

COLUMBUS, NEBRASKA, WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 5, 1894.

WHOLE NUMBER 1,269.

THE OLD RELIABLE

Columbus - State - Bank I

(Oldest Bank in the State.)

VOLUME XXV.---NUMBER 21.

NEBRASKA NEWS

A. I. Shaffer has started the thire daily paper at york.

Humboldt will soon vote on a $12,000 waterworks proposition. Ames is to have a new school house

It will be built this fall. A stock thief recently stole 250 hogs from the yard of Robert Lucas near Foster. Lightning killed a span of mules for markable dry weather products ever John Williams of Imperial, Chase grown. county.

Lexington has voted bonds for the construction of a ditch that will irrigate 30,000 acres of land.

A fifteen-year-old boy named Athens. at Cedar Bluffs, has been arrested and is under $300 bonds for stealing a florse.

The annual meeting of the old settlers' association of Dodge county will be held on the Fremont Chautauqua grounds, September 8.

A fund of $3,500 was raised in the city and county of York for the benefit of the York college. It is now stronger financiaily than ever before.

old, a passenger on the east bound Bur- them the harmless tumbleweed. So hington flyer, feil from the train near Trenton and received fatal injuries.

A convention of spiritualists is called to meet in Lincoln on Friday, September 7. All spiritualists and liberalminded people are invited to attend. York college will open September 11, under the direction of Rev. W. S. Reese, Ph. M., president. The former faculty is retained in the main. The outlook is very encouraging. Roy Wales, the 14-year-old son of Eli Wales, of Aurora, fell fourteen feet out of a tree and broke three ribs and day evening, says the Columbus Argus. was badly injured internally. It is thought he will recover.

G. T. Little and family, near Allison, suffered a severe loss by fire. While visiting away from home their house causes fire and was destroyed, together with its contents.

Columbus is overrun with thieves and thugs. No less than twelve petty robberies were reported in one day. Five thugs broke out of the city jail. Part of the gang was recaptured.

Thieves broke into the residence of Farmer Alex Coleman, near Aurora. while the household was absent and stole three watches, a lot of jewelry and $85 in currency.

The Lincoln Journal says that the managers of the state fair are preparing for the greatest exhibit in many lines that the state has ever witnessed. The irrigated counties are coming down with whole train loads of stuff, and the other counties will try to match them with some of the most re-

August Lessig, of Merrick county, assaulted his step-daughter and was arrested. His wife agreed to withdraw the charges against him, but the girl refused to do so. He drew a revolver and began target practice on the girl and his wife. The wife is shot probably fatally. He tried to kill himself but failed. He fled to Hall county and was captured. The Russlan thistle has made its aypearance in Platte county. Several large specimens have been found and Marriage, however, he found to be a bondage, and he was bored to death brought in and exhibited. They were with it, when, approaching his forfound by the roadside, where they were tieth year, he began to amuse and solpassed and repassed daily by hundreds Isaac Schrock, a man nearly 80 years of country folk, who doubtless thought ace himself with the pleasures of photography-a solace suggested to him far nothing has been found east of the by the accidental winning of a prime sixth principal meridian. Kodak offered as a prize by a certain

The tenth annual convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance union he had subscribed. of the Sixth district met at York for a session of three days. Mrs. M. J. Cooley of Lincoln addressed the convention the first evening. The music of the fad that swept the money from his afternoon and evening sessions was pockets faster than once had done the under the management of I'rof. J. A. had done the necessities of his stable Parks. The district embraces Hamilton, Seward, Polk and York counties. The sad news was received last Friof the death of Michael Hogan, an old resident of l'latte county, living a few miles north of the city. About 5 o'clock vaded the house-turned to a labora-Friday, Mr. Hogan started for the field tory-from mansard to cellar, kodacks with a shotgun in his hand. In climbwere in the salon, tripods in the coring through a wire fence the gun was ridors; madame's own boudolr. even accidentally discharged, the whole load of shot entering his body below seized to provide him with a dark dethe chest, killing him instantly. veloping room-a seizure for which

James Fitzgerald, the night opera- she avenged herself by passing nearly tor at the Missouri Pacific depot in all her time promenading on the arm Falls City, had an experience with of his friend Victor, which, of course, tramps late the other night. He went world to marry at that age.

thing or other every day of the week.

