> TRANSPLANTING IN THE NIGHT. - A gentleman, anxious to ascertain the effect of transplanting at night, instead of by day, made an experiment with the following results: He transplanted ten cherry trees while in bloom, commencing at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. Those transplanted during the daylight shed their blossoms, producing little or no fruit, while those transplanted in the dark maintained their condition fully. He did the same with ten dwarf trees, after the fruit was one-third grown. Those transplanted during the day shed their fruit; those transplanted during the night perfected the crop and showed no injury from having been removed With each of these trees he removed some earth with the roots. The incident is fully vouched for, and, if a few similar experiments produce a like result, it will be strong argument to hortienlturists, etc., to do such work at night. - Floral Cabinet
