THE greatest republican victory ever achieved in the state of Oregon is good enough news. Republican majority on governor 15,000, and a sweep on everything else. And so it will continue all around the sky, more or less, until 1906 will bring a national victory for the party which believes in the protection of every American interest, from the assets of insurance, to the management, integrity, fanaticism and combinations of greed for public plunder.

A CORRESPONDENT to the National Tribune says: "A comrade remarked the other day and made the remark that the four greatest men of our nation were Washington, Lincoln, Edison and Cleveland. There were several comrades in the room, and exceptions were made to Cleveland; but the comrade insisted that he had liberated more than the others had, and said that Washington liberated the nation, Lincoln liberated the slaves, Edison liberated the nines from the street cars, Cleveland the workmen from work in the factories and shops."

HEAVY RAINS IN KANSAS. Ten Bridges Washed Away and Great Damage Done to Crops. EL DORADO, Kan., June 12.—The water in the Walnut river has subsided here. At noon Monday it reached Augusta and had backed up to the center of that town. People passed Brown's bank in boats. This is one and one-half miles from the river. The entire north half of Augusta is inundated. The north wall of the waterworks in Augusta caved in and ruined the pumps. Much loss of live stock is reported. The entire valley has been inundated by the flood and crops of all kinds are generally ruined.

Senator Caffery Explains How He Met Havemeyer. SENATE DOES SOME LIVELY WORK. Disposes of Ten Pages of the Tariff Bill in Thirty Minutes—Congressmen Not In a Working Humor—President Cleveland Indisposed—Iowa Postmaster Confirmed. News of the National Capital.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—Senator Caffery went before the sugar trust investigating committee Monday and amplified his statement heretofore made by him concerning his meeting with Mr. Havemeyer at Senator Brice's house. He was reported in his former testimony to have said he had been requested to see Mr. Havemeyer at Senator Brice's house, but he had not stated the manner in which Mr. Havemeyer happened to be there, which he wished to do.

CONGRESSIONAL PROCEEDINGS. Senate Disposes of Ten Pages of the Tariff Bill in Thirty Minutes. WASHINGTON, June 12.—The broken work of the senate Monday and Tuesday during the week of the consideration of the measure. Three schedules, spirits and wines, cotton and flax, jute and hemp manufactures from paragraph 227 to 277, inclusive, comprising 15 pages of the bill, were very speedily disposed of. The entire cotton schedule, 10 pages of the bill, was finished in 20 minutes. The Republicans made no opposition to the amendments proposed to this schedule maintaining that the rates, though reduced, were so changed as to make the tariff schedule the most "scientific" ever prepared. The tariff and tariff schedule providing for a duty of 20 cents per dozen pairs and 30 per cent ad valorem while shirts and other articles composed wholly or in part of linen carry a duty of 25 per cent.

President Cleveland Indisposed. WASHINGTON, June 12.—There was an air of languid listlessness apparent in the house Monday and it was evident the members were not in a working humor. The day was claimed by Mr. Hearl, chairman of the committee on the District of Columbia, but while several bills were considered, no action was reached on any of them on account of a lack of quorum.
