Why Behind ? EDITOR JOURNAL:-At last some o am pleased to find, takes note of school appointments. Why should Columbus be behind other cities in its choice of school superintendent? Cannot our board of education select person whose time and attention will be devoted to our schools, rather than to the arrival and departure of traine from the depot? Let us have a man whose qualifica tions bespeak him professional, and whose duties will be recognized in the advancement of our schools. Yours, CITIZEN.
