

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live bet-ter than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleas ant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect lax-ative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all dru ;gists in 50c and $1 bottles, but it is man- prise. ufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

"I have been afflicted with biliousness and constipation for fifteen years and first one and then another preparation was suggested to me and tried, but to no purpose. A friend recommended August Flower and words cannot describe the admiration in which I hold it. It has given sult-half of her dress burned off. The me a new lease of life, which before | girl escaped with slight injury. was a burden. ' Its good qualities and wonderful merits should be made started for Covington March 7, to be known to everyone suffering with gone over night, but as nothing has dyspepsia and biliousness." JESSE been heard of him since, h's friends BARKER, Printer, Humboldt, Kas. AT TAKE FLEASANT WAND MY COMPLEXION IS BETTER. doctor says it acts gently on the stomach, liver kidneys, and is a pleasant inxative. This is made from herbs, and is prepared for use sily as ites. It is called

NEBRASKA.

The Odd Fellows' anniversary will be held in Hebron on the 26th inst. The State Medical society will meet at Nebraska City May 16 17 and 18. The Standard Cattle company at Ames has commenced to plant sugar beets. A hall storm at Hooper broke the windows in a large number of buildings. The G. A. R. reunion for Northwest Nebraska will be held at Randolph this

Henry Brown, colored, was chosen mayor of Brownville at the recent municipal election.

Brick vaults for the county records have been ordered built in the Madison county court house.

Jacob Rodgers, living south of Franklin, lost two milch cows by the stable being blown on them. Watchful canal boat builders are sending offers to furnish the boats for the proposed Nebraska canals.

thousand dollar suit against the Lincoln street railway company. Judge Ogden stirred up things in the Washington county court house by fining four jurors $10 each for tardiness. Several car loads of potatoes have been shipped from Benkleman to points in the east during the last two weeks. The deposits of the Burt County State bank are $108,000, an increase of more than 100 per cent the last three months. The flouring mill at Seward, lately subscribed $1,000 to assist in the enter-build a fifty barrel flour mill at that place, the town giving a bonus of $800 and a site.

ner of Johnson, fell while playing with a stick, running the end of the same up the left nostril, causing a painful and serious wound. Company E. Nebraska National guards of Fremont, held a meeting last and ask to be discharged. C. E. White of Beatrice, representing the bureau of Indian claims, was in Freseveral citizens who lost cattle in an Indian raid about thirty years ago. A little five-year-old girl of Fanny West at Tekamah, while playing around a bonfire last Friday, got too near. Re-John Nelson, a tinner of Wayne,

The New Bread.

The favor with which the new bread, made with Royal Baking Powder in-stead of yeast, has been received by our best housekeepers and most expert bread makers is really wonderful. "It saver 11 the hard and tedious work of knes ag and moulding," writes one. "Less than an hour from the dry flour to the most perfect loaf of bread I ever saw," writes another. "Fresh bread every day." says another," "and that the lightest, finest and most wholesome. is something to live for." "We relish the bread better than the old kind;"

> "It is ahead of any yeast bread I ever baked;" "The bread was whiter and softer." "Best of all," writes an enthusiastic housewife, "we can eat the Royal unfermented bread when freshly baked, or even when warm, with perfect impunity. It is actually an anti-dyspeptic." "This bread has a "nutty" taste that is peculiarly pleasing," still writes an-other. This is owing to the fact that the active gas-producing principle of the Royal is derived from the pure A grape acid. George H. Bush has commenced a and burned, will be rebuilt. Citizens have

Dixon rejoices they have decided to every one.

A 16 months' old child of James Brundo well to cut it out and preserve it.

thoroughly flour, salt, sugar, and baking powder; rub in the potato; add suffiweek and decided to retire from the cient water to mix smoothly and rapservice and will send in its muster roll idly into a stiff batter, about as soft as for pound cake; about a pint of water more or less, according to the brand mont last week taking the testimony of Don't mix with milk.

fear that something has befallen him.

TWO WOMEN.

The robes in which upon her mothe She fondly dreamed a babe might some day

Wild-eyed and voiceless, as in A love wronged soul

To mark lights that scene whose luring hom dart

arrows to her broodin Like rankling breast

Both to the churchyard came when year One robed in night and one with face grown mild Guided the footsteps of her babbling son. The yearning mourner looked and wanly

To see him pluck the daisies one by one That grew white-faced above her own dead child. -Ida Worden Wheeler, in New England

Magazine. PLEASANT ROOMMATE.