A pungent odor of chemicals per-and to keep the camera safe in a tle girl proudly corrects her, "No, I easy fortune closet for him until to-morrow. and morals, had "Next morning, at the motaken to himself wife at 5 and 30 was to carry them to Basyears; not that he wanted a Meudon, D. Rosny stopped suddenly, wife with any struck his hand to his brow and said particular ferto his wife and Victor: vor, for love or

"Heavens! I have forgotten my acpassion he had tinometre. Go on without me. I'll never known, but solely because it run back and get it and rejoin you in loudly, holds it aloft. was the custom of the men of his an hour."

lowing note:

journal of Paris to which, for years, From that moment his new born passion took on a character of selfishness, of personal indulgence in his thoroughly impatient. of racers training for the Grand Prix. New "films," new "baths." new "objectives," or a patent "new" some-> band behind the door. divan, a silence, a soft sigh.

Quick as a flash de Rosney stood up.

bracket above it, and on the bracket CHILDREN ON THE STAGE MYSTERY OF COLORADO. again a pot of flowering palm. Sometimes They Are Nore Funny Than "Capital! Capital!" he murmured Is Desire l.

Columbuz Fournal.

admiringly, and turnel his attention A child playing in "Driven From next to his arrangements in the corri-Home," says the Boston Globe, is dor, simply the chalking of the exact asked the question in the play. How spot on the floor where the camera old are you, my child?" The lady tripod must stand, proper range of playing her mother is to answer: focus by seating the waiter on the She is 4." The child had been bordivan and finishing the business by rowed for the performance, and when giving him a louis to hold his tongue the lady answers "She is 4" the lit-am 7." A baby borrowed one evening for a scene in which she was to ment of taking the boat that be brought to her mother in a dying condition, having just fallen from a in that region. The scene of the high veratida, is brought on by the old mad, who is just about to hand the dying child to her mother, when

A little girl was asked if she

He climbed to the quay again; would like to go to the theater one R. A. F. Penrose of Chicago univerthe dock and passed from sight under The child was delighted with the was not necessary to give her a re-stop at a shop. Lunch without me. for the deathbed scene. She accom-Will reach you by 2 o'clock. The sun panied one of the ladies of the comwill still be high enough." The mes- pany to the theater that evening and senger bearing this note arrived just | was taken into the dressing room. as the hungry turtle doves-for even She had never been in a theater be-

And the two convives fell to feast- for playing, and, jumping up and other's life blord on the walls This ing with hearty good will, merry and clapping her hands together, she canyon opens into the Black mounamused as two children on a lark. gleefully exclaimed: "Oh, this is a tain district, and seeing nothing But pleased as they were, they were lovely playhouse! What will we pla there to warrant our prospecting we still not half so pleased as the hus- first?" Then, noticing the ladies pushed on to find a favorable spot in chairs pushed back at the same time. me you were coming here to left the canvon about two miles bethen steps on the floor, a low, pro- play and now you are all undress- hind us and hal reached the top of a testing plaint from the springs of the ing to go to bed." She was mesa, when beyond and below us, in quieted by the assurance they gave a remarkably fine country, we saw cover, with the other threw back the dresses before beginning the play. rode to the entrunce of the drive, first squeezing my hand and telling door, shouting his usual sacramental So she was kept in the dressing- and the broken gateway and half- me to stay there until he came out. room. She did not guess what was down fence told their story. Riding I sat over near the door and could

THAT BOTHERING DESIRE.

Respect of All in the Car.

The conductor went through the s accustomed place on the back

"I don't remember. If you did I

"No, I didn't get any change an I

"You should have spoken about it up a purse for this man." said a

"So will I." said another, and in gave you a nickel back."

at the time."

me a dime."

witnesses.

pledged.

principle."

cents.

heavy set passenger.

own pocket," said he.

I'm sure I gave you a dime.'

won't give me any change?"

and out of the well. When the IT IS UNEARTHED BY THE PEN- storm passed the current of air changed and the faithful whistle told ROSE BROTHERS. the story by its changed tune."-St. Louis Globe Democrat. The Dreadful Saspicion Excited by the Sight of a Woman's Hair Cut Off and CHARLIE IS NERVOUS. Strewed Over the Floor-The Story And Taking Ilis filel Along to the Told by the Prospector.

