STATE BRIEVES.
Fairfield has a college paper that is issued once a month.

The scheme for a farmers' elevator at Columbus is a winner.
The normal college at Wayne has an enrollment of 129 pupils.
The Thayer county Sunday school convention was largely attended.

Wanted: Poems by Nebraska writers. Carl Smith, 1516 N. 22d St., Omaha.
Charles Hurd, a Lincoln barber, was fined $16 for keeping his shop open on Sunday.

Twenty-nine arrests were made in Omaha during the month of January.
Neil Larson, of Saraville, fell back ward out of his wagon and just missed unjamming his neck.

Shippers of live stock to considerable amount by reason of animals chilling to death in transit.

Twenty acres of beets will be raised at Wallace next season for shipment to the sugar mill at Grand Island.

In some sections of Dodge county dish-borders are racing and at Valley Springs are creating consternation among the people.

Farming land in all sections of the state is in big demand. Buyers are coming in on every train with cash to exchange for warranty deeds.

Boone college trustees voted not to consider any proposition to change the location of that institution from Greer to some other point in the state.

The Mercer is Omaha's newest and best hotel. Cor. Twelfth and Howard streets. Rates $2 to $4.50 per day. 150 rooms and 60 connected with bath.

A water pipe burst in the third story of the Howard opera house, and parties doing business on the first floor have instituted claims for damaged goods.

George Dishop, a 14-year-old boy of Nemaha City, was taken to the reform school for having stolen a watch and other valuables from his employer.

Private parties are talking of establishing a normal college at Central City. The conference building is available for such a purpose, and is for sale.

A number of misses in their teens have organized a junior charity club in Fremont, with the intention of alleviating the pangs of poverty where they can.

A lady was assaulted in the west part of Falls City one evening last week. Her screams brought out the neighbors and her assailant escaped in a darkness.

A sneak thief at Petersburg swiped every nickel from the hat that was passed for the Sunday offering, and would have taken the hat but it was a size too small for him.

Mrs. Calvin Crane of Saunders county was totally paralyzed while eating dinner on Sunday. She became entirely helpless and unconscious and is beyond all hope of recovery.

Henry Horsch, a bad man held at Grant on several criminal charges, on being acquitted of the first, watched for a convenient opportunity and escaped.

John Adams of Merrick county crossed the Loup on the ice and the wagon with willows. On attempting to return the fragile bridge gave way and the team was drowned.

While acting a corn-sheller, Albert Brazz of Phelps Center, had his arm caught in the gearing and crushed half way to his elbow. Hoidegre doctors amputated his arm on the following day.

A wicked father and mother of South Omaha deserted their two little children, and but for the intervention of neighbors the kids would have fared no better than the "Children of the Woods."

One Rieger has been lodged in the county jail at Falls City on the charge of insanity. He was selling all his effects at a ruinous price and kept his family in a constant state of terror with his threats.

Last week Louis C. Schlotte died at his residence in West Union in a 50th year. He was a veteran of the late war, and his Grand Army of the Republic comrades attended his funeral and acted as pall bearers.