The great value of this bread arises I am a plain, honest lawyer, and befrom the fact that in it are preserved fore a certain young man moved into all the most nutritive elements of the my double office, my reputation was flour, some of which are decomposed spotless. He moved in for the ostensidestroyed by the action of yeast. ble purpose of sharing the expense of The loss of these properties makes rent. He was a nice-looking young well, I know boys will be boys, and fresh yeast bread unwholesome. The use of the Royal Baking Powder inman and had a fair exterior. The day stead of yeast, is found to make a finer, following his arrangement with me he lighter bread, devoid of all dyspeptic moved in. That is, he appeared in perqualities. The same gas-carbonic produced as where yeast is used, but it son. Otherwise he did not have much is evolved from the baking powder it-self and not from the flour. Thereby to move. But poverty is no crime, and I took a fancy to him on account the bread is made more wholesome and actually anti-dyspeptic. The greater of his principles. It is so pleasant to convenience where a batch of the finest meet some one nowadays with princibread can be made and baked in less ples. He had plenty of them and it than an hour with no danger of a sour did me good to listen to him. "A lawor heavy loaf, must be appreciated by yer," he would say, "has no right to The receipt for making this bread is herewith given, and housekeepers will defend a criminal when he is guilty,' and, although I did not agree with him, I respected his extreme virtues. When To make one loaf: One quart flour, teaspoonful salt, half a teaspoonful he showed me a membership ticket for sugar, a heaping teaspoonful Royal the Y. M. C. A. I congratulated myself Baking Powder, half medium-sized cold upon having such a righteous roomboiled potato, and water. Sift together about our being in the same office together. People said that we resembled each other in personal appearance, to a quart of flour will be required-He worked up a good business at and quality of the flour used. Do not make a stiff dough, like yeast bread. Pour the batter into a greased pan, followed, and at the same time, singu-4 3/ x8 inches, and 4 inches deep, filling larly enough, my practice decreased. about half full. The loaf will rise to When the first month's rent was due fill the pan when baked. Bake in very he hit me on the back in his hearty, hot oven 45 minutes, placing paper over familiar fashion, and said: "You pay first fifteen minutes baking to prevent this month, old man, and I will next. crusting too soon on top. Eake at once. As that was fair I did so: One day when alone in the office, I was ponder Perfect success requires the most careing upon the vicissitudes of fate and ful observance of all these details, and the scarcity of fees when a man rushed the author of the receipt emphasizes into the office in an unceremonious the statement that Royal Baking Powder only can be used because it is the manner and stood glaring at me. Reonly powder in which the ingredients joiced over what seemed to be the im-

But I was accustomed to doing most of the talking and she the listening. so Low seated in her hearth's red glow, one that her persistent slience did not seem blessed. Her fate while fashioning with dainty at all remarkable. Among other topics I broached was a description of a tem-perance meeting I had attended a few nights before. I am a teetotaller in very sense of the word, and I stated proudly that I had been elected secretary of the new organization. Then her pretty mouth assumed an expression of scorn. "Oh, you hypocrite!" she said. "My darling!" I cried in amazement.

"Don't call me your darling," she retorted with flashing eyes. "I've had a talk with papa, and he says everything mother," he said, "though I got a laugh on me once." "What was that?" inmust be off.

"Everything off?" "Yes, our engagement. He saw you last night. He said that you"-sob-"were standing on the street corner"sob-"with your hat in your hand"sob-"helding the lamppost with the other"-sob-"and singing' about"-sob -" 'We won't go home till morning' "-

I started in amazement. "My dear The one I want is gone." Lucinda, there is some horrid mistake.

Last night I attended a meeting at our Sunday school and-" Here she wiped away the tears and assumed her indignant attitude once "Don't make me hat you," she more. said. "Why don't you confess andif you said you would never do it again. why, perhaps, I might operlook this one fault and-and forgive you-" I sprang to my feet in anger. " dertakers in the United States. have been slandered and----"Is that your reply?" she asked, frigidly.

"Then there is nothing more to be With that she took the ring from her pretty finger and handed it to me. "Good evening, sir."

"It is."

