

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 16, 1924.

A. & N. TIME TABLE.

Table with columns for destination, class, and time. Includes routes to Lincoln, Omaha, and other cities.

UNION PACIFIC TIME TABLE.

Table with columns for destination, class, and time. Includes routes to Lincoln, Omaha, and other cities.

FOR ALBION AND CEDAR RAPIDS.

Table with columns for destination, class, and time. Includes routes to Albion and Cedar Rapids.

FOR ALBION AND CEDAR RAPIDS.

Table with columns for destination, class, and time. Includes routes to Albion and Cedar Rapids.

Society Notices.

Lebanon Lodge No. 56, F. & A. M., will hold a regular meeting on Wednesday night, June 19, at 7:30 p. m.

PHOTOGRAPHIC

Tour of the World.

PART No. 16.

Columbus Journal Coupon.

Send or bring one coupon like this with 10 cents in coin like the Columbus Journal, Columbus, Nebraska.

Dr. Nammann, dentist, Thirteenth street, N. E.

Dr. T. R. Clark, Olive street, N. E. in office at night.

David City has raised $400 to celebrate the Fourth.

As we go to press (Tuesday) the district court is in session.

Frank Hagel did business in Genoa Monday for Hagel & Stevenson.

E. R. Bisson says he had not so much rain at his place as fell here.

J. R. Martin of Lincoln came up Monday and returned home Friday.

E. R. Bisson was in the city Monday morning bringing a load of fat hogs.

Leander Gerrard and J. G. Bester had luncheon at Silver Creek last Wednesday.

We learn that Frazier made about $300 on cattle he bought from Patrick Murray.

The republican club meets tomorrow (Thursday) evening. It now numbers 134.

Mr. Gentlemen, Mrs. Kavanagh's father, is very ill and not expected to live long.

Will Hagel and family went to Schuyler today to attend the marriage of a cousin.

Henry Gass went to Omaha yesterday morning to attend the state under-takers' convention.

Farm loans at lowest rates and best terms. Money on hand, no delay. Becher, Jaeggi & Co.

Frank Clark who has been in East Saganaw, Mich. for some time, is expected back any day.

Platte Center has raised $300 with which to make their Fourth of July celebration a success.

H. J. Arnold, M. D., physician and surgeon, Two doors north of Broad-fuehrer's jewelry store. If "Spud" Smith and Ed. Elston left last week for the northern part of the state with some horses.

The school board met yesterday morning, but transacted no business except to adjourn for a day.

Charles Schroeder has returned from Texas, and reports the wheat crop, now harvested, as immense.

Ordination services of Rev. Rogers will be held in the Congregational church Friday evening. All invited.

The Presbyterian parsonage and M. Rapp's place are putting in pipes to connect with the city waterworks.

When in need of an auctioneer, call on Dave Smith. He will act for you with promptness, safety and dispatch. If Gus G. Becher went to Hebron Monday, and will take in the republican league meeting at Lincoln on his return.

A game of base ball Sunday between the A. S. Underhill and the Cyclones resulted in a 25 to 19 in favor of the former. The ninth inning showed 13 to 19; the tenth 16 to 16; the eleventh 19 to 19; the twelfth 25 to 19.

The memorial to the Fugard children at the Methodist Sunday school exercises Sunday evening, was very thoughtful, and the flowers were taken the next morning and placed upon the monument.

It is getting to be quite the "fad" for Fremont wheelmen to ride into Omaha, a distance of thirty-eight miles, in the morning on their wheels, which they leave in about two hours, and return in the evening on the fast train.

Five boys at Rising the other day made a cannon of a gas pipe, and after four successful shots, on the fifth venture on the "machine," it exploded, and four of the boys tumbled over, one being so disabled that he will have to remain in bed for a while.

Alts & Stupfel have opened a meat market in the place formerly occupied by T. R. Rieky, on Olive street, where they keep for the accommodation of their custom, fresh meats of all kinds and varieties, anything you may wish to buy in the business. Fish always on hand. Telephone No. 10.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

The Fiftieth anniversary of the organization of the Y. M. C. A. was duly observed at the Presbyterian church Sunday.

A Richland nine and a "pumpkin" ridge nine played a game of ball at the city Sunday resulting in 36 to 6 against Richland.

The case of Mrs. Peter Ziebach, who seeks a divorce from her husband, has been on trial since Monday morning before Judge Sullivan.

Some needed grading is about to be done on the street south of the court house. The dirt is being hauled and piled ready for spreading.