The Black mountain mystery of Colorado has been brought to light through the medium of three Philadelphians, who were out prospecting myster; is in Park county, about 105 miles from Denver, thirty miles fron the railroad and fift; miles the baby vigorously springs up. Jerks from any railroad station, in a secoff the old man's wig, and laughing tion absolutely void of inhabitants, but plentifully irrigated, and reported rich in minerals. Professor waited till the boat had backed from night and play with the company. sity, determinel with his brother. Spancer Penrose and Charles L. the bridge; then entered a neighbor- idea, so she was engaged to pla: Tutt, to start f om Cripple Creek ing cafe and scribbled hastily the fol- little Willie in "East Lynne." It with light baggage and explore and prospect in the Black mountain dis-"Actinometre out of order; must hearsal, as she was only required trict for a week or more, says the Philadelphia Times. The results of the expedition are best told in the professor's own words "I pres me we hal gone about forty miles in our two days' iaunt turtle doves grow hungry if too long fore, and the ght the proposition when we entered the terrible blooly deprived of lunch-were growing was to play gam s. the was elated ean, on, where years before fighting at finding such a large, nice place bands of Indians had seattered each beginning to undress, she cried in a the open fo - camping. It was about At last came the scrape of two distressed tone: "Oh. you told 5 o'clock in the afternoon, we had her that it was necessary for them a good size i and rich-looking house. pulled off with one hand the camera and also for her to change their it was a surprise to all of the We the operating room, and he went in,

Pays Interest on Time Deposits Deatist's Knined His Chances. "I don't think." said the girl with the saile · hat, · that you used Charlie right. There he had gone to a lot of expense getting ready to marry you and you had not given him an inti-

was heralded by the warning shricks of the whistle as the air rushed in mation that you had any other thought than that of becoming his wife. Then you threw hom over in a minute. You've broken his heart and I know it " "Well," said the girl with the silk waist. "I'm sure i thought I wanted to marry him, but i just couldn't. You wouldn't either if you had gone through with what I did.' "Tell me." said the girl with the sailor hat, imperatively.

"You see, Charlie is nervous. 1 think he is a good deal of a coward. too, but that didn't matter much. Only one day he told me that it was tist's and have some teeth fixed, and he sail he just couldn't bear the idea. He talked so much about the pain and all that sort of thing that I told him I would go along and cheer him up. He said that that would be just splendid, and that with me around he was sure he could wnimper. We went up to the dentist's last Saturday afternoon. We had to wait a good while in the ante-room, but Charlie didn't seem to mind it much. I really think that > and I was glad of it. "The time came for him to go into > > for Value Received.

Clarence, the 18-year-old son of U. D. Menzie, near Bromfield, was so badly cut up by a steel corn fodder cutter that it is doubtful if he will recover. He was cut and bruised in a dozen places on his body.

The governor has notified the delegates appointed to attend the farmers' congress in 1893 that they have been reappointed to attend the session of the congress to be held at Parkersburg, W. Va., on October 3.

A pastor of one of the churches at Weeping Water collected a big box of clothing and sent it to a family in the was with great difficulty they made mountains of Colorado who had been their escape, losing their clothing and rendered destitute by a fire that burned their residence and contents.

The new postoffice building in Fre- the mains. mont is rapidly nearing completion. The windows and doors have been put company, composed of Leander Gerin and the interior office fixtures are rard, Charles W. Pearsail, A. Anderbeing put in this week. Workmen have son. Albert Stenger, G. W. Phillips, started to put down the cement walk. Adolph Jaeggi, A. G. Arnold, W. A. Harry Gordon, a young lad living in McAllister, O. T. Roen, Leopold Jacggi

Pawnee City, was driving a machine and John II. Kersenbrock, has filed for cutting corn, when the team be- articles of incorporation in the office of came unmanageable and kicked him off the secretary of state. The capital the cutter. He narrowly escaped death stock of the company is $159,000. The and it will be some time before he is object is to construct canals for irrigaable to be around.

Jack McKenzie, a farmer living near Stanton, was held up on his way home tight to save his money he was slashed with a knife and only gave up his wad at the threat of a buliet.

Samuel Vincent, Frank Burke and Challes Brewer, charged with stealing eight head of hogs from the farmer on General Van Wyck's place, were given a preliminary hearing and were bound over to the district court. In default of $600 bail they were sent to jail.

Ebeneze: Lawrence of Hastings was bound over to the district court in the sum of $400 bail, which he could not furnish. Lawrence was driving a milk wagon and eloped one morning with all his employer's spare change he could secure. He was captured in Michigan. A good-sized row is on between the Thurston Rifles and the Omaha Guards cup, awarded at the state military encampment at Lincoln last week. The guards hold the mug but the rifles have filed a protest and propose to fight it

For the first time in three years the canning factory at Falls City is running. It is operated by Anderson & Son of Oregon, Mo. Two hundred acres of tomatoes were planted last spring, but owing to the drouth the output of the factory will be curtailed one-half.

four miles from Atchison, went to town to get a buggy repaired. He had hitched up and laid down the lines. when the team started. He sprang for the lines and got into a wheel. The horses ran and he was carried several rods in the wheel. He was picked up dead

The Western Normal college. Lin- and brain to celebrate the day in such prosperous year. The next term comtended. The cause of the great popu- midst." larity of this school is it is one of the best in the country and its rates are in accordance with the times. This is the year to go to school, and there is no better place than the Western Normal college. Circulars free. Address Wm. McCowan, president, Lincoln, Neb.

