Dr. Hoeslin lost a roll of bills, $135, and a check for $60; Alvin Phillips and John Doida found the treasure and returned it to the owner. It is reported that Columbus is about to have a new Union Pacific freight depot, to be located one block east of the passenger depot.

Millet seed for sale at 60 cents a bushel, cleaned ready for sowing. A sample may be seen at JOURNAL office. Inquire of John Eisenmann. If you would like to see the best folding bed made, call on Fred W. Herrick. He will cheerfully show you the bed and explain its construction.

The Bellwood Gazette says that the Dettweiler family were poisoned by eating pickles that had been in a brass kettle. Prompt action secured relief. Mitchell's store has been moved to one door north of Rasmussen's old stand, now Christoffersen's, where he can be found with his line of goods, at all times.

As the mumps are quite prevalent in the city, it is well enough to heed the admonition of the physicians, and be cautious not to catch cold after the attack. Reminiscences of the Fair, sixteen portfolios of the World's fair, given away to our customers. For particulars call at J. B. Delsman's store, Eleventh street.

We have just received a large invoice of nice, new, neat and clean picture moldings, something new in the new colorings and designs. Fred W. Herrick. Prof. Bigelow of Lincoln, formerly of Madison, was a Columbus visitor Friday. It is understood that he will be an applicant for the superintendency of this city.

The ladies' Union meets this (Wednesday) afternoon at the home of Mrs. Celia Hageman on east Fourteenth at 2 o'clock and tea at 4. All are invited. W. F. Beckett of Genoa, who is now on the road for a Lincoln saddle house, was in the city Monday night. He thinks some of moving his family to Columbus.

A very enjoyable time was had at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Clark last Friday evening, by the young and middle aged people of the surrounding neighborhood, also quite a few from the city. In fact Mr. and Mrs. Clark thought a cyclone had struck their place, by the way the wagons and carriages began to rattle into their yard and the occupants take possession of the house and loading the dining-room table with bundles and packages which proved to be, further on, something good for the inner man, including ice cream, and nearly enough to supply Coxe's army. After the usual greetings, a musical and literary program was carried out, in which A. W. Clark led off with a violin solo, accompanied on the organ by Clarence Clark, Miss Hattie Berger furnished two songs; Miss Sarah Fitzpatrick two numbers of instrumental music; Miss Herring a recitation and two violin solos; Miss Annie Lockhart, recitation; Miss Winnie Young two recitations; Miss Elliott, Miss Nellie Young, Miss Ruby Young, Miss Pearl Nichol, Miss Myrtle Clark, recitations; Miss Etta Moore and Mrs. W. T. Ernst instrumental music. At about midnight refreshments were served, after which until 3 o'clock dancing was the order of the morning, all going home well pleased.

The true friends of home government have never been pleased with the Nebraska Township law, the like of which was never before known. Seemingly it was designed by politicians to be odious and, in the near future perish out of sight, because of offensive features. There has been no limit to the amount of curses, loud and deep, that have been heaped upon the principle of township organization, when they properly belonged to a defective system inaugurated for the purpose of making the principle odious. Those citizens who in other states lived for years under just systems of township organization, have known all along that our statutes could be greatly improved upon, and bring them somewhere near what other states east of us had been enjoying and thriving under. A convention has been called to meet in the senate chamber, Lincoln, May 15th, to discuss much needed amendments to our laws. Platte, Holt, Cuming, York, Hall and Gage counties send committees, and seventeen out of the thirty counties of the state working under "township organization," have signified their intention of being represented. Platte county's contingent will be Supervisors Lisco and Kiernan, and Clerk Phillips.

A local poet tries his hand thus at the situation: While I don't think the mayor entirely so wise, I'd like to know Which is the tail, And which is the kite. The mayor appears to seem to think In order to make a tail That he will the body be, And the council the tail.

If you would sell well In all kinds of weather, Make a string pull, And all will be well, all for Columbus.

THE JOURNAL thinks that the inexperienced rhymester, while he is out of line altogether with his poetic feet, has occupied the solid platform of principle and stands there with both feet, in the last expression of sentiment.

Church Howe, Dep't Commander G. A. R., has issued general order in regard to the observance of Memorial Day, also requesting all posts to attend divine services in a body the Sunday preceding. It is desired that every Union soldier, dead, be marked with the flag of the nation, and that the choicest flowers of spring, emblematic of loyalty and love, be strewn over their silent homes. The Woman's Relief Corps, Sons of Veterans, ladies of the Grand Army, public schools, business men, traveling men and all patriotic organizations are earnestly and cordially invited to join in the memorial exercises.

Saturday at her rooms Mrs. Page's music pupils of grades one, two and three had a very interesting class recital, the following program being rendered to an interested audience: Sunshine Morning, Ford Street, Gurlitt; March Favorite, Lettie Spence, Hennings; Fairy Waltz, Lettie Spence, Loochiommi; No. 4 Duo, Albe Holatz, Lester and Stark; Polonaise in F, Roy Street, Lane; Mysterious Affair, Lettie Spence, Hennings; Lela Stillman.

Miss Yaw, the phenomenal soprano, will appear before a Columbus audience Friday evening, May 4, at the opera house. The Norfolk papers speak in the highest terms of praise of the concert there given recently. She is undoubtedly the greatest ranged soprano the world has ever seen. The scientific explanation of the tremendous altitudes she can reach is that her vocal cord can make 2048 vibrations each second. Reserved seats 75c; gallery 50c.

Among the district court proceedings last week were that Enos Wright was found guilty of contempt of court and sentenced to pay a fine of $15; William Kirkland, a similar offense, a fine of $25; Anton Sakowski plead guilty of burglary and grand larceny and was sentenced to confinement at hard labor in the penitentiary for two years. He was charged with the crime at George Schedel's place of business, Platte Center.

Frank Hatton, editor of the Washington Post (D. C.), for years editor of the Burlington (Iowa) Hawkeye, and Mr. Pleasant Town, and before that local editor of the Cedar (Iowa) Republican, has lately suffered a stroke of paralysis. Although Mr. Hatton served with distinction as postmaster general under President Arthur, we who knew him well, will be pained to remember him as the generous-hearted, genial Frank Hatton.

Mayor Phillips appointed Charles Brandt special police, the next morning after his rejection as chief of police by the council. A conflict between the mayor and council seems inevitable. To the ordinary citizen it looks as though four councilmen voting against the nomination was a sentiment sufficient to such respect of the mayor as would induce him to name a less objectionable man for their consideration.

Call and see our "Tour of the World Portfolio." They are worth twice the price we ask, 10 cents, and a coupon out from THE JOURNAL.
