Postmaster Davis says that the new outfit at the post office represents an investment of $1800.

Frederick Jewell of Platte Center is to speak on the subject 'Sugar Beets from a Grower's Standpoint' at a County Farmers Institute at Albion, Jan. 19.

Dr. Nauman is the 'only real graduate in dentistry in Platte county,' who can show up a diploma. Any other who claims the same willfully imposes on the people.

Found, Sunday evening, on the steps of the Methodist church, a lady's gold bracelet. Owner can have same by calling at this office, proving property and paying charges.

The balance of Maurice A. Mayer's stock has been moved to J. A. Barber & Co's. store for a short time to close it out.

A 2-year-old child of Mr. Green near Richland accidentally drank about a half cup of concentrated lye, living for several hours afterwards in untold agony, death coming to his relief Thursday night.

One ardent republican wishes to know if the addition of 50 per cent to the tariff on post office boxes is in accordance with democratic promises of reduction. If so, he says he is ready for a change.

Mr. Knight informs us that Rev. Wm. Pittenger, the author of 'Daring and Suffering,' the book that so thrillingly tells the story of the Andrews raid, now lives at Fallbrook, San Diego county, California.

The Singer Sewing Machine took 54 World's Fair awards, more than double the number received by all the other sewing machine companies combined.

See the ribbon diploma at B. S. Wyatt's office in this city.

After you have subscribed for a local paper, choose among others those that have supported the theory of protection to our nation's industries, and on this score you will not find any to excel the American Economist, New York City, $2 a year.

In the recent fire in Schuyler in which quite a quantity of hay was destroyed, it was found that the waterworks did not throw a stream well. You need an additional supply. All the towns and cities in the Platte valley must give this problem serious attention.

John Alder who has lived across the river for several years, has bought a farm of 240 acres near Hebron, Nebraska, to which he will move his family in March. We are sorry to have them leave, but THE JOURNAL wishes them prosperity, wherever they may go.

Joseph Hauser, as one of the stockholders, attended the annual meeting of the Farmers' Elevator association at Bellwood. M. Marti was elected president and R. C. Carpenter vice president. The company have put in machinery for grinding feed, meal and Graham flour.

The officers elect for the ensuing year for the A. O. U. W. are: E. Pohl, P. M. W.; John Wiggins, M. W.; R. L. Rossiter, E. Otto, Hener, O.; L. Held, R.; W. R. Notestein, F.; W. H. Lewis, Receiver; Henry Huntegan, G.; A. J. Sammelson, Guard; Fred Stenger, O. S.

The Lincoln Journal says that Joseph Mahaffey has concluded to start a daily paper at Seward. This is the gentleman who had such an enterprise in view for Columbus, and did some canvassing with that in view. We doubt very much if he has struck a better place.

Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Lockner desire to return sincere thanks to the old Columbus friends and neighbors, and especially to the members of Union camp sons of veterans, members of Baker post G. A. R., and others for kindly attentions during the funeral of their beloved son.

Charles Schroeder was at Humphrey last Wednesday evening to meet with the village board, and advised them, says the Democrat, that an electric light plant could be connected with the water works, at a nominal cost. The same power would do, and the same man operate both.

Robert Krause is another victim of the old-fashioned, unguarded knuckle of a tumbling-rod. When his overcoat was caught by the knuckle, and he was wound up, resulting in the fracture of his left arm between the elbow and shoulder, and a hurt back.

The only real graduate in all branches of dentistry in Platte county can be found at Dr. E. Y. Hanghwaout's dental parlors. Has fifteen years' experience in all branches of dentistry. His is the only successful method of extracting teeth without pain. All dental operations performed in a superior and careful manner. T.

It seems that the I. D. Chamberlain, with whom Geo. Waite of Colorado has been having so much trouble in trying to get him to resign as warden of the penitentiary, or kick him out, is our own and only Chamberlain, formerly of Stromsburg, and one of the populist speakers of this state—a fire-brand in a powder-house.

The Knights of Pythias held their annual installation of officers at their hall Wednesday evening last. Several selections of music were interspersed through the evening, also speeches by Geo. Spear, W. N. Hensley and L. H. Leavy. After the installation the Maennerchor orchestra furnished music for the dancers until a late hour.

Sophia Leonora, infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Phillips, aged 14 months, died Wednesday, of diphtheria. The remains were laid to rest Thursday in the Columbus cemetery, Elder Hudson officiating at the services. Two other children of the family and a sister of Mrs. Phillips are sick with the same dread disease, but are convalescing.

Thomas Morrissey's hearing for an assault upon Patrick Macken took place before County Judge Henley as we were going to press last week, Tuesday. The outcome of the examination was that the judge decided to hold Morrissey to the district court in a bond of $500. County Attorney Gondering appeared for the prosecution and Wm. O'Brien for the defense.