The Webster County Agricultural set the tongues of the gossips waginto the waiting room to put out the light, when he was assaulted by two ging, and was finally, this gossip, brought by a friend to the photogramen who had been sleeping there. He made a good fight until one of them pher's ears.

"Yes," answered he tranquilly, "it gave him a knock-down blow from behind. Before he could recover they reis true my wife and Victor take not lieved him of $22.50 and decamped. the slightest interest in my experi-The West Point creamery, the first ments. But what they do, talk of, amuse themselves with or approve of. of its kind in the west, is in ashes. Fire started from the engine room. Nothis their own affair. Moreover, if they ing was saved. The expensive machinwant to marry each other, divorce, ery, furniture, tools, milk, butter and too, is theirs, but they must first arcream were all destroyed. Twenty range to furnish me with a reasonable employes sleep in the building and it pretext. I ask nothing better than to find myself alone again in my own personal effects No water was availhouse, with no one to mix up my botable, the building being too far from | tles and upset my proofs." One day-it is always the case-the

The Columbus Power and Irrigation lovers committed an imprudence. Yielding to the solicitations of the maniac, they had consented to pose for him in the garden, in broad daylight, arm in arm with each other. And while the husband dallie1 in an interminable "sighting" under his square of velvet, Victor. forgetting that he could see them through his ting and power purposes.

Frick & Dolezal are preparing their brief in the murder case of the State vs. milk-white throat. from Norfolk and robbed of $300, the Chas. Carleton, which will be heard proceeds of his wheat crop. In the by the supreme court at the September term. The brief is probably the largest ever prepared in a Dodge county budged. case, and will make over 100 printed pages The argument is to secure, if possible, a new trial for the defendant on the ground of errors in the former trial, and to show that the testimony in the case did not warrant a sentence of death.

A sad case of youthful suffering has come to public notice. says a Berlin dispatch, in the case of Mary Meyers, the ten-year-old daughter of a farmer living near that place. Last spring she was in the field where they were burning stalks, when her clothing caught tire and she was horribly burned about the body. For four months the parents tried home treatment until gangrene had eaten almost to ber vitals and she as to which should have the governor's was almost doubled together. She will probably die.

> James Meyers of Odell was arrested by Sherifi Kyd of Gage county on a warrant charging him with embezzlement. Mevers was taken before Judge Eourne, who released him on bonds of $1,000, L. A. Scroggs of Beatrice, formerly of Odell, appearing as security for Meyer's appearance for preliminary hearing. The accused is well known over the state. He has been a resident of the county for many years and has

Mr. Tassler, an old gentleman living Odell banks and merchantile houses. The governor has issued his proclamation calling attention to the fact that the first Monday in September is date this year is Monday, September 3. He recommends that "all places of business be closed. in order that opportunity be given those who toil by hand

coln, Nebraska, has had a wonderfully a manner as is calculated to recognize and teach the worth of honest effort, to mences Tuesday. September 4th, and elevate and dignify labor and improve already promises to be very largely at- the condition of wage earners in our

> While the outlook is very gloomy, says the Arapahoe Mirror, yet we are pleased to say that few are giving way to despondency. In fact nearly everyshelter, fuel, etc., for the winter. We

"Be still! Don't stir!"

It was 11 o'clock the night of that same day. The lamp in the commis- vealed Lady Isabelle bent over the of life. era stationed between them, the magliberty-he thought so, at least-conother.

"Yes, M. le Commissaire," said he. "I insist upon developing the slide here in your presence in order that its accuracy cannot be questioned; that no one, when I apply for my divorce. as I certainly shall do at once, can possibly accuse me of having rethe book of "Fast Lynne" in her touched it. The idea you see, is such hand. a new one, so thoroughly fin de siecle. perhaps, also, a trifle American. Instead of stupidly riddling the culorits with bullets from a revolver, I snap a camera at them and, voila! the thing is done." And with infinite precautions, he drew the slide from the frame and black chamber, bent ardently forward plunged it into the reservoir. The and dropped a hasty kiss upon the commissaire bent to look over his tempting nape of the young wife's shoulder; the opal of the gelatine was coloring, the image appearing----She uttered a stifled erv, but the But suddealy the operator tore the operator under his black square never you a dime?'