I bowed myself out in despair. Se all was over? Those visions of a neat little home were lost forever. The next morning when my roommate presented himself I fancied that he looked tired and sleepy. He explained this by saying that he had been up all night with a bad headache. He nomate. There was a marked peculiarity ticed my melancholy appearance, and, when I told him all about it, he again offered his sympathy and remarked in a jocular manner: "Never mind, my boy. There are just as good fish which I construed as a compliment to in the sea as have ever been caught.

I told him there was only one Lucinda, but he shrugged his shoulders. He once, for only a week after he entered then went out to attend a case in court, the office he had a case. Other cases and I seated myself in a disconsolate manner in my easy chair in the inner office. I had slept little to speak of the night before and nature asserted itself in spite of my heartache. I dozed off. After a time I was aroused by voices in the outer office and heard a voman ask for me.

> "He is not in." was the reply of my roommate, and I was about to step out when a few words that followed arrested my attention and I remained where I was, listening. "If you have come on legal business, madam, I will answer your purpose just as well. I am > > authorized to act for him. I am his partner as you see by my name on the door." His words filled me with amazeyour case." The visitor did so and he and occasionally asking a question.

the matter to the courts?" she asked.

"I would. It would be foolish to set-

When she was about to leave she

"Twenty-five dollars retainer fee and

She took out her purse and gave him

the money. "You are really to be congratulated, madam, that you found me in instead of my partner," he continued.

"He is one of those unscrupulous lawyers who always lose their cases. Now, pariner of mine is such a conscientions

idiot that I think I shall have to break with him. I hate to do it, for the poor fellow would not make a living if I-"

scene that followed beggared description, as writers say, and so I will not describe it. Now I understood why my practice had decreased. It also flashed cross my mind that all my trouble lately was in some way connected with him. We looked alike and-I saw everything! For a month I had been paying the penalty of his misdeeds.

I had been vigorously handled by Mag-

he whom the father of my Lucinda had gie's best fellow on his account; it was seen holding up the lamp post; the principal figure in the gentlemanly game of poker had been this exemplary young man. I rushed into the outer office, and, after a vigorous scene, this young man took his departure, and I have never heard of him since. It was six months, however, before I again won the regards of Lucinda. I have an office all to myself. Even now people by him, and somehow they look upon me as his partner in crime.-Detroit are running there with bills contracted

Here I broke in upon them. The asked "What are your charges?"

lawyer would have touched it.

Get a Laugh on Him Once.

Pull of Porti Patt of Porti Are these disorders which, beginning with an apparently trivial insetivity of the Edneys or bladder, terminates in Bright's duscase dis-betes and cystitis. The Birst two hot only in-terrupt the functions of the renal organs, but destroy their structure with as much certainity as tubercular consumption does that of the lungs. Hestetter's Stomach Bitters is an ex-cellent diuretic, promoting the activity of these organs without over-againing them thus averting the deadly maladles in which their insection is so prome to summinate. The re-moval from the blood of impurities which the secrete, is another beneficent effect of this in-comparable medicated stimulant and depu-rent. The Bitters is, in all cases, too, a fine reatorative of vigor and ald to digestion, rem-edies malarial disease, and banishes liver complaint and constipation. A certain small Tom was going out to lunchen by invitation, says the New York Times. His mother was anxious he should behave well, but wisely recalling that simplicity is the essence of all true politeness, gave him but one caution: "Act, Tom, as if you were at home; take what you want with a 'Yes, please,' and decline anything with a polite 'No, thank you:' be as honest as at our own table"-trusting that with his confidence established the continual home sowing of precept and example would bear its fruit. At night Tom reported results. "I guess I did all right,

Ingenious Thieves.

Some ingenious contrivances are used quired his mother. "Well, we had baked apples, and when it came my by thieves. The latest looks like an turn to be served Mrs. C. said: 'And ordinary walking stick, but is so arnow, Tom, which apple do you want?" canged that, pressing a spring at the "You told her of course," interpolated handle, the ferrule will spread apart now, Tom, which apple do you want?" his mother, as the boy hesitated a little. and form a sort of spring clip that will You know I have often explained that take hold of anything that is within it is good manners to give a choice when reach. The thing is called "the conti-

one is asked." "Yes, mother, I told nential lifting stick," and is used to take things from behind counters when her, and that was the laugh. I said: the shopman's back is turned. "Hansen's Magie Corn Salve." Warrantei to cure, or money refunded. An ruggist forit. Price 25 cents.

