> may save you a considerable sum of money one of these days. Thomas Jefferson said: "Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty," and nothing is truer It is precisely the same species of watch fulness that is exacted in the defense of home, and the preservation of property rights, because these are only adjuncts of liberty. In our list this week there are a dozen pieces of property, some tracts of land and several city lots, upon which tax-liens have lately been placed, and the interest on these now is twenty per cent, going to the investors, and not to the county. If you borrow the money of a bank and redeem your land, von pay only ten per cent, just half what is allowed by law to the investor in tax titles. Of course the oftener redemptions are made the more compounding of interest at 20 per cent takes place, and the more is thus made for those who have the money to invest in these securities (the best in the world), but it is to the advantage of the land or lot owner soon as you can see your way clear.
