on the wrist, severing the tendons of the hand, and it is thought he will be a cripple.

A man named Tom Wilson got a team at a livery barn in Wilber recently, leaving with the livery man another team and wagon. Wilson had been seen by an employer with $35 to go to Wilber with a load of bricks, but failed to return.

Burglars broke into the postoffice at Table Rock, and Taylor's store and Conklin's jewelry store. From the latter place, it is supposed, they got in goods about $100; from Taylor's store in goods about $100, and very little from the postoffice.

The wife of Henry Hinzeker, sr., was found on the floor of her residence, seven miles southeast of Table Rock, with a pool of blood beside her. It is supposed that while up in the night for something, she was taken with a fit of coughing, to which she was subject, and ruptured a blood vessel.

The Fremont Tribune publishes a list of permanent improvements made in that city during the year 1892 which foots up the gratifying sum of $515,825, divided as follows: Public improvements, $93,000; business buildings, $33,000; residences, churches, etc., $161,825.

Hon. Paul Schminke, one of the best known men of Nebraska, and who has several times represented Otoe county in the legislature and is at present mayor of Nebraska City, is very sick.

His ailment is a combination of fatty degeneration of the heart and Bright's disease, the latter an outgrowth of the former.

At a masked ball given at Hubbell recently a fight between two drunken ruffians broke out behind the scenery, in which ten or twelve persons participated. Knives were freely used. John Hill Dick May and several others were severely cut up and otherwise bruised in the melee. The city marshal overpowered the ruffians and peace was restored.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Curran of Oronida went to Oklahoma. Mrs. Curran became homesick and returned. Curran was mad and sued for a divorce which the court granted. Then he returned and the twin became one flesh again and all is well.

NEW YORK'S SENATOR.

WILL THERE BE A CONTENTION BETWEEN HILL AND CLEVELAND.

Mr. Hill's Influence Such that He Can Make Himself Disagreeable if He Chooses to Do So—Republican Senators Will Not Appoint a Steering Committee—A Nebraska Girl Murdered in California and Her Body Cremated—Arrival of the American Commissioners in Cuba—Latest Concerning the Condition of Mr. Blaine.

The New York senatorship, Washington, Dec. 30.—The Star says: The open fight between the Hill and Cleveland people over the New York senatorship brings in close review the interesting question of what the relations between Cleveland and the New York senators will be during the next administration.

Hill's influence in the senate is very much greater than is generally believed, though it may not be strong enough for a contention with the administration. In a measure, Hill has taken the place of Gorman in the senate. All the friends that Gorman lost in Chicago Hill gained, and this gives him sufficient power in the senate to make himself quite disagreeable to the administration if he desires to do so.

Notwithstanding the bitterness of feeling which is provoked by the New York senatorial fight, it may be depended upon that Mr. Hill will not appear antagonistic in the senate. He will support the administration in most of its measures, though trouble is looked for by those who are skimming over the surface, in view of the relations to the confederations. In this particular, his friends say, he will follow no policy of general opposition, but will approve everything and every person passing his test of democracy.

It is believed that the only thing he has in view is to stand on guard to prevent the preferment of mugwumps. He hates a mugwump and the first mugwump who is nominated for any important office will be fought tooth and nail by Hill. He will have the secret assistance of a good many men who would not dare to make an open fight.

Bourke Cockran left Washington this morning for New York. It is generally believed that he is going to enter for the senatorial fight against Murphy. Some of the Cleveland people have for some days been trying to induce Mr. Cockran to permit the use of his name, and it is believed that he had been arranged for him to enter the fight before Mr. Cleveland.

At the interview opposing Mr. Murphy.

Republican senators.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—The republican senate caucus will not appoint a new steering committee. The present committee, composed of Senators Hoar, McMillan, Chandler, Teller and Mitchell, will be continued in force and will conduct all the business that would come within the province of a steering committee.

"The committee is not assuming any editorial powers," said Mr. Mitchell this morning. "On the contrary, we are acting simply as an advisory board. We are gathering all the information we can and watching both sides of the case, so that when the contests reach the senate, as they will, perhaps, we will be in possession of facts and understand the merits better than we would otherwise. So far as the republican members of the senate are concerned, it is their intention to see that the legal choice of the states is the man elected to the senate, regardless of what his politics may be."

