The case of a man named Chapman of Merrick County, charged with manslaughter, is being tried here on a charge of venire.

A light shower Tuesday morning and a cloudy sky as we are to have rain, is the indication as we write this paper.

Business is demoralized at all points in the Union Stock Yards, as no freight trains can be moved east with any degree of certainty.

Fred. H. Howey of Lincoln has purchased the interest of W. H. Illian in the Citizens' bank at Humphrey and will become cashier.

After the dissolution of the injunction against the school board last week by Judge Marshall, an appeal bond was filed in the sum of $300.

Maurice Gross passed through the city Monday from South Omaha. He says business is demoralized down there, on account of the strike.

Louis Zinnecker left Sunday for Montana where he joins Capt. A. Haught in an outing of three or four weeks, after which they will return home.

1893 real estate tax is due May 1st and can be paid at office of Becher, Jaggi & Co. t.

The fast mail train going west Sunday night had in two Pullman cars. The strikers evidently did not feel like opposing Uncle Sam in his carrying of the mails.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Casteria.

—Miss Mary Turner entertained several lady friends Thursday evening, in honor of Miss Bell Reid of David City, who was a former resident of this city.

—Becher, Jaggi & Co. insure buildings and personal property against fire, lightning and cyclones, in good and reliable companies at lowest current rates. t

—Reminiscences of the Fair, sixteen portfolios of the World's fair, given away to our customers. For particular call at J. E. Delman's store, Eleventh street. t

J. K. Smith of the vicinity of Oconee was in the city Saturday. The report he made to us is that he reports crooks looking fine, with a contaminant provided we have reasonable rains from now on.

—The Abta Tenderfoot played a second game Friday last, at Schuyler, with the Schuyler Quills, resulting in favor of the Tenderfoot, 20 to 17. We give the result by inning:

Tenderfoot..... 0 4 3 1 3 3 2 0 0 - 29
Quills..... 3 4 4 3 0 1 0 0 0 - 27
The last game of the three will be played here next Sunday.

—He didn't do a thing, but make the trip to Chicago, the Union Pacific & Northwestern Line. Why? Time the quickest, solid vestibuled trains, no change of coach at the Missouri River. Through first and second class sleepers and dining cars. For full information call on or address J. R. Meagher, agent U. P. System. 2

—"No trains east today," was the announcement made Monday morning. If this thing continues, horses may be come valuable again. The trains came all the same.

—Editor Parks of the Telegram was at Greeley Center last week. He says that J. M. Scott, late superintendent of schools here, is an applicant there for a similar position.

—G. W. Phillips got to his office Thursday for the first time since his illness, but tarried only a few minutes. "Steady by degrees" is a pretty good rule for convalescents.

—Editor Saunders of the Argus might have been seen in Madison Friday last shaking hands with all the leading democrats and that while on his way to a popular meeting at Norfolk.

—Harry Reed was at Albion last week. He says that across crop corn and wheat, the yield is very small grain is very different, because of dry weather. Hay was selling at $12 a ton.

—T. P. Johnson of the Duncan neighborhood was in town Friday on his way to the state. He thinks that if the season is favorable from this time on, Nebraska will have an immense crop of corn.

—The Looking Glass says that in Monroe and Monroe township there are twenty-six freeholders, and among them all, twenty-four signed the remonstrance against a saloon, and two the petition for it.

—Mrs. Cynthia Thurston has been granted a divorce from her husband, Herbert Thurston, with the custody of the three children. The case comes from Stanton, but was heard here.

—The next meeting of the Farmers' club is to be held at the residence of George Galley, Jr., Friday, July 27. The last meeting was very interesting and the next one is expected to equal if not exceed it in respect.

—We notice by the Bellwood Gazette that our old friend, Fred Hengler has been elected director for his school district. It is unnecessary to say that he is one of the men who will be found doing his duty every time.

—Gus Lockner of Omaha, was a Columbus sojourner during train Saturday. Some time during Sunday night, his car was broken into and the thief stole his coat and hat. Mr. Christofferson took about $120.00 in currency and checks at the late Sunday evening. He and Mr. Friedhof began to suspect who the guilty party is.

—The JOURNAL editor is in receipt of a double ticket to Fremont Chautaukala, July 4-19. Ross Hammann, the vice president, assures us that they will not only welcome us but will gladly have us stay. We can tell you all about the Chautaukala and the various lectures, etc.

—A surprise for our German readers! The Lincoln Freie Presse, the best German paper in the west, offers to all subscribers a new premium book: "Der Deutschen Hausrat Kochbuch," neatly bound, containing 300 pages. $2.00 in advance, pays for the PREMIUM. The book is well worth the price.

—The county institute is now closed and the teachers dispersed to their several homes. The attendance was something over one hundred and the teachers generally expressed themselves very enthusiastically over their instructors.

—The Leigh World is authority for saying that the Alberta colony from our adjoining county, Colfax, are incensed at Agent Gadson, who induced them to locate there. According to report they have lately experienced a severe frost.

—W. B. Davis went to Omaha, a member of the committee to make arrangements for railroad fare to the national encampment Knights of Pythias at Washington in August. Quite a number of the brethren of that city expect to attend.

—An unusual interest seems to be taken all around this year in school matters. At Cedar Rapids, a great many young people are taking advantage of the opportunities offered by the public schools.

—Sup'r Hughes of Schuyler was in the city Monday, having with him his two children. He says that Schuyler is erecting a new school building that will cost about $20,000. It will be fitted up in fine shape and have all modern appliances.

—The JOURNAL seems to have been doing most of the gathering of local news in the city for some time past, not only for the benefit of its own readers but also for the benefit of some of the other papers in the city, which, without doubt, have been getting their news largely from the JOURNAL.

—Peter Schmitt now has a mill on Shell Creek, run by power water, with a capacity of fifty barrels of flour a day, that is to say, a bushel of grain to a barrel. Mr. Schmitt returned several weeks since from Wyoming. He says that country has bright possibilities before it when railroad communication becomes more general; it has a wealth of natural resources outside of agriculture, which of course includes lumbering, mining, etc.

—The JOURNAL is the only newspaper in the city to publish the names of the candidates for the various offices.

—It is almost incredible that there could be much change in people's minds in so short a time. W. Lawrence and Alice DeMoss, known to quite a large circle of JOURNAL readers, seemed all the world to each other when they were here, years ago. A nice young lady would scarcely ever see, and Lawrence seemed all right.

—Franklin, Ohio, has a new printing plant, the largest in the state, and is to be opened by the end of July.

—John Elliott came back Friday from a trip to his farm upper Shell Creek. Our number of the JOURNAL is to be published by him, and he has agreed to do so.

—The fast mail train going west Sunday night had in two Pullman cars. The strikers evidently did not feel like opposing Uncle Sam in his carrying of the mails.