Martin Foreman, who lives west of Dunsmuir, brought his father to the Sisters' hospital Monday for better care than he could receive at home.

Fifteen dollars to Colorado Springs 12th, 23d and 24th. See me, J. R. Meagher, agent U. P. system, Columbus, Neb.

Fifteen dollars to Denver and return via the Union Pacific, June 11th, 12th, 23d and 24th. See me, J. R. Meagher, agent U. P. system, Columbus, Neb.

Rev. Dabny is holding a series of religious meetings which have been well attended, in a good tent erected on the corner lot east of Maennerchor hall.

Fifteen dollars to Pueblo and return via the Union Pacific, June 11th, 12th, 23d and 24th. See me, J. R. Meagher, agent U. P. system, Columbus, Neb.

Becher, Jaeggi & Co. insure buildings and personal property against fire, lightning and cyclones, in good and reliable companies at lowest current rates.

All who have lawns here in Columbus and think they look bad for want of rain should take a look at Omaha, if they want to see real dry and brown lawns.

Reminiscences of the Fair, sixteen months ago, were given by the fair committee at J. B. Delsman's store, Eleventh street, N. E.

A. J. McKelvey and Editor Williams of St. Edward passed through the city Monday, on their way to Lincoln to delegates to the republican state league meeting.

Children's day services were held Sunday evening at the Presbyterian, Methodist and Congregational churches, all passing off nicely and being well attended.

For rent, to a small family, the new congregational parsonage, eight rooms, everything complete, corner North and Seventh streets. Apply to Rev. A. J. Rogers, N. E.

Friday night the Epworth societies had a sociable at Wm. Meays' residence in the country. Quite a number were compelled to stay over night on account of the storm.

A section of commonwealers, eighteen in number, reached the city Monday on their way east. Mayor Phillips issued an order for two meals apiece to the travelers.

The rain that we had Sunday night and Monday morning extended east as far as Omaha. This seemed to be its limit westward and it evidently did not extend far north.

Ben Bowhon, postmaster at Bellwood, has recently purchased for $2,000, a quarter section of land near Rushville. In the long ago Mr. Bowhon was a resident of Columbus.

Samuel Kniff brought in a load of hogs Monday morning, which he disposed of to Higgins & Lewis. He said that he found no rain on the road until he got near Barron.

For sale, a thoroughly reliable farm wagon, for two or three men, a bugger, harness, blankets, etc., very cheap, if taken quickly. Apply to Rev. F. Killip, Oakes, Neb. 21

C. T. Smider of Rogers was in the city Monday between trains, going to Lincoln. He is a member of the city teachers' certificate. His school at Rogers closed last week.

A. M. Hall of the vicinity of Richland, who has made a special effort, will be about one-fourth of crop, oats very small; corn looks neighborly.

The following additions have recently been made, by birth, to our population: to Mrs. Ed. Flynn, a daughter; to Mrs. Peter Weber, a daughter; to Mrs. Frank VanAlstine, a son.

A. R. Miller of the First National bank was at St. Edward a portion of last week to take the place of the cashier of the State bank there, who had been called east because of illness.

F. H. Lamb took a trip into the country last Thursday morning behind a span of frisky mules; he says he would have made the trip much quicker and easier on his wheel, as it don't buck.

Wm. and Frank Emers and Dr. Condon, with two others, whose names we did not remember, came from Humphrey Sunday morning, returning in the evening, making the trip on their wheels.

A family here who adopted a child in the legal regular way were annoyed last week by the appearance of a woman who claimed to be the child's mother. The child is still with its legal guardians.

Harry Newman, judge Fuller, Jack and Will, Elston are off to Boyd county for a month's fishing. They took a number of horses with them which they will dispose of as incidental to the main object of their trip.

An ice cream social will be given by Mrs. A. M. Post and Mrs. Easmussen, at the Presbyterian church, next Wednesday from 4 to 7 p. m., at the residence of Mrs. Post. All are cordially invited.

Baker passed resolutions of thanks to the orators of the two occasions Memorial day in August. The resolutions to the school children and their teachers, to E. D. Reynolds for favors and to the firemen for assistance.

The Knights of Pythias memorial services were held Sunday, J. F. Davis making the address at the hall, and W. M. Cornelius the address at the grave, the S. of V. drum corps furnishing the music for the occasion.

A game of base ball Sunday between the A. S. Underhill and the Cyclones resulted in a 25 to 19 in favor of the former. The ninth inning showed 13 to 19; the tenth 16 to 16; the eleventh 19 to 19; the twelfth 25 to 19.

