Rev. and Mrs. Leedom go to the Genoa camp meeting Saturday. Rev. Olcott will occupy the M. E. pulpit here Sunday morning. Rev. Leedom is in the evening.

Those in search of a piece of valuable Columbus property should not overlook the offer of John Tamahall, as found in another column of THE JOURNAL.

Sheriff Kavanaugh took Peter Klanchi to the hospital for the insane at Norfolk, Saturday, and on Monday, to the same place, Katie Regan, both adjudged insane.

Collector North has appointed Miss Bessie Higgins, daughter of Judge J. G. Higgins, to a clerkship in the internal revenue office; she takes the place of Mrs. Clara Miller.

A picture in Puck: Indian sitting on a knoll, smoking a pipe of peace, looking at a U. S. soldier in a bicycle, and saying: "Ugh! Heap lazy moyer, settin' down to walk!"

H. J. McGath who has been spending the past three weeks with his wife at Columbus, returned home last Saturday and reports Mrs. McGath as somewhat improved.—[Clarks Leader.]

Charles Hageman and family have removed to near Platte Center, where Mrs. Hageman's parents reside on a farm. Charlie will become an honest tiller of the soil.—[Schuyler Sun.]

The Genoa Indian band start for Chicago a week from today. They will do their part of the work in fine shape, and will be a good representative of what is being done for and with the Indians.

Ernest Dussell has purchased two lots in Beecher Place adjacent, just west of Gerrard's; Charles Davis, two just south and Ed. Gailley two lots corner of Fifteenth and M streets, or east of Walter Phillips's.

The Cedar Rapids Republican says Rev. Baker was taken seriously ill again Wednesday evening, with congestion of the lungs, and will not be able to fill his appointments next Sunday. His condition is better today.

We are informed that on streets running east and west, watermain, according to an ordinance of the city, are laid on the north side of the street; on streets running north and south, they are to be laid on the west side.

Married, July 31st, at the parsonage in Osceola, by Rev. Robert Killip, Frank K. Strother of Monroe and Miss Anna C. Naylor of this city. THE JOURNAL wishes the young couple long life and abundant prosperity.

A Methodist camp meeting will be held at Genoa, August 11 to 21; family tents for rent at $2.50 for the season. Boarding tent on the grounds. For further information, correspond with R. C. McReynolds, Genoa.

The injunctions are still holding down the Newberry freight law; whether they will continue to do so remains to be seen. Perhaps the people will learn after a while that this is mainly a government by the courts.

The tenth annual exposition at St. Louis, Mo., opens September 6, and closes October 21. Sousa's grand concert band has been engaged for the season. Arts, mechanics and sciences are the specialty features of the exposition.

Mrs. Guillemot, widow of Dr. Guillemot, years ago a resident of this place, confessed last week to a series of thefts from the Brunswick hotel, Omaha, mostly jewelry, amounting to about $800. She was employed at the hotel as a seamstress.

John Fisher of Joliet was down Monday with a young man named Berndt, who was adjudged insane. He magnifies all kinds of trifles into supposed offences to a girl, of whom he was enamored. The unfortunate young man is 26 years old.

Word has been received from Miss M. Gallagher who is now in Pittsburg, Pa., that she expects to stop in Columbus for a few days the latter part of August, on her way to Cedar Rapids, where she has been again elected as superintendent of schools.

W. B. Beckus went to Chicago Friday and returned Monday. He made preparations for the Genoa Indian school exhibit; Mr. Beckus is confident his school will be second to none, not even the Carlisle exhibit. They leave here the 16th of this month.

We are in receipt of a sermon on The Golden City, by W. V. Under, Richmond, Va.; you can have a copy free by addressing W. F. Richardson of the same place. It is certainly worth reading by those who would become "the immortal living, of those who live."

GOLD WATCH LOST.—At the Baptist church, this city, Sunday afternoon last, a gold watch, "E. T." engraved on the case; lady's chain attached, with a charm, a canteen, set with blue stones. A suitable reward will be paid for the return of the watch to Wm. Lohr's, Mrs. Eliza Thomas, if

Charles Stoner, who has been a resident of Seattle, Washington, for the last two years, has recently been visiting old friends in Fremont. He says that the country surrounding Pacific coast towns is not so good to "back hand times" as the country surrounding towns and cities in Nebraska.—[Tribune.]