Fate of a Nebraska Girl.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Dec. 30.—This morning it was discovered that the railroad station at Brighton, five miles southeast of here on the Sacramento & Placerville road, was in flames. The building was burned to the ground. A search was made for Miss Ayres, the telegraph operator, and her remains were found in the corner of the ruins, where her bed-room had been. The body was recognizable. The skull was found in pieces near the body, and a pistol was picked up only a few feet away. A long, heavy iron poker, used in the depot waiting room, was discovered close to the remains. Miss Ayres was reported to have considerable money, but always said she did not fear to live there alone, as she was armed and ready to take her own part. The theory of the officers is that she was aroused by some one asking her to send a telegraphic message. She probably started to answer the summons, taking her pistol with her, and she was then assaulted. She evidently fired one shot, as the cartridges in the pistol indicate, and then her assailant pursued her into her room with the poker and beat her brains out. This was early last night, and it is thought the murderer returned before daylight to burn the house and destroy the evidence of his crime. The deceased was thirty-five years of age and had a mother residing near Stanton, Neb.

American Commissioners in Cuba.

HANANA, Dec. 30.—Shortly after landing here yesterday the commission appointed by the United States congress to examine the Cuban quarantine and other subjects of a similar character visited the governor general. They were promised government assistance in their investigations.

Mr. Hamon O. Williams, the American consul general here, has petitioned the governor general to appoint a committee of physicians to confer with the committee with regard to the chief contagious diseases that prevail here. It was held that before relief could be granted through a writ of mandamus, the petitioners must show that they had been regularly nominated and the statutes upon the subject complied with by the officers of the remaining conventions. Leave to reply was given, the petitioners to a reply will be made at a later session of the court.

Wyoming Contest.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Dec. 31.—In the Wyoming supreme court an opinion was handed down in the contested election cases adverse to the democrats upon the question raised by the attorneys for the state canvassing board upon the regularity of the nominations of Chapman and Bennett, the petitioners. It was held that before relief could be granted through a writ of mandamus, the petitioners must show that they had been regularly nominated and the statutes upon the subject complied with by the officers of the remaining conventions. Leave to reply was given, the petitioners to a reply will be made at a later session of the court.

Minister Lincoln's Sale for England.

NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—The Hon. Robert T. Lincoln, United States Minister to England, returned to his post yesterday by the White Star steamship Teutonic.

OUR ST. LOUIS LETTER.

Office Building Improvements—A Hundred Miles of Electric Road to Be Built—Selling Franchise.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Dec. 24.—Every new office building that rises with its ten and twelve stories in St. Louis has an improvement on the one before it, the most before it shows that invention is doing for the convenience of the business man. Rapid and intelligent elevator service is the one thing needed in these high edifices. At present, in most of them, it is very irregular. You may ring the bell, wanting to go down, and along comes an elevator going up. You have to wait till it comes back. The newest idea is a double bell on each floor, one of them marked, "up" and the other "down." You ring the bell that shows what you want, and the elevator going your way comes to your floor and stops. The elevator that runs continuously up and down without bells are being abandoned, as there is too much waste of power with them.

If the Assembly passes the street railway bill now pending, it will save the city a hundred miles of electric road to be added before next fall to those now running in the city. There are men in the city who, taking advantage of this intention of the railway builders to extend their lines into every nook and cranny of the city, are making fortunes by keeping their eyes open and investing small sums of money judiciously. There are some of these men at every meeting of the Assembly. When an application for a new franchise is made, they take a note of the route. They see the line and they project a line looking for vacant lots. Then they see the owner and offer to pay his taxes in exchange for a year's option. In most cases he is glad to get the offer and closes with it at once. The other man pays the taxes and closes the option before the year is out, and makes a thousand per cent on the investment, as the property jumps up at the approach of the new road. A business of this kind could not be carried on at all in a city growing less rapidly than St. Louis.

There are thousands of people all over the United States who have pleasant memories of visits to the great woodland resort of St. Louis, Forest Park. They have walked through it by the footpaths, or driven along its winding roads, and have marveled at its scenery, its zoological collection and its botanical garden. All these tourists will doubtless be interested in knowing that in a year or less there will be a belt line of electric railway running around the park and connecting it with the city and the river.

There are thousands of people all over the United States who have pleasant memories of visits to the great woodland resort of St. Louis, Forest Park. They have walked through it by the footpaths, or driven along its winding roads, and have marveled at its scenery, its zoological collection and its botanical garden. All these tourists will doubtless be interested in knowing that in a year or less there will be a belt line of electric railway running around the park and connecting it with the city and the river.