We eat too much and take too little out-door exercise. This is the fault of our mod-ern civilization. It is claimed that Garfield Tea, a simple herb remedy, helps Nature to ded. Ask your The Centennial Exposition in Philadelovercome these abuses. phia in 1876 was visited by 10,164,489 per-A large sewing machine, weighing 314 tons, is in use in Leeds. It sews cotton If the Baby is Cutting Teeth, belting. Be sure and use that old and well-tried remedy. Mas. WINSLOW'S Soorning Synur for Children Teething.

Lane's Medicine Moves the Bowels Each Day. In order to be healthy this is neces-sary. Cures constipation, headache, kidney and liver troubles and regulates the stom-ach and bowels.

nelle, Ala.

FITS-All fits stopped free by DR. RLINE'S GREAT NEVE RESTORER. No fit after first day's use. Mar-velous cures. Treatise and 12.00 trial bottle free to Fit most. Send to Dr. Kline, 351 Aren St., Philadelphia, ra. Law wears iron shoes and never cares here it steps.

Coughing Leads to Consump-tion. Kemp's Balsam will stop the cough at once. Go to your druggist today and get a sample bottle free. Large bottles 50 cents It takes 100 gallons of oil a year to keep a arge sized locomotive in running order.

World's Fair Suggestions

There are, it scems, about 300 women and $1.00. Those who contemplate visiting the There is more power in gentleness than there is in dynamite. World's Fair should be careful about purchasing wild-cat cheap railroad tickets, which may prove worthless, and thus cost

Special Excursions South .-- To Citrothe purchaser much annoyance. The safe way will be for the people to call upon the local railroad ticket agent for information. Will leave Council Bluffs on April 10th and

He can sell you tickets just as cheap as they May 8th. Six hundred thousand acres of can be found anywhere. You can enter the fine farming and fruit growing land along cars of the Chicago, Union Pacific and the line of the Mobile & Ohio Railroad for Northwestern Line at any point on the main line of the Union Pacific, and be landed, without change, in Chicago. When you buy pamphlet with full information for Home ticket from your home agent you can rest assured that it will carry you through. These suggestions are offered, knowing that Seekers, call on or write

J. R. RICE. If adopted they will save hundreds of our pecple trouble and expease. Send 2 cent stamp for World's Fair Folder. E. L. Lo-max, G. P. &. T. A., Omaha, Neb. max, G. P. &. T. A., Omaha, Neb. Omaha, Neb.

PROMPT, COOD WORK. CAR

RHEUMATISM.

Mr. Willet F. Cook, Canajoharie, N. Y., writes: "Awoke one morning with excruciating pains in my shoulder. Tried various reliefs for sudden pains without effect; went to my office; the pain tecame insufferable; went home at 11 o'clock and used ST. JACOBS OIL; effect magical, pain ceased, and at 1 o'clock wen

LITTLE RAPIDS, WIS.

VOLUMES COULD BE WRITTER filled with the to mony of women who have been made well and strong by Dr. Fiere.'s Favorite 1-57

Prescript ". It's a modicine that's made any dally to build up wom """ strength and to on" women's atlments - an invigorating, rebracing nervine; purely vegetable, non-alcoholic, and perfectly harmless. For all the functional derangements, pain-ful disorders, and chronic weaknesses that afflict womankind, the "Favorite Prescription" is the only guerante remedy.

It must have been the medicine for most women, or !t couldn't be sold on any such terms.

Isn't it likely to be the m.dicine for you? Sold by druggists every where.

It Genes Galdz. Genght. Sare Throat, Group. Informat. Wheoping Cough. Brenchills and Asthma. A portain enve for Consumption in first starce, and a sure relief in ad-ranced stages. Use at once. You will see the establish effect after taking the first flose. Solid by dealers super-where. Large brittles 50 conts and 81.00.

W. L. DOUGLAS $3 SHOE NOT NIP.

Do you wear them? When next in need try a pair, they will give you more comfort and service for the money than any other make. Best in the world.