The hog market was all a flurry last week, because of the gamblers' deal at Chicago. These factitious transactions in the necessities of life are hurtful to all legitimate business interests. How would it be possible for the honest buyer and dealer in pork to figure on such margins of fall as occurred last week?

The one-year-old boy of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Kelley had a narrow escape from death Monday evening. In some manner he got hold of a can of concentrated lye and got some of the stuff in his left eye and on his lips, swelling them badly. It is not thought he swallowed any, however.—[Looking Glass.]

Rob. Lisco, E. von Bergen and J. A. Turner were sitting on a store box Thursday evening, when a lady and her little girl came along. "Mamma," said the precious child, "they are only ornaments, aren't they?" Doubtless thinking that they were dummies. Of course, mamma couldn't help but smile—like-wise the others within earshot.

Col. J. R. Meagher of the executive committee to arrange for the G. A. R. reunion at Grand Island tells us that everything is being put in readiness for a gala time. We hope the Colonel will not lose so much sleep this year as he did last, so that he will be compelled to do his sleeping on a street car—be actually got a night's lodging in the corner of a street car, under the conductor's overcoat, and rode backward and forward between Grand Island and the camp, all of one night, for five cents, and it wasn't done as a matter of economy, either. When twitted of this, he tells a worse one on himself during the war, in 1862, at Cincinnati, after a three days and nights' travel without sleep, after ammunition, he rode on a street car during the day time and nobody could wake him, so that he said late in the evening. The most active are generally the soundest sleepers, but the public generally will enter a protest this year against 5-cent lodgings in the street car, for an entire night. No discrimination in favor of railroad officials.

A boy was brought to Supervisor Speiss one day last week as a fit subject for aid. The lad, eleven years old, was very closely questioned, and answered that his father and mother were dead and buried, that he had had a home at Mahood's two or three weeks, and the kind-hearted supervisor started out to see Mahood, but on his way was stopped by the boy's father.—Another case the same day was that of a man who claimed to have been held up near St. Edward and shot in the leg, and Mr. Speiss had just written an order for him to be received at the hospital for treatment, when in came the marshal of Genoa and said the man was a desperado, and was around crook. It wasn't the first of April, either.

The Western Normal College at Lincoln, Nebraska, has made a wonderful record. It is the youngest of Lincoln's colleges, yet it has the largest attendance, having enrolled more than seventeen hundred different students the past year. Lincoln is the charming capital city of Nebraska, the railroad center and the gateway of the west—where thousands of students of the Western Normal are pleasantly located. This great school has had calls for its students that it can fill. Your car fare paid one hundred miles each ten weeks, you attend. Catalogues and circulars free. Address Crown & Kinsey, Western Normal College, Lincoln, Neb. 1

About five years ago, remarks the Genoa Leader, Fred Campbell, while spending a vacation with his brother Ed of the Loup, lost his pocket book containing about $12. No trace of it could be found and Fred charged it up to profit and loss account. A few days ago a carpenter who was at work on the house at the time asked Ed if they ever got that pocket book he nailed up over one of the windows. He said that he supposed they put it there to test his honesty and he consequently nailed it up. An investigation was made and the pocket book was found with contents intact and Fred has $12 more wealth than he supposed.

Friday morning at eight the fire alarm sounded, and the department with many citizens gathered at the residence of R. G. Hurd, on G street, between Eleventh and Twelfth. The fire originated at the kitchen chimney, and was well under way when the alarm was first given from an engine at the B. & M. yards close by. After the firemen arrived and the hose were attached to hydrants the flames were soon under complete control. Most of the household goods were taken out of the burning building. We learn that the insurance was $400, loss about $200.

At Genoa Thursday the fourth ball game of the series of five was won by the Indian nine against Clark's, the score standing: Indians 0 1 6 1 0 0 1 2—11 Clark's 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 3—4 This makes the contest stand two games each, so that the next will be more than usually interesting. In addition to the ball game there was a foot race between Coyou (an Indian) and John Randall of this city, in which Coyou came out several feet ahead, in a run of a hundred yards.

Rev. S. B. Hayes returned from western Kansas last week where he had been called on account of the sickness of his oldest son with typhoid fever. The disease proved fatal and he was called upon to perform the last sad and errand of laying the body away to await the resurrection morn. He has the deep sympathy of a host of friends in this deep sorrow which only a father's heart can know.—[Fullerton Journal.]