The memorial to the Fugard children at the Methodist Sunday school exercises Sunday evening, was very thoughtful, and the flowers were taken the next morning and placed upon the monument.

It is getting to be quite the "fad" for Fremont wheelmen to ride into Omaha, a distance of thirty-eight miles, in the morning on their wheels, which they leave in about two hours, and return in the evening on the fast train.

Five boys at Rising the other day made a cannon of a gas pipe, and after four successful shots, on the fifth venture on the "machine," it exploded, and four of the boys tumbled over, one being so disabled that he will have to remain in bed for a while.

Alts & Stupfel have opened a meat market in the place formerly occupied by T. R. Rieky, on Olive street, where they keep for the accommodation of their custom, fresh meats of all kinds and varieties, anything you may wish to buy in the business. Fish always on hand. Telephone No. 10.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

Come to THE JOURNAL for job work.

Fifteen dollars to Denver and return, to Colorado Springs and return, to Pueblo and return, via the Union Pacific. Tickets on sale June 11th, 12th, 23d and 24th. For further particulars call on J. R. Meagher, agent U. P. system, Columbus, Neb.

At the late Sunday School convention at David City a series of resolutions was passed, and among them one declaring that in any community for a Christian to sign an application for a saloon license is to put himself outside the pale of Christian citizenship.

Mrs. Drinim had 32 little turkeys last Sunday, about three weeks old, and Monday afternoon they were all dead. A post-mortem on one showed potato leaves in the gizzard, and it flashed upon the mind that it was a case of poisoning by Paris green, with which the leaves had been sprinkled.

E. Corbin came up Monday from Lincoln and says they had a splendid time on Monday morning. He heard the laureate sermon of the twenty-third commencement of the State University was delivered Sunday evening by Rev. Frank Crane of Omaha, to a large and highly interested audience.

One can notice the difference between Omaha last week our reporter noticed one lawn of blue grass which was about two inches high and looking, well just across the alley in another yard was some alfalfa, at least two feet high, with a fresh green color.

Col. A. L. Bibby has accepted the invitation of the committee, and will be the orator of the day for the Fourth of July celebration here. Those who have the faintest knowledge of Bibby's wit and wisdom will want to hear him on this occasion, and they will be repaid for coming many miles for that purpose.

John Burrell, engineer at the water-works, was arrested Monday evening on a charge of criminal assault; he gave bond in the sum of $500 for his appearance at 10 o'clock next Friday. The charge against Burrell is a very serious one, but he strenuously denies the truth of it, and says that it originates with his men who are anxious to secure his position.

Before her departure Miss Spencer, language teacher in the high school, was surprised by her friends with a fine album; her Sunday school class giving her a fountain pen. She will be much amused in the evening, having been an active and efficient helper in every department. Her friends feel sure that she will be heard from very favorably in her mission work.

Friday a disabled engine was taken in to Omaha on the U. P. Near Silver Creek the guide rod on the "near" side became disconnected, smashed through the fireman's side of the cab, striking where the fireman had stood but a moment before. A spoke of the driver's wheel broke, chunks of metal were knocked out of the wheel, and the entire appearance of the engine showed the danger of "fitter out of place."

A baker at St. Edward is authority for the fact that he has been compelled to inquire of the band boys in advance as to the nights on which they will practice, as he has demonstrated, that his boys will not rise, on those nights, and an incubator at the Tolman place fails to hatch a chick since the band boys to play. The Sun is responsible for the present predicament of the city.

The estimate of the dollar valuation of the city of $22, in this regard the council may well be likened to a just providence granting the petition of a worthy subject, in the person of the city clerk, who is chief of police, C. Phillips has asked for three whistles and an additional revolver.

The estimate of the dollar valuation of the city of $22, in this regard the council may well be likened to a just providence granting the petition of a worthy subject, in the person of the city clerk, who is chief of police, C. Phillips has asked for three whistles and an additional revolver.

The estimate of the dollar valuation of the city of $22, in this regard the council may well be likened to a just providence granting the petition of a worthy subject, in the person of the city clerk, who is chief of police, C. Phillips has asked for three whistles and an additional revolver.

The estimate of the dollar valuation of the city of $22, in this regard the council may well be likened to a just providence granting the petition of a worthy subject, in the person of the city clerk, who is chief of police, C. Phillips has asked for three whistles and an additional revolver.

The estimate of the dollar valuation of the city of $22, in this regard the council may well be likened to a just providence granting the petition of a worthy subject, in the person of the city clerk, who is chief of police, C. Phillips has asked for three whistles and an additional revolver.