W. L. Douglas Shees are m Latest Styles.

If you want a fine DRESS SHOE don't pay $6 to $8, ade and look and wear as well. If you wish to try my $3.50, $4 or $5 Shoe. They will fit equal to cus-

ANE'S MEDIGINE All druggists sell it at 500. and $1 a package. If on caunot get it, send your address for a free ample. Lane's Family Medicine moves to buwels each day. Address P ORATOR H. WOODWARD, LEROT, N. Y.

WAGONS, CARRIAGES SOUTH OMAHA HOUSES. WOOD BROS, COMMISSION

schools will be greatly enlarged during the present season. The finance committee of the board of education has been authorized to negotiate the $100,-000 bonds recently voted.

Wall Street, New York, that company Joe Stecker of Hooper brought a catannounce that they will send in return, fish to town last Saturday that weighed free, a copy of a most practical and usefifty pounds. He secured in Logan ful cook book, containing one thousand creek near the old dam. The monster receipts for all kinds of baking, cooking, etc. Mention this paper. caught itself by getting in a basin bread_loaf.

where the water was shallow. How to Attract British Capital. While working on the Edwards resi-April Forum: Institutions working dence in Hartington John Holm, a carwith the support of well known names penter, fell from a scaffold and cut his arm nearly off at the wrist with an axe tage of real knowledge of what is passwhich he had in his hand as he struck the ground. He bounded so that the possess the essential elements of sucaxe struck him in the face, cutting it cess. The anxious and depressed conmost horribly. He is in a precarious dition of our money market perhaps condition. The bar docket for the May term of the district court of Lancaster county will contain 510 law cases, 420 equity and 45 criminal, making a total of 975. of the new securities which may in the As compared to the January term, near future be forwarded for negotiathere will be the same number of equity cases, eighteen less of the law and three more of the criminal. The docket will contain nearly 1200 pages. Judge Lansing of Lincoln last week sent Minnie and Effie Griffin, aged 16 and 15 years respectively, to the reform spect to the currency laws of their school. They are the daughters of country. The securities should be

James Griffin, who was shot eight years | marked, beyond the shadow of a doubt, ago, while in the act of robbing the as "gold" securities. Furthermore, state treasury. The court was con- they should be of a character to rank vinced that the girls were growing up | with the best that have yet made their under very bad surroundings. Burglars entered the residence of J.

E. Smith at Beatrice between 8 and 9 o'clock and succeeded in getting away with $50, a diamond pin and a gold watch. Mr. Smith and son Charles were in the house at the time. In view of the fact that at the time there was an electric light burning on the front porch the robbery was indeed bold. Seventy-two Indians in charge of Oakley Snyder left Rushville last week for Chicago to join Colonel Cody's Wild West, which will be one of the attracions at the World's fair. This party is composed of young men, as fine looking bucks, physically, as the Sioux can boast of. They are gorgeously attired in many colored blankets, yellow paint and feathers. While playing at the Burlington & Missouri yards in Louisville some small boys found 600 cigars hid under a coal house. They were taken to town and turned over to the city marshal. J. N. Drake recognized them as an order which he had refused to accept and had them returned to the express office to be returned to Omaha. It is supposed to have been the work of tramps. For some time the Catholic citizens of Lincoln have been antleipating a visit from Mgr. Satolli, the pope's ablegate to the United States, and last week was the time set for his appearance; but he did not come. Mgr. Satolli has been expected in Lincoln to clear up a misinderstanding which exists between Bishop Bonacum and several priests. The causes of the trouble date back two Niobrara Tribune says: Jim Vlasnik and Tom McGoldrick of Niobrara were the wagon went over the crossing from the alley to the street, he was thrown to the ground and the heavy refrigerator fell on him. The corner of the box struck his left wrist, tearing the flesh

in bad shape and making a very painful

Charles W. Branch of Omaha wants the district court to make the United States bank of Omaha, the Capital National bank and J. D. Macfarland chip in and pay him $941. He says that on January 13, he gave a check on a St.

Louis bank for that amount to the Capital bank for collection, but that the

Henry Malone of Platte Center makes gross receipts were $532.

wound. No bones were broken.

selves.

bank.

average daily milk yield was 25.7 on the Dakota side of the river about pounds. In this trial the results were dark Sunday watching for an opening practically the same with the corn and

The facilities of the Lincoln public are prepared so as to give that continu- mediate prospect of a client in pursui of a dishonest partner or a wife who ous action necessary to raise the larger had eloped, I assumed a soft, insinuating smile and politely waved him to a To every reader who will write the result of her bread making from this re- chair. My courteous invitation was de-ceipt to the Royal Baking Powder Co., 106 clined, and the man, taking a step nearer, exclaimed: "Scoundrel!" I presumed that he was referring to some one who had injured him and from whom he desired redress in the courts, and so laughed in a conciliatory manner. "Come, come, my dear sir, you mus not give way in this manner," I said.