proof from the bath, held it between him and the lamp, gazed blankly a "He saw nothing, thank heaven!" second and a strangled cry escaped murmured, relieved, the two lovers his throat. Had they moved, had the clasping tenderly each other's hands camera not caught them, had the They were wrong; he had seen and actinometre really refused to work? was laughing in his sleeve at an idea Oh, no; worse than that. The picture was perfect: the window, the bracket, the flowering palm. the big blue curtain, so carefully arranged as background for the scene, onlythe curtain, a solid blue wall, without a wrinkle, hung now in front of the divan. If Victor was kissing again, his, De Rosny's wife, no on s was the wiser, for no one could see it.

Miss Fainter Shot the Traup.

Painter of Ho sewell, Pa. one evening recently, and one of them received a pistol bullet in his arm. Miss Painter, who is a music teacher. was driving from the home of one of her scholars to Hopewell, in a lonely part of the road, when a man, evidently a tramp, jumped out from the roadside and commanded her to get out of the wayon. For an answer Miss Painter raised a revolver and shot, and with a cry of pain the man dropped his hold on the horse, with a bullet in his wrist. At this moment another man ran out to catch the horse and the young woman fired at him also, but missed. The didn't care; he had other things at horse became frightened and rushed down the road before the second man could stop it. Since then a diligent search has been made for the tramps, but they have not yet been found.

> A VI P.o. cistor. In the mathematics class at Williams college Professor S-, who was some man "squeaking" in a small I will return the nickel."

hear the conversation. The dentist going on on the stage until her scene on through we approached the house. took one of those horrid pokey little came. She was placed in the cot to to find the front door open as well d'e. When the curtain rose it re- as several windows, but not a sign things and pried around in Charlie's mouth. Then he said there were saire's office was covered with a yel- dying chi'd. Underneath the cot . Directly in front of us on enter. two teeth that would have to be Authorized Capital of - $500,000 pulled. I heard Charlie give a great low paper, and with the tell-tale cam- was a very stout lady to speak little ing the hall were two rows of book Willie's lines. She was concealed shelves, covered with dust and holdme come in the room and stay there istrate and Phillippe de Rosny, his from the audience by the long drap- ing only about a dozed musty books. erv of the couch. When the cur. Two rooms openel to the right and until the teeth were out. I didn't quered at last, faced gravely each tain was up, and the little girl left respectively from this hall stairsake. When I went in there was strained her head around and saw case. The one to the right had evi-Charlie lying back in the chair with that there was an audience there she dently been used as a library o a den his mouth wide open and I was sprang from the deathbed, taking of some sort. Built in the wall was the drapery with her, ran from the a mineral cabin t containing some of stage, and all that was left was Lady its specimens, while the rest were shocked. He is a fairly good-looking fellow usually, but with that mouth open he is a fright I couldn't en-Isabelle, looking in surprise after thrown all over the floor. On the dure living with a man who looked the vanishing little figure, and the wall were a riling crop. a pair of like that, so I just left the place and fat lady, lying under the couch with foils and masks, and a mirror. It sent Charlie back the ring." was decidedly strange, not another bit of furniture outside of a rug adorned this dust covered room. We King Milan of Servia once went to walked out into the hall again and Caused the Man at the Strap to Lose the into the other r.om, and it was there the hotel of a distinguished lady who was giving a bazaar for the benwe got our surprise. efit of the poor children of Paris. As "In the center of the floor lay soon as the king appeared upon the car collecting fares and then took long tresses of brown hair, surely a scene, she advanced toward him with woman's. Two strands of the hair a splendid silver salver in her hand. platform. Presently he started for- were thick and pressed together. on which was beautifully emblazoned ward to get a new fare on the front They looked as if they had been a the family arm . On it lay a pretty platform, according to the Chicago double handful squeezed up and httle bunch of violets. "How much, Record, and the man hanging on the thrown there, and the ends were cut madame?" asked the king. "Twentystrap said, "Let's see, didn't I give in a agget manner by a dull knife. four louis, sire," was the soft re-Well, we had come there for mineral. sponse. Milan paid her the sum she not murder, and the whole scene was asked with a courteous bow, took appalling. We didn't stop to investhe salver from her hands, placed tigate further, but concluded that the bouquet in his button-hole and the open country several miles bewalked off with the tra; under his yond would suit us better for bunkarm. - Argonaut. ing out that night. It was getting

"Do you mean to say that you dark outside, but we had good op-Diamond Polishes Diamon !

