

There is nothing of special interest to note. The election proceeded without any disturbance, and the Australian ballot system grows in favor with the public yearly, the only objection being that every voter should be able of himself to arrange his ballot, thus giving an absolutely secret ballot, expressive of the voter's wish.

We give the returns for Columbus city, and such other townships as we can gather at the early hour at which we go to press.

The guess is that the county is democratic, but with decreased majorities. Columbus township—Groteluschen 95, Phillips 63, Kavanaugh 51, Lisco 114. Granville—Phillips 184, Groteluschen 33.

Grand Prairie—Groteluschen 49, Phillips 55, Lynch 77, Kavanaugh 71, Hensley 57, Rothelstetter 71, Rosetter 57.

Creighton—Holcomb 30, Harrison 23, Irvine 25, Groteluschen 52, Phillips 60, Welch 62, Lynch 44, Lisco 59, Kavanaugh 40, Hampton 32, Hensley 38, Rothelstetter 44, Taylor 52, Wilson 25.

Loup—Holcomb 6, Harrison 9, Irvine 53, Groteluschen 14, Phillips 57, Welch 14, Lynch 58, Lisco 16, Kavanaugh 56, Gibson 3, Hampton 4, Hensley 65, Wilson 7, Rothelstetter 62, Taylor 3, Gottschalk 15, Morris 2, Rosetter 52, Smart 4, Arnold 2, Heints 65.

Our table gives the vote of the city complete, except that of the Third ward, which could not be obtained in time—however, to indicate the trend. Hudson, Fuller, Waks, Speice, Welch and Schomker were elected for city officers.

At Laramie, Wyoming, T. J. Peterson gave his wife the wrong medicine, which proved to be poison and killed her.

Twenty million words was the number uttered on the repeal bill in congress—five volumes of the Congressional Record.

Republican sentiment is gaining with the people of the country, and nothing has contributed more to that gain than the present administration.

The people of this country should not, in a time of profound peace and when there is no necessity for it, tolerate the issue of government bonds.

Senator Manderson and Congressman Mercer were the only members of the Nebraska delegation in congress who voted for the repeal of the silver purchase law.

A boiler explosion Thursday in a railway building in New York City killed six men, injured a dozen more, killed several horses and damaged property to the extent of $10,000.

The issue of standard silver dollars from the mints and treasury offices for the week ending November 4, was 688,525; the shipment of fractional coin for October was $1,163,350.

J. C. GRUNBERG, an erring son of a Parian family, was found dead in bed Monday, at Southern hotel, Chicago.

At Palermo a peasant boy was stricken with cholera. His mother thought he was possessed of a devil and begged the monks of a convent to pray that the evil one might be driven out. While they were doing this the boy died.

LONGFELLOW, the greatest of American turf sires, and probably the most famous race horse in the world outside of England, died in Woodford county, Ky., Sunday night. He was foaled in 1867, and his winnings amounted to $1,000,000.

A STRIP of country in Sheridan county, twenty miles long, and eight miles wide, was swept by prairie fire Sunday, destroying many houses and barns and hundreds of tons of hay. It is supposed that carelessness on the part of hunters caused the great loss.

Now that Mr. Cleveland has his way, the voters will look for a change for the better or else they will invest their surplus in scalping knives, says the David City Press. Scalping knives it is, then. If we had a president to elect this fall, he would be republican, sure.

Near Ingram, Oklahoma, Saturday night, while Johnson brothers and their hired man, Wilkerson, were asleep, a negro entered the house, cut their throats with a butcher knife, stole $175 and escaped. Two of the men were killed instantly; the other lived until morning.

TEXAS news from the northern states of the election yesterday, while not complete, is certainly very gratifying to republicans. Republican principles will yet triumph again, and protection to all American interests be the upmost thought with voters.