"Calm yourself, I beg of you." "Ah, you dare jest?" he cried. "But you shall settle with me, sir. Do you in England, working with the advanknow Maggie Klien?"

It chanced that I did know the young ing in business in the United States, woman, who lived in our neighborhood. I responded in the affirmative and added something about her being a very charming girl. "And now, sir," I said | fifty more if we win." explains why for something like two tartly, "will you tell me who you are?" years there has been hardly any large

He drew himself up as though about introduction of any American railway to impart startling information. projects on our market. It is scarcely am Maggie's best fellow, or at least I too much to say that on the character was before you came along and alienated her affections from me. tion, the position of American stocks as "What?"

"Alienated her affections." investments will for some considerable time depend. Should the newcomers "You! The corner grocer told me be first rate they will meet with a ready all about it; how you used to meet reception. More than this, they will Maggie every night near his store and assist to dispel any feeling of anxiety take her to the theater and other as to the action of Americans with replaces. Maggie was contented enough until you came along; and then I began to see a change that I couldn't account for until the grocer told me about you, and now I'm going to wipe the floor with you." I started to argue the matter with him in my most persuasive professional the ring and proceeded to carry out literally his last statement. My sensations the next few moments were those of a man falling from a balloon or going through a thrashing machine. When I recovered he had departed; my coat was torn; a chair was broken; pens, papers and books were scattered pected way. An intimate friend obhere and there, and the office looked as though it had been struck with a cyclone. "Upon my word," I thought, raising myself on my elbow in the corner of the room, "a strange visitor!" when my roommate came in he expressed the greatest sympathy, and so genuine were his words of consolation that I seized his hand gratefully and said: "Thanks, dear boy, thanks! You

After that mishaps came thick and fast. I seemed to be a special mark for the cruel shafts of fate. One day a gentleman whom I had never seen before came into the office and accused me of having cheated him at a game of pose. He was accepted, and the strange poker. His claim was that I had two courtship ended in a happy marriage. aces in my sleeve. Now, as I never N. Y. Home Journal. play poker nor gambled in my life, this was remarkably strange. I told

Corn and Sorghum him that the festive game had no at-The question is often asked as to the tractions for me and he stared at me comparative value of corn and sorghum. in amazement. He admitted that he In answering a question of this kind was rather "under the shadow of the the Breeder's Gazette of March 22. revine" the night before, but that his perports that at the New Jersey Expericeptions were perfectly clear and that ment Station, in 1884, Prof. Cooke I had beyond a doubt swindled him in conducted an experiment in which one a gentleman's game out of $157, which lot of dairy cows was fed sorghum si-I had better return at once. I retorted lage with a certain grain ration, and that I did not know a flush from a full another lot of cows fed corn silage with and I had never sat in a jack pot in my the same grain ration as the first lot. life, at which he looked unutterable The conclusions from the trial were as follows: When fed corn silage the av- scorn. "Then you refuse to return your illcrage daily milk yield per cow was 25.9 pounds; when fed sorghum silage the gotten gains?" he asked.

"Very well; you will hear from me." And I did. The story got around that delicate olive green. I played a crooked game of poker, and, would die. She bathed her face and head with ST. JACOBS OIL, and it cured her in CARL SCHEIBE.

LUCAS COUNTY, S.S. FRANK J. CHENEY MAKES OATH THAT HE IS THE SENIOR PARTNER OF THE FIRM OF F. J. CHENEY & CO., DOING BUSINESS IN THE CITY OF TOLEDO, COUNTY AND STATE AFORESAID, AND THAT SAID FIRM WILL PAY THE SUM OF ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS FOR EACH AND EVERY CASE OF OATARRH THAT CANNOT BE CURED BY THE USE OF

I always win because I am full of re-HALL'S CATABRH CURE. sources. Ha, ha! I am just smart enough to dodge all technicalities. That

ENCE, THIS GTH DAY OF DECEMBER, A. D. 1889.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally and acts directly upon the Blood and mucous surfaces.