portunity for seeing kitchen utensils The art of cutting and polishing | A. ANDERSON, "I'm always careful about these scattered all over the ground Exdiamonds is a ve y old one in the things. and I don't believe you gave pensive things they had been, but East, and the early jewelers of India were now covered with rust. We and China knew how to dress dia-The conductor went forward and took a peep into the barn. It was monds by means of diamond dust the man addressed the other passen. as deserted and ghastly looking as long before Europeans did. It was gers. He said he didn't mind losing the house. It was after we had a Belgian lapidary, one Berguin of a nickel, but he didn't propose to be eaten our supper and sat down in Burges, who accidentally discovered, swindled. The passengers appeared our blankets before the fire, about 9 in 1455, how one diamond can be embored and most of them watched o'clock I imagine, that the breaking ployed to polish another. It was he the scenery. He went on talking of a twig close by brought us all to who constructed the first polishingabout taking numbers and getting our feet. It was a prospector like wheel, wherewith, by means of diaourselves, with his burro loaded up mond powder, he could dress dia-"I'll give a cent toward making with his outfit and his only burden a monds as well as other stones could be dressed by emery.

New York, 43,

server-

Washington is to have a muscum

"Helio, partners; what luck?" When asked how the new camp Discounting a Nightingale. a moment the amount of 5 cents was looked he became communicative, if It is an evening company and the not encouraging, and questions and banker's daughter is about to sing. "Gentlemen," said he, "this is no answers brought us up to the interjoking matter. I'm standing for a esting one to us-that deserte i house. feelingly, "listen to me. Don't sing. " Well, boys, 'said our visitor, .! If your fiance should hear you he don't know much about that ratty Just then the conductor cane might insist on half my fortune as back and another argument ensued o'd house, and care d - less. You your dowry."-Fliegende Blaetter.

"Rather than have any trouble see, I watched it four years ago over "Il just give you 5 cents out of my by Sherman's, that's about two miles over the mountains I saw it go up "N, sir: no. sir. I don't want and the owner was always around.

Winchester.

any of your money. I want my 5 He was one of them English dude arran ements, wore an overgrown cap "For heaven's sake give him his and yellow boots-a kind of a sport. five cents," said the heavy man, who Never took no notice of noboly. Had one of them God Almighty airs with was evidently looking for trouble "I take this money because it be- him. Sheeman and me were on longs to me," said the outraged pas- the range that year, that is the senger. "I wouldn't accept it unless year she arrievd. She was a "bute" sure. He had lived out here and got it was mine." the house up, and speat money on He was silent for a block and then rarely made the subject of college he said: "If any man here will it, for they hauled the stuff jests, was excessively annoyed by testify that I didn't give him a dime from Balfour and Alma. Then he left for three months and came back them many a time riding togethe . Prof. Dewar has demonstrated that

COLUMBUS, NEB., -HAS AN-

gasp. and he asked the dentist to let | Paid in Capital. 90,000 OFFICERS. want to a bit, but I went for Charlie's | C. H. SHELDON, Pres't.

H. P. H. OEHLRICH, Vice Pres. CLARK GRAY, Cashler DANIEL SCHRAM, Ass't Cash -----DIRECTORS. H. M. WINSLOW, H. P. H. OEHLRICH, W. A. MCALLISTER, C. H. SHELDON, JONAS WELCH, CARL RIENKE.

STOCKHOLDERS.

The state of the s
S. C. GRAY,	J. HENRY WURDEMAN,
GERHARD LOSEKE,	HENRY LOSEKE,
CLARK GRAY.	GEO. W. GALLEY,
DANIEL SCHRAM,	A. F. H. OEHLRICH.
FRANK RORER.	J. P. BECKER ESTATE,
	BECKER.

Bank of deposit; interest allowed on time deposits: buy and sell exchange on United States and Europe, and buy and sell avail-able securities. We shall be pleased to re-ceive your business. We solicit your patronage.

OFFICERS.

J. H. GALLEY. President Vice Pres'L O. T. ROEN, Cashier.

DIRECTORS. G. ANDERSON. P. ANDERSON, HENBY BAGATZ, JACOB GREISEN JAMES G. REEDER. 10

2 Statement of the Condition at the Close of Business July 12, 1893.

RESOURCES.

Loans and Discounts. Real Estate Furniture and Fix-..$ 241,467 57 16,784 90 15,200 00 "Laura," her father implores, Due from other banks..... $37,876 31 Total. $333,196 36

LIABILITIES.