SUNDAY night a crank gained entrance to the residence of A. J. Poppleton of Omaha and asked to see Mr. and Mrs. Poppleton, would not reveal his business with them, and would not willingly leave the premises. The servant girl called a man servant who ejected the crank from the premises.

On October 21 the last connection was made on the long distance telephone line between Spokane, Portland and Williams points, Tacoma, Seattle and Paget Sound points, thus completing one of the longest telephone lines in the world, involving an outlay of nearly $200,000. The main line is 750 miles long.

Are the public debt according to the monthly reports from Washington is constantly increasing. Of course. When was there a democratic administration backed by a democratic congress with a working majority, in the last fifty years, that didn't succeed in increasing the public debt? It is the natural sequence.—Lincoln Journal.

Lar the people of this country now study the question of their circulating medium thoroughly and settle it on a solid basis that will give justice to all business interests, and to all classes of people. Wall street and English capitalists must not be allowed to govern this land through the machinery of speculation in the circulating medium.

Telegrams report: Ohio, McKinley's re-election by 80,000 majority. Republican success in every northern state that held an election. Maynard turned down in New York. Elections in Massachusetts, Michigan, Iowa, New Jersey and other states returned to the glory of the grand old party.

In New York, entire republican state ticket elected by large majority. Pennsylvania republican by a good majority.

At last accounts, Harrison and Holcomb, Nebraska, running neck and neck. The World's Fair just closed was the greatest exhibition ever known to history, the astonishing thing being that the only vote of objection heard was that it was too big.

When in need of anything in the line of job work—cards, wedding invitations, dance programs, letter heads, envelopes, sale bills, receipts, notes, scales, books, bank checks, shipping tags, blanks of any kind—in short all sorts of printing, give THE JOURNAL a call.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

SEVEN cannon shots were fired Monday on the U. S. Pacific mail ship Costa Rica, by order of President Vasquez of Honduras, because she refused to surrender one of her passengers to the Honduran government.

St. PATRICK'S PILLS are carefully prepared from the best material and according to the most approved formula, and are the most perfect cathartic and liver pill that can be produced.

Ice 1 1/2 inches Friday morning. T. H. Johnson did not go to Chicago, as we reported in our last; gave it up.

San and George Drinnin finished banking their corn last Thursday noon. More than one autumn will pass, before Columbus will have to ship potatoes in by railroad again.

The sudden death of Judge Higgins of your city, was a severe blow to his many friends in this vicinity.

Rev. Crawford, of the Congregational church, made an official visit in this vicinity Tuesday last week.

A fine girl baby came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Curry last Thursday, with which they are well pleased.

Just see how nice those words glide from the pen, cause: a supply of new blank paper from THE JOURNAL office.

Wm. Bucher has just had his farm house on section 10, painted white, which improves its appearance very much.

Willie Engel has two carpenters on top of a new house, near our school house, and they are knocking in the nails as fast as ever they can.

Elia Browner, who has been sick for several weeks, is now much better, and will soon be able to be out. Miss Katie resumed her school work Monday.

That cow that did not prove to be a good milker last summer, ought now to be in the feed lot, where a portion of your corn can be marketed at 40 cents a bushel.

In our opinion, those that have oats, will do well to hold on to them until spring, or early summer, as few people are aware of the small quantity of oats in the country.

In looking over the vast acres of green winter wheat, there is one satisfaction; if Chicago has got a good share of our surplus timber, a large portion of our bread "timber" remains at home.

If the report is true, the Union Pacific R. R. devours more hay than any cow we know of, as we are told that 450 tons were consumed between this place and Schuyler last week. A person would think their stock needed watering by this time.

While working the roads in this district (I) with grader, George Engel and a man who works for George Luscheo were driving 3 horses and in turning around, came a little horse, short, and upset the machine, when the horses became frightened and ran away, one of the drivers, George Engel, falling upon the doubletree in such a manner that his ankle was caught and pinched between the doubletree and bounds, and has laid him up since. Fortunately no bones were broken.