Another Platte county man is wearing a tall hat, "biled" shirt and his Sunday rays around every day. Neighbors look on in surprise and ask what has come over Gus Keuschler; he has had a fortune left him lately? Yes, why haven't you heard, he had a fine boy come to his house the night July 25th that tipped the beam at fourteen pounds? That's what! Mother and child coming home.—[John.]

Dr. H. J. Arnold's professional card appears elsewhere in today's JOURNAL. He has located two dozen north of Brookman's establishment on Olive street, and is ready to answer all calls in his line, day and night. He has gained an enviable reputation during his several years' practice here, and, no doubt, will continue to deserve the increasing patronage he is certainly receiving.

Schuyler Sun: We hear that Jonas Welch, of Columbus, is a very possible candidate on the democratic ticket to succeed James North as senator from this and Platte counties. Well, nothing can be said against Mr. Welch but his politics. He is one of the most upright gentlemen we ever met and a man of ability who would be a credit to the place.

Gary Brunck has seventy-five acres of excellent soil near the Platte bridge. He has tried to protect it from the meandering public by a wire fence, but so far, the fence has invariably been cut, and the field of corn used for a road. Naturally enough, he is indignant, and proposes that trespassers shall hereafter have a taste of justice.

Mrs. Mary J. Lee and children returned yesterday from Chicago where Mrs. Lee has been keeping boarding house for the World's fair people. The business being over done, the house didn't pay and she found there was more money in paying rent—$75 per month—on an empty house than in running it.—[Silver Creek Times.]

The regular meeting was held Monday evening. All present. Minutes of previous meeting approved.

Bills allowed: O. L. Baker..... $ 2.00 Lamb & Co..... 105.50

Seventy-seven dollars and six cents of the last bill was for lumber, brick and nails. Committee reported that west room upstairs second ward needing repairing; east room upstairs, papering all over, etc. Committee directed to make repairs.

Committee on buildings and grounds recommended the purchase of south hall, block 19, in Beecher Place if it could be had at a reasonable price. This is two blocks east of Walter Phillips'. We since learn that the price asked is $1750.

Seventy-five single desks were ordered. Janitors Ballou, Warner and Novell were re-elected, there being no other applicants except Wm. Carson, for the second ward.

The assignment of teachers was made heretofore printed in THE JOURNAL. The salaries, too, were decided upon—Sup't Scott's being raised from $1100 for the nine months, to $1200; the primary teachers, Miss Matthews, Miss Rice and Mrs. Scott, to receive $50 a month, being an increase of $5 each per month; Mr. Brittel an increase from $60 to $65 a month; the teacher succeeding Mrs. A. C. Ballou, as principal of the high school who received $800, to receive $875, being a decrease of about $15 a month. The other teachers are to be paid $40 and $45 a month. The scale adopted was a substitute offered by Henry, in place of that agreed upon and reported by the committee, the substitute receiving the support of all the members except Schuyler.

Messrs. H. B. Reed, Carl Rhode and D. T. Duffy of a committee of five (W. T. Ernst and John Wise being the others two), appointed by patrons of the Board school, appeared before the board to present the wishes of the patrons. They asked that the partition in the school room be taken out, a storm-door made, room be recast, a new blackboard furnished, etc. Referred to committee with power to act. As to teacher, one had been employed for the place, and the matter was referred to committee on teachers. The separation of that part of the district was talked of, and the committee informed as to some phases of the finances, etc.

Sup't Scott said he had received an application from Miss Uher as a teacher of aboriginal and type-writing. Also, that the teacher of music, Mrs. Page, had requested him to ask the board to allow her the coming year to teach the school children direct, instead of, as last year, indirectly by teaching the teachers. Adjourned.