FACTS AND EVENTS.	Capital Stock paid in
The annual rainfall of St. Louis is said to be 12 inches: of Lon Ion, 25: of	Circulation
Naw York 43	Total

UNDERTAKER Coffins : and : Metallic : Cases ! Repairing of all kinds of Uphol stery Goods.

200

0

RENT ARDENTLY OVER.

been connected at various times with that had suddenly come to him, a capital farce! It amused him so much designated as labor day and that the that he upset his water bath and ruined his proof; but this time he that moment than "proofs" in his head. That same morning at table, Victor, as usual, lunching with them. De Rosny said to the culprits: "In weather so beautiful as this the light is simply superb to operate in the open air. What do you say to going to-morrow to eat a fritter at Bas-Meudon?"

And as the day was still young and one is laying plans for the future and the others willing, he set out at once, many are busy planning to secure feed, alone, for the restaurant to select and rubber bladder, says Harper's Bazar. The only response was a groan and she was with him I've seen righer sound. rent a cabinet. It opened upon a The noise seemed to come from near from the heavy-set man. are pleased to chronicle these facts relglass covered gallery so arranged eiety is making the bieycle rates a spe- ative to our people, and the courage that it formed this gallery. a huge projecting window to the cabinet prothese dates $600 to $1,000 in premiums that when the angel gets ready to per, and overlooked a wide expanse of smile again this particular part of Ne- sunny terrace stretching between the men of the southwestern portion of the braska will be found ready to reap a cabinet and the river. Nothing could rich reward. have been better for his plan. De Nels Johnson left at this office, says

Two tramps waylaid Miss Lizzie cial feature of the fair to be held at and activity of mind and body which Red Cloud September 5, 6 and 7. On they are exhibiting proves conclusively will be distributed among the wheelstate

Nehawka was considerably stirred up the other day by the arrest of one of the Fremont Tribune, a sample of su- waiter: its citizens for the alleged selling of spirituous drinks without a license. Deputy Hubbard, who made the arrest. also subpenaed a number of witnesses. No one knew anything of such offense that the total weight of the beets will having been committed, and the matter was dismissed.

The camp meeting of the order called That would be 141 tons, which at $5 "The Church of the Living God" have per ton would be $720. That figures disbanded and returned to their homes out pretty well for a dry season, but of me a blind, please. Eh? You have after an encampment of ten days, in course the beets have not yet been dug none? A curtain, then, a blue curtain Nemaha county. They profess to have and weighed and delivered. the power of healing and sanctification Two hundred tons of hay belonging stairs as I entered." in their own hands. About 10: people to W. R. Williams were burned on his were present.

having been adjudged insane. Captain Kent was the original founder of Courtions on billions of dollars.

house, and F. L. Nesbit of Fremont in fields, the substance and nutriment has secured the contract for putting in dries out and the stalks become hard the furniture. The seating and heat- and worthless. The experiment will effect of a theatrical "accessory," for aparatus will cost $1,500. pay you.

"This beautiful spot. Has no one car beet from his farm east of the city. It weighs nine pounds and as he has ever attempted a photograph here? had one acre counted and finds there No? Eh bien, then, I'll try it to-mor are 32,000 beets on it, it will be seen row; the pictures of some friends of mine. But the light is not right. I be 288,000 pounds-provided they are must change it, it must come from all as large as the sample submitted. above; yet if I cover the whole bay my proof will be too black. Bring preferred. like those I saw down

And there, in his shirt sleeves in farm ten miles northwest of Beatrice. the brilliant sunlight, he worked for Captain Kent, one of the oldest of Farmers, do you know how to pre- two hours arranging and rearranging Omaha's old-timers, was taken to the serve your corn fodder? Yes, says one, his curtains, whistling and humming assylum last week by Sheriff Drexel'. I put up my fodder in large shocks; anto himself like a worker whose heart other one says. I put up my fodder in land Beach. It has been the captain's long shocks and my corn fodder always delusion that he has an English estate, comes out bright for winter feeding. to which he has fallen heir, worth bill- Stack your fodder before it becomes thoroughly dried. It will go through in the corner of the bay directly fac-The school board of Osmord has a curing process like hay; it softens swarded to the United States School the corn stalks and cattle will eat it and Furniture company of Chicago the more greedily and cleaner. In the contract to put the seats in the school usual way of shocking the corn fodder the moment the door opened. Back of the sofa he draped another blue curtain to give it the "prepared"

not to tell "

Professor S-'s angr; face grew calmer and with evident pleasure he replied: "I respect your scruples, Hollis: they do you credit, and should shame the guilty man, sir."-N. Y. Journal.

