EXPENDITURES BY CONGRESS. Allison and Holman Differ Widely in Figuring the Totals. WASHINGTON, March 10-The contro versy as to the comparative expenditures of the "billion dollar Congress" and the last one is still on and though the clerks of the Committee on Appropriations of the two houses have completed their statements they do not agree. The Senate Committee con fines itself to the absolute appropriations made, while the House Committee were several. Mr. Manderson offered a in its total appropriations of the Fiftyfirst or as it was called the "billion dollar Congress," includes what are known as indefinit: appropriations made necessary, it is claimed, by the logislation of that Congress.