REV. H. P. CARSON, Scotland, Dak., says: Two bottles of Hall's Catarrh Cure complete-cured my little girl." J. C. SIMPSON, Marquess, W. Va., says: "Hall's Catarrh Cure cured me of a very bad case of catarrh."

HALL'S CATARRH CURE is sold by all Dealers in Patent Medicines.

COULDN'T STAND IT. The Miserable End of Two Unfortunate Hawalian Women.

The delicate flowers of true womanliness may be overgrown and hidden by the briers of ignorance and degradation, yet they will, upon occasion, appear in pure and undimmed beauty. It was in the far away tropic isle of Hawaii and the sun was shining brightly. The scene was one of native grandeur. Great trees towered aloft to the sky. Boa constrictors and ostriches gamboled over the landscape, adding an element of animation. It was amid such surroundings that two savage ladies wandered aimlessly.

Free Press.

"Pretty warm day," observed the one who wore a brass ring in her nose. "Awfully hot," acquiesced her companion, whose arms were daubed a Thus beguiling the time in conversa-economize in your footwear, you can do so by purch W. L. Douglas Shoes. My name and price is stamped on the bottom, lock for it when you buy. Take no substitute. I send shees by mail upon receipt of price, postage free, when Shoe Dealers cannot supply you. W. L. DOUGLAS, Brockton, Mass.

appearance among us. style, but he resorted to the tactics of A Scientist's Courtship. An interesting story has recently been told about the late Sir George Airy, the famous astonomer royal, and his courtship. By reason of his timid-ity he seemed doomed to be a bachelor for life. But fortune favored him, and he drifted into matrimony in an unex-

served to him one day, "Have you ever observed Miss --- 's eyes? They have the property of double retraction." "Dear me, that is very odd," he exclaimed. "I should like to see that; do you think I might venture to call?" And call he did, and begged permission to examine the young lady's eyes. The novelty of the situation may have fascinated him. At any rate he begged are a friend, indeed." the privilege of a second call to look at the eyes in a clearer light. The problem grew so interesting that he finally come to the conclusion to make it a life study. The boldness born of scientific curiosity enabled him ultimately to pro-

Sufferings Terrible. Life Was a Burden. Felt That He Was Incurable. Kickspoo In-dian Sagwa Restored Him to Health-

METROPOLIS, ILL., April 6. For three years I was a terrible sufterer from chronic dyspepsia and nermo, and I was completely worn out and discouraged. At this time my attention was called to Kickapoo Indian Sagwa, and I bought a bottle and began using it. To my joyful sur-prise it gave great relief. I purchased and used six bottles in all, and to-day am a well, hearty man, thanks to this glorious remedy. ROBERT NUCKOLLS, Metropolis, Ill. Proprietor Palace Hotel. Kickapoo Indian Sagwa. $1 per Bottle, 6 Fer $5.

BT ALL DECOGISTS AND DEALERS | got the promise of $600 as a starter.

through the floating ice through which sorghum. Sorghum can be grown su cessfully far beyond the limits of the they might guide their bark. When the chance came they launched out, but when in the middle of the stream the corn belt, and is highly prized by feeders who have learned how to use it. grinding ice closed in on them and

The Son Was Too Late. swept them down for almost a mile be-Fliegende Blatter: Man-about-town fore they were able to extricate them--"Now tell me in confidence if you could not replace our old family jewels A. J. Emerson of Seward met with a with counterfeit ones so that no one distressing accident. He was standing could tell the difference.' in Zimmer's wagon holding a refriger-Jeweler-"O, that's quite easy. Your ator which was being delivered, and as father did it several years ago.

Where It Went.

Chicago Tribune: Mrs. Kerstyle-" gave you more material to make this dress than I ever used in a garment before, and that skirt is hardly full enough to fit a churn. How does that Dressmake. (shrugging her shoul-ders)-"Madame inseested on having ze sleeves in ze height of ze fashong."

A Double Dose.

Life-"I think the Pilgrim mothers had a harder time than the Pilgrim fathers," said Hicks.

"Why?" queried Dickson money has never been received by him. "Why, they not only had to endure He explains that the coin was sent by the same privations as the Pilgrim faththe Capital to the Omaha institution ers, but they had to get along with the and by it collected from the St. Louis Pilgrim fathers as well."