Andrew Starac brought suit last week against Mr. Meece, both living in the bottom, damages for shooting two chickens. The damage was placed at $1.00, but the testimony showed that the chickens killed were two-month-old pullets, and probably worth fifteen cents apiece, certainly not more than twenty-five cents. The butchered pullets were eaten by the owner; was one item of the testimony. Meece claimed five dollars damage as an offset, claiming to have been injured by a flock of chickens running at large over his cultivated land, beside what was done by geese, cow, etc., belonging to the plaintiff. The attorney, Judge Hensley for the plaintiff, and C. A. Wooley for the defendant, contested for their clients with the same zeal and shrewdness as they would have done had hundreds of dollars been involved in the result. Judge Hudson gave his decision that Meece was entitled to $1.00 damage. The costs of suit, $9.05, followed the judgment, so that $10.05 to pay, is what the plaintiff got for bringing suit. Hearing of this case resulted in a Bureau of one township that cost him $1.00, without any law-suit, and the writer hereof of $4.50 he paid for a bushel and a half of roasting ears that the other fellow got the use of.

Randall Fuller, the founder of Fullerton, Nebraska, was in the city Saturday on business. He is just back from a trip to the World's fair, to Minnesota, Alaska, etc. He says that he has been on the go since he was two years old, seeking new countries. Across the States in '49, '52, '54, '59, '60 and '66; was on his way to the Black Hills with cattle when Hugh Compton told him about Nance county, and, after a little investigation, he pitched his tent where Fullerton is, thinking it would some time be a good place for a town. He has lived at Oklahoma City for four years, making the race for claims along with the crowd. He is a remarkable man in several respects—very vigorous for his age, seventy years, "early to bed and early to rise," one of Dr. Franklin's favorite maxims, being also one of his in theory and practice; he never smoked a cigar or pipe; never swore any; never took but one glass of tobacco; never drank but one chaw of beer and never played cards, although he has been all over the new countries and with all kinds of people. He evidently enjoyed his trips to Alaska, Yellowstone Park and Yosemite, but he said they were costly. He looks in rugged health, and you can readily notice by the snap of his eye that he expects to live as long as he can see anybody else living.

There is a moral attached to this tale of woe, so that you who would walk two blocks around to avoid a reference to anything like the application of a moral principle, had better not read this further. A young man was married, and in due course of time, for what reasons does not appear, left his wife, who became a charge upon the city. Before leaving, the man had worked for the city to the extent of $62.25, but had sold his claim, presumably to an innocent purchaser, as the law phrase is, but it seems the purchaser shaved the claim, getting it at a discount of $5.25. It appeared to Councilman Spoery, (and when he is unable to see through a grindstone it is because there is no hole in it), that the purchaser was subject to pay $35 as a broker's tax under the occupation license ordinance. The purchaser has taken legal council and it is presumed that the matter will now go through the courts to a legal finish. Well, you have read this far for the moral. State it for yourself.

PERSONAL.

Eddie Hoppen, son of Paul Hoppen, returned Saturday from California, where he has been the past year for his health, which is improved.

Miss Frankie Barnhart of Fort Worth, Texas, arrived in the city last Wednesday, and is visiting relatives. She will join her uncle, W. B. Dodridge, in Omaha this week and take an extended trip through the west.

Tax Sales.

Taxes are due October 1st, each year. Personal tax is delinquent Feb. 1st. Land tax is delinquent May 1st; interest ten per cent from date of delinquency.

Real estate is advertised for sale the first week in October, and subject to sale for taxes the first Monday in November, after becoming delinquent; upon sale the rate of interest allowed by law is twenty per cent per annum. They can be redeemed any time within two years from date of sale.

We purpose giving from time to time the sales in this county beginning with November 7, 1899.

Since our last report the following have been sold: In Highland Park, Columbus, lot 6, block 9, for $16, and lot 3, block 10, for $13.00.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

The parking meeting Sunday was well attended; J. S. Miller of Grand Island was the principal speaker.

The meeting in the park next Sunday will be addressed by Henry Zincker, subject: "Will you run the risk?"

Mrs. Bryant of Schuyler and Mr. and Mrs. Chapman of Lincoln were pleasant callers at the rooms Saturday; also C. K. Powell, Sunday school missionary for the Presbyterian church.

At the Osceola meeting Sunday night, conducted by the Mission band, a good time is reported, one man being converted, and ten requesting prayers. The Mission band will hold meetings at Ball school house, August 13; Osceola, August 20.

Fred Mack and F. S. Howell went to Humphrey last Sunday on their wheels and after taking in the ball game went to Columbus. Howell went to Lincoln the next morning and Mack started for Albion. Just this side of St. Edward Fred broke a pedal off and had to work his way home with one foot.—[Albion Argus.]