The Platte Center Signal makes the allowance of $300 rest for Judge Henley's office up town, the text for an article on the removal of the county seat to Platte Center, assuring its readers that that burg 'will see that there is a court house built sufficiently large for them without expense to outside townships.' It doesn't follow from the fact that the supervisors allowed the judge to remove his office up town, and continue it there beyond the time specified without charge to the county, and then allowed a bill presented, that another board of supervisors would not do a similar thing, even if the county seat were located at Platte Center. We would suggest to the Signal that if it wishes to blame anybody in the matter, place the responsibility where it belongs, and not against the city of Columbus, that has nothing at all to do with it any more than any other township, having, at that, a less ratio of representation on the board than any other.

The office of Wiggins & Lewis is one of the most popular places of rendezvous in the city, and almost any time during business hours, a number of men may be found there swapping information on all conceivable subjects, after the stock market for the day has been thoroughly discussed. Variety is said to add spice to life, and so it really seems here. Everybody is welcome, and everybody learns something—before he gets away. The latest wrinkle at the rendezvous is reserved seats. On inquiry of Wiggins we learned that there was no charge for absorption of the heat of the stove, no charge for floor space occupied, everything as free as air, but the man who wished a reserved seat must own his own chair, place it on the floor and tack his card, marking it reserved. The old-fashioned way was to have a roll call at stated times.

Baker post G. A. R., the Woman's Relief corps and the Sons of Veterans had a fine time Saturday night, installing the several officers elect for the coming year, and enjoying a feast prepared by the ladies. It was a caution to see the old boys dispose of their mess of beans, the sandwiches, coffee and cake. Through some mishap, it was late when it was noticed that there was no coffee-pot in the mess-room, but it was only a short time until there were three on hand, and it was not necessary to force the enemy, either, for the same. Grandfather Tammahill, both a veteran and a son of a veteran, is the only one of the number, who is a member of both post and camp. THE JOURNAL would like to see more occasions similar to this one which the old soldiers and the auxiliary societies could come together for mutual improvement.

Yesterday morning, at the residence of the bride's father, J. H. Sacrieder, the Rev. H. A. Shuman united in the bonds of matrimony, Mr. William Bartholomew and Mrs. Laura Sutton. The happy couple took the noon train for Stromsburg, where they will make their home.

John Randall of Columbus was shaking hands with his many Monroe friends Tuesday. John is becoming quite an extensive land owner, having recently traded for 320 acres of land in Holt county. Sheriff D. C. Kavanaugh came up from Columbus Saturday and served a writ of execution on the owners of the Loup bridge at this point. The bridge is advertised to be sold at sheriff's sale on Friday, January 12, 1934. [Monroe Mirror.]

The entertainment given by W. J. Knight Thursday evening at the opera house was very well received by a goodly audience. From the moment Mr. Knight got warmed up to his subject, there was intense interest in his illustrated story into the end. 'I wouldn't have missed that for a good deal,' 'it was worth the admission just to see one of the men who had gone through such an experience,' 'the old pictures of scenes added greatly to the interest of the word-pictures,' 'such entertainments are well calculated to impress upon the minds of the children of the veterans some idea of what it meant to be a soldier during the rebellion'—were expressions heard after the lecture.

In the Sun's account of commissioners' proceedings in Colfax county, we see that the road petitioned for by C. A. Gates and others, and running along the county line between Colfax and Platte counties, was not opened, the only reason given being that the clerk of Platte county had not appointed a road viewer, nor had said road been advertised according to County Attorney Phelps's view of the law. Clerk Phillips of this county, is hardly ever caught napping, and we judge that there is somebody else to blame in this matter.

Wildey Lodge L. O. O. F. had their installation of officers Tuesday night of last week, all of them being present except Treasurer C. A. Speice and Conductor H. E. Reed. A banquet wound up the program for the evening, which was a very enjoyable one. Those installed were: F. G. Coleman, N. G.; E. P. Dussel, V. G.; W. R. Notestein, Sec.; J. B. Theudly, Warden; H. J. Hudson, R. S.; N. G.; Dr. Geer, L. S.; H. C. Newman, R. S. of V. G.; W. A. Way, L. S.; R. Jenkinson, I. S.

The first issue of the Monroe Mirror, published by R. A. Viekers, reached our table last week. It is democratic in politics, patent outside, and from appearance, the inside printing done at the Telegraph office, this city. As another factor for the upbuilding of Nebraska and Platte county, THE JOURNAL welcomes the Mirror, and could hope that it might prosper, but really we had supposed the newspaper field in Monroe was fully and fairly occupied by the Looking Glass.

We bear that a petition is in circulation, (to whom directed we have not learned), to retain the old price for rental of postoffice boxes, even if the old boxes have to be re-instated. Many people think the times are too hard, even if the boxes are very nice. Fred Elias told the postmaster the other day that all his mail was paid for before it reached this office, and hereafter he could hand it to him through the hole.

Saturday last near Genoa, Brake-man Jacob Snodgrass of this city fell on the track and was pushed about fifteen feet by the moving train, and in front of the engine, and was cut and bruised badly, and hurt internally—his nose broken. He was brought to his home in this city, and cared for by Dr. Martyn, the company's surgeon. Probably frost on the track saved him from being crushed to pieces.