Coulda't Afford It.

known to the press that from ten acres Haberdasher's Weekly: Mrs. Wesof sugar beets he cleared $250. His cott-"Why don't you wear a fur-lined overcoat like Mr. Rich?

The Methodist Episcopal people of Mr. Wescott-"Remember, my dear, Victoria propose to build a suitable that Mr. Rich has failed three times. house for worship, and have already I've failed only once.

although I carried myself with the bearing of a man who is innocent, I picion. Even the young lady, whose company I was keeping at the time, apparently knew something, for one do you know, I-I play sometimes myself. Naturally I expressed my horror at this confession, and told her that 1 hoped she would reform and that I did not approve of young girls playing cards. Then she actually winked: "Oh you are too good," she remarked. "Say, how did you do it?"

"What?" "Keep those cards up your sleeve? Please tell me. The girls have been winning my spending money lately and I want revenge. Show me the trick, Tom, and I'll marry you next June.' I responded indignantly, and told her that I was a member of the Anti-

Poker society. She said "Bosh," and when I got up to leave she refused to permit me to cull from her sweet lips the customary parting salute. The misguided young woman actually thought that I was trying to conceal my in-iquities from her. But there was worse to follow. A few nights later when I called she greeted me with marked coldness. This I attributed to mere feminine caprice, and so chatted away in a happy manner about various matters to which she listened with a sarcastic smile upon her adorable face.

tion they loitered until a lion, with big could see that I was regarded with sus- bristling side whiskers, came in sight. "We," the female with the ring gasped feebly, "are lost."

"No, no," exclaimed she of the green night she said, with a twinkle in her arms. "If we say nothing we are safe." eye: "Do you play poker, Tom?" Of It was a desperate alternative. It course I denied that I did, at which she was a test of endurance from which looked grave and added: "Pshaw! even the tried hearts of the forest What's the use of denying it? Why, daughters shrank in fear. Two minutes elapsed. The lion sauntered with a deliberation that froze their blood.

Three minutes of silence and anguish had slipped into the past. The suspense was dreadful. The lion stopped and wagged his tail meditatively. The strain was too great. "I must"-the woman with a ring in her nose ecstatically selzed the green arm of her sister of the jungle-"tell you about that paint sale."

"Oh. do!" Of course they were both eaten. But that is neither here nor there. The contention is that the delicate flowers of true womanliness may be overgrown and hidden by the briers of ignorance and degradation, yet they will upon occasion appear in undimmed beauty. -Cincinnati Commercial Gazette.

The Strategic Woman.

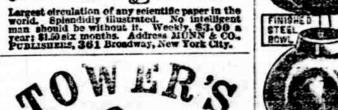

Jones flirt quite so desperately with you; I don't like it."

"Sh-sh, dear; don't talk so loudly. only did it make him miserable.

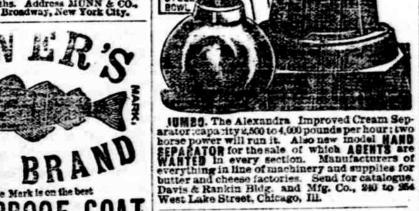

Scientific American

ISH

Testimonials sent free on application.

in the World !

YES Well, the new paper instead by the CALLED THE WESTERN SET BLOOD POISON

D. if desired. As premium will be given with this Medicator, for the next 30 days, a dock of World's Fair Souvenir Playing Cards. On the face of each card is lithe-graphed, in seven colors, one of the World's Fair buildings. The latest novely produced. Stamps for circulars. Agents wanted. Chicago Medicator Co., 191 South Halsted St., Chicago, Ill

NEBRASKA CYCLE CO.

LINCOLN, NEBRASKA.

Send stamp for catalog. All styles and prices.

Wholesale and Retail

BICYCLES.

AGENTS WANTED EVER

WANA

YOU WANT & PARK

IN THE WEST.

we can ours the m st ob stingte case in 20 to 0 days, let him wy to for particulars and investi-gate our reliab ity. Our financial backfare A SPECIALTY.

fodide potassium, sareap atila or Hot Springs fall thing that will cure permanently. Postave p scaled, free. Coor Rannor Co., Chicage, M.

Emily, I wish you wouldn't let Mr.

"What do you mean?"

"That lady behind you is Mrs. Jones.