STORM ON THE COAST.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Oct. 16.-This morning, as a result of fearful wind and rain storms, telegraphic or telephonic communication with New York, Washington and Boston was next to impossible. Wires from the west were working after a fashion as far country on the further slope of the mountains was cut off most hopelessly. The trouble with the wires began yesterday and gradually grew young man named Samuel Hunter, worse through the night, reaching a climax this morning in a condition of friend who occasionally kept comcomplete on record. The only case approaching a parallel, so far at least as wire communication is concerned, was at the time of the extraordinary New York blizzard, in which Roscoe Conkling lost his life. The blizzard, however only affected a comparatively small stretch of territory. Today almost the entire Atlantic coast was ent off, and the effects of the was cut off, and the effects of the storm were felt in lesser degree for more than a thousand miles inland.

The affair.

Police and outlaws fought at Ilan, Mex., and eight men were killed.

BOLD ATTEMPT TO HOLD UP A ST. PAUL FAST MAIL

by the Vigilance of the Might Operator-Warned Chicago Officials-Took hold up and pillage the fast mail train No. 55 on the Chicago division of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad, at a point just north of the Oak Glen station early this morning was foiled by the quick intuition of the young night operator. But for the prompt work of the man who "nolds down" the Oak Glen office, many pouches of valuable mail might have been taken and rifled of their contents and the authorities would have been scouring the woods in the vicinity for the robbers who selected such a safe place in which to hold up a train.

Oak Glen is a small station about eighteen miles out and but few trains stop there. No. 55, which leaves the city every morning at 3 o'clock, is due at Oak Glen about 3:40. The run to Milwaukee, eighty-five miles, is made in two hours and the train generally consists of three mail cars, one for letters and registered packages and the others for the early morning newspapers. The train, by reason of its early departure and rapid flight to St. Paul, is much used by the postal authorities for the distribution of mail for Wisconsin points It carries considerable mail past many stations in Wisconsin until it connects with train No. 2, to which mail for intermediate points is transferred. Altogether, it would make a rich haul.

Since the discovery by the St. Paul Minneapolis & Omaha officials that a gang of robbers had laid plans to hold up their fast mail train near Rice Lake the officials of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul company have is-sued instructions to their station agents and night operators to be especially vigilant in looking for suspicious characters and signs of train wreckers. Small wonder, then, that the night operator at Oak Glen was frightened about 3 o'clock this morning when four big, burly fellows, wearing alouch hats and long overcoats, strode into his little office. They were evidently at see as to the time the next passenger train would pass the station. "Say, kid, when can we get a train to Chicago?" one of the men asked. The night operator informed them that the Libertiville accommodation, about 6:40, was the first train. Then the men changed their tactics and sought information concerning the next train from the city. "Number 3 has gone," said the operator, "and there is now nothing until the fast mail, and she does not stop. She passes here about 4 o'clock."

The gang of men remained in the agreed to a compromise proposition to be offered by one of the repeal senstors. It includes, as did the Harris amendment, provision for the coinage of the silver seignorage in the treasury amounting to $53,000,000, and were in the office the operator de-thereafter the purchases of 3,000,000 tected a suspicious bulging beneath ounces a month until 90,000,000 the overcost of one of the men ounces have been purchased and the object there concealed.