There are thousands of people all over the United States who have pleasant memories of visits to the great woodland resort of St. Louis, Forest Park. They have walked through it by the footpaths, or driven along its winding roads, and have marveled at its scenery, its zoological collection and its botanical garden. All these tourists will doubtless be interested in knowing that in a year or less there will be a belt line of electric railway running around the park and connecting it with the city and the river.

There are thousands of people all over the United States who have pleasant memories of visits to the great woodland resort of St. Louis, Forest Park. They have walked through it by the footpaths, or driven along its winding roads, and have marveled at its scenery, its zoological collection and its botanical garden. All these tourists will doubtless be interested in knowing that in a year or less there will be a belt line of electric railway running around the park and connecting it with the city and the river.

There are thousands of people all over the United States who have pleasant memories of visits to the great woodland resort of St. Louis, Forest Park. They have walked through it by the footpaths, or driven along its winding roads, and have marveled at its scenery, its zoological collection and its botanical garden. All these tourists will doubtless be interested in knowing that in a year or less there will be a belt line of electric railway running around the park and connecting it with the city and the river.

There are thousands of people all over the United States who have pleasant memories of visits to the great woodland resort of St. Louis, Forest Park. They have walked through it by the footpaths, or driven along its winding roads, and have marveled at its scenery, its zoological collection and its botanical garden. All these tourists will doubtless be interested in knowing that in a year or less there will be a belt line of electric railway running around the park and connecting it with the city and the river.

There are thousands of people all over the United States who have pleasant memories of visits to the great woodland resort of St. Louis, Forest Park. They have walked through it by the footpaths, or driven along its winding roads, and have marveled at its scenery, its zoological collection and its botanical garden. All these tourists will doubtless be interested in knowing that in a year or less there will be a belt line of electric railway running around the park and connecting it with the city and the river.

There are thousands of people all over the United States who have pleasant memories of visits to the great woodland resort of St. Louis, Forest Park. They have walked through it by the footpaths, or driven along its winding roads, and have marveled at its scenery, its zoological collection and its botanical garden. All these tourists will doubtless be interested in knowing that in a year or less there will be a belt line of electric railway running around the park and connecting it with the city and the river.

There are thousands of people all over the United States who have pleasant memories of visits to the great woodland resort of St. Louis, Forest Park. They have walked through it by the footpaths, or driven along its winding roads, and have marveled at its scenery, its zoological collection and its botanical garden. All these tourists will doubtless be interested in knowing that in a year or less there will be a belt line of electric railway running around the park and connecting it with the city and the river.

There are thousands of people all over the United States who have pleasant memories of visits to the great woodland resort of St. Louis, Forest Park. They have walked through it by the footpaths, or driven along its winding roads, and have marveled at its scenery, its zoological collection and its botanical garden. All these tourists will doubtless be interested in knowing that in a year or less there will be a belt line of electric railway running around the park and connecting it with the city and the river.

There are thousands of people all over the United States who have pleasant memories of visits to the great woodland resort of St. Louis, Forest Park. They have walked through it by the footpaths, or driven along its winding roads, and have marveled at its scenery, its zoological collection and its botanical garden. All these tourists will doubtless be interested in knowing that in a year or less there will be a belt line of electric railway running around the park and connecting it with the city and the river.

There are thousands of people all over the United States who have pleasant memories of visits to the great woodland resort of St. Louis, Forest Park. They have walked through it by the footpaths, or driven along its winding roads, and have marveled at its scenery, its zoological collection and its botanical garden. All these tourists will doubtless be interested in knowing that in a year or less there will be a belt line of electric railway running around the park and connecting it with the city and the river.

There are thousands of people all over the United States who have pleasant memories of visits to the great woodland resort of St. Louis, Forest Park. They have walked through it by the footpaths, or driven along its winding roads, and have marveled at its scenery, its zoological collection and its botanical garden. All these tourists will doubtless be interested in knowing that in a year or less there will be a belt line of electric railway running around the park and connecting it with the city and the river.

There are thousands of people all over the United States who have pleasant memories of visits to the great woodland resort of St. Louis, Forest Park. They have walked through it by the footpaths, or driven along its winding roads, and have marveled at its scenery, its zoological collection and its botanical garden. All these tourists will doubtless be interested in knowing that in a year or less there will be a belt line of electric railway running around the park and connecting it with the city and the river.

There are thousands of people all over the United States who have pleasant memories of visits to the great woodland resort of St. Louis, Forest Park. They have walked through it by the footpaths, or driven along its winding roads, and have marveled at its scenery, its zoological collection and its botanical garden. All these tourists will doubtless be interested in knowing that in a year or less there will be a belt line of electric railway running around the park and connecting it with the city and the river.