A Born Gentleman.

The small boy was at a table where his mother was not near to take care of him. and a lady next to him volunteered her services.

"Let me cut your steak for you, she said: "if I can cut it the way you like it," she added with some degree of doubt.

"I thank you' he responded, acis in his work, his mouth full of nails cepting her courtesy; "I shall like it and bammering away ardently. Then the way you cut it, even if you do he had brought up from the smoking not cut it the way I like it," and the room below an old sofa. With his lady actually reached over and kissed own hands he installed it invitingly him

An Appropriate Title. ing the entrance to the cabinet so "I think you do well to call your that it would be the first thing visible book 'Fugitive Verses.'

"I'm glad you approve."

"Yes, it's very appropriate, though mother. I think it's a great pity they don't stood a table in the corner, with a escape." Juage.

certain Jack Hollis, and after "I want what's mine and no more querying each of his neighbors and said he, after another pause. "The conductor's a poor man, receiving a negative answer Professor S - said sternly: "Hollis, do you too," responded some malicious perknow who is making that unbeara- son.

ble noise?" Hollis, who had been This invited another speech. Put the guilty person all along, assumed he got off at the next corner and calmly: "I know, sir, but I prefer relief when he did so.

Level of Two Seau

When attention was first called to the practicability of a canal from dude and the old man had followed end. the Mediterranean to the Red sea them, but that's nobody's business. (by the first Napoleon) a corps of surveyors was sent out to "run the in that shanty over night for all the levels." They reported that the gold in Colerado for the d- place scheme would necessarily have to be is haunted. abandoned because the level of the Red sea was 30 feet 61 inches higher than that of the Mediterranean That report put a damper on the ern California a few years ago," said canal project for several years. In Matthew L. Gregory of Minneapolis.

1817, however, some "doubting "I came across an interesting curi-Thomases" prevaile | on the "great | osity known as the "whistling well." powers" to resurvey the route. It was on a farm and had been dug a

England sent Robert Stephenson: number of years previous and aban-Austria, M. Talbot, and France. Sig. doned, as no water had a peared. A Negrelli They found that the two short time after it hal been dug it seas had exactly the same level, and was noticed that a strong current of the Suez canal is the result of their air kept rushing in and out of the labors.

A Mind-Wrecking Task.

despairingly from her.

"I was writing to Herbert, and tried to spell his college yell."

and d - me. I never saw such hair metals around their inignetic quality as that gal hal. It was just about ties and increase in strength by dimtwo years ago this spring, they both inution of temperature. Iron at 180 skipped God knows where. Some degries can endure double its normal say they didn't skip. That's not my tensile strain.

business At an : rate another Eng-There is an old landmark on the lishman, an old fellow, put in an ap- Marietta & North Georgia railroad Rosny, delighted, demanded of the an air of stoical bravery and said everybody on the car sighel with per ance and that's the last of the near Elijay, which is often pointed young fellow an | that girl with the out to passengers. It is a grave on fine locks. Now some say the old the side of a steep bill. Over it a litman was her husbanl, and she had the wo den house has been built, and sk pped with that English legging a lightning rol is atta hel to either

> Consular reports show that the con-Enough for me I wouldn't put up sumption of Egyptian cotton by the New England cotton mills has grown from nothing ten years ago to more than 40,000 large bales, corresponding in weight to 60,013 American bales. Petter Than a Steam Fogaorn. and approximately value 1 at $3,-"While traveling through South-001.0.0

Lemon juice, squeezed in California. treated with a preservative process and sent East by the barrel, is sold in earthen jugs containing from half a gallon to ten gallon . It is used for all sorts of domestic purposes, for lemonade and for making mixed drinks at the bar an l in clubs.

One of the curio-ities of Stinkingwell, and a flat stone with a hole in water canon. Wyoming is the alum the center was plac d over it. Into cave. The cave appears to be an ex-"It is impossible." she exclaimed, this hole a whistle was astened, tinct geyser and is about fifteen feet "I am foiled," and she threw the pen which changed its tane as the air across and easily accessible. The alum was drawn in or blown ont. and it is along the sides and about six feet "What is the matter?" asked her was soon found to be a reliable in thickness. The country is a former weather barometer. In pleasant geyser basin, of which nothing reweather the whistle was silent, but mains but hot sulphur springs and the if a storm was brewing its approach extinct craters.

COLUMBUS, NEBRASKA Ltf

IS PREPARED TO FURNISH ANYTHING REQUIRED OF A

CLUBS

-WITH THE-

BEST PAPERS

COUNTRY.