contestant. Arguments in writing are to be submitted by Saturday. As our readers well know, F. Folda has been very ill of late and recently the illness took a more serious turn. On Tuesday Dr. Baxter, of Chicago, who was sent for, arrived and after an examination pronounced the cause as a cancer, probably in the stomach. An operation was necessary, hence on Wednesday the doctor, Mr. Folda, Mrs. Folda and Miss Martha left for Chicago. While the best is hoped for by the friends here, yet the worst is feared. So said the Quill of December 28. We learn that death was the result of the operation. Mr. Folda was born in Bohemia, July, 1839. He came to America in '57, locating in Wisconsin, moved to Nebraska in 1869, and has lived in Schuyler ever since. He was recognized as a good business man, honorable in his dealings. Dairymen's convention at Minden last week on the subject of oleomargarine. He took the ground that its manufacture and sale within the state should be prohibited. One of the results of his address was that a committee was appointed consisting of Mr. Lay, Congressman-elect Hainer of Aurora, S. C. Bassett of Gibbon, and J. H. Rushton of Fairmont, to meet at Lincoln yesterday, to frame a pure-food bill with special reference to milk and fraudulent butter compounds. It is believed that a good bill, effectual for the object aimed at, can be drafted,