There are thousands of people all over the United States who have pleasant memories of visits to the great woodland resort of St. Louis, Forest Park. They have walked through it by the footpaths, or driven along its winding roads, and have marveled at its scenery, its zoological collection and its botanical garden. All these tourists will doubtless be interested in knowing that in a year or less there will be a belt line of electric railway running around the park and connecting it with the city and the river.

There are thousands of people all over the United States who have pleasant memories of visits to the great woodland resort of St. Louis, Forest Park. They have walked through it by the footpaths, or driven along its winding roads, and have marveled at its scenery, its zoological collection and its botanical garden. All these tourists will doubtless be interested in knowing that in a year or less there will be a belt line of electric railway running around the park and connecting it with the city and the river.

There are thousands of people all over the United States who have pleasant memories of visits to the great woodland resort of St. Louis, Forest Park. They have walked through it by the footpaths, or driven along its winding roads, and have marveled at its scenery, its zoological collection and its botanical garden. All these tourists will doubtless be interested in knowing that in a year or less there will be a belt line of electric railway running around the park and connecting it with the city and the river.

There are thousands of people all over the United States who have pleasant memories of visits to the great woodland resort of St. Louis, Forest Park. They have walked through it by the footpaths, or driven along its winding roads, and have marveled at its scenery, its zoological collection and its botanical garden. All these tourists will doubtless be interested in knowing that in a year or less there will be a belt line of electric railway running around the park and connecting it with the city and the river.

There are thousands of people all over the United States who have pleasant memories of visits to the great woodland resort of St. Louis, Forest Park. They have walked through it by the footpaths, or driven along its winding roads, and have marveled at its scenery, its zoological collection and its botanical garden. All these tourists will doubtless be interested in knowing that in a year or less there will be a belt line of electric railway running around the park and connecting it with the city and the river.

There are thousands of people all over the United States who have pleasant memories of visits to the great woodland resort of St. Louis, Forest Park. They have walked through it by the footpaths, or driven along its winding roads, and have marveled at its scenery, its zoological collection and its botanical garden. All these tourists will doubtless be interested in knowing that in a year or less there will be a belt line of electric railway running around the park and connecting it with the city and the river.

There are thousands of people all over the United States who have pleasant memories of visits to the great woodland resort of St. Louis, Forest Park. They have walked through it by the footpaths, or driven along its winding roads, and have marveled at its scenery, its zoological collection and its botanical garden. All these tourists will doubtless be interested in knowing that in a year or less there will be a belt line of electric railway running around the park and connecting it with the city and the river.

There are thousands of people all over the United States who have pleasant memories of visits to the great woodland resort of St. Louis, Forest Park. They have walked through it by the footpaths, or driven along its winding roads, and have marveled at its scenery, its zoological collection and its botanical garden. All these tourists will doubtless be interested in knowing that in a year or less there will be a belt line of electric railway running around the park and connecting it with the city and the river.

There are thousands of people all over the United States who have pleasant memories of visits to the great woodland resort of St. Louis, Forest Park. They have walked through it by the footpaths, or driven along its winding roads, and have marveled at its scenery, its zoological collection and its botanical garden. All these tourists will doubtless be interested in knowing that in a year or less there will be a belt line of electric railway running around the park and connecting it with the city and the river.

There are thousands of people all over the United States who have pleasant memories of visits to the great woodland resort of St. Louis, Forest Park. They have walked through it by the footpaths, or driven along its winding roads, and have marveled at its scenery, its zoological collection and its botanical garden. All these tourists will doubtless be interested in knowing that in a year or less there will be a belt line of electric railway running around the park and connecting it with the city and the river.

There are thousands of people all over the United States who have pleasant memories of visits to the great woodland resort of St. Louis, Forest Park. They have walked through it by the footpaths, or driven along its winding roads, and have marveled at its scenery, its zoological collection and its botanical garden. All these tourists will doubtless be interested in knowing that in a year or less there will be a belt line of electric railway running around the park and connecting it with the city and the river.

There are thousands of people all over the United States who have pleasant memories of visits to the great woodland resort of St. Louis, Forest Park. They have walked through it by the footpaths, or driven along its winding roads, and have marveled at its scenery, its zoological collection and its botanical garden. All these tourists will doubtless be interested in knowing that in a year or less there will be a belt line of electric railway running around the park and connecting it with the city and the river.