FIELD—At Omaha, Nebraska, January 7th, at 6 a. m., of Bright's disease, Frank P. Field. The interment was on Monday afternoon in the cemetery at Omaha.

Mr. Field lived here years ago, and will be remembered by many of our older citizens.

BLAWAT—Tuesday, of pneumonia, Augusta, wife of August Blawat, aged 52 years.

Mrs. Blawat was the mother of thirteen children, six of whom are living, four here and two in San Francisco. Funeral services were held from the German Lutheran church, of which she was a member, Rev. Mieseler officiating. The remains were laid to rest in the Columbus cemetery.

DINEEN—Wednesday night, Jan. 3d, at his residence near Burke's bridge, in the Shell Creek valley, John Dineen, of the seventy-fourth year of his age. Pneumonia was the immediate cause of his death.

He came to this country about thirty years ago. He leaves a wife and six children to mourn his departure. The funeral took place Friday, from St. Joseph's Catholic church, many friends of the family being in attendance.

BUZZA—Friday at 6:30 o'clock a. m., of consumption, after an illness of several weeks, Mary, wife of S. W. Buzza.

The deceased had been an invalid for several years, and since her residence in this city had made many friends, endeared to her by her loving disposition shown through all her suffering. She leaves a husband to mourn her loss as a life partner. Funeral services were held in the M. E. church Friday afternoon, after the body was taken to Grand Island where the remains were laid in their final resting place Saturday.

KEEFER—Wednesday, after an illness of eight days from la grippe and blood poisoning, Mrs. William Keifer, aged 40 years.

About three years ago Mrs. Keifer was bit on the finger by a cat, from which she suffered considerable pain. Eight days previous to her death she was cutting meat when the knife slipped and reopened the sore caused by the cat bite.

She suffered for several hours before the doctor was summoned and she was taken to the county hospital, where she died last Wednesday. The remains were buried Thursday, Elder Hudson conducting services at the grave. Mrs. Keifer was born in Hanover, Germany. Mr. and Mrs. Keifer have lived near Columbus, eight years, on the island, where the Loup runs into the Platte.

LOCKNER—Thursday, January 4th, at the residence of his parents in Omaha, Augustus J. Lockner, jr., in the twenty-second year of his age.

He had been eleven days with the grippe, and had come to work again, when he was stricken with typhoid fever, of which he died. Funeral services were held at the residence in Omaha at 8:30 Sunday morning. The remains were accompanied to this city by Mr. Lockner's family, Adam Lockner, Robert Uhlig's family and a delegation of the Sons of Veterans. They were met here by Union camp S. of V., members of Baker post, and numerous citizens, the funeral services being under the direction of Union camp of this city, the body being laid in its final resting place with the impressive ceremony of the ritual of the order. The deceased was the only son of Hon. Augustus Lockner, a former citizen of this city. He was a bright young man of excellent attainments, and a great deal more than ordinary business talent. His death is sincerely mourned by all who knew him.

Accidentally Killed. Last Friday Mr. McDuffie received a telegram from Alhambra announcing the death of his son, John T., by accident. Not all of the particulars are yet attainable. As nearly as we can now learn, however, the accident took place at Bagdad, California, and within ten miles of the end of his run. He was an extra conductor, temporarily braking on a brake beam, his feet held fastened between the ties, and the wheels ran over his bowels. He lived only an hour after the accident, and was carried several miles before a casket was obtained for the body.

The body arrived here Sunday, and on Monday the funeral took place from his father's residence.

Rev. Bross preached the sermon, his theme being the shortness of human life. Mrs. Bross, Mrs. Warren, the Misses Hurd and Mr. Hurd sang. One Sweetly Solemn Thought; Refrains: Meet me Tomorrow; and We'll Never say Good-bye in Heaven.

The pall-bearers were Frank Baker, J. T. Cox, Joseph Seiggs, Frank Neator, Harry Reeder and Henry Reeder.

At noon yesterday, a letter was received by Mr. McDuffie on Jan. 2nd, the morning of the day on which he was killed.

Mr. McDuffie was born at Whitepigeon, Mich., July 26, 1871. He went to The Needles about two years ago. He will be sincerely mourned by a host of friends.

Railroad Accident Near Clark's. The Denver sleeper attached to the Union Pacific flyer, which leaves Columbus at 9:00 p. m., was consumed in a wreck one-half mile west of Clark's Monday evening.

The following passengers in the coach were injured: JUDGE ED. P. SMITH, Omaha. MR. and MRS. GEORGE F. CHESTER, Buffalo, N. Y. J. HUTCHINSON, Denver.

None of the injured suffered worse than slight bruises. All escaped with their personal effects.

The train is supposed to have been wrecked by a broken rail. The engine and sleeper only left the track. As the Pullman car was heated by steam, it is supposed the fire caught from the lamps.

The train was delayed two hours. The passengers in the remainder of the train suffered nothing worse than a slight shock.

C. L. S. C. Will meet at the residence of Mr. Farrand Jan. 16, 94, at 7:30 p. m. Program: Roll call. History of a word.