The estimate of the dollar valuation of the city of $22, in this regard the council may well be likened to a just providence granting the petition of a worthy subject, in the person of the city clerk, who is chief of police, C. Phillips has asked for three whistles and an additional revolver.

The estimate of the dollar valuation of the city of $22, in this regard the council may well be likened to a just providence granting the petition of a worthy subject, in the person of the city clerk, who is chief of police, C. Phillips has asked for three whistles and an additional revolver.

The estimate of the dollar valuation of the city of $22, in this regard the council may well be likened to a just providence granting the petition of a worthy subject, in the person of the city clerk, who is chief of police, C. Phillips has asked for three whistles and an additional revolver.

The estimate of the dollar valuation of the city of $22, in this regard the council may well be likened to a just providence granting the petition of a worthy subject, in the person of the city clerk, who is chief of police, C. Phillips has asked for three whistles and an additional revolver.

The estimate of the dollar valuation of the city of $22, in this regard the council may well be likened to a just providence granting the petition of a worthy subject, in the person of the city clerk, who is chief of police, C. Phillips has asked for three whistles and an additional revolver.

The estimate of the dollar valuation of the city of $22, in this regard the council may well be likened to a just providence granting the petition of a worthy subject, in the person of the city clerk, who is chief of police, C. Phillips has asked for three whistles and an additional revolver.

The estimate of the dollar valuation of the city of $22, in this regard the council may well be likened to a just providence granting the petition of a worthy subject, in the person of the city clerk, who is chief of police, C. Phillips has asked for three whistles and an additional revolver.

The estimate of the dollar valuation of the city of $22, in this regard the council may well be likened to a just providence granting the petition of a worthy subject, in the person of the city clerk, who is chief of police, C. Phillips has asked for three whistles and an additional revolver.

The estimate of the dollar valuation of the city of $22, in this regard the council may well be likened to a just providence granting the petition of a worthy subject, in the person of the city clerk, who is chief of police, C. Phillips has asked for three whistles and an additional revolver.

The estimate of the dollar valuation of the city of $22, in this regard the council may well be likened to a just providence granting the petition of a worthy subject, in the person of the city clerk, who is chief of police, C. Phillips has asked for three whistles and an additional revolver.

The estimate of the dollar valuation of the city of $22, in this regard the council may well be likened to a just providence granting the petition of a worthy subject, in the person of the city clerk, who is chief of police, C. Phillips has asked for three whistles and an additional revolver.

The estimate of the dollar valuation of the city of $22, in this regard the council may well be likened to a just providence granting the petition of a worthy subject, in the person of the city clerk, who is chief of police, C. Phillips has asked for three whistles and an additional revolver.

The estimate of the dollar valuation of the city of $22, in this regard the council may well be likened to a just providence granting the petition of a worthy subject, in the person of the city clerk, who is chief of police, C. Phillips has asked for three whistles and an additional revolver.

The estimate of the dollar valuation of the city of $22, in this regard the council may well be likened to a just providence granting the petition of a worthy subject, in the person of the city clerk, who is chief of police, C. Phillips has asked for three whistles and an additional revolver.

The estimate of the dollar valuation of the city of $22, in this regard the council may well be likened to a just providence granting the petition of a worthy subject, in the person of the city clerk, who is chief of police, C. Phillips has asked for three whistles and an additional revolver.

The estimate of the dollar valuation of the city of $22, in this regard the council may well be likened to a just providence granting the petition of a worthy subject, in the person of the city clerk, who is chief of police, C. Phillips has asked for three whistles and an additional revolver.

The estimate of the dollar valuation of the city of $22, in this regard the council may well be likened to a just providence granting the petition of a worthy subject, in the person of the city clerk, who is chief of police, C. Phillips has asked for three whistles and an additional revolver.

The estimate of the dollar valuation of the city of $22, in this regard the council may well be likened to a just providence granting the petition of a worthy subject, in the person of the city clerk, who is chief of police, C. Phillips has asked for three whistles and an additional revolver.

The estimate of the dollar valuation of the city of $22, in this regard the council may well be likened to a just providence granting the petition of a worthy subject, in the person of the city clerk, who is chief of police, C. Phillips has asked for three whistles and an additional revolver.

The estimate of the dollar valuation of the city of $22, in this regard the council may well be likened to a just providence granting the petition of a worthy subject, in the person of the city clerk, who is chief of police, C. Phillips has asked for three whistles and an additional revolver.

The estimate of the dollar valuation of the city of $22, in this regard the council may well be likened to a just provid