MARKETS REPORTED BY WIRE.

Chicago Grain and Provisions. CHICAGO, April 30.-Wheat, after about 15 minutes of weakness at the start, became firm today and ended with a gain of 16c per bushel. After a month's steady liquidation of May wheat, it is to be presumed that the last bushel has been sold out which the holders were not prepared to take and pay for if tendered tomorrow. While money is being pressed upon carriers of wheat by lenders at 314 per cent, it does not seem likely that the owners of the property will drop it at present prices, unless it should be demonstrated later in the season that in spite of drouth, frost and diminished acreage another phenomenally large crop is to be the result of this year's harvest. Corn was dull and closed 1-16: lower for July and lie lower for May. TURPIE GIVES THE LIE.

Charges Senator Aldrich With Telling Three Gross Lies.

PROFOUND SENSATION CREATED.

Everyone Amazed at the Personal Attack Upon the Rhode Island Senator-His Reply Was Very Short -Trouble Arose Over Discussion of the Tariff Bill-Senator Stockbridge and Frank Hatton Dead.

Washington, May 1.-Senator Harris. who is in charge of the tariff bill, lost patience Monday at the way in which progress was impeded by Senator Hale in the morning hour. As on several preceding days, Mr. Hale objected to giving way for special measures in the morning. Finally Mr. Harris abruptly asked that the senate proceed with the consideration of the tariff bill. Mr. Wolcott 4:30 p. m. Monday. interposed a question as to whether the whole scope and character of the bill. changes were to be made and Mr. Voorhees to deny it. This gentle prod. hownessee senator, who said he could not say exactly what amendments were to pe proposed. Mr. Aldrich said it was General Gresham as postmaster general,

"House bill 4.864," interjected Mr. Harris sharply.

"Yes," replied Mr. Aldrich, "with the amendments, but when are they to be submitted?" "When we get ready," said Mr. Gray from his seat.

Secretary Carlisle's Interview. Mr. Aldrich then took a paper from his desk containing an interview with Secretary Carlisle. He said he thought it a strange coincidence that the executive officers of the government seemed always in possession of advanced information regarding the progress of tariff reform. President Cleveland in his mes-THE Lee hotel fire at Omaha is fur- sage told the country in advance what the Wilson bill was to contain, and now Carlisle came forward with this advance information about the harmonizing of Democratic discord-information which was in conflict with the recent statement of the chairman of the finance

Mr. Allen (Neb) at this point suddenly threw "senatorial courtesy" to the winds and demanded the regular order. The tariff bill was then laid before the senate. Aldrich Accepts the Challenge.

Mr. Aldrich renewed his comments on the Carlisle interview. In reply to a reand these statements were repeated, it must be on his own responsibility. Mr. Aldrich accepted the challenge and rose with the statement on his lips, that he was "informed and believed that amendsentence until the case can be heard, ments had been added to the bill since it had been reported to the senate, as he had previously stated." He asserted the amendments were in print and said it was his understanding that they were to be submitted to the senate shortly. They were, he was certain, from what he had heard, of a nature to completely change the character of the bill. As a result of this condition of affairs, the senate was no nearer the final consideration of the Aldrich Called a Triple Liar. Mr. Turpie, who got the floor when Mr. Palmer sat down, made a direct assault on Mr. Aldrich, the like of which has not been heard in the senate chamber for years. He declared that three monstrous untruths had characterized the opposition, three gross lies of inconceivable mendacity. The first of those untruths was that a new bill was being prepared by the secretary of the treasthis city September 4, name the party's ury; the second that 300 or 400 amendments (it did not matter which) were to be presented and the third was that the bill reported from the finance committee was no t the billto be passed. All these assertions had been categorically denied > by four Democratic members of the finance committee. "And yet," continued Mr. Turpie, raising his hand aloft and stretching it toward Mr. Aldrich, "the senator from Rhode Island comes in here and says he believes they are true. There could be no such an issue of veracity. I prefer to believe and I do believe the senators on this side, and I disbelieve the senatorsno, I will not say senators-I disbelieve the diminutive unite of the other side who assert to the contrary. Who is the authority of these reports that are being circulated here and in the newspaper press; who claims the paternity? The senator from Rhode Island. I recollect the predecessor of the honorable senator from Rhode Island," he continued with biting and venomous irony (referring to Senator Aldrich of 1890), "as a different individual from the Senator Aldrich of today, but even he could not have been the author of all these untruths. He might have been the author of one, but three would have driven him from the field. He had been a drug clerk and was familiar with that line of business and other lines as a wholesale grocer. We who were here then will never forget the writhing of his distinguished ountenance his enormous development of check that extended from ear to ear and from chin to forehead. We will never forget his auricular appendages that scraped the dome of the capitol. How can the present senator hope to rival his predecessor in the hatred of truth and the love of falsehood that has always characterized the cheats of protection?

When Mr. Turpie sat down there was a hush. Everyone was amazed at the personal character of the attack upon Mr. Aldrich. Then all eyes were turned upon the Rhode Island senator. He rose slowly. "In the position the senator light. From $5.15 to $5.25 bought most of the from Indiana now takes," he said slowly and deliberately, "he speaks for no one but himself. Under other circumstances and conditions I do not believe he would > have made the speech he has made." Mr. Aldrich took his seat. The incident closed without another word, and Mr. Quay took the floor and resumed the prepared speech begun some weeks ago. DEATH OF SENATOR STOCKBRIDGE.

Mich., intending to go to the Pacific coast to visit the California fair. The senator, however, on the day he and Mrs. Stockbridge were preparing to leave for California was suddenly attacked with Murder of Marshal Whitney at stomach trouble and later suffered with a cutting pain near the heart. His condition at no time was considered serious. Monday evening at 7 o'clock he was left alone in his room with a new nurse, the other members of the household being at dinner. At about 7:70 the senator arose from his chair to walk across the room when he was suddenly attacked with pains in his left side. He made no outcry, but with his hands clasped over his heart and his face showing that he was suffering intense pain, he in a very short time breathed his last.

MISSOURI VALLEY, Ia., May 1 .-'Reddy" Wilson, the murderer of Marshal Whitney, was lynched here at 2 o'clock sharp this morning by a masked

The parties were all unknown. They made the electric lights shut down and disarmed the policemen.

Excited crowds were waiting all evening for the affair to happen. Masked parties battered the jail door in and captured Wilson in the dark. Wilson did not have time to say a word. but was taken to a tree just outside the court yard and swung off.

There was no shots fired. The whole thing was orderly as a lynching could be. At 5:30 all was quiet again. Story of the Crime.

The crime out of which the affair grows was the killing of Marshal Whitney while trying to serve a search warrant early Sunday morning on William Henderson. Numerous burglaries had been committed at Missouri Valley lately and Henderson, with two men named Johnson, alias Wilson, and Davis, who had been stopping with him, were sugpicioned of having committed the crimes. J. B. Lyon, the victim of one of the burglaries, accompanied the marshal when he went to serve the second warrant. When the presence of the officers was made known to enderson and his pals they epened fire, which was returned. Whitney was instantly killed, Lyon shot through the side and Johnson. alias Wilson, was hit four times. His wounds were at first considered fatal, but he has since given evidence of his recovery. Henderson was captured, but Davis escaped by running and he has not vet been captured.

Castoria.

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children." DR. G. C. OSGOOD, Lowell, Mass "Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."