There are thousands of people all over the United States who have pleasant memories of visits to the great woodland resort of St. Louis, Forest Park. They have walked through it by the footpaths, or driven along its winding roads, and have marveled at its scenery, its zoological collection and its botanical garden. All these tourists will doubtless be interested in knowing that in a year or less there will be a belt line of electric railway running around the park and connecting it with the city and the river.

There are thousands of people all over the United States who have pleasant memories of visits to the great woodland resort of St. Louis, Forest Park. They have walked through it by the footpaths, or driven along its winding roads, and have marveled at its scenery, its zoological collection and its botanical garden. All these tourists will doubtless be interested in knowing that in a year or less there will be a belt line of electric railway running around the park and connecting it with the city and the river.

There are thousands of people all over the United States who have pleasant memories of visits to the great woodland resort of St. Louis, Forest Park. They have walked through it by the footpaths, or driven along its winding roads, and have marveled at its scenery, its zoological collection and its botanical garden. All these tourists will doubtless be interested in knowing that in a year or less there will be a belt line of electric railway running around the park and connecting it with the city and the river.

There are thousands of people all over the United States who have pleasant memories of visits to the great woodland resort of St. Louis, Forest Park. They have walked through it by the footpaths, or driven along its winding roads, and have marveled at its scenery, its zoological collection and its botanical garden. All these tourists will doubtless be interested in knowing that in a year or less there will be a belt line of electric railway running around the park and connecting it with the city and the river.

There are thousands of people all over the United States who have pleasant memories of visits to the great woodland resort of St. Louis, Forest Park. They have walked through it by the footpaths, or driven along its winding roads, and have marveled at its scenery, its zoological collection and its botanical garden. All these tourists will doubtless be interested in knowing that in a year or less there will be a belt line of electric railway running around the park and connecting it with the city and the river.

There are thousands of people all over the United States who have pleasant memories of visits to the great woodland resort of St. Louis, Forest Park. They have walked through it by the footpaths, or driven along its winding roads, and have marveled at its scenery, its zoological collection and its botanical garden. All these tourists will doubtless be interested in knowing that in a year or less there will be a belt line of electric railway running around the park and connecting it with the city and the river.

There are thousands of people all over the United States who have pleasant memories of visits to the great woodland resort of St. Louis, Forest Park. They have walked through it by the footpaths, or driven along its winding roads, and have marveled at its scenery, its zoological collection and its botanical garden. All these tourists will doubtless be interested in knowing that in a year or less there will be a belt line of electric railway running around the park and connecting it with the city and the river.

There are thousands of people all over the United States who have pleasant memories of visits to the great woodland resort of St. Louis, Forest Park. They have walked through it by the footpaths, or driven along its winding roads, and have marveled at its scenery, its zoological collection and its botanical garden. All these tourists will doubtless be interested in knowing that in a year or less there will be a belt line of electric railway running around the park and connecting it with the city and the river.

There are thousands of people all over the United States who have pleasant memories of visits to the great woodland resort of St. Louis, Forest Park. They have walked through it by the footpaths, or driven along its winding roads, and have marveled at its scenery, its zoological collection and its botanical garden. All these tourists will doubtless be interested in knowing that in a year or less there will be a belt line of electric railway running around the park and connecting it with the city and the river.

There are thousands of people all over the United States who have pleasant memories of visits to the great woodland resort of St. Louis, Forest Park. They have walked through it by the footpaths, or driven along its winding roads, and have marveled at its scenery, its zoological collection and its botanical garden. All these tourists will doubtless be interested in knowing that in a year or less there will be a belt line of electric railway running around the park and connecting it with the city and the river.

There are thousands of people all over the United States who have pleasant memories of visits to the great woodland resort of St. Louis, Forest Park. They have walked through it by the footpaths, or driven along its winding roads, and have marveled at its scenery, its zoological collection and its botanical garden. All these tourists will doubtless be interested in knowing that in a year or less there will be a belt line of electric railway running around the park and connecting it with the city and the river.

There are thousands of people all over the United States who have pleasant memories of visits to the great woodland resort of St. Louis, Forest Park. They have walked through it by the footpaths, or driven along its winding roads, and have marveled at its scenery, its zoological collection and its botanical garden. All these tourists will doubtless be interested in knowing that in a year or less there will be a belt line of electric railway running around the park and connecting it with the city and the river.

There are thousands of people all over the United States who have pleasant memories of visits to the great woodland resort of St. Louis, Forest Park. They have walked through it by the footpaths, or driven along its winding roads, and have marveled at its scenery, its zoological collection and its botanical garden. All