To meet the demands of the east a proposition for the issue of $100,000,000 of 3 per cent bonds is included. There is still a question whether a provision for the repeal of the tax on State banks and the redemption of notes of all village of Cak Glen on such stormy nights with red lanterns. The operator called up the train dispatcher at Chicago and notified him of the preparations made by these men to flag the fast mail. He added something about the appearances of the men and that they were all armed. Instantly all was excitement at the office in the Union depot. The fast mail engine had just been coupled to the train in the shed and the conductor was obtaining his "clearance" to leave. United States employes were rapidly loading the cars with lately arrived mail. The conductor was informed of probable plan to hold up his rain and that a special car containing a posse of police would be sent out shead of his train. The roundhouse at Western avenue was quickly in-Senator Morgan took the floor during the morning hour to make a personal explanation in reply to some Alabama newspapers criticism and delivered a facetious speech, which had the effect of starting the senate of in geod humor with itself and the world. out the yards. All were armed, and they seemed to know just what to do. There was neither the time, inclination nor the necessity to make up a "dummy" as did the railroad officials at St. Joseph, Mo., recently, when they foiled a gang of robbers and killed three of them. But one light was turned on, and the blue coats solemnly took seats in the gloomy coach as it sped north to Oak Glen. Past the crossing at Pacific Junction, over the tracks of the Northwestern at Montrose, up the hill to Morton, through the woods the special flew, making no stops and causing considerable com-ment among the railroad employes, who wondered where the fast mail was. The train slowed up at the Oak Glen station and each officer drew his

That hesitation on the part of the train defeated all the plans for the capture of the would-be train robbers. They had suspected the operator, and now their suspicions were resolved into fears. Thowing the red lantern into a ditch they cut across the country toward the wooded ridge east of the track, and when the police arrived at the spot of the proposed hold-up there were no traces of the men. After a fruitless search in the dark for the fugitives the officers were forced to board their special, which was switched on to the other track and

Last night and this morning the Burlington, Rock Island, Santa Fe, Missouri Pacific and Union Pacific had not a single empty seat or berth on their trains, while the incoming travel over the Rio Grande for the east was equally great. Most of these passengers are bound for Chicago. The westbound travel is as great almost as the east, the Rio Grande having yesterday received telegraphic orders for westbound Pullman tickets which have exhausted its capacity for the next week, unless additional trains are put on.

DUN'S WEEKLY REVIEW.

New York, Oct. 18.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says:

"The country has been waiting, while uncertainty has prevailed. Men have not known what to do with safety, and so have done as little as they could. Industries cannot always wait, and in them an arrest of imwait, and in them an arrest of improvement generally means some reaction. Merchants who have obligations to meet cannot always wait and for some there has come misfortune. Speculators and traders wait because they have no substantial basis for a judgment. The volume of business transacted increases some, because the longer recoils so without clothing and longer people go without clothing and food or either necessaries the more certain their demand is to revive. "Government crop reports have not helped speculation because they are not in harmony with prevailing judgments. Wheat has weakened 1½ cents, though the government report would indicate a yield of only 391,-000,000 bushels, so small as to warrant a much higher price. Western receipts for the week have been 6,054,648 bushels, against 9,361,979 bushels last year, while Atlantic exports have fallen to 621,80i bushels, against 1,909,123 bushels last year. Corn advanced % cent, pork products being unchanged, but there would be very much stronger advances if men put full confidence in official estimates. full confidence in official estimates.

Oil has risen I cent and coffee is unchanged. Cotton stands just where it did a week ago, in spite of a report which some interpreted as a conclusive proof of a yield far below that of last year, but the enormous stock of old cotton in sight here and abroad would explain great hesitation in the market, even if the official estimates were fully credited. "The failures for the last week number 323 in the United States, against 189 last year, and forty-two in Canada, against 260 last year. Eighteen failures were in magnitude exceeding $100,000, and eighty-four were over $5,000 each, but less than $100,000. The aggregate of liabilities in failures the first week in October was only $13,491,292, though the number was large. This week the liabilities have apparently been increased.'

JOHN GIBBONS A BISHOP FOR TWENTY-FIVE YEARS.

SALTIMORE, Md., Oct. 1d.-Twentyfive years ago this summer Cardinal G. bbons was consecrated bishop and the silver anniversary of his elevation to that high office in the church fell on Aug. 1d. The shooting took place in the bed-room of the family home on Ward street Kruiszinski and his wife retired early, and, according to the hus-band's story, some hours had passed before he was suddenly awakened by the noise made by some one entering the room. Seizing his revolver, he fired at the intruder and found that he had wounded his wife. She had left the room while he was asleep and was returning to his side when the shot was fired.

Officers of the Sheffield avenue station were notified of the shooting and reached the house a short time after the woman had been wounded.
